

TUBERCULOSIS VICTIMS REST IN SOUTHWEST

Denver, Colo. (AP)—Hundreds of sanitariums, hospitals, convalescent homes and boarding houses, in tents and cabins, in the mountains and on the deserts of Colorado and the great southwest, thousands of persons are "chasing the cure."

They are victims of tuberculosis of the lungs, seeking to recover, or at least to learn how to live with their affliction. For the most part they are taking the "rest cure," relying on nature to form new tissue over the affected parts of their lungs.

Their mode of living is complete relaxation. The new tissue cannot grow and cover over the "spots" in their lungs unless they remain absolutely quiet. Consequently, they constitute a vast, unoccupied army, a sort of negative factor in the communities where they reside.

Although many of them contend such unmitigated "rest" becomes difficult after the novelty of it has worn off, the life appeals to some as a lazy man's paradise, which accounts for the occasional presence in their ranks of "gold-brickers."

That picturesque appellation is applied to those who are not really ill, but merely pretending, usually for the purpose of avoiding work, sometimes to justify their self-pity. The "gold-brickers" occasionally are found in government hospitals where the service and attention are free.

To a large extent, the ill isolate themselves, take no part in community affairs. Some even are denied the privilege of reading, that being a form of complete relaxation to the program of complete relaxation.

Many are helpless, but, paradoxically, few are hopeless. They seize eagerly each bit of information about tuberculosis, research, and having nothing else to do, many of them achieve surprising knowledge of the science of treating the disease. Many of the doctors and nurses themselves are tubercular, but have learned how to live with the disease, realize their limitations, and never exert to the point that would cause a breakdown.

Because of the requirement of absolute relaxation, they can work up but little enthusiasm and interest in their life. They realize they are not to be bothered with them. So they live in a world of their own, most of them dwelling on the past, but some of them concentrating on the glittering prospect of the future, when perhaps science will discover a treatment for them neither so tedious nor so uncertain as the long-drawn-out "rest cure."

CAIRO BUILDS AUTO ROADS TO PYRAMIDS

Cairo (AP)—The development of motor traffic in the land of the Pharaohs has necessitated the speeding up of road extension. Alexandria has completed a large part of the roads to Abukir and Corniche, and they provide an excellent surface for the motorist. Cairo also shows its willingness to adapt itself to the era of automobiles by improving the roads to Heliopolis and the Pyramids.

But these efforts do not keep pace with the needs of the traffic. Parking conditions in Alexandria are anything but satisfactory. Cairo is better off in that respect owing to its wider streets.

The oil companies decided to do something to help towards solving the motorist's difficulties and are erecting service stations at all favorable points. A good service station is already functioning in Heliopolis, and the program of future development includes not only Cairo and Alexandria but also such provincial towns as Tanis and Fayum.

Just 101, He Needs a Job

Beaumont, Texas, (AP)—Because the boss lets him out of every new job he gets when his age leaks out, W. M. Kearnes complains that he is being driven to seek charity.

Kearnes is emphatic in his assertion that he is not old—only 101.

"I was born on a ship crossing the Atlantic in 1828, and all my life I've been living in Texas, in McLennan county, near Ware. But I've been in nearly every country and part in the world," Kearnes declared.

LABOR PEERS UPON LIST FOR HONORS

Santo Domingo (AP)—More labor peers are expected to be included in the New Year's honors list. At present there are but 13 peers in the house of lords.

So far, it is understood, the policy of the labor party is to make only life peers, thus confining appointments mainly to bachelors or prominent politicians with no heirs. It is understood that Noel Buxton, minister of agriculture; William Adamson, secretary for Scotland, and Sir Robert Newman, an independent member from Exeter, are now being considered.

TEXAS WOMAN PLANS ENTRY IN GOVERNOR RACE

Austin, Tex. (AP)—A newspaper woman has announced her candidacy for the governorship of Texas—a year in advance of the 1930 primaries.

Miss Katie Daffan's campaign will mark her debut in the political arena. It may be the climax to an active literary career and many years of leadership in Texas women's organizations.

