

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIMS RITES HELD AT AURORA

Broadacres—Funeral services were held for Mrs. May Porter and her daughter, Mrs. Clara Hurley, at the S. A. Miller chapel in Aurora, the Lutheran minister of that place conducting the services.

Mrs. Porter was the daughter of Robert and Hannah Whitney, prominent pioneers of this place. They crossed the plains in 1847. Both passed away several years ago. Mrs. Porter was born on the Whitney farm here fifty-seven years ago. Her husband, Frank Porter, died in 1910.

She is survived by one sister, Miss Clara Whitney, and four brothers, George W. Whitney, who resides in Pennsylvania; A. C. Whitney and A. L. Whitney of Broadacres, and H. T. Whitney of Portland.

Mrs. Porter was visiting her daughter in Fresno, Calif., and both died from injuries received in an auto accident.

Clara Hurley was born in Oregon 38 years ago. She is survived by her husband, J. J. Hurley, and her aunt and uncle.

Interment was in Hubbard cemetery. Hurley accompanied the bodies north as did Miss Clara Whitney and A. C. Whitney.

ANKENY CLUB WOMAN AT FARR RESIDENCE

Sidney—Mrs. R. H. Farr recently entertained the Ankeny Woman's club at her home near Sidney.

The history and people of New Zealand was the topic of a paper by Mrs. J. O. Farr. The biography of Ellen Key, a woman with new moral doctrine, was given by Mrs. C. F. Johnston. The amusement game for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Farr with prize awarded Mrs. Sidney Howard. Music was furnished by the hostess.

After refreshments were served by the hostess a surprise shower was given Mrs. Sidney Howard by the club members. Those present were Mrs. G. H. Marriott, Mrs. Sidney Howard, Mrs. D. E. Blinston, Mrs. C. F. Johnston, Mrs. L. B. Smith, Mrs. M. J. Davidson, Mrs. J. O. Farr, Mrs. E. L. Finlay, Mrs. Mary C. Kaylor of Blaine, Wash., and the hostess, Mrs. R. H. Farr.

EXPRESS DELIVERY MAY BE ABANDONED

Mt. Angel—The American Railway Express company posted a notice that they would discontinue the pick-up and delivery of express here after the first of February, but a petition signed by the local businessmen has resulted in the public service commission granting a hearing on February 10, at 10:30 o'clock at Salem.

The railway company is apparently working toward the abolishing of the depot here, eventually, and the local people feel as though they should have better service rather than any diminution of the existing one.

FESKINS IS GIVEN BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Auburn—Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Feskins honored their son, Cornelius, Thursday evening when they invited 17 of his young friends to help him celebrate his seventeenth birthday. The evening was spent playing games. Mrs. E. Morgan assisted in the serving of a dainty lunch.

Those present were Walter Johnston, David Johnston, Kenneth Morgan, Harold Morgan, Fred Pugs, Clarence Baumgartner, James McKenney, Katherine Lindbeck, Nadine Cameron, Velma Armstrong, Frances Brown, Thelma Foreard, Mildred Nadvornik, Ellen Borrenso, Ethel Johnston, Mary Feskins, Cornelius Feskins, besides Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. L. Feskins.

FLIFLET IN NAVY

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Fliflet and son, Albert, visited recently at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kunkle in the Cloverdale district, previous to Albert's leaving for the navy. He joined recently and will be stationed in the south for a few months. Albert is the grandson of Mrs. Johanna Fliflet of Salem, who resided for a number of years near Turner. He is also a nephew of Mrs. Arthur Kunkle.

LEAVES FOR ITALY

Silverton—Alex DePerio, who has made his home in Silverton for the past few years and has purchased property in the North Side Addition left this week for Genoa, Italy where he will get his wife and bring her back to Silverton. Mrs. DePerio has been unable to procure a passport until now. Mr. and Mrs. DePerio expect to be back here about July.

ILLNESS IS REPORTED

Lallah Center—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Daugherty received word from San Diego, Calif., informing them of the illness of their mother, Mrs. J. Daugherty of Portland. Mrs. Daugherty has been touring southern Oregon and California with a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Poole of Milwaukie, when she suddenly became seriously ill. Mrs. Daugherty will be kept under the doctor's care in California until she is strong enough to return to Oregon.

