

LOCALS

Ida Hatcher has filed complaints for divorce against Charles Hatcher charging cruel and inhuman treatment.

Refinance your car. Pay monthly. See P. A. Elker, Liberty & Ferry.

Verdict for the defendant has been returned in circuit court in the case of Henry Hendrickson against H. N. Pearson.

Old papers for sale per bundle. Capital Journal.

Judgment for money has been granted in circuit court to E. P. O'Bryan against Shurtliff Pearson.

American Legion old time dance at Nehanna Thurs. Jan. 3.

Bruce C. Bean, arrested on a charge of speeding with a truck, paid a $10 fine for the offense in justice court Thursday.

High grade piano, $125. Terms at P. N. Woodry's Auction Market.

An order has been filed in circuit court in the case of Charles K. Spaulding Logging Company against L. O. Bulfinch.

Old time dance M. W. A. hall, Chemawa Thurs. Good music 25c-50c.

In the case of W. L. Harris against W. J. Trudgen judgment for money has been entered in circuit court.

Cloth and fur coats relined. Fur scarfs reduced. All work guaranteed. Etta Burns, 2nd floor Mills.

Application has been filed with the county clerk to have the case of Edna B. Townsend against Sherman Clay & Company placed on the trial docket.

Big reductions in new and used furniture, rugs, linoleum, heaters, ranges, etc. at the P. N. Woodry's Auction Market on Summer St.

Carl Ott will be given a hearing in justice court late Thursday on a charge of using obscene and profane language in a public place.

Beautiful ship models given free with quart flex enamel. Building Supply Co. Front St. north of State, Phone 487.

Lola C. Alter has filed suit for divorce from Hugh W. Alter charging desertion. They were married at Jacksonville in December, 1923.

Special on Valpar enamel, quarts $1.00; pint $1.50; pint 50c. Building Supply Co. Front St. north of State, Phone 487.

Decree of final settlement has been filed in probate in the matter of the estate of R. L. Earl of which R. D. Gray is administrator.

Special Friday and Saturday prices on many items. Unfinished furniture greatly reduced. Hardwood end tables, book racks, magazine racks, and many other items at closeout prices. Building Supply Co. Front St. north of State, Ph. 487.

Wallace A. Jenkins in seeking a divorce from H. E. Jenkins charges that the defendant was fault finding, jealous and subject to fits of temper. They were married at Marysville, Calif., in May, 1920.

Black walnut antique chest of drawers, hand carved pulls, solid black walnut fall extension table, with 3 leaves, at F. N. Woodry's Auction Market.

A special venire for six new jurors to serve in circuit court was called for by Judge Kelly Friday with one jury out and an effort being made to secure another one from the regular list.

Permanent wave $5 now. Special at Miller's Beauty shop. We have four operators.

Smith vs. Janzen set for hearing in circuit court Friday, was continued on agreement among attorneys. It was announced Thursday.

Rummage sale, Fri. & Sat. Adolph Bldg. between High & Liberty.

Officers installed at a meeting of Centralia temple No. 11, Pythian Sisters, in fraternal temple Tuesday night, were Frances Greenwood, past chief; Mary Allen, most excellent chief; Norma Terwilliger, most excellent senior; Hazel Hixon, most excellent junior; Lucille Colpton, M. of R. and; Laura Johnson, M. of S.; Katherine Driscoll, protector; Bertie Burke, guard; Maggie Knighton was the installing officer, assisted by Mary Pugh and Susie Parmenter. Mrs. Georgia Shearer was the musician.

Dance, Mellow Moon every Sat. Thomas Bros. dance band.

A "prep" assembly was held at the senior high school Thursday noon. June Fitzgerald, song leader, and Byron Lallie, yell king, were in charge.

A jury in the case of William Sheridan against Kenneth Witzel in circuit court Friday brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $96.25 and interest.

The next hike planned for the Clatsop county local talk committee of that organization is scheduled for Sunday, January 19.

A jury in the case of William Sheridan against Kenneth Witzel in circuit court Friday brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $96.25 and interest.

little in excess of the judgement sought. The case consumed a good share of two days. Pay to jurors amounted to $90, to the bailiff $6, the deputy clerk about $5 and the judge's salary around $25 for the time consumed. This would total $135 and deducting the $15 fees paid by the litigants would leave cost to the county of $120 or a little over $25 over the judgement involved.

Decree of foreclosure on real property has been granted in circuit court in the case of Joseph Thiel against John H. Freeman.

Final decree has been entered in the estate of Willis M. Hubbs of which George W. Hubbs acted as executor. The executor states he has turned the Hubbs Planning mill at Silverton, its equipment, a patent right on an ironing board and shop accounts over to Lillian P. Hubbs trustee under the will.

