

SPANISH WAR GROUPS PLACE NEW OFFICERS

Woodburn—Officers of Elias Hutchinson camp and auxiliary held joint installation of officers Monday night at I. O. O. F. hall in the presence of a large number of visitors from Portland, Bend and Port Orford. State Department Commander Clark of Bend, acted as installing officer for the camp and the following officers were seated:

Commander, John Blosser; senior vice commander, Charles Whitney; junior vice commander, Jess Kelley; Adjutant, G. H. Benjamin; Quartermaster, Eugene Mosberger; Officer of the day, J. G. Harrington; officer of the guard, James Hanson; chaplain, Charles McDougall; patriotic instructor, Willard Stevens; senior color sergeant, Robert Hill; junior color sergeant, W. H. Barrett.

Officers for the auxiliary were installed by State Department President Audrey Gray as follows: President, Mrs. Olva Barrett; vice president, Mrs. Adda Harrington; chaplain, Mrs. Mabel Benjamin; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ida Mosberger; patriotic instructor, Mrs. Mary Covey; historian, Mrs. Ella Cannan; conductress, Mrs. Nettie McDougall; assistant conductress, Miss Beryl Blosser; guard, Miss Frances McDougall; assistant guard, Miss Ursula Mosberger.

Proceeding the installation the ritualistic work of the auxiliary was exemplified by members of Scout auxiliary of Portland.

The evening closed with a banquet. Among the visitors present were State Department President Audrey Gray, and the following members of Scout Young auxiliary of Portland: Ann Anderson, Pearl Osborn, Viola Unfelt, Irene Campbell, Blanche Lundberg, Catherine Rittsperger, Elizabeth Grea, Maude Ross, Bernice Anderson, Hulda Keny, Lois Brand, Jane Monroe, Jessie Mesner, Mayme Love, Fannie Olansen, Berta Helfrick, Bell Amacher, Mrs. Ellsworth and State Department Commander E. Clarke of Bend; P. Tichenor of Port Orford; Conrad Lundberg, Amacher, Melner, Brant, Anderson and Olansen of Portland.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS HELD FOR BROOKS

Brooks—The Clubbers' club which consists of the upper grades in the Brooks public school and is under the supervision of Principal Wayne Harding and Mrs. Leta Wallace, has chosen as its officers for the next six weeks, the following:

President, Mitchell Lowery; vice president, Gene Mills; secretary-treasurer, Frances Colyer; monitors for cleaning the school yard, putting up the flag, for health and cleaning the desks are appointed each week. Health monitors this week are Tommy Ogura, and Clayton Gattion; yard monitors, John Lesher, Billie Bishop, Gifford Wright, and Addie Colyer; desk monitors, Clara Unoelino and Lawrence Susee.

PRIESTS HAVE CLASSES

St. Angel—Beginning the first of this year, Rev. Fr. Mark, O. S. B., of the Mt. Angel college, is teaching a class in psychology, and Rev. Fr. Odilio, O. S. B., is teaching English composition to the Mt. Angel Academy normal students.

MOVE TO OSWEGO LAKE

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Briggs have moved to their new home near Oswego Lake where they have attractive court apartments. Their wedding was quietly solemnized a few weeks ago in Salem. Mrs. Briggs was Miss Doris Smith of Marion and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith of Marion. Harold Briggs is the son of Mrs. B. O. Briggs of Turner and in the employ of Colonel Hoyer of Portland.

ARM BROKEN AGAIN

Wacunda—Britt Aspinwall broke a small bone in his right arm while cranking his automobile. This is the second time he has broken his arm in the same way.

COAST FISH CAUGHT

Wacunda—Frank Pelton and George Lemery motored to Woods, Ore., near Pacific City beach on Friday and spent the day fishing. They returned home that evening with a catch of four big steelhead salmon.

RETURNED TO HOSPITAL

North Santiam—Leland Kiehl, who was injured at the Hammond mill some time ago, was taken back to the hospital Monday. It was reported that one of his legs had not healed as it should.

KING MAKES VISIT

Aurora—Will R. King of Los Angeles, Cal., stopped over on his way from Portland and spent the night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler.