ED TERRILL BACK

Hopewell—Ed Terrill, who has been attending school in California the past year, is now visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Terrill of this place.

NIGHT POULTRYMEN SCHOOL IS SLATED

Dayton—Beginning February 4, two nights a week for six months, the vocational agricultural department of the Dayton high school will conduct a poultry-men's night school in the agricultural room, beginning at 8 o'clock. Prof. Burris L. Young of Dayton will have charge of the meetings.

INSTALLATION OF LODGES IS JOINT AFFAIR

Silverton—Joint installation of officers of the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters was held Thursday evening when the following officers were installed:

Knights—Past chancellor, E. B. Kottek, Jr.; chancellor commander, E. O. Lee; vice-chancellor commander, W. D. Nichol; prelate, Clarence Morley; master of work, Eddie Kottek; master of finance, J. D. Drake; master of arms, Albert Grinde; master of exchequer, I. M. Larson; keeper of records and seals, F. D. Knight; inner guard, W. P. Hicks; outer guard, Henry Overness. Past chancellor, Harry Larsen was installing officer; grand master at arms, George Wenchell, and grand prelate, John P. Hahwood, also attended.

Pythian Sisters—Past chief, Ella Knight; most excellent chief, Ruth McKike; senior, Martha Wenchell; junior, Ruthie Kottek; manager, Wanda Anderson; mistress of records and correspondence, Lavonne Bowen; mistress of finance, Neda Grinde; mistress at arms, Lillian Heald; protector, Mrs. W. F. Hicks; installing officer, Past Chief Florence Williams; grand mistress of record and correspondence, Mrs. B. Meyers; past chief pins were presented by Mrs. Litta Olsen to Fannie Drake, Minnie Hahwood, Eleanor M. Drake, Eva Potter and Florence Williams.

After the close of the meeting a pot luck lunch was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

DIVISION OF AID GUEST AT MOORES

Silverton—The second division of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church were entertained by Mrs. P. A. Moores and Mrs. W. F. Satchwell at a silver tea at the Moores home on Oak street.

About 30 members attended, among those on the program were Mrs. H. H. Frisbie who gave a piano solo, and a vocal solo by Mrs. W. F. Tate, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Edna Comstock. The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially.

The first and second divisions of this society are vying for the coming three months to see which of the two will make the most money by the end of said three months, when the winning side will be treated by the losing side. The contest ends March 31.

MILL CITY CLUB IS GUEST AT HASEMANS

Mill City—The Birthday club met at the home of Mrs. C. T. Haseman Thursday afternoon. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. C. E. Massey's.

The following were present: Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mrs. C. E. Massey, Mrs. Russell Wallace, Mrs. T. A. Booth, Mrs. J. G. Schaer, the hostess, Mrs. C. T. Haseman, and one visitor, Mrs. Chester Raines.

EVERDING IS HOST AT PLAYMORE PARK

Hubbard—Hy Everding was host to a small party of friends at Playmore Park's cabaret Wednesday evening. Edgar S. Booker of Seattle was guest of honor. Other guests were Miss Dorothy Scholl, Mrs. Harry Cutting, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. de Lespinasse, Dr. Tom Sheridan, Mrs. Helen McDougall, and Miss Marie de Lespinasse. Dancing and a luncheon were the entertainment provided by the host.

"AUNT MARY" ILL

West Salem—"Aunt Mary" Billings had a heart attack last Sunday evening and was confined to her bed for several days. She is much better and able to be up, although still under the care of her physician.

Re-Roof on Easy Terms

APPLIED BY ROOF SPECIALISTS
Phone 487 or come in for FREE estimate on Pioneer Composition Roofing

Carlton Pioneer Roofing Co.
Phone 487—A. E. Christensen, Mgr.—179 N. Front St.
AUTHORIZED APPLICATION AGENTS

GRAND THEATRE

LAST TIMES TODAY
"DARKENED ROOMS"
A SMART COMEDY DRAMA THAT IS DIFFERENT

—Also—
All Talking Comedy—Columbia Victor Act

SUNDAY—MONDAY—TUESDAY
"BIG NEWS"
The Season's Biggest Scoop in All Talking Mystery Dramas

—Also—
"BLACK CARTESS"—PATHE SOUND NEWS
"WHY GORILLAS LEAVE HOME"—Comedy
"ROMANTY LASS"—Color and Sound Victor Gem
SALEM'S BEST SOUND

ED TERRILL BACK
Hopewell—Ed Terrill, who has been attending school in California the past year, is now visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Terrill of this place.

