

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Ruth Mae Lawrence, Phone 33

White Shrine Installation Monday Nite

New officers of Williamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will be installed in an impressive ceremonial Monday night at the Masonic temple. Families of the White Shrine members and members of the Eastern Star will be special guests for the ceremonial which will follow a brief business session of the order.

Officers to be installed are: Zella Nelmeier, worthy high priestess; Glenn Niles, watchman of shepherds; Hazel Gillette, noble prophetess; Amos Vasa, worthy scribe; Fannie Tibbets, worthy treasurer; Gladys Adams, worthy chaplain; Marie Flint McCall, worthy shepherdess; Tina Edwards, worthy guide; Mona Yoder, worthy herald; W. C. Kantner, first wise man; Arthur Edwards, second wise man; Julius Allen, third wise man; Susan Varty, queen; William Nelmeier, king; Glenna Frost, first hand maid; Laura Douglas, second hand maid; Stella Henry, third hand maid; Pearl Speer, organist; Ellen Gabriel, worthy guardian, and N. P. Raasmussen, worthy guard.

Daughters Planning Benefit Thursday

Fifteen tables have been reserved to date for the bridge tea to be sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. J. Lyman Steed at the state school for the deaf Thursday afternoon. In addition to bridge, a program will be given at the tea hour featuring the students at the deaf school.

Reservations are being made with Mrs. H. J. Ostlin, general chairman, at 1391M; Mrs. C. C. Best at 1844M; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, chapter regent, at 6; or Mrs. James G. Helzel at 1807.

Joy Turner, Moore presented 34 of her piano and violin students in recital, Saturday night at her residence studio on North Capitol street. Approximately 100 relatives and friends of the young musicians were guests for the evening. The opening piece was a two piano number, played in a very creditable manner by two small lads, Bobby Pound and Dean Robinson.

- The following selections were then given: The Tostle Express, Arthur Berce; Waltz, Grace Marie Pickens; Gentle Night, Williams; How I Lay Me Down to Sleep, Butler; Rose Petals, Lawson; Dream Waltz, Voet; Catherine Dances, Virgil; Sunshine Cavalry, Kern; Poor Richard, Thomas; Bethlehem Star, Evelyne Propp; Coasting, Damon; Deep Hours, Williams; Blindman's Bluff, Helen Dallam; A Souvenir, Virgil; When Daddy Says Good Night, Bolt; Barcelona, from Tales of Hoffman, Heriel Perres; Yance Smith; On the Pierhead, Peery; Dance Memories, Virgil; Sparklets, Mills; Buttercup Waltz, Rob Roy Peery; June Rose, Caray; Meditation, Morrison; March of the Red Cross, Maxine Ross; Dance de Ballet, Nelch; Humming Birds, Virgil; Annap's Serenade, Brian; Les Gardiens, Cook; Aes, Julia Bell Austin; May Belle Rinsing, Stewart; Beauty's Kiss, Behm; March, Lois Carlson; Impromptu in G Major, Reinhold; Minuet, McClellin; Polish Air Variations, Dancels; Rondo, Three Violins; Sonata, Handel; Melody in F, Schubert.

Nuptials At Dallas Held Sunday Eve

Dallas—The marriage of De Vere L. Penhollow, 23, singer and choir director of the Christian church to Miss Marjorie E. Westfall, 18, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Westfall, was performed immediately following the Easter cantata at the Dallas Christian church Sunday evening. The couple had been engaged for more than a month.

Surprise Party For Mrs. Ramp

In honor of Mrs. George Ramp's birthday some of her friends pleasantly surprised her at her home north of Salem on the Pacific highway, Friday afternoon. A most enjoyable time was spent by Mrs. Ramp, Mrs. Frank Mathis, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. Mary Molsan, Mrs. E. W. Manning, Mrs. Clyde Harris, Mrs. Emma Sturgis, Mrs. Pearl Woods, Mrs. Elliot Savage, Mrs. W. L. Fuller, Mrs. Ward Manning and baby daughter, Mrs. Ralph Sturgis, Miss Hattie Ramp, little Miss Clarita Fuller and Mrs. George Ramp.

