

WINTER CAUSES MORE ACCIDENTS TO VALLEY FOLK

Turner—Floyd Robertson met with a serious accident on Wednesday evening when he slipped in the snow and fell down the steps of the Robertson home badly bruising and injuring himself. He was taken to a doctor by Cordell Ball and examinations revealed a broken nose and painfully bruised face. Four teeth were also knocked out by the fall.

Moran—Whitehead was quite badly injured Wednesday noon while returning to school. In jumping from the back porch, the boy struck his neck on the clothesline, throwing him backwards on to a pile of rocks. A slight cut was inflicted on the back of his head and he was rendered unconscious for some time. He is improved enough to enable him to return to school Thursday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Whitehead of Turner.

Wacoona—Two serious accidents have resulted at Wacoona from the inclement weather. Miss Gladys Brown, who teaches at Wacoona school was quite seriously hurt Sunday afternoon when she was skating on the pond near the school, and fell, striking her head such a blow that she was rendered unconscious and didn't regain consciousness until Monday morning. Miss Brown has been too ill since the accident, to resume her school duties, and school is closed this week due to her illness and the snow.

Mrs. Britt Aspinwall slipped on the icy platform at Wacoona station as she was leaving the Oregon Electric train, and fell, breaking the bone in her right wrist very badly. Her husband broke his wrist while cranking his automobile a few days ago and is still carrying his arm in a sling.

Scio—"Chod" Mumper, 9, sustained a severe cut on the forehead when he fell on the ice while skating near Scio a few days ago. He was taken to Albany hospital, where several stitches were necessary to close the wound. He is recovering rapidly and did not miss any school as a result of the accident.

Brush Creek—Robert Moe retired a painful cut under his left eyebrow one evening this week while he and a group of playfellows were playing ice hockey on a small pond in the Moe field. The cut was not as serious as at first feared and it is believed that no scar will result. The Moe pond has been a great gathering place for the Brush Creek school children after school-hours each day.

BRUSH CREEK OPENS REHEARSALS, PLAY

Brush Creek—Play practice began Wednesday night on "Cyclone Sally," the comedy to be given by the Brush Creek booster club. The play will be given as soon as the cast have their parts learned. Mrs. Jessie Hartley Doerflinger is coaching the play and Mrs. Dora Grace is assisting. The Brush Creek booster club is well known for its plays and always draws a full house when they are staged.

The cast for "Cyclone Sally" is Jack Webster, played by Dan Hillman; Reginald Manner, J. C. Larson; Jim Jenkins, John Moe; Willie Klump, Fred Krug; Sally Graham, the "Cyclone Sally," Mrs. Dan Hillman; Jennie, Susan; Mrs. Alvin Krug; Ruth Schaefer, Mrs. Fred Krug; Effie Borden, Luella Ford; Vivian Vernon, Mrs. J. C. Larson.

OLD TIMES RECALLED WHEN SLEDS APPEAR

Gervais—Gervais is held in an icy grip as all other valley towns. School attendance is small as so many students come from a great distance and unless vehicles are equipped with chains travel is somewhat dangerous.

Several sleds of ancient origin, with the aid of Dobbin may be seen upon the streets hauling children to school and also making a trip to town to replenish the family larder.

KNOX BUTTE MAN BURIED, JEFFERSON

Jefferson—John R. Bailey, 86, former resident of the Knox Butte neighborhood, who died at Heppner, was buried in the Jefferson cemetery Wednesday afternoon. He is survived by one son, proprietor of a lodging house in Albany, E. E. Howell, local undertaker who is in charge of the arrangements.

BANK FILES SUIT

Dallas—A complaint was filed in circuit court Wednesday naming Dallas National bank plaintiff, vs. I. P. Tatum defendant. The suit is for collection of a $341 promissory note given March 22, 1929 and payable upon demand.

SCOTFIELD GOES EAST

North Santiam—Frank Scotfield left Monday morning for Chicago where he will study electric engineering for three months.

