CONTEMPT NOT SHOWN, APPEAL COURT DECIDES

Cleveland (P)—Convictions of contempt of court against Louis B. Seltzer, editor, and Carlton K. Mallon, editorial writer, of the Cleveland Press, were overruled Thursday by the Cuyahoga county appellate court.

The editors had been convicted a year ago by Common Pleas Judge Frederick P. Walther, who sentenced them to 30 days in jail and fines of $500.

Walther's action was taken after an editorial appeared in the Press, criticizing the judge for restraining Sheriff E. J. Hanratty from stopping a betting method at a race track.

Walther's action was taken after an editorial appeared in the Press, criticizing the judge for restraining Sheriff E. J. Hanratty from stopping a betting method at a race track. The appellate court decision said: "We live in an age of pitiless publicity where the freedom of the press and freedom of speech are paramount issues and newspapers should have the right to print what they please, always guiding themselves by the laws of libel. A free people must have a free press and a newspaper should have the right to speak freely its views."

Expressing a desire to have the matter settled as soon as possible, R. D. Parrish, former bookkeeper for the state tuberculosis hospital here and accused of larceny of public funds, reached Salem Thursday forenoon and is being held in the county jail. Parrish, who was arrested Wednesday in Bellingham, waived extradition. He was brought here by a Whatcom county officer, leaving here in December, 1928. Parrish has acquired a wife, according to arresting officers. Although he had assumed the name of Oliver, officers state Parrish was married under his true name.

Parrish has been in the employ of a business college in Bellingham, the proprietor of which made the trip to Salem with Parrish. He says Parrish has been one of his best workers. Parrish is accused of taking close to $1400 from the hospital funds, the sum being taken in small amounts over a period of several months.

SOTHERN ASSAILED BY GENE HOWE

Amarillo, Tex. (P)—E. H. Sothern, noted Shakespearean actor, is the latest victim of the editorial barb of Gene Howe, editor of the Amarillo News-Globe.

Howe, remembered for his criticism of the state of Texas, in a recent issue of his paper, "The Garden," assailed Sothern, classifying him with Mr. Sothern Wednesday over the actor's refusal to be interviewed by a reporter for Howe's newspaper, referred in an editorial to Sothern's "pink toes," called Sothern a "high hater" and urged Amarillo people to "stay away" from Sothern's lecture on Shakespeare Wednesday night.

Mr. Sothern retaliated by saying he was "leaving Amarillo on the first train and I may never see it again," denied the "pink toe" allegation, and returned the $500 paid him for his appearance.

BODY OF DROWNED STUDENT LOCATED

Corvallis, Ore. (P)—The body of David Graham, 20, Portland, Oregon Agricultural college student, who drowned in Mary's river February 9, was recovered Thursday by the youth's uncle, Frank Dunn, Portland. The youth lost his life while canoeing on the river.

Dunn has been conducting a search for the body every day since Graham was drowned. He found the body, standing upright in some brush near the shore about a mile and a half from the place where Graham was last seen alive.

The discovery ends a long search by Corvallis firemen, citizens and college students. At one time a reward of $200 was offered for the recovery. The falling of high water revealed the body, Dunn said.

Mrs. C. H. Brown, 755 South Liberty street, entered the Salem General hospital Wednesday for surgical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Burgess, 207 Royal Court apartments, are the parents of a baby daughter. Mr. Burgess is assistant state superintendent of schools.

H. M. Moot was Thursday appointed receiver of the Hubbard Mineral Springs company by Circuit Judge McMahan as an outgrowth of the case recently filed by the Lawyers Title & Trust company of Portland to protect some $60,000 worth of bonds said to be held by bondholders. He posted a $5000 bond.

I. L. McAdams, 245 D street, reported to the police Thursday that while attempting to deliver a letter addressed to June L. E. McAdams, which had been mis-sent to McAdams, at the McMahan home on North Front street, he was painfully bitten on the arm by McAdams' large police dog. McAdams said that after biting him the dog knocked him down and that he was able to beat the dog off only with the assistance of a man who was passing in the street. McAdams did not sign a complaint.

J. N. (Sam) Chambers, president of the chamber of commerce, and C. E. Wilson, manager, were in Portland Thursday in connection with an event occurred at the Deaconess hospital.

IN ALABAMA SENATORIAL RACE

Frederick I. Thompson (above, left), Mobile publisher, will oppose John H. Bankhead (below, left) of Jasper in the Alabama democratic primary for the United States senate seat now held by J. Thomas Hefflin (right). Hefflin, barred from the democratic primary, has announced he will be a candidate.

Referendum on City Water Purchase Plan To be Urged Upon Club

Members of the special committee named by the Progressive Businessmen's club of the Hollywood district to investigate and report back on the most feasible plan of action to follow in securing submission of the municipal ownership of the water system to the voters announced Thursday afternoon that the committee would be ready to report back to the regular meeting of the club Thursday evening.

The report will recommend, the committee said, that the matter of invoking the initiative to compel submission of the question to a popular vote be held in advance until it has been determined whether or not the council will authorize an informal referendum on the question of purchase of the system at the time of the May election.