Dinners to Precede Junior Guild Dance

Several interesting dinners and suppers will precede and follow the annual Junior Guild benefit dance Tuesday evening at Castilian hall. One of the dinners will be that with which Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Law, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Conroyer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brady will entertain in the Law home. Covers will be placed for 20. A group of the younger set will be guests of Miss Sarah Lansing at a dinner following the dance.

To Visit Former Home in England

Mrs. Kate G. Bell left Salem Sunday morning for New York City, from where she will take the Cunard liner, Mauretania, for England. Mrs. Bell will make an indefinite stay with friends and relatives at her former home near Surrey.

Easter Breakfast At West Salem Home

West Salem—Miss Lottie McAdams entertained with a lovely Easter breakfast at her home on Plaza street, Sunday morning, with places for nineteen. A color scheme of purple, white and yellow was carried out throughout the room, with bowls of purple iris, white lilacs and yellow tapers.

One of the major events Tuesday will be the large benefit bridge tea to be sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. Proceeds will be used for the auxiliary's hospitalization and child welfare committees. The bridge party will be held in the Woman's club house on North Cottage street, where additional tables will be provided for those who have not made reservations. Mrs. M. J. Melchior is in charge of the reservation list.

Hills Bros Coffee advertisement featuring a list of coffee varieties and a promotional offer: 'A few pounds at a time'.

Nuptials At Dallas Held Sunday Eve

Dallas—The marriage of De Vere L. Penhollow, 23, singer and choir director of the Christian church to Miss Marjorie E. Westfall, 18, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Westfall, was performed immediately following the Easter cantata at the Dallas Christian church Sunday evening. The couple had been engaged for more than a month.

Benefit Affair At St. Vincent de Paul

Opening a week to be unique in the spring season for its many large benefit affairs, the women of the St. Vincent de Paul parish are holding their annual post-Lenten celebration Monday. A benefit bridge tea in the afternoon at the St. Vincent de Paul parish hall will be followed with a "500" card party starting at 8 o'clock and an old fashioned dance and festivities at 10 o'clock, with the Pruitt orchestra playing.

A number of tables were in play Monday afternoon at the benefit bridge tea, under the direction of Mrs. T. J. Brabec, chairman. Assisting Mrs. Brabec were Mrs. M. B. Pilkenton, Mrs. N. Roque, Mrs. P. L. Huber, Mrs. A. Loders and Mrs. A. N. Wikert. A musical program was given during the tea hour.

Mrs. Dave O'Hara is chairman of the "500" card party Monday night, with Mrs. John Meiera, Mrs. C. A. Suing, Mrs. M. Engel, Mrs. McFadden and Mrs. C. E. Kerston as her assistants. In charge of the old fashioned dance are Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, chairman, Mrs. Joe Prang and Mrs. Leo Doerfler.

Little Bobby Bradford entertained a small group of friends Thursday afternoon with a birthday party in honor of his fourth birthday anniversary. Games were enjoyed during the informal afternoon and at the tea hour, Mrs. Elbert Bradford served, assisted by Mrs. Miles Bradford and Mrs. Clifford Thomas.

Members of the Ecclesia club were entertained Friday evening with a skating party at Dreamland rink followed by a supper party at the Blue Bird. Special guests were Miss Evelyn Paulson and Mrs. Brown. Members present included Miss Velma Rominger, Miss Lillian Marshall, Mrs. Addie Curtis returned from Portland the latter part of the week after being the guest of Mrs. Oliver Brenster for several days. She accompanied Mrs. Brewster and daughter, Thelma, to Portland after they had visited in Salem the first of the week.

White Shrine Installation Monday Nite

New officers of Williamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will be installed in an impressive ceremonial Monday night at the Masonic temple. Families of the White Shrine members and members of the Eastern Star will be special guests for the ceremonial which will follow a brief business session of the order.