Machines Stall In Heavy Drift On County Road

Woodburn—Twelve inches of snow which drifted to a depth of four or five feet in the highway completely paralyzed traffic between Woodburn and St. Paul Thursday afternoon.

The Capital Journal car was forced to turn back at West Woodburn and for the first time since the route was established the people between West Woodburn and St. Paul failed to get their paper.

A number of cars were stalled in the drifts between West Woodburn and the Wehrum corner and the school bus was forced to abandon its regular route toward St. Paul.

Pupils from Donald were forced to spend the night in town.

AMITY REBEKAH LODGE PLACES NEW OFFICERS

Amity—Mrs. Vernisha Newby, district deputy president and staff consisting of eight past grand and past noble grand, installed the officers of Industry Rebekah lodge No. 35 of Amity at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Elective officers installed were: Mrs. Nellis Rogers, P. N. G.; Mrs. Edith Mack, N. G.; Ernest Gibbs, V. G.; Mrs. Bessie Sorenson, recording secretary; Miss Ella Thomas, financial secretary; Mrs. Clara Broadwell, treasurer.

Six visitors who braved the severe storm were present from Dayton, Naomi Rebekah lodge No. 83 of Dayton had been invited for the evening. Visitors whose membership are at McCoy, LaPoyette and Prairie City who live in Amity were also present. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

SOCIETY IS GUEST GUNDERSON HOME

Silverton—The women's missionary society of the Christian church held its regular business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Gunderson on East Main street Tuesday afternoon with 32 members in attendance.

Mrs. S. A. Gay conducted the business meeting as Mrs. J. A. Bennett, the chairman, was absent because of illness.

Refreshments served after the business meeting and a social hour. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Jones on South Third street.

MICHIGAN NATIVE TAKEN AT ALBANY

Albany—Fred W. Barker, 42, died at his home in Albany Wednesday, following a lingering illness. Barker was a native of Michigan, coming to Albany in 1921. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Barker is survived by his widow and five children: Mrs. Paul Greenlee, Shelton, Wash., Mrs. Louise Pillar, Frank, Forest and Ralph Barker, all of Albany.

PARTIES LISTED BY GROUPS AT SCIO

Scio—Mrs. Marvin Long will be hostess to the As You Like It club at her home near Scio January 21. Mrs. Arch Ray and Mrs. Riley Montgomery will entertain the Scio "900" club at Odd Fellows hall Tuesday, January 21.

FUNERAL IS ATTENDED

Scio Mills—Mr. and Mrs. Claud Johnson and Jim Hopper attended the funeral of their brother held in Portland. Hopper passed away at his home very suddenly.

INDEPENDENCE CHURCH CHOIR IS UNDER WAY

Independence—The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church has been re-organized under the direction of Mrs. Elmer N. Lindquist, and it is planned to give an entire evening of music the last Sunday evening of each month, beginning February 23.

Rehearsals began Thursday evening of this week and with the assemblage of about 30 voices, programs of unusual interest will be forthcoming. Mrs. Lindquist comes to this community from Missoula, Mont., and has already demonstrated her ability to sing and play and lead a chorus.

A junior surprise chorus of children's voices is being worked out and these will appear from time to time to assist in the special programs.

Following is a list of the singers to be in the choir: Eva Bullis, Fayette Davis, Cora Bullock, Elizabeth Baker, Lavita Bullock, Elizabeth Baker, Blanche Johnson, Rita Byers, Mrs. Kruger, Florence Soden, Mrs. Arlie Anderson, Mrs. Hope Huntley, Mrs. Clara Graves, Midge Everett, Mrs. Mary Smiley, Mrs. Carrie Smiley, Mrs. G. A. Byers, Mrs. Charles Meyer, Ernestine Smiley, Mrs. E. G. Ranton, Mrs. Ed Kelley, Melvin and Robert Kelley, Arlie Anderson, William Kelly, Charles Smiley, Ed Kelley, William Campbell, Rev. E. G. Ranton, and Elmer N. Lindquist.

