Program, Tea Entertains Club Group

One of the most interesting programs presented at a meeting of the Salem Woman's club this year was held Saturday afternoon at the Woman's clubhouse on North Cottage street...

The program opened with a piano solo by Jean Hewitt, followed by a song, "Indian Lullaby," sung by Charlotte McKee, Geraldine Peterson, Opal Ecker and Margaret Albin.

A dainty minute number was given by Elva Seton and Dorothy Burke with Echo Baldersee at the piano. Edith Clement gave a reading, while vocal solos were offered by Gwendolyn Hubbard and piano numbers by Dorcyce Hoos.

Other numbers on the program were talks by Mrs. W. B. Johnson on two French pictures, Shardin's "Grace Before Meat," and Pragnard's "Say Please," sponsored by the picture library division of the club...

Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, chairman of the finance committee for the state convention here in May, announced that Mrs. C. K. Spaulding would open her home for a benefit bridge tea Friday afternoon, February 28.

Mrs. E. C. Cross and Mrs. F. A. Elliott presided during the tea hour at an attractive table centered with pastel-shaded sweet peas in a silver bowl flanked by tall green tapers in silver holders.

Mrs. Lyman McDonald won the high score prize for the evening of bridge that followed the dinner. The second prize went to Mrs. A. B. Seely.

Pictured are four members of Woodburn's younger set who have been active in social events in the northern part of the county this past winter. Reading from the left: Miss Waivo Lenon, who played one of the leading characters in "Peg O' My Heart"; Miss Opal Hedge, retiring Worthy Advisor of Evergreen Assembly...

Bride Elect Honored At Bridge Party

Miss Vivian Stoltenberg, whose marriage to Deryl Myers will be an event of the near future, was complimented by Miss Maxine Myers with an evening of bridge in the Frank Myers home on Cheneketa street Friday.

Late in the evening Miss Al Adolph and Miss Yvonne Smith assisted Miss Meyers and Mrs. Frank Meyers in serving refreshments. The rooms of the Myers home were decked with dainty baskets of pastel-shaded spring flowers.

Jessie F. Bush and Marjorie Walker will present several of their pupils in an afternoon musicale in Portland Sunday, February 23.

Dinners to Fete Guests At Ball

One of the major social events of the year will be the annual military ball to be held at the Salem armory Saturday evening, with Oregon Reserve officers at Salem as hosts.

Mrs. J. L. Woodworth entertained members of her bridge club and several additional guests at a luncheon in her home Thursday. Covers were placed at a pretty table centered with a Colonial nosegay for Mrs. Gus Hixson, Mrs. P. C. McDonald, Mrs. Roy Keene, special guests, and for the club group.

Informal Tea Friday Afternoon

Mrs. E. E. Botsford was honored on her 68th birthday anniversary Friday by her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Butler, with an informal tea. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. B. B. Herrick and Mrs. Carrie Roland, whose birthday anniversaries also occurred Friday.

Guests for the afternoon included Mrs. Botsford, Mrs. Herrick, Mrs. Roland, Mrs. N. E. Gunnell, Mrs. J. L. Stockton, Mrs. Minnie Graham, Mrs. R. W. Davis, Mrs. Mary Putnam, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. S. R. Vall, Mrs. W. T. Staley, Mrs. Joseph Beck, Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Miss Lottie Dimick, Miss Julia Webster and Miss Margaret Putnam.

The Standard Bearer society of the First Methodist church will meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Carl Greig Doney, 838 South 12th street.

Gay Affair Compliments Miss Ihrig

Complimenting Miss Mildred Ihrig, who will leave in a few days for her home near Fresno, California, Miss Cecil McKecheer and Miss Helen Bristol were hostesses for five tables of bridge Friday evening in the Gray Belle.

Members of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity at Willamette university will entertain their six pledges to be initiated into the fraternity Saturday with a dinner Saturday night at the Gray Belle. Covers will be placed for 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Ursula Q. Wolfer entertained in their home on North Fifth street Thursday evening with three tables of bridge. High honors went to Mrs. Barney Kropp and Guy Albin. Later in the evening, Miss Vera Warden assisted Mrs. Wolfer in serving refreshments.

Thursday Dinner Club Entertained

The Thursday dinner club members were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pugh Thursday. The afternoon was spent in bridge by the women of the club, with their husbands joining them at the dinner hours, "906" was the diversion of the evening.

Mrs. William W. Hogan won the high score at bridge, with second prize going to Mrs. Vern Compton. For the evening of "500" honors went to Mrs. G. E. Johnson and William Hogan, and second honors to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer.

Members of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity at Willamette university will entertain their six pledges to be initiated into the fraternity Saturday with a dinner Saturday night at the Gray Belle. Covers will be placed for 30.

A father and son banquet will be held in the social rooms of the Knight Memorial church Wednesday evening at 6:45 o'clock. Dean Roy Hewitt of Willamette university will be the speaker. Brief addresses will be made by a number of the guests. Musical selections will be given by Newell Williams, Ronald Craven, and a male quartet.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Peck observed their 67th wedding anniversary at their home on Fairview avenue Saturday. An informal family reunion and reception to their many friends, during the afternoon, followed by a family dinner in the evening, marked the occasion for the elderly couple.

The four children of the five born to Mr. and Mrs. Peck, who were married 67 years ago in LaPorte, Iowa, were present at the celebration Saturday. They are Mrs. H. F. Prescott, H. S. Peck, Mrs. R. D. Cooper and Prof. Morton E. Peck of Willamette university. They are all residents of Salem and vicinity.

Mr. Peck, who is a naturalist and taxidermist, was born in Great Barrington, Massachusetts, 91 years ago, and was in the vanguard of the settlement which swept the country from the east to the west. He tells many interesting tales of the days when there was not a foot of railroad in Iowa, and when the flight of passenger pigeons darkened the skies. Mrs. Peck was born in Jackson, Michigan, 87 years ago. The couple have lived in Oregon for nearly 40 years.

McKelvey, Miss Ihrig was presented with a guest prize. Miss Bristow's and Miss McKeecher's guests included Miss Ihrig, Mrs. George H. Dr. Estella Ford Warner, Miss Mary Eyre, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Carlotta Crowley, Miss Carolyn Buock, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Miss Claudia Plank, Miss Ethelwynne Murton, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Leah Ross, Miss Beatrice Wall, Miss Beatrice Geiger, Miss Flora Brown, Miss Alta Kerahner, Miss Lillian Davis, Miss Merle McKelvey, Miss Ola Clark and Mrs. Harvay MacIntyre and Mrs. Herman Kehrl, both of Portland.

The affair Friday night was the first of several which will honor Miss Ihrig before her departure for the south. Miss Ihrig has been student with the Marion county child health demonstration for several years.