Officers to be installed are: Zella Nelmeier, worthy high priestess; Glenn Niles, watchman of shepherds; Hazel Gillette, noble prophetess; Amos Vasa, worthy scribe; Fannie Tibbets, worthy treasurer; Gladys Adams, worthy chaplain; Marie Flint McCall, worthy shepherdess; Tina Edwards, worthy guide; Mona Yoder, worthy herald; W. C. Kantner, first wise man; Arthur Edwards, second wise man; Julius Allen, third wise man; Susan Varty, queen; William Nelmeier, king; Glenna Frost, first hand maid; Laura Douglas, second hand maid; Stella Henry, third hand maid; Pearl Speer, organist; Ellen Gabriel, worthy guardian, and N. P. Raasmussen, worthy guard.

Daughters Planning Benefit Thursday

Fifteen tables have been reserved to date for the bridge tea to be sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of Mrs. J. Lyman Steed at the state school for the deaf Thursday afternoon. In addition to bridge, a program will be given at the tea hour featuring the students at the deaf school.

Reservations are being made with Mrs. H. J. Ostlin, general chairman, at 1391M; Mrs. C. C. Best at 1844M; Mrs. W. H. Byrd, chapter regent, at 6; or Mrs. James G. Helzel at 1807.

Joy Turner, Moore presented 34 of her piano and violin students in recital, Saturday night at her residence studio on North Capitol street. Approximately 100 relatives and friends of the young musicians were guests for the evening. The opening piece was a two piano number, played in a very creditable manner by two small lads, Bobby Pound and Dean Robinson.

- The following selections were then given: The Tostle Express, Arthur Berce; Waltz, Grace Marie Pickens; Gentle Night, Williams; How I Lay Me Down to Sleep, Butler; Rose Petals, Lawson; Dream Waltz, Voet; Catherine Dances, Virgil; Sunshine Cavalry, Kern; Poor Richard, Thomas; Bethlehem Star, Evelyne Propp; Coasting, Damon; Deep Hours, Williams; Blindman's Bluff, Helen Dallam; A Souvenir, Virgil; When Daddy Says Good Night, Bolt; Barcelona, from Tales of Hoffman, Heriel Perres; Yance Smith; On the Pierhead, Peery; Dance Memories, Virgil; Sparklets, Mills; Buttercup Waltz, Rob Roy Peery; June Rose, Caray; Meditation, Morrison; March of the Red Cross, Maxine Ross; Dance de Ballet, Nelch; Humming Birds, Virgil; Annap's Serenade, Brian; Les Gardiens, Cook; Aes, Julia Bell Austin; May Belle Rinsing, Stewart; Beauty's Kiss, Behm; March, Lois Carlson; Impromptu in G Major, Reinhold; Minuet, McClellin; Polish Air Variations, Dancels; Rondo, Three Violins; Sonata, Handel; Melody in F, Schubert.

Beachcombers in New Orleans Lose Hangout

New Orleans (AP)—"Wharf rats" and beachcombers here will have to look elsewhere than the under-structures of New Orleans wharves for rendezvous or shelter. Because of three disastrous dock fires in the past month, harbor police have been ordered to destroy all shacks and lean-tos where live the furtive men who make their living from wharf refuse and river fishing.

Dallas Typists Win Polk Honors

Dallas—Dallas high school walked off with first place in both the amateur and novice divisions in the annual Polk county typing contest held at Monmouth normal school Saturday. Independence placed second and Falls City third in the amateur division with Monmouth section. Bether City, Independence fourth and Falls City fifth in the novice section. Dallas, Falls City and Independence were the only schools represented in the amateur section.

Guests at Luncheon

Lincoln—Mrs. Louise Grimm Stahl of Hubbard, cousin of C. C. Grimm, and second cousin of Mrs. C. C. Grimm, and a pioneer resident of Marion county, was a guest for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Scheibler, Mrs. Guy Nesgent and daughter Norma Jean, and Mrs. Clark and son Ronald. Mrs. Barker will entertain the club May 1.