This referendum would be in the nature of a plebiscite to determine the sentiment of the people, and would not be morally binding upon the council to follow out the mandate expressed in the result of the balloting, and it has not yet been decided whether authorization should be included in the stated question for the council to incur the $3000 or $4000 indebtedness which would be required in making an appraisal of the properties and in meeting other preliminary expenses.

In the event the council refuses to hold such a referendum it will be the recommendation of the club committee that initiative petitions be circulated to submit to a vote in November a charter amendment instructing the council to proceed with the purchase of the water system through condemnation and at the same time authorizing the issuance of bonds in a sum not to exceed a stated amount.

By initiating the proposal as a charter amendment, it is pointed out by attorneys who have investigated the matter for the committee and for the Capital Journal the cumbersome and complicated process for purchase of a utility by the city as prescribed by the charter would be avoided and the council could proceed at once with condemnation action if the city and water company could not come to an agreement on a reasonable price to be paid.

COSTLY GROCERIES

Butte, Mont. (P)—No wonder early day prospectors couldn't save much out of their placer mining stakes. To live in those days required a young fortune.

The other day a bill contracted by one William Clark in 1862 came to light. It revealed among other things that nine pounds of coffee cost $2; that one box of matches cost 25c; one knife and fork, $1.50; 2 1/2 pounds of tea, $7.50; one bar of soap, 50c; 19 pounds sugar, $7.50; two papers of pepper, 80c; 150 pounds of flour (three sacks), $52.50, and so on.

There was a reason, and a good one, why common laborers demanded and got $10 a day in those gold rush days.

JIM SMITH TO BE CANDIDATE FOR REELECTION

J. E. Smith, county commissioner, member of the court whose term expires this year, announced Thursday that he will be a candidate for the republican nomination at the primaries. While it had been generally conceded by his friends he would once more be a candidate Thursday to state specifically what for the office he has refused up to his plans would be. He said he would make his official filing in the next few days.

Commissioner Smith has served two terms on the court, being first elected in 1923 and re-elected in 1926. He was identified with the original bond issue movement for the county and member of the committee which laid out the first market road program. All told he has been identified with the laying out of three market road programs of five years each, the court now working on the third one. He was in 1917 when he served on the first commission.

"The biggest thing which confronts the county now is the North Santiam highway proposed over the mountains," stated the commissioner. This is a big thing for the county as a whole and not for any one part of it. In fact, no part of the county but will benefit from it. We have a big job ahead of us in getting this put over in conjunction with the federal officials and federal funds, but it can be done. We have our third market road program well under way and while road work will never be finished in the county I would like to assist in carrying out the plans which have been placed under way and also in the movement to put over the North Santiam highway."

The commissioner is a native son of Marion county, born in a log cabin three miles north of old Chambo, itself the birthplace of the Oregon country. His father was Frank Smith, Oregon pioneer who came around the horn in the earliest days of the Oregon migration. The commissioner now owns a 1400 acre ranch in the north end which is operated by his four boys.

The commissioner is also president of the State Bank of St. Paul; secretary of the state county judges and commissioners association and a director of the Hop-growers Fire Relief association of Donald.

The only opposition so far developing to his re-election is Ernest Denny of Stayton and as far as is known there will be no other candidates in the race.

NEW SERVICE CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED

A group of 27 young business and professional men of Salem, who at one time considered joining forces with the Active clubs of the country, but who later decided that the service club field in Salem was entirely cared for, will meet Thursday evening at the Gray Belle restaurant at 6:30 o'clock for the purpose of selecting a name for the group and for the adoption of a constitution.

As yet the organization has no definite plan for activity other than meeting for mutual benefit and instruction on various problems. Whether other projects will be taken up remains for the members to decide, Walter Fuhrer, president, stated Thursday.

The group has been meeting once a week and has listened to talks on trusts, travel and other subjects. A few of the "Orphan Annie" have suggested "Universal club" and others "Oregonians, Inc." as a title for the group.

Seattle (P)—Names of approximately 20,000 persons who rushed the Klondike trails more than 33 years ago will appear in the "Gold Book" to be published prior to the Stampede convention in Vancouver, B. C. next August.

What the "Gold Book" will be to society, the "Gold Book" will be to the Sourdough. If plans of the Alaska Sourdoughs' association materialize it will be the final word on the qualifications of the title "sourdough."

E. L. Martin, president of the association, has announced that more than 8,000 names have been received and passed for the book, with men and women registered "from every state in the union, as well as every dependency of the United States, most of the Central and South American countries, Europe, the United Kingdom, Asia and the Orient."

Charles Goodwin, auditor for the state corporation department, has received information that his brother, William Goodwin, is one of the owners of what is said to be the fastest privately owned airplane on record for the horsepower carried. Goodwin and his partner, Mont Berg, own a "dufs ranch" and automobile business at Worlin, Wyo. For use in their business they have purchased a four-place cabin Cessna monoplane. It carries a 300 horsepower Wright whirlwind motor, has a maximum speed of 150 miles an hour and will climb 1,000 feet in 15 minutes. They have employed P. T. Haneline of the Colorado national guard air service as pilot.

Parish (P)—Sideshow have been barred from the French Colonial Exposition to be held in 1931 and there will be no "Midway" attractions. But the management promises that the whole exposition will be handled in an entertaining form.
