

VALENTINE DAY MURDERS STILL PUZZLE POLICE

Chicago (AP)—One year ago this February 14, while Chicago was say- ing with red hearts and endearing terms, gangland delivered its great- est message of hate—the St. Valen- tine's day massacre.

Seven members of the "Phog" Moran gang fell before machine gun fire in a Clark street garage to dar- ken the day set aside for exchange- ing tokens of affection.

The sleuths have taken the mys- tery out of the crime but they have- n't found the men who pulled the triggers.

They know, say the investigators, why the men were killed and who killed them. All that remains is to manacle the hands that did it.

The authorities even say the two machine guns found in Fred Burke's bungalow near St. Joseph, Mich., were used in the slaying. A cor- ner's jury decided Burke, known as a "hand" and gunman, should be accused of the murder.

Burke, living quietly near St. Joseph, was brought into the case after he killed a traffic officer. He escaped.

Hired gunmen killed the Moran followers, possibly, the investiga- tors reasoned, because the gangster had been his jacking transport of booze. The name of Al Capone, desig- nated gang boss rival of Moran, has been freely mentioned in the investigation. But Capone, in jail at Philadelphia, said he was out of the "racket."

Two men were arrested for the killing. "Handsome" Jack McQuinn never was tried, the state finally dismissing the charge. Jack Scallei was slain before he could be tried.

PROGRESS SEEN IN INDUSTRIES OF GERMANY

Berlin (AP)—The concentration and rationalization of German in- dustry has made significant progress in the past year.

Although some of the basic in- dustries like coal, iron and steel, have been organized for a long time, each company being assigned a quota of the total production which it is not permitted to exceed. It is noticeable that the larger firms are tending to increase their quotas through the absorption of smaller companies.

For example, the Geisenkirchen coal mining company recently con- siderably enlarged its own quota through the purchase of small com- panies, while Krupp's assured the quota of the locomotive works of Hohenzollern and Linke Hoffman.

A similar tendency has been shown in tobacco products. Reemtsma Neu- erburg is now controlling 80 per cent of the German output, while in the tire industry Peters Union and the Continental Combination are pro- ducing two-thirds of the tires made in Germany.

Some industries have been partly organized during the year under the auspices of foreign capital. For example telephone equipment, in which a new combination has been erected which International Tele- phone and Telegraph Company con- trols; artificial silk, which Dutch capital dominates; ball-bearings, in which the Swedish concern Norma is now predominant; while in the same direction Kreuger has obtained a monopoly of the sale of matches.

The expansion of these cartels is viewed with anxiety in business quarters because a disproportionate increase in prices is feared. According to the Frankfurter Zeitung the price index of goods produced by industries outside the cartels dropped in the first nine months of the last year, while the index of cartel products increased from 104.6 to 105.3 in the same period.

18 YEARS SEES END OF MARBLE STATUE

Nottingham, England (AP)—The glory that was Greece would have had a tough time of it in Notting- ham's climate at least as far as the marble statuary was concerned.

Eighteen years ago a marble likeness of Richard Parkes Boning- ton, the Nottinghamshire artist, was erected here to preserve his memory in "imperishable stone."

Nottingham has had considerable bad weather since then, with such ravaging effect that the whole statue is falling to pieces.

It is planned to replace it with a copy in bronze.

DENTIST ASKS CHANGE STORE TEETH SURFACE

Indianapolis, (AP)—Dr. Rupert E. Hall, Chicago dental authority, would improve design of artificial teeth, avoiding roughness charac- teristic of natural molars.

Dr. Hall believes chewing surfaces should be extremely regular instead of rough, and upper and lower teeth should be interlocking, cutting and crushing food, rather than grinding.

Teeth designed according to the new theory would eliminate stress on gum tissues and increase effi- ciency, he said.

BIRTHS ARE REPORTED

Dallas—The Dallas hospital re- ports two births recently. They are a boy on February 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jensen; and a girl on February 9 to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanes of Falls City.