ARM BROKEN AGAIN

Wacunda—Britt Aspinwall broke a small bone in his right arm while cranking his automobile. This is the second time he has broken his arm in the same way.

COAST FISH CAUGHT

Wacunda—Frank Pelton and George Lemery motored to Woods, Ore., near Pacific City beach on Friday and spent the day fishing. They returned home that evening with a catch of four big steelhead salmon.

RETURNED TO HOSPITAL

North Santiam—Leland Kiehl, who was injured at the Hammond mill some time ago, was taken back to the hospital Monday. It was reported that one of his legs had not healed as it should.

KING MAKES VISIT

Aurora—Will R. King of Los Angeles, Cal., stopped over on his way from Portland and spent the night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler.

ARM BROKEN AGAIN

Wacunda—Britt Aspinwall broke a small bone in his right arm while cranking his automobile. This is the second time he has broken his arm in the same way.

Note Burning Is Featured At Annual Congregational Meeting Silverton Church

Silverton—The annual church meeting was held at the Christian church Monday evening, opening with a 6 o'clock pot luck dinner. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Bible school superintendent, James Bonner; assistant superintendent, Frank Powell; church clerk, Esie Specht; financial secretary, Mary Andrews; treasurer, Ted Hobart; Miss Dolan was added to the board of trustees.

J. L. Merryman, E. E. Oeder and F. J. Hansen were elected elders. Ed Geer, Clarence Plank, William Bailey, Ernest Kluman and Ivan Talbot were elected deacons. Seven deacons were also elected as were some members of the board re-elected.

The main feature of the evening was the burning of the paragon note for $107.50. The old church note given at the time of the dedication of the church in 1907 which had been cleared several years ago, was also burned at this time as a matter of sentiment.

Mrs. John W. Hoyer, the only charter member present, lit a match to the notes which were brought forth by Mary Andrews, the financial secretary.

The program for the Bible and Sunday school classes work was adopted.

Miss Leta Bahm was lauded for her faithfulness as the church pianist. Frank Bahm was given a vote of thanks for the splendid individual attendance record he has kept throughout the year.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY MILL CITY CLUB

Mill City—"The Happy Go Lucky" girls' club met Monday evening at Mildred Hoyer's and had election of officers.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Mildred Hoyer; vice-president, Alice Verning; treasurer, Kathryn Wachter; secretary, Sylvia Keenan; song leader, Theo Rogers; reporter, Alyce Verning.

At an early hour lunch was served, while preparing lunch for the club Mildred Hoyer nearly amputated her finger on a can, causing much excitement. The guests present were Misses Alyce Verning, Sylvia Keenan, Kathryn Wachter, Theo Rogers, Mary Crucker, Mrs. Othello Heath and the hostess, Miss Mildred Hoyer.

PIONEER OF VALLEY OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Hopmore—Mrs. N. LaFontaine celebrated her 79th birthday anniversary Tuesday with the dinner being brought from Portland by her daughters, Mrs. Rosecrantz, Mrs. Ashwarden and Mrs. Cummings. A large number of other relatives attended. Mrs. LaFontaine was born at St. Paul and has made her home here for a number of years.

WEDDING GIFT FOR PRESIDENT OF CLUB

Independence—At the regular Monday luncheon of the Lions club in the social halls of the Presbyterian church a good attendance was present. E. N. Lindquist, president of the club, presided over the business meeting which followed the luncheon.

Members of the club presented Lindquist with an electric toaster as a wedding gift from the club. Lindquist returned Sunday with his bride from Missoula, Mont. and will they make their home here. He spoke briefly of his trip east and his visit with relatives and friends in Chicago.

MRS. BURCH BETTER

Dayton—Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hoxley that their daughter, Mrs. John Burch of Salem, who has received treatment at Centralia, Wash., during the past nine weeks, has regained her health and returned home Thursday.

RETURN TO SEATTLE

Wacunda—Miss Frances Lemery and Mrs. Ralph Paquin (Elder Lemery) have returned to Seattle after spending two weeks at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemery. Miss Lemery is a student at Washington State college.

Francis Savage has returned to Siletz Bay where he is teaching school. He spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Savage, Wacunda merchants.