The school buses were running as usual and although the attendance at school was somewhat broken, many came in from the outlying districts. There are twelve inches of light snow.

The farmers are the hardest hit of any in this vicinity with their stock to feed, and prices of hay and grain soaring. Sheep are lambing in the snow and have to be watched carefully and fed. Many places where watering places have been frozen up, it has caused extra work to haul water for the stock. The river being frozen up along the bottom pastures makes it dangerous for stock, as they break through when crowding upon the shallow ice.

No casualties as yet have been reported from sleighing parties, although a number have had close calls.

The city council ordered the city street cleaning department to clear the walks on the main streets and on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. The affair, which was a complete surprise to Thomas, was given Tuesday evening in the Thomas home.

Cards and dancing, followed by a late lunch, were the diversion of the evening. High score honors were awarded to Miss Anna Thomas of Jordan, and Paul Wachter. Mrs. Thomas was assisted in serving by Miss Mary Thomas.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berning, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sprauer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hetterschied, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Aicher of Woodburn, Misses Eleanor Kinninger, Anna Wavra, Sophia Richter, Anna Thomas, Mary Thomas of Jordan and Mary Wachter, and Misses, John Schmitz, Robert Schmitz, Paul Schmitz, August Penka, Lawrence Schmitz, John Wavra, and Nick Richter.

SCOTTS MILLS LODGE HOLDS ANNIVERSARY

Scio Mills—The special meeting of the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows held here Tuesday evening in commemoration of the birthday anniversary of Thomas Wilder, founder of Odd Fellowship in America, was not so well attended as hoped for owing to the weather conditions.

The evening was spent in a social way and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by those present. The amount of $7.95 was made from the sale of home made candy and old hats which was turned over to the Rebekahs. Refreshments were served.

VAN TASSEL RITES HELD FROM ALBANY

Silverton—Mrs. Walter Aubutins of this city and her father, Mr. VanTassel of Portland, returned Wednesday from Albany where they had been to bury the mother and wife respectfully of these two people.

Mrs. VanTassel, who was well known here, as she and Mr. VanTassel have lived here on several different occasions, passed away in a Portland hospital Saturday after a lingering illness of several years of paralysis of the throat.

Van Tassel returned to Portland Thursday but may return later to stay some time with the Aubutins.

GUESTS AT LYONS

SILVERTON CALLS MT. ANGEL DOCTOR

Silverton—Dr. H. S. Sauve, who has been in Mt. Angel for the past few months, was here Wednesday negotiating for the office rooms in the new Wordon building upstairs and the corner rooms. He stated that he expected to be back here in a day or two and intended opening up his offices for business next week.

FIRE SIREN AT INDEPENDENCE REPORTED 'OUT'

Independence—The snow blockade of Wednesday was soon broken through in this vicinity and sidewalks and roads were cleared by noon so that normal traffic was resumed. The mail carrier made his usual schedule although he found many unheated paths in the early part of the day.

The school buses were running as usual and although the attendance at school was somewhat broken, many came in from the outlying districts. There are twelve inches of light snow.

The farmers are the hardest hit of any in this vicinity with their stock to feed, and prices of hay and grain soaring. Sheep are lambing in the snow and have to be watched carefully and fed. The meeting was held at the home of the director, Dr. A. P. de Lespinasse instead of in the band room. The annual election of officers was not held as a quorum was not present.

Those present were Art Srock and Ed Mousberger who came in through a foot of snow from the Molalla district; Roy Claypool, Leonard Watkins, Dorothy Scholl, Anna Knight, Robin de Lespinasse and Marie de Lespinasse. Refreshments were served after the rehearsal.

