Zonta Club Entertains At Dinner

Salem Zontians entertained members of the Encinitas club, junior business girls' organization, with an enjoyable dinner and program Thursday evening in the banquet room of the Marion hotel. The long tables, with covers placed for 40, were decked with baskets of heather and daffodils flanked by pastel-colored tapers.

The importance of selecting a career in which natural talents can be used to the best advantage was stressed by the speaker of the evening, Chief Justice O. P. Coe. He urged that the younger business girls, especially, study their own characteristics and talents and select their positions with a view of encourage their ability instead of quench it. The chief justice stated that much of the present unemployment problem was due to non-specialization.

Specialty dances were given by little Pauline Chambers and by the senior ballet group from the Barbara Barnes dance school. Miss Barnes is a member of the Zontas club.

Vocal numbers were given by Lena Belle Tartar, who sang Sara Benson's "Little Brown Owl" and "A Summer Shower" by Richardson; and by Miss Nellie Schwab, who sang, "Summer of the Heart" by Cowles, and Kreisler's "Old Refrain." Mrs. Hal Hoss played the accompaniment. Miss Tartar also led in the group singing.

The climax of the evening was a one-act play, "Suppressed Desires," presented by the guest club. Parts were taken by Miss LaVada Carter, Miss Mable Currie and Miss Mildred Judson.

Covers at the dinner were placed for the Misses Mildred Judson, Olive Barnard, Bessie Tucker, Betty Ekofson, Mable Currie, LaVada Carter, Marquette Farmer, Helen Timm, Eileen Gilson, Ellen Power, Dorothy Sawyer, Lora Parker, Anna Welch, Lena Park, Elizabeth Welch, Marie Pilette, Evelyn Poulsen of the Encinitas club; Judge O. P. Coe, Mrs. C. C. Schwab, Mrs. Hal Hoss, Mrs. L. May Rauch, Mrs. Hulda Leidstrom, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher, Miss Genevieve Morgan, Miss Helen Richardson, special guests; and the hostess group, Mrs. Ella Schultz, Wilson, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. Grace Crater, Miss Helen Yockey, Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. LaVerne Winkler, Mrs. Ruby Morris, Mrs. Roberta Butler, Miss Hazel Cook, Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn, Mrs. Wilhelmina Glenzou, and Miss Janice McAfee.

Mrs. Elliott Hostess At Luncheon

Mrs. Jack Elliott entertained with a delightful luncheon and afternoon of cards Thursday in compliment to her cousin, Mrs. Catharine Fleming of Portland, who has been visiting here for several days.

Orchid sweet peas and yellow daffodils centered the attractive luncheon table, with favors marking covers for Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. W. F. Poorman, Mrs. Roy Simmons, Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. Walter Kik, Mrs. William Gosser, Mrs. Ernest Thom, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mrs. Ralph Campbell and the hostess, Mrs. Elliott.

Tiny rosebuds were used in small vases on the card tables during the afternoon. The high score prize went to Mrs. Small.

Mrs. Fleming, who is returning to Portland Friday, has been the house-guest of Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. W. F. Poorman and Mrs. Elliott, spending a day with each.

The Lunetaking, Cheschanay and Otakuye Campfires will hold a grand council fire in the Unitarian church Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.