KING MAKES VISIT

Aurora—Will R. King of Los Angeles, Cal., stopped over on his way from Portland and spent the night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler.

ARM BROKEN AGAIN

Wacunda—Britt Aspinwall broke a small bone in his right arm while cranking his automobile. This is the second time he has broken his arm in the same way.

COAST FISH CAUGHT

Wacunda—Frank Pelton and George Lemery motored to Woods, Ore., near Pacific City beach on Friday and spent the day fishing. They returned home that evening with a catch of four big steelhead salmon.

RETURNED TO HOSPITAL

North Santiam—Leland Kiehl, who was injured at the Hammond mill some time ago, was taken back to the hospital Monday. It was reported that one of his legs had not healed as it should.

KING MAKES VISIT

Aurora—Will R. King of Los Angeles, Cal., stopped over on his way from Portland and spent the night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sadler.

ARM BROKEN AGAIN

Wacunda—Britt Aspinwall broke a small bone in his right arm while cranking his automobile. This is the second time he has broken his arm in the same way.

INJURY FATAL FOR RESIDENT, PLEASANTDALE

Dayton—Mrs. Bertha Warnock-Dwinnell, 51, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warnock, died at the Corvallis hospital December 30, following injuries received in an automobile accident December 26 when the touring car in which she was riding collided head-on with a truck.

In the car at the time of the accident besides Mrs. Durnell, were her daughter and three neighbor boys. One of the boys was driving and he said the truck had no lights.

Mrs. Durnell was born October 6, 1878 and was married to Asa Durnell 38 years ago. She was a resident of the Pleasantdale neighborhood, here for many years.

She is survived by her parents, two sons, Ed and Alfred and one daughter, Lola, and four sisters, Mrs. Nora Wakefield, Chipwood; Mrs. Maud Day, Corvallis; Mrs. Lillie Metcalf and Mrs. Ida Willard, both of Dayton.

Funeral services were conducted at Toledo with burial in the Chipwood cemetery, beside her husband and one infant.

PAYMENT OF BILLS OCCUPIES COUNCIL

Woodburn—A short session of the Woodburn city council was held at the city hall Tuesday night. In the absence of Mayor W. H. Bryles, Councilman George Beach, president of the council, occupied the chair.

No business of importance appeared on the docket.

The street commissioner was ordered to repair cross walks at Sixth and Harrison streets. A request from A. Dickson for additional street lights on South Front street, was referred to the street committee.

Bills for the month were audited and ordered paid and no other business appearing the council adjourned at an early hour.

FORRESTER HONOR MT. ANGEL RESIDENT

Mt. Angel—The degree of honor of the Elks lodge, conferred on G. D. Eder of St. Mary's Court No. 1291, Mt. Angel, for the efficient work done in the past for the good of the order. This was a complete surprise to Eder, who attended the meeting as one of the regular meetings, which was held Sunday afternoon.

John Dechner, state chief ranger, Ed Bell, state secretary, and other Sublimity members were present. Rev. Fr. Berchold, O. S. B., and Rev. Fr. Odilio, O. S. B., gave interesting talks. Other members and officers were called on to speak. After the meeting lunch was served.

OTTOS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT BROOKS

Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. Chris Otto entertained a group of friends and relatives at dinner in their home recently. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Art Banyard and daughter, Stella of Wacunda; Mr. and Mrs. Al Isham and son Iris of LaBish Center; Mrs. Maud Timm of Eldridge; Mr. and Mrs. Wilford LaFontaine and children, Wilford Jr. and Lewella, of Independence; Milton Mercer, Bill LaFontaine, Miss Gladys Otto, Miss Emeline Sears, Miss Beulah Otto, Orville Otto, and the hosts Mr. and Mrs. Chris Otto.

COACH ON CRUTCHES

Aumsville—White Coach E. Warner Empey was playing basketball Monday and sprained his ankle causing him to use crutches. Empey is coach and Latin teacher in the local high school.

LOYS WILL MOVE

Wacunda—S. S. Loy and his two sons, Cecil and Grant Loy, will move soon from the Mrs. Al Jones farm at Wacunda corners to the Lamb farm in the Eldridge district where they will run a dairy for George Shephard, who has that farm leased for a number of years.

