

DALLAS AND COLUMBIA MEET FOR DISTRICT TITLE

WINNER WILL PLAY SECOND TOURNAMENT GAME

Probable Lineup:

Dallas	F	Columbia	Warren
Vaughn	F	Quiring	Stone
Quiring	F	Griffin	Casey
Griffin	G	U'ow	Dwyer

For the first time since state basketball tournaments have been held, Dallas high school's team will have an opportunity to make a bid for fame when it meets the Columbia university prep team of Portland Friday evening at 8 o'clock on Willamette's floor. The two teams will engage in a contest which will decide the championship of District 7—the winner gaining the right to participate in the tournament, playing the second game of the series Wednesday afternoon at 4:30, with an eastern Oregon team as an opponent.

Dallas goes into the final game as a result of its smashing 34 to 17 win over Silverton Monday night, while Columbia gained its advantage by beating Molalla 20 to 13. Dallas' supporters point to two victories which the Polk county lads hold over Molalla as an indication of the comparative strength of Dallas and Columbia. These games, which were played in January, were won by good sized margins by Dallas.

Griffin, Dallas star guard, who played a plucky game last Monday despite a badly twisted ankle, is still on the injured list but will undoubtedly take his place in the lineup Friday night.

The Columbia team came to Salem Wednesday night believing the contest was scheduled for that evening. Both squads are expected to bring with them a large following.

O. C. Christensen acted as toastmaster and talks were given by A. C. Stambrough, Dean J. H. V. Butler, Larry Wolf, Al Cox and several team members.

The team's record for the season is as follows:

Luke Gill Proves Hero of 1920 State Hoop Series; Salem Takes Title Again

Eugene "Luke" Gill, physical education instructor at the Salem high school at the present time, was the hero of the 1920 state basketball tournament. This series of games was the first to take in teams outside of the district west of the Cascades, Cascades.

There were 12 squads that year, representing Salem, Lincoln high of Portland, Astoria, Ashland, Medford, Forest Grove, The Dalles, Rainier, Albany, Madras, LaGrande, and Marshfield.

As was the case in the preceding tournament, Coach Mathews of Willamette university was the guiding hand. The affair was a pronounced success with Salem high winning the championship after a hotly contested game with Lincoln.

As has often been the case, Salem drew Astoria for its first opponent. The Fishermen failed to put up much of a scrap that year, however, and the red and black won the initial struggle, 45 to 18. Other first day results were: Ashland 24; Medford, 11; Forest Grove, 29; The Dalles, 19; Lincoln, 42; Rainier, 16; Albany, 35; Madras, 19; LaGrande 31; Marshfield, 21.

The second round found Salem defeating LaGrande 36 to 20. LaGrande put up a stiff battle in the first half, holding Salem to a 13 to 12 lead at the end of the first two periods. Lincoln and Albany continued to be contenders when they won out over Ashland and Forest Grove respectively. The scores were Lincoln, 36; Ashland, 16; Albany, 35; Forest Grove, 20. Salem drew a bye in the semifinals, while Lincoln advanced to the final contest by trouncing Albany 50 to 11.

The title game was played Saturday afternoon with the strong teams of Salem and Lincoln participating.

Salem high players were A. Gill and Shaefer, forwards; Boise, center; E. Gill and Ashby, guards; Randall and Staley, substitutes. The score was one of the lowest ever recorded in a championship game here—12 to 11 in favor of Salem. Both sides played a tight defense, while Salem led at the half 8 to 7.

The old rule of giving the opponents a free throw when a player walked with the ball or broke his dribble obtained in that series. Lincoln was leading 11 to 10 shortly before the end of the game. Cole, playing guard for Lincoln broke his dribble, thus giving Salem a chance to tie the score. Shaefer, who did the foul shooting for Salem, failed to connect, but Luke Gill, standing under the basket, caught the ball on the rebound and banked it in for two points. Just as the game ended, Coach Mathews announced an all start team that year as follows: forwards, Wright and Beck, Lincoln; center, E. Gill, Salem; guards, Cole, Lincoln; A. Gill, Salem. Alternates, Shaefer, Salem, Laggett, Lincoln.

Referees during the series were Paul Wapato of Willamette and George Dewey of Portland.

