Queen Bernice is Ruler Of May Day Festivities At Delayed Stayton Fete

Stayton—Upon a moss-covered and flower-bedecked throne placed in the high school gymnasium, Bernice Gilmour was crowned queen of the May, Tuesday evening before a large and appreciative audience. These May day festivities were to have been held Saturday but owing to unfavorable weather conditions the program was postponed and held indoors.

Grant Murphy, chairman of the school board, crowned Queen Bernice I, after which she reviewed her regiment of soldiers on parade.

The court, drawn from Miss Lillic room appeared in a very pretty and clever manner. The queen made of the first and second grades wound a May pole for her majesty in a pleasing and entertaining way. The ladies in waiting of the high school, in attractive costumes wound a May pole for her majesty in a novel manner.

Herds of health pins were presented by Miss Eggleston, principal of the grade school, to the following pupils: Georgia Mabel, Val Dair Sloper, Dale Hunt and Dore Lewis, first and second grades; Frances Pound, Edwin Hayworth, Betty Korinek, Doris Crabtree, Mary E. McClain, Frank Tobie, Gordon Kendrick, Ruby Swanson, Evelyn Keyes, Lois Pound, Ethelma Titus, June Mabel, Lenore Lewis, third and fourth grades; Irmal Trask, Maxine Crabtree, Harry Stupka, Bernice Mumper, Hortense Stayton, Vera Burnmaster, Albert Mabel, Clarice Tobie, fifth and sixth grades; Jean Mayo, Rex Shelton, Lora E. Foster, Eleanor Stayton, Mary Mills and Naomi Tobie, seventh and eighth grades.

SUPPORT PLEDGED WOMAN CANDIDATE

Silverton—At a called meeting of the Silverton Women's club Tuesday afternoon it was voted to accept the offer of the P. E. P. company to take their prize cakes they will have at their cooking school to be held in the empty store spaces of the Masonic building next week. The money derived from the prize cakes is to buy books for the library.

At this time the women also voted to all go on record as standing behind Miss Louise Fischer, who is one of 13 candidates for the four representatives from Marion county. The next regular meeting of the club which was to have been held next week, has been postponed until a week from next Monday as the state federation of women's clubs is held in Salem next week. This next meeting, which will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. George Hubbs, will be in the order of an afternoon tea, it being the last meeting of this season.

MASONIC RITES HONORS OFFERED GEORGE BEEBE

Woodburn—Full Masonic honors were given to George H. Beebe at impressive funeral services held in the Masonic temple Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. Henry G. Hanson of Independence, former pastor of the Woodburn Presbyterian church and a close friend and neighbor of the deceased. Music was by four members of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Fred Holcomb, Mrs. H. M. Austin, Mrs. V. D. Bain and Mrs. J. W. Richards, with Miss Gladys Adams at the piano.

The ritualistic Masonic ceremony was conducted by Worshipful Master Rex W. Bentley of Woodburn lodge No. 196, with H. M. Sayre acting as chaplain. Masons who acted as pall bearers were Frank W. Stiemleier, C. J. Eddy, Charles L. Ogil, H. L. Gill, C. F. Whitman and Geo. Beach. Interment was in Hubbard cemetery at the graveside of his wife where the concluding services were held. Among the profusion of floral offerings were the square and compass from the Masonic lodge and the emblematic floral star from Evergreen chapter No. 41, O. E. S.

George Henry Beebe was born in Sullivan county, New York on October 24, 1853. When 22 years of age he went to Iowa for a year then came west to California for a brief period after which he came to Hubbard, where he farmed and also taught school at Hubbard and Howland, Oregon, Scotts Mills and Butteville. Later he entered into general merchandising business in Hubbard and was postmaster. On December 26, 1887 he was married to Mary Grimm, a member of a pioneer family of Hubbard, who died in 1917. MAY DAY PROGRAM POSTPONED AGAIN

Independence—Owing to the inclement weather of the past few days, the May day exercises by the high school students, was postponed from Friday until Tuesday of this week, and on account of the heavy rain storm of Tuesday, the exercises were again postponed until May 16. It has been quite a disappointment to the students as considerable preparation had been made for the event. The girls' league is sponsoring the program for the day.

STANTONS QUIT HOME IN AMITY

Amity—The Foreign Mission society of the Methodist church met at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. E. Stanton, the pastor's wife as hostess. The president, Mrs. W. R. Osborne, presided over the devotional and business meeting. The mission book, "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem" was read. Mesdames C. C. Randall, M. L. Prunk, W. E. Stanton and Miss Mary McGowan gave talks.

This was the last meeting that Mrs. Stanton would be present at the society as they are moving away in June, so the members sewed on tea towels which they presented to her at the close of the meeting.

TALKIES INSTALLED FOR INDEPENDENCE

Independence—The reconstruction work at the Isis theater preparatory for the talkies, is rapidly nearing completion, the interior decorations are completed and all machinery installed. New lights are being placed in the lobby and outside entrance, which adds much to the attractiveness of the theater. The Willard Tile company of Salem has completed laying a new modern design, and all will be ready for use Saturday.

The manager of the theater, Ross Nelson, has been to considerable expense in making his theater an up-to-date playhouse, and will feature only the best programs.

MT. ANGEL TO VOTE FOR NEW CITY BUILDING

Mt. Angel—A petition, signed by the registered voters of Mt. Angel, for a new city hall, jail and fire station, was presented to the city council at the regular council meeting Monday evening.

Mayor Webb appointed a committee to draw up plans and specifications for the new structure. The matter will be decided by the people at a special city election, to be held August 14.

FINAL QUARTERLY CONFERENCE SLATED

Turner—The Methodist church of Turner will hold its last quarterly conference Friday evening in the church. All members and friends are invited to attend the meeting.

New officers will be elected and reports will be made of the work accomplished in all departments of the church during the past year.

Dr. T. H. Temple of Salem, district superintendent will be present and give a short address. Rev. William S. Burgoyne, pastor of the church will also give a short talk and other matters relating to church affairs will be attended to.

A hedge of white and purple lilacs has been set out along the Methodist parsonage, and other improvements made in the yard.

GRANGERS WILL OFFER SOCIAL

Silverton—The Ankeny grange No. 340, held its regular monthly business meeting with new members given degrees, Miss Lorna Emmons, Miss Wilma Brown, Miss Lela Mathews and George Brown. Several more names were voted on to be taken in at the next meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grems of Morning Star grange and four other visitors were present. Judge McMahon spoke.

It was decided to have the grange social meeting May 17. Cards will be the diversion of the evening. The executive and finance committees were authorized to go ahead and purchase the necessary lumber and windows to finish the new kitchen, which is being built. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting. The next regular grange meeting will be June 7.

Silverton—Miss Magdalene Herr, who has been spending the last two years with her brother, Gus Herr, and family of Brown street, has left for Rochester, N. Y., where her brother, Julius, will be graduated in June from the Theological seminary. Miss Herr will visit in Michigan before returning to her home in Wishek, N. D. and may come back here this fall.

CLASS PLAY SLATED

Stayton—The senior class of the high school will present the play, "Hold That Line, Jimmy," Thursday and Friday evening in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.