STAYTON—MRS. R. D. OSBORN

Dallas was here Sunday to visit Mrs. Grace Holford and children. The women were close friends several years ago at Black Rock but in moving became lost to each other. Last week Mrs. Osborn saw Mrs. Holford's name in the Capital Journal from Stayton and came over.

SURE RELIEF

"MAKES YOU FEEL BETTER"
BELLANS INDIGESTION PILLS
6 BELLANS Hot water Sure Relief
FOR INDIGESTION
25¢ and 75¢ Pkgs. Sold Everywhere

FOX ELSINORE

Continues 2 to 11 Daily
TODAY THRU FRIDAY

Greta Garbo in The Kiss

with CONRAD NAGEL
A tale of Love, tragic, compelling, with the seductive Garbo—at her finest!
Greta Garbo, the divine beauty, in a sweeping drama of a woman storm-tossed by life.
A new triumph!

THE NIGHT WATCH

with DONALD REED
Also Talking Comedy and ON THE STAGE
THE MANHATTAN PLAYERS
in "Waifs of New York"
A Rural Comedy in Three Acts
Prices: Adults 35¢ Children 15¢

THE FRAZIER PLAYERS

with a heavy of Talking Favorites—and
"Uncle's Dilemma"
A 3 ACT FARCE COMEDY LAUGH HIT
NO RAISE IN PRICES—AND IT'S SOME SHOW

THE FRAZIER PLAYERS

with a heavy of Talking Favorites—and
"Uncle's Dilemma"
A 3 ACT FARCE COMEDY LAUGH HIT
NO RAISE IN PRICES—AND IT'S SOME SHOW

NUTRITION SERIES CONTINUE THURSDAY

Grand Island—The second of the series of nutrition demonstration meetings will be held Thursday at the Jake Tompkins home and conducted by Miss Lucy A. Case of Corvallis. The public is invited. Because of this meeting the Mother's circle will postpone its regular meeting which would have been Wednesday.

OFFICERS KEPT AT WEST SALEM

West Salem—The city council met in regular session Monday evening with all of the members present.

Street Commissioner Charles Ruge reported that the streets were all graded and in good shape with fresh gravel having been put on some of them.

A place on Ruge street between McHenry and Patterson avenues that requires attention was reported and left in the hands of the street committee. Mayor C. E. Green, Charles Ruge and Fred Gibson were appointed a committee to ascertain if gravel could be obtained at a lower price than has been paid for it. The city recorder, Mrs. J. I. Miller, gave her annual report. A motion prevailed that it be accepted as read.

An adj. was the first meeting of the year it was in order to fill appointive offices for the current term. Elmer Cook was reappointed city attorney and Charles Ruge was appointed marshal, street commissioner and water superintendent.

DELPHIAN CHAPTER AT ROBINSON HOME

Independence—The Sigma Theta Delphian chapter was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. B. Robinson Monday afternoon.

The lesson study consisted of examples of Medieval drama as follows: "The Three Maries," Miss Mabel Riddle and Mrs. E. M. Elbert; "A Nativity Play," Mrs. E. M. Wunder and Mrs. A. B. Robinson; "The Guld Pagan," Mrs. Hank Matson and Mrs. M. J. Butler; vocal solos, "Dreamin' Time," Strickland, "In the Luxembourg Gardens," Leckhart, Mrs. J. C. Collins.

Mrs. D. A. Hox entertained the group with a dramatic reading from Shakespeare's Julius Caesar; "Every Man," Mrs. W. R. Day and Mrs. O. D. Butler.

HONEYMOON COUPLE GUESTS AT RESORT

Hubbard—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Francis of Portland spent their honeymoon at the Hubbard Mineral Springs hotel recently. Other guests at the same time were O. S. Francis, Sr. and Mrs. J. C. Ogilvy and family, also from Portland.

Mrs. Caroline Hill and Mrs. Adelia Crabb of Clatskanie are spending a week at the Springs. Other guests are Mrs. Fannie W. Cooke, Portland; Mrs. Ida M. Dickinson, Libby, Mont.; and Wallace Dickson of Becket, Mont.; Hoy Everding and Tom Sheridan, Portland.