GERVAIS WILL PLAY CLASS "A" BASEBALL

Gervais—The baseball team of Gervais Union high is scheduled to play in the "A" division with teams of Woodburn, Silverton, Salem Parrish, and Stayton. There are eight lettermen on the team, DeJardin, Odde, Schwab, Seeley, Manning, Susce, McKay and Oration. Schwab distinguished himself last summer when he played in the valley league with the American Legion team as a pitcher, the same place he will hold in the school team this season.

DOLAN SCORES K-O
Pendleton (P)—Jimmy Dolan, Los Angeles welter, knocked out Scott Holloway, Oakland negro, in the sixth round of a ten round fight here Thursday night. K. O. Scott, Pendleton, won a six round decision over Jimmy Ryan, Butte, 186 pounds.

INJURIES GROW IN CAMPS OF MAJOR CLUBS

New York (P)—Injuries and illness have taken a heavy toll at major league training camps and are proving a handicap to preparations for the 1930 baseball season. A check by the United Press Friday reveals more than 25 players on the incapacitated list.

The Chicago White Sox and New York Giants are the most seriously effected, injuries on the two clubs being so numerous that exhibition games scheduled for Thursday and Friday were cancelled.

Four members of the Cincinnati Reds will remain at Orlando when the team departs for its first exhibition game at Tampa Sunday. Second Baseman Hughie Critz has a stiff neck and catcher Johnny Gooch is suffering from lumbago while outfielder Evar Swanson and infielder Charley Dressen have minor ailments.

Babe Ruth's charley horse is the most publicized Yankee ailment but Catcher Benny Bengough and Bubblers Hargrave have mangled fingers and outfielder Ken Williams is suffering from a lame back.

George Susce, Phillies catcher, is on the bench for several weeks as a result of a broken shoulder sustained from a foul tip.

Lloyd Waner, Pittsburgh, outfielder, still feels the effect of a recent appendix operation.

Al Simmons, Philadelphia Athletics slugger, is handicapped by weak ankles and has been excused from the Florida exhibition games.

Shortstop Woody English and Pitcher Hal Carlson of the Chicago Cubs are handicapped by injured knees. Rogers Hornsby is slowed down by a recent operation.

TOURNEY SEATS AVAILABLE FOR ALL CONTESTS

Although many seats for the state basketball tournament which will be held at Willamette university beginning next Wednesday have been disposed of, there yet remains many good choice locations, according to Leslie Sparks, physical education instructor, who will have charge of the financial end of the big show again this year.

"We have so arranged the seats along the north side of the court that we have added at least 100 choice spaces," Sparks said Thursday. "Heretofore this section of the seats have been divided into three sections—the large one in the center and the two end sections. This year we will move the end sections up against the middle one, thus making one large group."

"Then on the south side, the block of 50 seats which Medford generally occupied and which are in the center of the section will be available this year. Although these seats are on the south side visibility is the same as on the north. In fact it's a little better for daylight contests, for spectators will have their backs to the light there."

"With two and possibly three Portland teams in the tournament this year, we expect to sell-out every night and advise Salem persons who plan on attending the show to take care of their ticket requirements immediately."

CONNIE MACK SAYS TEAM WILL REPEAT

St. Petersburg, Fla. (P)—Connie Mack, tall leader of the Philadelphia Athletics, has stolen the show at the training camp of the New York Yankees. Connie brought his world's champions to St. Petersburg Thursday for an exhibition game with the Boston Braves but rain forced cancellation of the contest as well as any practice for the Yankees.

Connie then invaded Yankee headquarters and sized up the American league race for 1930 as he saw it. The A's, he says, will repeat with the Yankees to be feared all the way.

"Nearly all the clubs in the league have been strengthened," says Connie. "The most improved club is the Chicago White Sox. Donnie Bush is a fighter and will develop a real ball team."

ACADEMY GAME
Mt. Angel—St. Paul high school girls basketball team will meet the Mt. Angel academy girls Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the local floor. The game promises to be an exciting one, as both teams are evenly matched.

Mumps Strikes At Chance For Salem Victory

Whatever hope Salem high school had of winning the state basketball tournament received a severe jolt Friday when it was learned that Graber, lanky center of the red and black was confined to his home with an illness which was believed to be an attack of mumps. If Graber really has the mumps, which seems certain, there will be no chance for him to get into the tournament. Coach Huntington stated Friday that he would probably use West in Graber's place. Lack of experience will be a handicap to West, although he is an aggressive player. John Bone, one of Salem's forwards has just recovered from an attack of mumps, but will probably get into the game. Huntington is worried for fear others of his players may be stricken.