ANNUAL FATHER SON EVENT SET TUESDAY NIGHT

West Salem—The annual Father and Son banquet will be held in the Community hall Tuesday evening at 6:15 o'clock. The meal will consist of pot luck dishes. Each man is requested to bring sandwiches and a covered dish.

Ralph V. Sebern is chairman of the meal committee and can assist you in deciding what to bring. Every man and boy in the community is urged to attend this meeting. If there are two boys in the family, one is privileged to ask another man to act as his father for the night. The men are urged to invite young men and boys, who have no fathers or whose fathers might not be able to attend, to be their sons.

The program will consist of toasts and an address and music. Wesley Warren will represent the sons and W. J. Warren will represent the fathers.

The boy scouts will give a short playlet.

The address of the evening will be given by Ronald Glover, Salem attorney. There will be special musical numbers by various local people.

CLUB ACTIVITIES RESUME AT DAYTON

Dayton—The first meeting of the Knowledge Needle club since the recent snow storm was held at the Herman Lohs home Thursday evening. Sewing was the pastime.

Mrs. Clete Gell became a new member. She and her husband are recently from Battle Ground, Wash. They purchased the confectionery of William Schell, early in the winter and are becoming affiliated with social and business life of Dayton.

Members present were Mrs. Oscar Dower, Mrs. Rex Pfeffer, Mrs. Fred Matthes, Mrs. George Webster, Mrs. Harry Sherman, Mrs. Vernon Foster, Mrs. Clete Gell and Miss Madeline Rosmer and the hostess. The next meeting will be at the Wiley Emmert home.

Dayton—Mrs. Bert McParlane entertained the Aloha Needle club at her home in the Pleasantdale district Thursday afternoon. One guest Mrs. Floyd McFadden was present.

Members attending were Mrs. Marion Boulden, Mrs. Fred Finicum, Mrs. Clifford Gibbons, Mrs. Eazel Gubser, Mrs. Ralph Hadley, Mrs. Owen Holliday, Mrs. Brooks Sweetney, Mrs. J. A. McParlane and the hostess, Mrs. McParlane served refreshments.

This was the first meeting of the club since the storm. The next meeting will be at the Sweeney home in Brooks.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB PROPOSING FINES

Clear Lake—The Ladies' Improvement club met at the church Thursday for an all day meeting with quilting the order of the day. Not many members were present on account of the weather. Last week they met at the home of Mrs. Eck Dutoit with nine members present.

The last two meetings have been quite interesting. It was voted that each member not present at the next meeting to be held Feb. 6) would pay a fine of five cents as there is quite a lot of work to be done before the spring work opens up.

Those present Thursday were Mrs. Amos Smith, Mrs. V. Boyd, Mrs. Ector, Mrs. Eck Dutoit, Mrs. Alex Harold, Mrs. Arthur Baker, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Alta Foren and two children, and Miss Lydia Powell.

REAL ESTATE DEAL MADE AT MONMOUTH

Monmouth—Mrs. Nancy Noble, whose home on South Whitman street burned recently, has just purchased the practically new house at 442 E. Jackson. The place is now occupied by Rev. and Mrs. George C. Bertram and family.

This house was built about two years ago by J. F. Murdoch, who exchanged it with J. W. Wright for some Seaside property. Guy Deming, local real estate agent, made the present deal for Wright.

Pork Loving Bear Lured to House— Frightened Away

Silverton—Clarence Simmons, who lives a few miles out of town, had killed a pig evening he saw a large black Tuesday and hung the fresh meat on the back porch. That bear near the back of the house, evidently attracted there by the smell of the meat.

The bear must have heard some noise in the house suddenly frightened him for he suddenly ran. Simmons trailed him to a wide oval about three-fourths of a mile from the house where the tracks were lost.

A bear had been seen on the Nelson place on the upper Silverton-Salem road the first of the week and it is thought possible that this may have been the same animal.

BLAZE THREAT AT MONMOUTH KEPT SECRET

Monmouth—The two fire trucks were called out Friday afternoon to the home of Mrs. Sarah Hager, aged resident of Monmouth. A can of gasoline had exploded and threatened the building, an old frame structure.

