Bridge Tea Attractive Social Event

One of the largest social events of the week was the attractive bridge tea at the Worth home on North Capitol street Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. H. R. Worth and Mrs. George Arbuckle were hostesses to a number of Salem matrons. The spacious rooms of the Worth home were decked with large baskets of pastel-shaded tulips, golden daffodils and other gay spring flowers.

Mrs. Ray Hartman received the high score prize for the nine tables of bridge in play. The second prize went to the Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

At the tea hour Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. Ralph Cooley and Mrs. George Vehrs assisted Mrs. Arbuckle and Mrs. Worth in serving. Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Miss Zoe Stockton, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Harry Crain, Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. G. L. Forge, Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mrs. Scott Page, Mrs. W. I. Zonta club will be host to the Encinitis club March 6 with a dinner and social evening.

During the business session minor changes were made in the by-laws of the local Zonta club. The service club will meet each week on Thursday, with a luncheon meeting and a dinner meeting alternating. Mrs. Ora McIntyre was elected as delegate of the local club to the district Zonta convention at Olympia, Washington, March 16. The international Zonta convention will be held in Seattle in June.

Reports were made of the first birthday held by the Portland Zonta club Wednesday night in the Malloy hotel by the four Salem Zontinas who attended, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, Miss Janice McCrea, Miss Hazel Cook and Mrs. Ora McIntyre.

Nile Club Compliments Mrs. LeGarie

Mrs. Lloyd LeGarie, past president of the Salem Daughters of the Nile club who is leaving Monday for Sacramento to make her home, was complimented by the Nile club members and their husbands with a delightful evening of bridge in the David Wright home on Stewart street. A number of tables of bridge were in play in the attractive ballroom on the second floor of the Wright home.

Presented at the supper hour, the club members presented a pretty gift to Mrs. LeGarie. Prizes for the evening of bridge went to Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff and Frederick H. Crosby.

Serving at the supper hour were Mrs. C. M. Pettys, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn and Mrs. Paul Hauser, the committee in charge of the event.

Those present for the evening of cards were Mrs. Lloyd LeGarie, the honor guest, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ericson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Halk, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buckner, Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Crosby, Mrs. Grace Crater, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Wagstaff, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Members of Capital assembly, United Artisans, were entertained Thursday evening in Fraternal temple with a basket dinner and evening of cards. The assembly is making plans for a large dinner next Thursday evening, February 27, when the officers of the Eugene assembly will be present to put on the degree work.

Salem Folk Receive Ovation in Portland

Master Emory Stuart Hobson, youthful pianist, and the Salem civic chorus singing in connection with the Apollo club chorus of Portland under the direction of Prof. Emory W. Hobson received a signal ovation in their appearance at the Portland Shrine auditorium Thursday evening. Both the chorus of 60 voices, containing a number of voices from Willamette university, and the youthful pianist, were lauded highly in press criticisms.

The Oregonian, Portland critic, says in part: "Those who attended the concert of the Apollo club male chorus of 60 voices, Emory W. Hobson, conductor—with Mr. Hobson's young son, Master Emory Stuart Hobson of Salem as piano soloist—at the Shrine auditorium last night found the evening one of excellent musical progress, where advancement in choral singing was noted."

"Mr. Hobson made an earnest, able conductor, and at all times had his chorus under control. He was so much in earnest that he sang softly each note the tenors announced."

"The change by the club to the Shrine auditorium is a welcome and convenient one, and the hall space lends itself nicely to the intimate atmosphere of these home concerts by home singers."

"Edgar E. Coursen provided admirable accompaniments."

"Master Hobson, boy pianist, is a music find. He is finely endowed as a quiet, dignified piano interpreter, both by education and natural heritage. It is rare that a boy such as he, one of 15 years, makes such a good impression on a critical audience such as he faced, and by his modesty and personal talents make good. He played from memory like the young artist that he is, with vision, discernment and creative impressionism. He seemed to catch nuances of expression and finely tempered tonal offerings, like the flaming colors of a Moorish picture—especially in a Brahms rhapsody and the Chopin ballad in a flat major. He was cordially greeted by his audience, and won many friends by his modest platform behavior. He greeted demands for new piano solos as extras with grateful bows. The audience would have listened with pleasure to additional solos from this talented boy, had he so desired."

"The chorus, with younger voices in it, both from this city and Willamette university, Salem, sang so well that it made the audience sit up and take notice. A new life is observed in the singing choral work, and an artistic attention to musical details that stamped the performance as one of many excellences. Mr. Hobson has largely stopped the practice of the chorus men in looking too closely at music scores. They now watch signals."

Past Presidents Club Entertained

Members of the past presidents' club of the Patriarchs Militant ladies' auxiliary were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Inez Siegmund on South 17th street. The evening was spent informally with games and conversation. Later in the evening the hostesses served refreshments, with George Washington favors marking covers for the group.

In the guest group for the evening were Pearl Porcick, Ida Traggio, Adolphine Harris, Ella Traggis, Nellie Ewell, Elizabeth Adair, Effie Bonesteel, Belle Carlson, Louise King, Victoria Stiffler, Addie Hamner, Florence Yarnell, and Rebecca Shusterowitz. The hostess group included Elsie Townsend, Luella Engstrom, Ivadene Hubbard, Grace Taylor, Myrtle Tyrell, Ethel Fletcher, Alma Henderson and Inez Siegmund.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Hochstetter were dinner hosts in their home on North Fifth street Thursday evening. George Washington favors marked covers for Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Emerick, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Newton, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McShane, Mr. and Mrs. S. Steven, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Hunsaker, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Newman, Mr. and Mrs. R. VanPelt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Deppen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McCarroll, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Hochstetter, Miss Vera Harrison and R. J. Ambos assisted in the serving.

Mrs. Louise King, Mrs. Alma Henderson and Mrs. DeLaine Eberhart were hostesses Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. King on South Capitol street to the members of the Past Noble Grands association.

Initiatory ceremonies were held for Florence Shields, Cora McNeill, Mrs. Wolf, Florence Yarnell and Anna Baty. Informal games followed, with the hostesses serving refreshments later in the evening. Decorations and refreshments used the Washington birthday motif.

Members of chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood were entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. T. Hickey, Mrs. Rae Beldin and Mrs. W. L. Newton were special guests for the afternoon. Roll call was answered with incidents from the lives of Washington and Lincoln, and Mrs. William Hughes read a paper on Lincoln. Mrs. C. K. Logan assisted Mrs. Hickey at the tea hour.

Election of officers will be held at the next meeting of the club, March 6, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Laffar.

The Salem Woman's club will hold their monthly tea and program meeting Saturday afternoon in their clubhouse on North Cottage street, with the president, Mrs. Harry J. Weldner, presiding. The main features of the program will be presented by the Salem Camp Fire Girls under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Minkewitz.

Reports will be given by Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, chairman of the finance committee for the state convention here in May, and by several department heads. Mrs. W. B. Johnston of the picture library division, will display two French pictures and give a brief talk concerning (Additional Society on Page 7)

Talking about style- We Are Concentrating on Suits...

... in a very serious way, because we are of the opinion of Paris that the suit will be the most important feature of the Spring mode. Not just one type suit, by any means, but many, all absurdly dignified as befits this highly feminized mode. Conspicuous are the short jacket, nipped-in-waist, yoke skirts, flares, etc. The new three quarters coat suit is an innovation, too.

Stunning tweeds, soft cashmir or exquisite fine covers are here as well as homespun, basket weaves and imported English cloths. In every Spring shade with emphasis on "lighter than navy." Tomorrow is "suit day" at Miller's... We'd like to show you ours.