Hilene, the effective motor oil remover carbon. More gas mileage, more oil mileage, more compression, more power on hills. Let us fill your crankcase. Tom's Service Station, free parking to all customers.

The cast for "Pomander Walk", three act comedy which the Technic club at the senior high school will present February 20 and 21 will be completed when two more students are selected.

Cars driven by Bert Smith, deputy sheriff and H. G. Hicks were badly damaged Thursday morning as the result of a collision at the corner of South High and Rural avenue, according to a report filed with the police. Smith was going south on Hicks street, while Hicks was proceeding west on Rural avenue.

Old time dance, Castilian hall Sat. Salem's popular old time dance band, Congrald crowd, 25c-50c. 10

The Three Link club will hold an important business meeting Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Salem Heights com. club cooked food sale, S. P. ticket office, Saturday.

Clifford Harbough was taken into custody Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Burkhardt. He was taken to McMinville where he is wanted on a non-support charge.

Shed dry wood, coal, Tel. 11. Salem Fuel Co.

Prof. W. F. G. Thatcher, of the Journalism department at the University of Oregon, was the guest speaker at the Thursday noon luncheon of the Salem Ad. Club.

Vines and cuttings of the Fiala grape, now ready. Fiala vineyard, Rt. 1, box 95, Phone 12222.

R. R. Turner of Dallas, who is on the commission appointed by the state legislature to investigate the feasibility of having state-owned text-books has written to Superintendent George W. Hug for his opinion on the subject.

We have plenty of 15-inch wood $5.50 cord delivered from car; $6.25 cord from stock. Cobbs-Mitchell Co. Phone 813, 343 So. 12th.

Dr. Estella Ford Warner returned Thursday from Medford, where she has been visiting with Miss Mildred Carlton since last Friday.

Closing out all new and used heat-ers including all cast, Wal. enamel finish circulators, at cost, at F. N. Woodry's, Summer St.

Miss Mabel Robinson, dean of girls at the high school, left Thursday for Eugene, where she addressed a university class in girl advisors Thursday afternoon.

A number of people sending in money for dog licenses based on the old law has caused County Clerk Boyer to call attention again to changes in the dog license law which have increased the license on male dogs when paid before March 1 from $1 to $2 and on female dogs to $3 and when paid after March 1 to $4 on males and $5 on females.

C. A. Howard, state school superintendent, was in Portland Thursday to address the school board convention of Multnomah county. Arrangements of the budget were presented by R. F. Finazzo, of the tax supervising and conservation commission while S. S. Duncan, Yamhill county school superintendent, spoke upon the value of visiting days to teachers.

Funeral services for Mrs. Della Cotownare, 71, who died at Chehalis, Wash., will be held from 9 to 11 p.m. Saturday with interment at Chehalis. Ed Cotownare, of Salem, is one of nine surviving children. Mrs. Cotownare was born in Coville prairie and died at Chehalis Wednesday.

Judge Walter H. Evans, of the Multnomah county circuit court, will speak at the Lions club luncheon Friday noon. He will be introduced by Justice George Rossman of the state supreme court.

The large majority of house-less men must have a ought warmer clothes, in the opinion of local police who back up their statement with the fact that but seven "sleepers" were accommodated in the basement of the city hall Wednesday night.

The next hike planned for the Clatsop county local talk committee of that organization is scheduled for Sunday, January 19.

The large majority of house-less men must have a ought warmer clothes, in the opinion of local police who back up their statement with the fact that but seven "sleepers" were accommodated in the basement of the city hall Wednesday night.

The large majority of house-less men must have a ought warmer clothes, in the opinion of local police who back up their statement with the fact that but seven "sleepers" were accommodated in the basement of the city hall Wednesday night.

The large majority of house-less men must have a ought warmer clothes, in the opinion of local police who back up their statement with the fact that but seven "sleepers" were accommodated in the basement of the city hall Wednesday night.

The large majority of house-less men must have a ought warmer clothes, in the opinion of local police who back up their statement with the fact that but seven "sleepers" were accommodated in the basement of the city hall Wednesday night.

The large majority of house-less men must have a ought warmer clothes, in the opinion of local police who back up their statement with the fact that but seven "sleepers" were accommodated in the basement of the city hall Wednesday night.

UTILITIES FILE SCHEDULE OF EXPENDITURES

Washington (P)—Completing their reply to testimony on the distribution of free pamphlets on utility subjects to schools of many states, counsel for the utilities companies sought to introduce Thursday before the federal trade commission an analysis of advertising expenditures of the industry to show that the total spent in newspapers for 1928 was $4,425,339, not $28,000,000 as asserted.