Mrs. Hager, who shares her home with several normal school boys, knew nothing of the tragedy which came so near to making her homeless, as the boys worked furiously to put out the fire, and succeeded before the arrival of the engines. Not much damage was done. Friends and neighbors, in a desire to shield "Grandma" Hager from the shock which she might feel if she learned of the accident, told her nothing of what had happened. She, of course, saw the fire truck arrive and then go away, but as they often pass her house when out for practice, their advent did not alarm her, and no one has yet told her the truth.

JANUARY MEETING HELD MONITOR P.-T.

Monitor—The January meeting of the Monitor P.-T. A. was held at the schoolhouse Thursday evening with a good attendance.

It was decided that the February meeting would be a bundle meeting with each member bringing a bundle to send to the service shop in Portland.

Mrs. Selmerbaum read a paper on "Keeping the School Child Fit." The balance of the program included: song by Martha and Vera Coblentz; reading, Lucinda Roman; reading, Wilma Hastie; recitation, Leona Hallweber; song, Martha and Vera Coblentz; recitation, Leona Hallweber and Kitchen band, eight girls.

COUNCIL INITIATION WILL BE HELD SOON

Mt. Angel—The Knights of Columbus will hold a meeting Tuesday evening at which plans will be discussed for an initiation to be held in the near future.

The matter of voting funds for a perpetual mass fund and also a memorial fund for the rebuilding of the cemetery to St. Benedict's Abbey in honor of Rev. Abbot Adelhelm, will be decided.

CLASS MAKES PLANS FOR TIMBER CRUISE

Independence—Prof. H. R. Patterson and wife of Corvallis, were Thursday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McIntosh on Monmouth avenue. They were accompanied by Allen Smith, a senior in logging engineering at O. A. C.

Prof. Patterson expects to take his class to Kings valley this week end on a cruising expedition for the Christensen Lumber company providing the snow has receded sufficiently to let them into the woods at that place.

PLAY WORK STARTS

Jefferson—Practice has begun on the operetta "Polished Pebbles" to be given by the high school students under the direction of Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle. It will be presented some time in February, the definite date not yet decided upon.

BOYANOVSKY HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

Scio—The 51st birth anniversary of Joe Boyanovsky was commemorated when a number of friends surprised him with a party at his home in the outskirts of Scio. Drorak with his violin, Sylvester Kreek with his trombone, and Frank Krunt with his accordion, played for the guests. Games and refreshments supplemented the musical numbers on the evening's program.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Matt Drorak, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kreek, Victor Kreek (Canada), Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krunt, Mrs. Anna Drorak, Mr. and Mrs. John Drorak, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patry, Mr. and Mrs. George Patry, John Zemlicka and family of South Dakota.

SETTING OF DATE OF PLAY TEDIOUS

Hubbard—The high school play which has been postponed twice has again had a change of tentative date due to conflicting with a play sponsored by the women's club. The last tentative date now set is the middle of March. High school students to whom parts have been assigned hope to start rehearsals before long as the play is most attractive. Superintendent J. R. Bostard is again in charge of the coaching.

FORUM GROUPS AT SILVERTON ARE SELECTED

Silverton—At the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce Thursday evening, chairmen of all committees were elected, some of which have already appointed their committee members and others who will do so before the next meeting.

Following are the chairmen with the rest of the committees which are appointed:

Publicity—Superintendent Robert Goetz, E. B. Kottek, Sr., and H. T. Allen.
Membership—Alf. O. Nelson, Ernest Starr, Julius Olson.
Roads—Dr. P. A. Loar.
Industrial—Mayor L. C. Eastman.
Visitation—Norris Ames.
Civic—P. L. Brown.
Luncheon—Walter Arbuthnot.
Finance—Clifford G. Rue.
Entertainment—Norris Ames and George W. Hubbs.
Program—Robert Duncan.
Tourist park—E. V. Johns.
Agriculture—Dairy, M. G. Gundersen and Dr. Arthur Simmons; stock, Oscar Lee and J. J. Doerflinger; fall fruits and vegetables, Mike Storms; poultry, Lou Robinson; livestock, Frank Riches and A. N. Doerflinger.

STAYTON FORESTERS STAGE CARD PARTY

Stayton—A card party given by the lady Foresters at the Forester hall Tuesday evening was attended by about 50 people. A committee served lunch. Miss Clara Spaniol won first prize for women, and Joe Hendricks first for men, with Mrs. Peter Deidrick second.