BUCKAROOS TIE WITH LIONS IN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Portland (P)—Portland and Vancouver Friday were tied for the leadership of the coast ice hockey league after the local sextet defeated Seattle, 1 to 0, in a brilliant exhibition of ice hockey Thursday night.

After each team had battled on even terms throughout the first two periods of the contest, Matt Land Conn, captain of the Buckaroos, shot the puck into the net in the third period, giving Portland a victory, and dimming the Eskimos' hopes of entering a playoff for the championship.

The Eskimos are 10 points behind Portland and Vancouver, and their hopes for a playoff is doubtful for they have to play Vancouver, Victoria and Portland before the regular season ends. Portland has Victoria on its schedule and Vancouver meets Seattle and Victoria.

The game Thursday night was a real fight and the several thousand fans who packed the coliseum probably will never forget Portland's fight to gain a tie with the Lions for first place—a position the bucks held for several weeks.

Penalties were few during the contest. Mickey Ion gave out nine minor penalties during the early part of the game, after which both teams settled down.

SCIO HIGH QUINT HAS GOOD SEASON

Scio—The Scio high school basketball team have completed a successful season. Both teams have the county championships. The boys have won eight games and lost six. Vincent McDonald is high point man. All the boys will be back again next season to help make up the team.

The girls have won nine games and lost four. Gloria Weesly, forward, is high point girl with 356 points. All but one of the girls will be back next year.

The Scio boys surrendered the district championship to the Newport boys in the tournament at Corvallis last Friday and Saturday. The team was greatly handicapped by the absence of Vincent McDonald, star forward. Everyone reports a good time at the tournament.

New ork (P)—Phil Scott, self-admitted heavyweight champion of the world, sails Friday night for England on the steamer Majestic.

Scott explained that he is going home because his wife is ill but that he planned to return early in May for bouts with Otto Von Porat and Jimmy Maloney at Chicago and Boston.

The GOLDEN ROCKET

Demonstrator represents an invitation to drive this great new car

Below are some actual tests of the Oakland 8 made in our own city.

Acceleration from 10 miles per hour to 25 miles per hour in 5 seconds.

From 10 miles per hour to 35 miles per hour in 8 1/2 seconds.

30 miles per hour to 50 miles per hour in 7 seconds.

In one city block from 10 miles to 42 miles speed in a time of 11 1/4 seconds.

From a standing start to a speed of 70 miles per hour, in 26 seconds.

On Superior street hill from a standing start in High Gear at the bottom the Oakland 8 made the remarkable time of 26 seconds going to Fairmount street at which intersection it had attained a speed of 38 miles per hour.

On Salem Heights hill which has always been the test hill of Salem, and which is a real test of the hill-climbing ability of any car, the Oakland 8 from a standing start in HIGH GEAR reached the top at a speed of 28 miles per hr. and in a time of only 28 seconds.

We have put this Golden Rocket demonstrator on the streets to introduce you to the superior performance of the New Oakland Eight. We want you to know General Motors' lowest-priced eight by what it does, with your own hands at the controls.

Its engine develops 85 horsepower. That means one horsepower to every 37 pounds of car weight, a ratio that is not approached in any other car of Oakland's size and weight. That's why so few cars can match it in speed, in pick-up or in climbing the steepest hills. It is making records over some of the steepest grades in the United States.

Hail the driver of the car with the Golden Rocket today, anywhere you see him. Jump in and take a ride. Notice how easily you can handle the car, shift the gears, apply the brakes. If it's more convenient, arrange at our showrooms for a demonstration. In either case, be sure to drive this car before you consider the purchase of any other new automobile. We'll be glad to have you base your opinion of the New Oakland Eight on what you learn at the wheel.

The New Oakland Eight, $1045 and up, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers included in list price. Bumpers, rear fender guards and spring covers extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list price when comparing automobiles. Oakland-Pontiac delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.

$1045 AND UP

Altonna's Best Best Grade Mastered for the First Time E. L. Schellenberger of Altonna, Pa., writes: "With four passengers in a New Oakland Eight we can start on an 18.5 per cent grade and wind up by topping a 22 per cent grade in high gear. The grade square are from the City Engineer. This superior performance has never been duplicated by any other automobile, regardless of price or power rating."