COMMUNITY CARD PARTY IS SUCCESS

Gervais—The cold weather did not hinder a large crowd from attending the "300" community club Tuesday evening when nine tables of cards were in play, with high scores being held by Mrs. C. W. Cutforth and A. DeJardin. Second prizes were won by Mrs. John Perschweiler and Joe Keppinger. The banquet hall was beautifully decorated in pink and green. Dainty refreshments were served by the committee composed of Mrs. J. V. Keppinger, Mrs. I. V. McAdoo, Miss Vernon and Miss Herman.

MRS. PEPPERLING BETTER

Scio—Mrs. Alvin Pepperling is reported recovering satisfactorily from acute appendicitis, for which she underwent a major operation in the Albany general hospital.

BROOKS GROUP ALL DAY GUEST AT OTTO HOME

Brooks—Members of the Brooks Community club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Chris Otto Thursday at an all day meeting. The afternoon was spent embroidering and in social conversation.

Members are devoting much time to making arrangements for the program and social which they plan to give February 13. The program will be free after which a pie social will be held.

The entertainment will be given in the Brooks community clubhouse, recently purchased by the club ladies. During the afternoon a reading was given by Mrs. B. F. Ramp. At noon a pot luck dinner was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Maude Timm and Mrs. Art Banyard.

Club members present were Mrs. B. F. Ramp, Mrs. Virgil Loomis, Mrs. Maude Timm, Mrs. Cylvester Harris, Mrs. Dora Ramp, Mrs. Ella Harris, Mrs. Anna Dunlavy, Mrs. Art Banyard, Miss Lavin Harris, Miss Gladys Otto, Miss Bessie Otto and Cleo Ramp, and the hostess Mrs. Chris Otto.

The next meeting of the club will be held in the club house here.

MACLEAY GRANGERS GREET NEW MEMBERS

Macleay—The regular monthly meeting of the Macleay grange was held Friday evening. The meeting opened with Frank Bowers acting as master, W. A. Jones being ill and unable to come to the meeting.

Seven new members were added to the list of membership. After the business meeting a short program was presented by the members. Supper was served at the regular time.

The fire siren was frozen up and a fire alarm aroused the citizens to prompt action when word was received that G. G. Godfrey's chimney was on fire.

FEW BANDSMEN ARE OUT FOR REHEARSAL

Hubbard—Sickness, heavy snow and total engagements all contributed to the smallest attendance at the Wednesday night band meeting since the band was organized four years ago. Instead of the usual average of 34 members there were four boys present, four girls and the director.

The meeting was held at the home of the director, Dr. A. P. de Lespinasse instead of in the band room. The annual election of officers was not held as a quorum was not present.

SCARLETINA DECLINE REPORTED FROM SCIO

Scio—Scarletina in the Scio region is reported somewhat on the wane, after prevailing for several weeks here.

Influenza and pneumonia are reported still prevalent in the Scio vicinity, as elsewhere in the state. Some of the cases have approached serious stages, it is said.

Crash Against Plate Glass Is Fatal to Hawk

Silverton—A hawk flew against the plate glass window of the Palm confectionery store on the Water street side, Wednesday. It was picked up in a stunned condition by one of the men who happened to be in the store and later killed it as it seemed to be badly hurt. Whether the bird had become too cold to fly or whether the snow had befuddled it so that it lost its way is not known but anyway it landed on the glass pane with terrific force.

SPRING VALLEY CLUB TO OFFER PLAY SHORTLY

North Spring Valley—"A Little Clodhopper" is the title of the play being planned for presentation at the next meeting of the Spring Valley community club, according to announcement made at the last meeting of the group at the school house. The committee in charge of the play is Vivian Stratton, Mrs. Frank Windsor, Frank Matthews, and Mrs. Seymour Wilson.

A cafeteria supper served at the meeting added the sum of $11.37 to the treasury. Funds are being raised to provide additional equipment for the community's use.

