

HEAVY DAMAGE ACTIONS FILED FOR ACCIDENTS

Dallas—Damages of $10,000 are asked for the fatal injuries inflicted in an auto collision last December to Elmer Hayes and Irvine Holman.

The complaints were filed Wednesday by the decedents' fathers, who were each appointed administrators of their sons' estates.

The fatal collision was a result of defendant's careless, reckless and negligent driving; that he was driving a 1924 model seven passenger Marmon sedan with faulty, loose, defective, two wheel brakes upon a slick black-top pavement; that his windshield being wet his vision was hindered and that it was a dark night and raining very hard;

It is further stated that on December 22, 1929, Irvine Holman died at the age of 23, from the following injuries: bone in left leg fractured and thigh mangled; two bones in right leg badly fractured and the leg almost severed at the knee joint; left forearm fractured at wrist and body sorely bruised.

Mention is made that both decedents were strong, healthy, young men and judgment of $10,000 with costs is asked for their deaths.