DONALD WOMAN ILL

Donna—Mrs. John Krause is seriously ill at her home north of here. Miss Georgia Krause of Aurora is helping and a hospital nurse is also in attendance.

TEACHER ON CRUTCHES

Grand Island—Mrs. Dale Fowler of this vicinity and principal of the Fairview school, is walking with crutches because of an injured right knee received while playing with the students Friday noon.

SMITH IS BURNED BY BOILING WATER

Unionvale—C. R. Smith, farmer of this vicinity received painful burns on his left hand while carrying a teakettle of boiling water in the preparation of calf feed at his barn. He tripped and fell immersing his hand in the teakettle of water.

TAYLORS ARE HOSTS FOR BIRTHDAY CLUB

Gates—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor were hosts at their home on Kings Prairie, with the members of the Birthday club and their husbands as guests. Cards were in play at eight tables during the evening with high score honors going to Mrs. C. D. Johnson and Gerald Heath. Second honors went to Mrs. Andrew Leedy and Les Collins. Low prizes went to Mrs. Ed Collins and A. E. Carey. Mrs. Wes Houghton scored high for the victors.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Glenn Hennessey to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Leta Young, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Leedy, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis and daughter, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Heath and son, Collis; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Miss Gwendolyn Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hennessey and son, Clare; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Lou Kelle, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Collins, Mrs. A. B. Horner, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Dike, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jones, George Random and Renal Reseman.

EPWORTH LEAGUES OFFER PRATUM PLAY

Rickreall—The Epworth League of Ford Memorial church will present the play, "The Path Across the Hill" at Pratun, Friday evening.

The following young people comprise the cast: Miss Vera Stewart, Miss Ada Clark, Miss Willa Sampson, Miss Eva Arnold, Miss Gertrude Warren, Jacob Fox, Al Henningsen, Curtis Ferguson and Charles Fredrickson.

THREE ACT COMEDY SLATED AT PRATUM

Pratum—A three act comedy-drama, "The Path Across the Hill," will be presented at the Epworth school house Friday evening at 8 o'clock by the young people of the West Salem church. The play is being sponsored by the aid society of the Pratum church.

The cast includes Vera Stewart, as Zuzi, the colored servant; Jake Fox, Salomander Alexander John Henry Jones; Al Henningsen, Grandpa Crawford; Ada Clarke, Grandma Davis; Roy Richter, Robert Post; Willa Sampson, Ruth Conrad; Curtis Ferguson, Walter Conrad; Eva Arnold, Lottie; Charles Fredrickson, Dr. Jimmie Beard and Gertrude Warren, Flo Gray.

THREE PAIRS FREED

Albany—Judge L. H. McMillan of the circuit court handed down three divorce decrees Monday. Each was by default. The cases were: Earl Miller from Margaret Miller, desertion; Gladys Miller from J. A. Miller, cruel and inhuman treatment; David Saperstein from Edythe Saperstein, cruel and inhuman treatment.

SMITH IS BURNED BY BOILING WATER

Unionvale—C. R. Smith, farmer of this vicinity received painful burns on his left hand while carrying a teakettle of boiling water in the preparation of calf feed at his barn. He tripped and fell immersing his hand in the teakettle of water.

TAYLORS ARE HOSTS FOR BIRTHDAY CLUB

Gates—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor were hosts at their home on Kings Prairie, with the members of the Birthday club and their husbands as guests. Cards were in play at eight tables during the evening with high score honors going to Mrs. C. D. Johnson and Gerald Heath. Second honors went to Mrs. Andrew Leedy and Les Collins. Low prizes went to Mrs. Ed Collins and A. E. Carey. Mrs. Wes Houghton scored high for the victors.

EPWORTH LEAGUES OFFER PRATUM PLAY

Rickreall—The Epworth League of Ford Memorial church will present the play, "The Path Across the Hill" at Pratun, Friday evening.

ANNUAL CHURCH ELECTION HELD AMITY SUNDAY

Amity—The annual election of officers for church and Sunday school of the Christian church of Amity was held Sunday with an all day service and basket dinner at noon in the church basement. Rev. C. Adrian Sias, pastor, spoke.

