

News OF THE Day IN Pictures

CANTILEVER SPAN OF BRIDGE JOINED

Longview, Wash., and Rainier, Ore., on opposite banks of the Columbia river, will be joined by the Longview bridge to be opened for traffic in April. Its cantilever span, 1200 feet, will be the longest in the United States, the total length of the structure being 3900 feet.

Plans Long Flight

Paul Montgomery, 24, of Murphysboro, Ill., signed a contract with William Easterwood, Dallas, Tex., millionaire, to fly from Rome to Dallas via New York.

Sues For Divorce

Associated Press Photo.

Lady Mary Heath, noted woman filer, filed suit in Reno, Nev., for a divorce against Sir James Heath on grounds of cruelty.

Senator Watson III

Associated Press Photo.

Senator James E. Watson of Indiana has been ordered by physicians to take an immediate rest to avoid a nervous breakdown.

Gets Edison Medal

Associated Press Photo.

Prof. Charles F. Scott of Yale was awarded the Edison medal of American Institute of Electrical Engineers for electrical research.

MUSHER ESTABLISHES NEW RECORD

Earl Kimball, driving for Reno, Nev., in the Ogden, Utah, dog derby, drove his team 25 miles to hang up a new mark of 1:53.8 hours to win the event.

Held In Slaying

Mrs. Lillian Stephenson was arrested at Mancos, Colo., charged with murder in connection with death of her husband several months ago at Yampa, Colo. John Rundell (above) was arrested with her. Authorities charge Stephenson died of poisoning.

At Miami Beach

Joan Guggenheim, daughter of Harry F. Guggenheim, ambassador to Cuba, playing a game on the La Gorce course at Miami Beach, Fla.

Visits Brother

Horace D. Taft of Watertown, Conn., arrived in Washington to be with his brother William Howard Taft, former chief justice, who is seriously ill.

Warden At Sing Sing

Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing prison.

WITNESSES AT WASHINGTON DRY LAW HEARINGS

Associated Press Photo.

Left to right: Rep. Adolph J. Sabath of Chicago, William C. Bruce, former senator from Maryland; Rep. Robert H. Clancy of Detroit and Dr. F.W. Buck, who testified at hearings before house judiciary committee in Washington on proposals for repeal or modification of eighteenth amendment.

Issues Challenge

Little Marjorie Best of Detroit, Mich., just 28 months old, challenges any youngster her age, who wants to contest the honor of being the world's youngest swimmer.

IN MAINE SENATORIAL RACE

Associated Press Photo.

Ralph O. Brewster (left), former governor, and Rep. Wallace H. White are candidates for the republican nomination for senator to succeed Senator Arthur R. Gould, who is retiring in 1931.

HACK WINS $20,000 LEGAL FIGHT

Associated Press Photo.

A superior court jury acquitted Hack Wilson, outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, of charges of assaulting Edward Young, Chicago milkman, at Wrigley field last June and denied Young's request for $20,000 damages. He is shown in court with his attorney, David Stansbury.

Back With Cards

Associated Press Photo.

Put out as a player by an injury, Ray Blades, former star outfielder for the St. Louis Cardinals, will rejoin the Redbirds next season as a coach.

Crew Coach

Associated Press Photo.

Ky Abright, coach of the University of California crews.

Succeeds De Rivera

Associated Press Photo.

Following the resignation of Premier Primo de Rivera, Spanish dictator, Gen. Damaso Berenguer was charged by King Alfonso to form a new ministry.

Seeks Altitude Mark

Associated Press Photo.

Barney Zimmerley of Marshall, Mo., will attempt to better the world's altitude record for small airplanes during the International Aircraft Exposition in St. Louis February 15 to 23.

Spanish Liberal

Associated Press Photo.

Sedition charges against him wiped out by royal decree, Jose Antonio Sanchez Guerra, former Spanish premier, intends to re-enter politics heading a new political group.

Threatened

Associated Press Photo.

Francine Larrimore, New York actress, has been given a guard of two detectives following threats that she would be kidnaped unless she paid $25,000.

In Steel Merger

Associated Press Photo.

E. T. McCleary, president of the Republic Iron and Steel company, probably will become president of the new company formed by a $350,000,000 merger of five big steel groups.

On Liquor Raids

Associated Press Photo.

Rep. John C. Shafer of Wisconsin has revealed himself as a "ring-side observer" at dry raids in Washington by accompanying police raiders.

HOOVER'S NEW COMMUNITY SCHOOL IN VIRGINIA

Associated Press Photo.

Here is the new rural school near President Hoover's summer camp in Virginia. The school will accommodate 30 pupils. President Hoover was interested in the movement to build the school for the benefit of mountain pupils. Christine Vest, Kentucky mountain girl (left), was chosen to teach. At right, N. V. Long, state school architect, is shown assembling furniture in the school.

FRED STONE, ALL PATCHED UP, RETURNS TO STAGE

Associated Press Photo.

Fred Stone, sound as a shilling again after his airplane fall of 1928, is somersaulting on Broadway once more. In his new show are Mrs. Stone, Dorothy, and another daughter—Paula. Here are Fred, Paula, Mrs. Stone and Dorothy.