Asserting that public power utility associations of the country stood charged with disseminating in schools propaganda against public or municipal ownership, B. F. Weadock, their counsel, gave to the commission a state by state list of pamphlets and read into the record of the utility investigation approval of educational authorities given each publication.

Going down the list from Illinois to Tennessee, Weadock made the categorical assertion that each pamphlet contained no direct reference whatever to public ownership of utilities. He explained the publications were issued to give school children information regarding the operation of public utilities and that they were prepared or distributed by the state and regional utility bureaus allied with the joint commission of the National Utility associations which he represented.

He read into the record letters from state superintendents of education for many states, which either approved of the distribution of booklets or gave to the state utility information officers mailing lists of school principals.

Weadock qualified the statement, when he read an extract from the pamphlet for Oregon in which methods of financing private and public utilities were compared.

At the suggestion of Commissioner McCulloch the record was made to show that all letters from state superintendents and other high educational authorities were in response to solicitation by the utility bureau which had sought official approval for placing the pamphlets in the schools.

Order of dismissal based on a settlement has been filed with the county clerk in the case of Albert Frank against R. F. Darby.

An application has been filed in connection with the case of Security Finance corporation against N. C. Nelson to have the cause placed on the trial docket in circuit court.

Return on a foreclosure on real property in the case of Bopeweele company against Allan Bellingier has been filed with the county clerk showing property sold to the plaintiff for $5000.

Gus Copulos, three cushion billiard exponent who is now engaged in a national tournament in the east is known here in Salem, where he visited about 18 months ago. Copulos is a brother-in-law of Carl Arrpiest, local business man.

A surveyor's report filed with the county clerk approves vacation of a railroad crossing near Silverton in a road leading northward from an extension of Second street in that city. The crossing is useless as the old road has been replaced by a market road.

A number of people sending in money for dog licenses based on the old law has caused County Clerk Boyer to call attention again to changes in the dog license law which have increased the license on male dogs when paid before March 1 from $1 to $2 and on female dogs to $3 and when paid after March 1 to $4 on males and $5 on females.

The commission would be directed to proceed with an investigation of the "desirability of further efforts to enforce the 18th amendment."

It also would be required to transmit minutes of its proceedings to the house.

EXTEND RICE BAN Tokyo (AP)—The imperial ordinance promulgated in 1928 for the restriction of imports of foreign rice has been extended for one year by imperial order. The ordinance was to have expired December 31.

A Mr. and Mrs. Warner of Salem received several cuts from glass when the ice in their machine operated by F. C. Kites, Route 8, Salem, Wednesday afternoon near the Lloyd Reynolds place north of the city. The report of the accident turned in to the sheriff's office failed to give the initials of the Warners. Mrs. Warner was cut on the knee while her husband received cuts on the face and hand. Slippery pavement was given as the cause of the accident.

Citation has been issued out of probate for a hearing on February 19 to show cause why property belonging to the estate of Georgina Scott should not be sold.

The Salem fire department responded to a fire alarm from a blaze in a dwelling on Knap street Thursday at 2:30 p. m. The house belonged to Al Mundt, deputy city recorder.

Health Hall and Kellon Butler, Salem students at O. A. C., have both been pledged to Theta Xi Fraternity.

HUNTINGTON CONTINUED AS SCHOOL COACH

Interest in the basketball season and athletic activities at Salem high school took a sudden spurt Thursday with the announcement that the state high school athletic association had sanctioned the continuation of Hollis Huntington as part time coach for the remainder of the year and had invited the Salem basketball team to participate in the state tournament as the host team regardless whether or not they win the district championship.

J. L. Gary, secretary of the state high school athletic association, requested an official letter from Superintendent George W. Hug of the city schools asking for permission to continue the use of Huntington as part time coach.

Huntington's job came up for question at the association meeting in Portland during the holiday season, when the smaller high schools in the state clubbed together and put over the ruling that high school coaches must be full time teachers in their schools.

In the same letter to Principal Fred Wolf in which Gary invited the Salem team to enter the basketball tournament at Willamette university later in the season, he also acknowledged the list of basketball players sent by Wolf, for registration, but found two of the boys ineligible for the team.

The other is Fletcher Johnson. Kelley was declared ineligible because of his age, being over 20, the age limit set by the state association, but found two of the boys ineligible for the team.

The other is Fletcher Johnson. Kelley was declared ineligible because of his age, being over 20, the age limit set by the state association, but found two of the boys ineligible for the team.

New York (P)—A crowd of 4,500 stormed the American museum of natural history Wednesday night in an attempt to see a motion picture on the Einstein theory.

Police reserves were called to restore order when museum attendants were overwhelmed.