The program consisted of a song by Clifford Stevens of Hopeville; medley of songs, by Mrs. George Boyd and Miss Georgia Mills; play, "Billet Doux," characters being Vernon Merrick, Elora Edwards, Eldon Eberle, Frank Smith, and Frank Windsor; instrumental music by the orchestra composed of Ella Walling with saxophone, Irene Windsor with banjo, and Marjorie Walling at the piano; a song and encore both played and sung by Clifford Stevens, using a guitar; and then followed the cafeteria supper and social hour. The building was quite full despite the freezing temperature prevailing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards and Arlie Sinkins made up the program committee, and those serving on the refreshment committee were Sadie Schubert, Beatrice Sinkins, and Claud Walling.

MACLEAY CLUB IS GUEST AT MARTINS

Macleay—The Four M club of Macleay met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Martin with Mrs. M. A. Wells as assistant for an all day meeting.

A report of the work done in the past year was given, also a financial report which showed the club in good condition.

A short program was given by members.

ANNIVERSARY OF PROHIBITION IS HELD BY CHURCH

Woodburn—The Woodburn W. C. T. U. celebrated the 10th anniversary of the 18th amendment at the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday afternoon. There was a good attendance in spite of the weather.

The meeting opened with the singing of "America" after which Rev. Glenn S. Hartung conducted the opening devotion. Mrs. Henry Hanson was in charge of the program which consisted of the following numbers: vocal solo, "Prohibition First and Last," Mrs. V. D. Bain, accompanied by Miss Wilma Morrison; an article on law enforcement in the home by Mrs. Carrie Young; piano solo, "Love's Greeting," Miss Wilma Morrison.

A splendid and lucid article on the benefits of prohibition was read by Mrs. Glenn S. Hartung, a vocal solo, "Pure White Ribbon," was given by Mrs. Perle L. Love, with Miss Morrison accompanying; Rev. Henry G. Hanson gave a short talk, taking as his theme, "The next 10 years from a prohibition standpoint." This was followed by two vocal numbers by pupils of Miss Ruth Holt who sang "The Empire Builders," and "The Circuit Rider." In the group were Miss Nelda Trullinger, Miss Lella May Myers, Miss Phyllis Yoder, Miss Denay Strouse and Miss Hazel Trullinger. A reading, "Doing Your Share," was given by Miss Marjorie Love and the program closed with a playlet entitled "Why the Bell Rang," by a group from the Free Methodist church which included Melvin Sproune, Marwin Sproune, Alice Sproune, Nelda Trullinger, Hazel and Hilda Trullinger, Mrs. A. D. Sproune, Miss Alma Trullinger and Mrs. Ida Brennen. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. L. S. Mochel and refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ray Trullinger, Mrs. J. R. Landon, Mrs. C. J. Rice and Mrs. Ida Brennen, assisted by Miss Helen Woodfin, Alma Sproune and Marjorie Love.

WOMEN OF GERVAIS GATHER AT CHURCH

Gervais—The Ladies' Missionary society held an all day meeting in the church Wednesday. The meeting was well attended and proved very interesting from the presence of Miss Shaffer who comes from the national board of missions.

Miss Shaffer also talked to the girls from the high school at noon after which a pot luck dinner was served by the women. In the afternoon after the regular business session and study of the book "City Churches," Miss Shaffer again gave a very interesting talk.

Members present were Mesdames William Allsup, Jennie Boeater, Irene Cutforth, James Brehaut, J. Cutforth, J. Harper, Ross Cutforth, Robert Harper, Scott Jones, R. S. Marshall, G. J. Minton, S. F. Parker, C. A. Sawyer, A. R. Stearns, Sumner Stevens, G. T. Wadsworth, George Wynn, I. V. McAdoo, Vern Jones. Miss Shaffer was a guest.

ANOTHER PIONEER WOMAN IS CALLED

Auburn—Word was brought by Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Deakins that Mrs. Deakins' mother, Mrs. N. Foren, passed away New Year's night, just 75 years from the date of her marriage. Mrs. Foren was past 90 years old and crossed the plains to Oregon among the early pioneers. Mrs. Deakins has been caring for her mother at The Dalles.