Fowler Made Marshal

Donald—At the regular meeting of the city council, Joe Fowler was named to act as city marshal, completing the term of L. R. Garrett, who has moved from the city to a ranch near Hebo.

Wirth is Delegate

Scio—William Wirth, a past-master of the Scio lodge of Odd Fellows, has been elected the official representative at the grand lodge sessions in Portland in May.

Will Represent Scio

Scio—Scio is to be represented at the semi-annual district convention of Odd Fellows at Halsey Saturday afternoon and evening of next week. It is understood the Rebekahs of Halsey will serve a banquet and that Rebekah members of the district are invited.

Beachcombers in New Orleans Lose Hangout

New Orleans (AP)—"Wharf rats" and beachcombers here will have to look elsewhere than the under-structures of New Orleans wharves for rendezvous or shelter. Because of three disastrous dock fires in the past month, harbor police have been ordered to destroy all shacks and lean-tos where live the furtive men who make their living from wharf refuse and river fishing.

Dallas Typists Win Polk Honors

Dallas—Dallas high school walked off with first place in both the amateur and novice divisions in the annual Polk county typing contest held at Monmouth normal school Saturday. Independence placed second and Falls City third in the amateur division with Monmouth section. Bether City, Independence fourth and Falls City fifth in the novice section. Dallas, Falls City and Independence were the only schools represented in the amateur section.

Guests at Luncheon

Lincoln—Mrs. Louise Grimm Stahl of Hubbard, cousin of C. C. Grimm, and second cousin of Mrs. C. C. Grimm, and a pioneer resident of Marion county, was a guest for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Scheibler, Mrs. Guy Nesgent and daughter Norma Jean, and Mrs. Clark and son Ronald. Mrs. Barker will entertain the club May 1.

Fowler Made Marshal

Donald—At the regular meeting of the city council, Joe Fowler was named to act as city marshal, completing the term of L. R. Garrett, who has moved from the city to a ranch near Hebo.

Wirth is Delegate

Scio—William Wirth, a past-master of the Scio lodge of Odd Fellows, has been elected the official representative at the grand lodge sessions in Portland in May.

Will Represent Scio

Scio—Scio is to be represented at the semi-annual district convention of Odd Fellows at Halsey Saturday afternoon and evening of next week. It is understood the Rebekahs of Halsey will serve a banquet and that Rebekah members of the district are invited.

Disease-Proof Race Hope of Scientist

Ames, Iowa (AP)—Is the human hope against disease-producing bacteria an armor of immunity, to be brought about by scientific breeding? Dr. R. G. Schnott of Iowa State college says it is possible to increase resistance to disease in mice and rats by selection.

Beautiful Women Use Mello-glo

Beauties who guard their complexions use MELLO-GLO Face Powder only. Famous for purity—its coloring matter is approved by the Government. The skin never looks pasty or flaky. It spreads more smoothly and produces a youthful bloom. Made by a new French process. MELLO-GLO Face Powder stays on longer. —adv. CROWN DRUG STORE of head or throat is usually benefited by the vapors of VICKS VAPORUB. OVER 12 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Catarrh

Dorothy Gray advertisement: 'DOROTHY GRAY requests the honor of your presence all this week to meet Hattie M. Ford Special Representative DOROTHY GRAY SALON New York City'.

Manufacturer's UNLOADING SALE A BIG EVENT See This Paper Wednesday Night. ALL SHRUBS REDUCED Every Shrub In Yard Reduced Season—End Sale—Another Week and we close our saleyard for the season. BUY NOW AND SAVE PEARCY BROS. NURSERY 240 N. Liberty St.

SPRING COATS advertisement featuring illustrations of women in coats and pricing: $16.75, $18.50, $24.50. Offering Every Smart New Spring Fashion. JOHNSON'S 466 State St. READY-TO-WEAR Near High