Sponsoring her candidacy is the Texas division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, of which she has been president four times. This second woman to seek the rank of chief executive in the Lone Star state may be opposed by Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, who was governor before Dan Moody, the incumbent.

Some political prophets say that Mrs. Ferguson again will be a candidate. She was defeated for reelection last year.

The tradition of the men politicians, true to date, do not take Miss Daffan's candidacy seriously. Neither did they take Mrs. Ferguson's aspirations to mean anything a few years ago.

At present Miss Daffan is literary editor of the Houston Chronicle. She has been state president of the Texas Woman's Press association, state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution, state secretary of the General Federation of Woman's Clubs and superintendent of the Confederate Woman's home.

Miss Daffan probably will find herself in a large field of candidates. Politicians predict a multi-cornered race to determine who shall succeed Governor Moody.

WISCONSIN PRISON GETS BRUSH TRADE

Waupun, Wis. (AP)—A prison pastime here for four years has developed into a brush business greater than the penitentiary is able to accommodate.

Brushes made of sisal fiber and sold as souvenirs to prison visitors are the foundation of the business which Warden Oscar Lee started as a means of keeping more prisoners occupied.

The prison is 300,000 brushes behind its orders today, despite the fact that two months the warden has been returning $50 to $150 a day to individuals and firms wanting the brushes.

Fifty tons of material obtained recently encroached on the working quarters of the brush makers. Lee is of the opinion that the prison's unemployment problem could be solved by this industry if he had sufficient space for the workers.

Amity—Miss Vera Broth, who has been spending the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Broth, left for Marshfield Saturday, where she is a teacher in the grammar schools.

French Ladies Is Judge's Aim

Nuneaton, England, (AP)—Pleasing ladies, no matter how small the request, seems to be the policy of the local bench.

A woman applied for a maintenance order against her husband because she said that he was making eight dollars a week, although not employed for full time.

The bench ordered the husband to pay his wife two cents a week, eight cents a month, or a little less than a dollar a year.

CHIANG WINS RESPECT FOR COMPROMISES

Peiping (AP)—Residents of North China are revealing a growing admiration for General Chiang Kai-shek as a result of the recent civil wars in several Chinese provinces.

Their admiration seems to be based more on his skill in compromise than his ability as a military leader, although it is admitted that he has great military skill.

Compromise has been a characteristic particularly admired in China during the centuries. The Chinese do not see the need of killing a lot of men in battle when they can settle a dispute by mutual concessions.

The successful leader has usually been the man most skilled in working out compromise.

General Chiang Kai-shek, it is agreed, has developed the art of compromise to a fine point. He has used troops only so long as absolutely necessary to quell revolts, and has then conceded a point here and a point there, sufficient to end the revolt and to keep his government intact.

FRENCH HORSES REFUSE TO BOW TO AUTO INFLUX

Paris (AP)—The automobile is not replacing the horse in France, an official survey reveals.

The total number of horses in France this year is estimated to be nearly the same as in 1913, when the automobile was not a serious menace to horse-flesh.

The government survey shows that in 1913 there were approximately 3,200,000 horses in France. During the war millions of them were killed in action while many were eaten for food.

The years following the war looked dark and it seemed for some time that the fields of France would no longer see any horses. It was thought only the rich could afford a horse as a riding mount while the few left over would be sought by the museums.

But the farmers of France have staged a great comeback. They refused to introduce tractors and instead started breeding new herds of horses. As a result France is now well furnished with horse-flesh.

It is also stated that more horses are butchered at an earlier age because the public demands more tender meat. Horse flesh still remains a popular meat in France and special butcher shops proudly bear great metal horns' heads over their doors.

That France intends to continue increasing the number of her horses is evident from last year's export and import figures. France imported 17,000 horses and exported only 7,372.

She Lost 19 Pounds of Fat In 27 Days

During October a woman in Montana wrote—"My first bottle of Kruschen Salts lasted almost 4 weeks and during that time I lost 19 pounds of fat—Kruschen is all you claim for it—I feel better than I have for years."

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat."—Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, gland, nerve and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

If you want to lose fat with speed get an 83c bottle of Kruschen Salts from Perry's drug store or any live drugist anywhere in America with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.