The Amateur Astronomers' association, under whose auspices the picture was shown, sent tickets to the 1,500 members in the city.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

URGES REDUCTION AMONG PERSONNEL

Washington (P)—Reduction of regular army personnel was suggested Thursday in a speech in the house by Representative Barbour, republican, California, as one way in which President Hoover's proposal for curtailment of military expenses can be carried out.

Barbour is in charge of the war department appropriation bill now before the house.

ALLIED DEMANDS TO BE ACCEPTED BY GERMANY

The Hague (P)—Germany delegates to the second reparations conference, accepted, in principle, Thursday, the demand of the allied powers for sanctions or guarantees or guarantees of payment.

The German delegates met to devise a counter-proposal to a memorandum in which France, Britain and Italy insisted upon sanctions.

The Germans, however, agreed to drop their original demand that the conference protocol be written without mention of sanctions.

The main delegates of the six principal powers met to discuss financial questions to be cleared up before the Young plan will be ready for ratification.

The Bulgarian reparations settlement negotiations were still deadlocked. Bulgaria remained firm in her stand that she could not pay above 10 million gold francs annually without a five-year suspension of payments.

MOB STORMS MUSEUM TO SEE EINSTEIN FILM

New York (P)—A crowd of 4,500 stormed the American museum of natural history Wednesday night in an attempt to see a motion picture on the Einstein theory.

Police reserves were called to restore order when museum attendants were overwhelmed.

The Amateur Astronomers' association, under whose auspices the picture was shown, sent tickets to the 1,500 members in the city.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

VALSETZ MEN THOUGHT VICTIM OF MOONSHINE

Falls City—Bootleg whiskey it is thought claimed another victim Wednesday night when Charlie Ast, 60, died at his home on the Valsetz road from acute alcoholism and exposure. Whether a blow Ast received on his head Tuesday morning on his way to his home from Falls City had anything to do with the cause of death will be determined by the Polk county coroner.

Asst. accused Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan, an elderly couple, in their home near Falls City Tuesday. The elderly couple became frightened at Ast's actions and called Deputy Sheriff Zimmerman for assistance.

Before Zimmerman arrived another neighbor, George Devers, came along the road and saw Ast cutting and shooting at the Morgans, and went inside the farm looked in the windows to see Ast lying on his bed in his nightclothes with no coverings over him.

Ast was thoroughly chilled but his heart was still beating when the two men broke in the door, built a fire and called Dr. C. P. Horn. Death occurred several hours later, and was diagnosed by the attending physician as from acute alcoholism and exposure.

That was the last seen of Ast until Wednesday afternoon when H. A. Bowman and Ellis Broeden went by Ast's place and found the body in his nightclothes with no coverings over him.

Asst's two sons from Portland arrived in Dallas Thursday morning to take charge of the remains. Ast's second wife divorced him last summer for cruelty. His first wife died a number of years ago. Funeral arrangements will be announced later from Dallas.

New York (P)—A crowd of 4,500 stormed the American museum of natural history Wednesday night in an attempt to see a motion picture on the Einstein theory.

Police reserves were called to restore order when museum attendants were overwhelmed.

The Amateur Astronomers' association, under whose auspices the picture was shown, sent tickets to the 1,500 members in the city.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

Jeering and hooting the guards, the crowd surged forward, sending those nearest the door against a grilles iron gate.

The gate was broken down and the mob pushed its way into a room devoted to Alaskan Indian data.

Eight uniformed guards were sent among the crowd to announce that preference would be given those with tickets.

AUTOS STOLEN HERE IN 1929

Every one of the automobiles reported to the police as being stolen during the year 1929 was recovered, the annual report of Chief of Police Minto, submitted to the city council, shows. During the year 194 machines were reported as stolen.

In addition to this local police recovered 25 automobiles which had been reported stolen in other jurisdictions.

The report of the chief shows that a total of 3133 arrests were made during the 12 months ending December 31, 1929. Fines imposed by Judge Paulsen aggregated $11,727.10.

Traffic violations brought the largest number of arrests, 2,743 persons having been picked up for infractions of numerous traffic regulations.

Felony arrests totalled 107, while 144 persons were inebriated. Liquor possession charges brought 61 individuals into the hands of the police.

While accident reports are listed as totaling 1,949, in reality there were about half that number of accidents during the year, as there are supposed to be two reports for each accident.

That traffic cops did something besides draft their salaries in indicated by the report which shows that a total of 10,623 automobiles were tagged. Two thousand and four meals were served while beds were given to 1,823 persons.

This latter group includes persons, who were classified as "sleepers".

SUGAR EXPERT ASKED TO DEVISE SLIDING SCALE

Washington (P)—R. L. Purdon, sugar expert of the commerce department, told the senate lobby committee Thursday he had been asked by Walter Newton, one of President Hoover's secretaries, to try to work out a sliding scale for sugar duties in