ELEVEN LEGION COMMANDERS TO GET INSIGNIAS

Independence—Eleven past commanders of Independence post of the American Legion will receive their past commander jewels at a special meeting to be held February 20 in Campbell's hall.

Sid George, state commander, Eugene, will be present and make the presentation. A special program will be arranged for the occasion and this will be followed by a banquet, sponsored by the auxiliary of the post. All members of the post and their wives are expected to be present.

Prof. C. A. Thompson, local commander has extended an invitation to all state Legion officers to attend.

Past commanders are as follows: R. M. Walker 1919, A. L. Kullander 1920, G. G. Godfrey 1921, Emerson Groves 1922, L. C. Rullison 1923, A. L. Kenney 1924, Clyde Ellis 1925, G. C. Smith 1926, Charles Alwater 1927, H. W. Graw 1928 and Elmer Frye 1929.

All will be present excepting Clyde Ellis, who is located at Seward, Alaska.

A special effort is being made to increase the membership roll to 35 and it is expected they will go over the top by February 20.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAS SESSION

Jefferson—The Foreign missionary society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. George C. Mason Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Charles McKee as joint hostess.

Mrs. L. N. Bennett was leader for the afternoon, the subject of the lesson being "The Glorious Company." This was a group of missionaries, seven men and three women. Each member read an article concerning them and their work in the mission fields.

BOYANOVSKY HAS PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

Scio—The 51st birth anniversary of Joe Boyanovsky was commemorated when a number of friends surprised him with a party at his home in the outskirts of Scio. Drorak with his violin, Sylvester Kreek with his trombone, and Frank Krunt with his accordion, played for the guests. Games and refreshments supplemented the musical numbers on the evening's program.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Matt Drorak, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kreek, Victor Kreek (Canada), Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krunt, Mrs. Anna Drorak, Mr. and Mrs. John Drorak, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patry, Mr. and Mrs. George Patry, John Zemlicka and family of South Dakota.

REHEARSALS START FOR MARCH CONCERT

Hubbard—After several weeks' vacation the Hubbard band will resume rehearsals February 5 at the band room in the Odd Fellows building. Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse, director, will begin the rehearsals for the annual March 17 concert. This is an annual event to which the countryside in former years turned out in mass, but which during the last few years has not been so well patronized. This year the band hopes to see the spontaneousness of the support of former years.

CLUB WOMEN MEET

Auburn—The members of the Auburn Women's club held a called meeting at the Peustman home to complete some sewing and quilt knitting started last week to assist Miss Maria Feustman. A pot luck dinner was served.

PLAY WORK STARTS

Jefferson—Practice has begun on the operetta "Polished Pebbles" to be given by the high school students under the direction of Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle. It will be presented some time in February, the definite date not yet decided upon.

ELSONORE

CONTINUOUS 2 TO 11 DAILY
SAT. SUN.
MON.
"LOVE COMES ALONG"
with BEBE DANIELS
LLOYD HUGHES
SAT. — SUN.
FANCHON AND MARCO'S
"Hot Dominoes Idea"
with the SUNKIST BEAUTIES
SPECIAL MONDAY
With regular picture. Revival of "Bessie Geste"
Revival Every Monday

SEE AND HEAR
"THE HOME TOWNERS"
RICHARD BENNETT
DOUG KENTON
Also
Our Gang Talking Comedy
Pathe Sound News

KALLAK RITES HELD FRIDAY AT WOODBURN

Woodburn—Funeral services for Miss Ruth Kallak, 16 year old twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kallak, who died at the home of her parents on Tuesday night of sleeping sickness, were held at St. Mary's Episcopal church in Woodburn on Friday morning. At the home a brief prayer was offered by Rev. Henry G. Hanson of the Presbyterian church where Ruth attended Sunday school and the services at the church were conducted by Archdeacon Claude Black of Portland.

A sextet of girls from the high school, Misses Grace and Edith Shrock, Jessie Sims, Opal Dickey, Dorothy Austin and Ruth Geer, sang a favorite hymn of the deceased. Mrs. E. H. Cowles presided at the organ.

Pallbearers were Harold Wright, Gorda Klump, Harold Gustafson, Albert Lemcke, Murel Nehl and Alvin Rosen all of whom are students of Woodburn high school. Interment was in Belle Past cemetery.