The annual business meeting was held at 2 o'clock. The officers elected for the church to serve during the year were:

Clerk, Miss Ernestine Grove, pianist for church and Sunday school, Mrs. Beale Sorensen; elders, J. W. Roth, Joe Jensen and H. R. Martin; treasurer, Miss Grove for church and Sunday school; Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Soren Sorensen.

In the evening at 6:30 o'clock the Christian Endeavor railroad contest started between the "Bound to Win" and "Never Fail" railroad companies with the Misses Wanda Fournier and Ernestine Grove as engineers. This promises to be an interesting contest. The attendance was good at all the services.

THREE ACT COMEDY SLATED AT PRATUM

Pratum—A three act comedy-drama, "The Path Across the Hill," will be presented at the Epworth school house Friday evening at 8 o'clock by the young people of the West Salem church. The play is being sponsored by the aid society of the Pratum church.

The cast includes Vera Stewart, as Zuzi, the colored servant; Jake Fox, Salomander Alexander John Henry Jones; Al Henningsen, Grandpa Crawford; Ada Clarke, Grandma Davis; Roy Richter, Robert Post; Willa Sampson, Ruth Conrad; Curtis Ferguson, Walter Conrad; Eva Arnold, Lottie; Charles Fredrickson, Dr. Jimmie Beard and Gertrude Warren, Flo Gray.

THREE PAIRS FREED

Albany—Judge L. H. McMillan of the circuit court handed down three divorce decrees Monday. Each was by default. The cases were: Earl Miller from Margaret Miller, desertion; Gladys Miller from J. A. Miller, cruel and inhuman treatment; David Saperstein from Edythe Saperstein, cruel and inhuman treatment.

SMITH IS BURNED BY BOILING WATER

Unionvale—C. R. Smith, farmer of this vicinity received painful burns on his left hand while carrying a teakettle of boiling water in the preparation of calf feed at his barn. He tripped and fell immersing his hand in the teakettle of water.

TAYLORS ARE HOSTS FOR BIRTHDAY CLUB

Gates—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor were hosts at their home on Kings Prairie, with the members of the Birthday club and their husbands as guests. Cards were in play at eight tables during the evening with high score honors going to Mrs. C. D. Johnson and Gerald Heath. Second honors went to Mrs. Andrew Leedy and Les Collins. Low prizes went to Mrs. Ed Collins and A. E. Carey. Mrs. Wes Houghton scored high for the victors.

EPWORTH LEAGUES OFFER PRATUM PLAY

Rickreall—The Epworth League of Ford Memorial church will present the play, "The Path Across the Hill" at Pratun, Friday evening.

The following young people comprise the cast: Miss Vera Stewart, Miss Ada Clark, Miss Willa Sampson, Miss Eva Arnold, Miss Gertrude Warren, Jacob Fox, Al Henningsen, Curtis Ferguson and Charles Fredrickson.

THREE ACT COMEDY SLATED AT PRATUM

Pratum—A three act comedy-drama, "The Path Across the Hill," will be presented at the Epworth school house Friday evening at 8 o'clock by the young people of the West Salem church. The play is being sponsored by the aid society of the Pratum church.

THREE PAIRS FREED

Albany—Judge L. H. McMillan of the circuit court handed down three divorce decrees Monday. Each was by default. The cases were: Earl Miller from Margaret Miller, desertion; Gladys Miller from J. A. Miller, cruel and inhuman treatment; David Saperstein from Edythe Saperstein, cruel and inhuman treatment.

SMITH IS BURNED BY BOILING WATER

Unionvale—C. R. Smith, farmer of this vicinity received painful burns on his left hand while carrying a teakettle of boiling water in the preparation of calf feed at his barn. He tripped and fell immersing his hand in the teakettle of water.

TAYLORS ARE HOSTS FOR BIRTHDAY CLUB

Gates—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor were hosts at their home on Kings Prairie, with the members of the Birthday club and their husbands as guests. Cards were in play at eight tables during the evening with high score honors going to Mrs. C. D. Johnson and Gerald Heath. Second honors went to Mrs. Andrew Leedy and Les Collins. Low prizes went to Mrs. Ed Collins and A. E. Carey. Mrs. Wes Houghton scored high for the victors.

EPWORTH LEAGUES OFFER PRATUM PLAY