

MASON FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FROM MILL CITY

Mill City—Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Amanda J. Mason, with Rev. Clyde Thomas, acting pastor of the local church, Rev. W. Lee Gray, ex-pastor of the church and Rev. A. C. Bates, pastor of the local church of Christ conducting the services. Interment was in the Fairview cemetery with Wednesday's mortuary of Stinson in charge.

Amanda J. Cook was born in Findley, Ohio, June 10, 1855, and passed away at her home May 2, 1930. She was married to George H. Mason in 1872 and they came to Oregon in October, 1906 where they settled in Mill City and have made their home. Mr. Mason passed away March, 1925.

RICKEY CLUB WILL MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

Rickey—The regular meeting of the community club will be held Friday evening.

The program committee is Miss Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Louise Sanke, Mrs. W. D. Horner and Mrs. W. Flood. The dramatic club of the Y. W. C. A. of Salem will present two plays, "The Gate" and "The Exchange." Mrs. H. Martin and Mrs. Olive Beardsley will have charge of the refreshments and Margaret Magee and Laurence Crabb will act as pantry girls.

The community club members are asked to bring a dozen sandwiches and a cake.

TWO POLK COUPLES MAY BE SEPARATED

Dallas—Two complaints for divorce have been filed in the circuit court. One is Jennie M. Ferguson from J. C. Ferguson. They were married in 1910 and have two children who are at present in the custody of the mother. She also asks $250 attorney's fees, $150 suit money, $50 per month temporary alimony and one-third interest in all real property.

The other is Cassie M. Henson from Francis M. Henson. They were married at Independence in 1926. She charges desertion and asks for restoration of her maiden name, Cassie M. McCollum, $125 attorney's fees and any further relief the court may deem fit.

LEWISVILLE AUTO THEFT IS BLOCKED

Dallas—Percy Louis, Louisville, awoke Sunday morning about four a. m. and found two boys, Leroy and Kermet Phelps, 13 and 10 respectively, attempting to steal his car. Sheriff Hooker was called and brought them to Dallas. Inquiries showed that they had been living with their grandfather, John Case, near Airline. Their mother and stepfather reside in Portland. The boys will be returned Tuesday to the Multnomah juvenile court.

SCOTTS MILLS PLAY IS WELL RECEIVED

Scotts Mills—The play, "Aunt Julia's Pearls," given by the high school students at Mackey Saturday evening was very well given, as also was the rest of the evening program. A number from here accompanied the students. After the play those wishing to dance enjoyed the remainder of the evening in dancing. Music was furnished by the orchestra of this place that accompanied the play. The evening's program was sponsored by the Mackey grange. The women of the grange sold lunch.

Brush College Grangers Observe Health Week and "Oregon Day" at Meeting

Brush College—Child health week and Oregon day were featured in an interesting program presented by the Brush College grange Friday evening before a good sized crowd.

Barbara Scott, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Scott of Zena, opened the evening's entertainment with a piano solo. A reading was given by Ruth Whitney. Mrs. Charles McCarter gave a number of interesting facts concerning Oregon history and was followed by Donald Ewing who offered the Oregon creed. Billie Utley sang the Oregon state song and an encore.

A paper on child health prepared by Mrs. Ralph Allen of Salem who was unable to be present to present it, was read by Mrs. W. D. Henry of Zena.

Mrs. Frank Falk of Oak Grove, chairman of the Pomona home economics committee talked on the duties of such committees and offered suggestions for them to follow in promoting the welfare of their organization. Preceding her talk Mrs. Groves of West Salem gave a reading and encore.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. A. R. Ewing, chairman of the local home economics committee, and followed the grange dinner served to approximately 70 members and guests at 6:30 o'clock in the basement of the building, the committee in charge of the dinner being Mrs. Elmer Cook, Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Mrs. Fred Stuckins and Mrs. Groves of West Salem.

Wayne Henry, chairman of the agricultural committee announced that he had received a large amount of squirrel poison to be sold and used in this part of the country. A meeting of the cherry growers was also announced, to be held at the farm of J. Imah, May 12 at 1 o'clock, members of the O. A. C. staff to be present to talk.

A. R. Ewing, chairman of the legislative committee urged an intelligent vote at the polls this month. P. O. Powell, master of Polk county Pomona grange spoke briefly on the two resolutions brought up at the last Pomona meeting, J. A. Yantis, chairman of the roads committee, said that May 10 is national cleanup day for highways and that the highway commission will furnish the trucks on that day for removing all rubbish collected by residents of communities who clean up their roads and gather the rubbish together. He mentioned the $25 fine connected with the dumping of anything along the highway.

Alternate delegates to attend the state grange meeting at Lebanon were nominated, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Chaffin, being the delegation. Occasional solos, Jean Mayo and Ruth Brown; Hawaiian guitars, Gus Bietal; vocal solos, Mrs. G. F. Korinek and Mrs. J. W. Mayo. William McGilchrist, Sr. of Salem, will give a short talk on music.

BROODER AND CHIX LOST THROUGH FIRE

Silverton—One of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Morley's four new chicken brooding houses and 500 three-week old chicks burned to the ground about 3:30 o'clock Monday morning. A neighbor, Mrs. Claude Wolfard, was awakened by the light of flames playing about her face. Looking out of the window she saw the blaze and immediately phoned the Morleys who, unable to save any of the chicks or flaming building, protected the other three, all of which were near the ignited house.

The origin of the fire is not known but the brooders were coal burning and whether this may have started the fire is not known.

Morley built the four brooders in March, all in a row and got 2000 baby chicks in April.

SOCIAL EVENING IS HELD HAMMOND HALL

Mill City—A party was held at the Hammond hall sponsored by the members of the Mason and Odd Fellows with the Eastern Star and Rebekahs as guests. Sigmund's orchestra furnished the music and the evening was spent in dancing. Such a good time was had that the same group decided to have another dance two weeks from Saturday with the same orchestra furnishing the music.

SCIATICA?

Here is a never-failing form of relief from sciatic pain:

Take Bayer Aspirin tablets and avoid needless suffering from sciatica—humbago—and similar excruciating pains. They do relieve; they don't do any harm. Just make sure it is genuine.

Turner—H. S. Bond will be hostess to the monthly silver tea of the Turner Methodist Episcopal church in her home here Thursday afternoon. All are invited to come and enjoy the afternoon. An interesting program has been arranged and waffles will be served during the tea hour. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Bond will be Mrs. I. H. Small and Mrs. William S. Burgoyne.

RELICS STILL ARE RECEIVED FOR DISPLAYS

Silverton—The many articles of historical value to this vicinity that have been gathered and brought to J. D. Drake and the individual articles of M. L. Gottenberg gathered by, and many purchased by him, may be seen at the Drake studio and at the Gottenberg home on North First street near the high school.

People are responding almost daily with relics and articles for this society and many more have made statements on various articles they intend bringing.

Many out of town people have come to see these articles of Indian relics, old flint lock guns, ox yokes, hand made plows used in the 50's, charms, spinning wheels hand made nails, books, newspapers, buckles and hundreds of other articles.

At Gottenberg's place are his old link pin wagon, the high wheel bicycle, the old oaken bucket, spinning wheels, spool beds, old high auto wagons and many other articles of this kind, all of which hold a high value of interest to the people, young and old of today.

These articles at both places may be seen most any day and some of the time on Sundays when the proprietors are at home.