Ruth Inge Kallak was born at Epping, North Dakota on January 9, 1914, and came to Woodburn with the family in 1925. She was a sophomore at Woodburn high school, a member of St. Mary's (Episcopal) Sunday school, Surviving Episcopal church and the Presby are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kallak, one brother, John, and four sisters; her twin sister, Roma, Marjorie, Mrs. Carol Miller of Hubbard and Arlene.

Woodburn—At Woodburn high school on Friday morning a memorial assembly was held in memory of Miss Ruth Kallak, a sophomore, who died at the home of her parents on Tuesday night. The assembly was in charge of Miss Helen Washburn, sophomore advisor and the services opened with the hymn "Abide With Me," followed by a selection by Misses Grace and Edith Shrock and Opal Dickey. Short talks were given by Misses Katherine Kay, Ursula Moshberger, Eva Hutchinson, and Dorothy Austin, all close friends of Ruth. A solo by Miss Fern Wadsworth was followed by "Nearer My God to Thee," by the entire assembly.

WILLAMETTE VALLEY NEWS

DEGREE WORK GIVEN BY MONMOUTH LODGE

Monmouth—Emplacement, order of I. O. O. F. held its regular meeting this week in the Odd Fellows hall. Besides the regular routine, the Royal Purple degree was given to F. M. Roth of Monmouth and Mr. Wood of Independence. Following the degree work, refreshments were served. The rest of the evening was spent in dancing and cards.

LONG CEREMONY FEATURE LODGE INSTALLATION

Hubbard—Arion Lodge Knights of Pythias, had a belated installation of officers Thursday night. The delay was caused through the absence of W. S. McMannis, chancellor-elect. McMannis was taking a short vacation with relatives in Roseburg. Upon his return the installation took place under George Leffler, installing officer for the ceremony.

Members seated as officers were W. S. McMannis, chancellor commander; Elton McLaughlin, vice chancellor; H. C. Mack, prelate; Ayon Jesse, keeper of records and seals; Robert Brown, master of finance; L. M. Scholl, master of the exchequer; John Stauffer, master of arms; Theodore Christian, inner guard; Frank Thompson, outer guard.

According to Frank Thompson, appointed district deputy of the lodge, this was one of the finest installations ever held in Hubbard as all of the lengthy ceremonial had been memorized. He also stated that the next card party sponsored by the Knights would be in March.

MRS. ALLIE YERGEN BURIED SATURDAY

Donald—Mrs. Allie Yergen, wife of Frank Yergen, died Thursday at the Portland Sanitarium. Mrs. Yergen underwent an operation for intestinal trouble from which she rallied and was improving, until pneumonia developed, causing her death. Mrs. Yergen had lived two miles west of here for many years.

Surviving are the husband, and one daughter, Blanch, at home; two sons, Bruce of Portland and Ralph, a student at the U. of O., and a large number of relatives in this vicinity.

JEFFERSON REVIVAL INTEREST GAINING

Jefferson—With the coming of warmer weather, the crowds are growing steadily at the revival meeting conducted at the Christian church, Friday night a special pantomime was given.

At 6:30 Sunday evening the Christian Endeavor will present a play. At 7:30 o'clock a pageant "United at the Cross," will be given by members of the church.

The meetings will continue each night until February 7.

MOVING STORE CONTENTS

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright, who came here about a year and a half ago to establish the Variety store, are moving their stock next week to Klamath Falls, where they will open a store similar to the local one. They came to Monmouth from Rainier.

LAST TIMES TODAY

Home of 25c Talks
LAST TIMES TODAY
"From Headquarters"
Starring Monte Blue
A Warner Bros. Vitaphone Production
ALSO TALKING SERIAL
"King of the Kongo"
Pathe News & Fables
Coming Sunday for 3 Days
Continuous Performance
Sunday 2 to 11 P. M.
The funniest play ever conceived—it's an All-American
All Laughing Pictures
HOME TOWN FOLKS!
HOME TOWN LIFE!
HOME TOWN HUMOR!
"Tell him I refuse to marry him!"
The stars of "7th Heaven" and "Street Angel" in their first big musical comedy—singing for the first time on the screen!
with JANET GAYNOR & CHARLES FARRELL
—AND