MARCUS WHIPS PADDY WALTHIER

Portland (P)—Leaping Joe Marcus, Portland lightweight, took a 10-round decision over Paddy Walthier, San Francisco, in a fast bout here Tuesday night, in which no great damage was done.

The feature of the evening was the 10-round slug between Mickey Dolan, Portland, and Al Gotthardt, German lightweight. Mickey found the German a tough boy with a baffling style and that made him hard to reach effectively. Mickey did considerable hand thumping in the latter rounds. Ray McQuillan, clever Denver colored, outwitted a well-learned decision over Jimmy Dolan, Portland. McQuillan outboxed the Portlander in nearly every round and clinched the decision in the tenth with a couple of hard ones to Dolan's jaw.

Ernie Beebe, Portland, and Larry Sarratt, San Francisco, heavyweights, slugged each other for six rounds with everything but the ring posts. Beebe taking the nod. Abie Israel, Portland bantam, took an easy decision over Bernie Millator, Filipino, in the four-round curtain raiser.

National League Clubs Shift About; Brooklyn Only Team To Hold Place

By The Associated Press

The amazing race of the National League clubs for the higher places in the standing has stolen the show in big league baseball from their rival circuit. Four games were played Tuesday in each major league, and while the American was offering but one change in the standing, a shift of the seventh and eighth place clubs, the elder circuit left just two clubs in their former spots.

The Brooklyn Robins, who became the leaders only Sunday, held their place by trouncing the Phillies, still the tail enders, 16 to 9. All the rest shifted about. The New York Giants dropped from second to fourth place for the day's biggest fall while Pittsburgh made the best climb, going from fifth to third.

Even the Boston Braves, rankst of all outsiders, found themselves in the struggle as they downed the Giants for their fourth victory in the five game series. Led by Wally

BAILEY TAUGHT GAME BY HUG

"Ed Bailey played a whole of a football game after he once got the spirit of the thing and never stopped until he was down," stated George Hug, superintendent of Salem schools, Tuesday in commenting on the democratic nominee for governor, who will face George Joseph at the polls next November.

"He came to Eugene high school in 1908 where I had my first job after graduating at the University of Oregon, weighing about 265 pounds. He was 16 years of age, big and awkward.

"I took him out to the football field where he towered above the rest of the boys. I took him in hand. He knew nothing about the game and apparently cared less. But after I had maulled him around a bit and pushed his head in the dirt a few times, he made a jump at me one day and knocked me flat. After that he was a football player."

After his graduation at Eugene high, Bailey went to the University of Oregon, where he was an outstanding member of the Webfoot grid team.

SOLONS' HOLD ON 1ST PLACE REMAINS SLIM

By UNITED PRESS

Everything but baseball was exhibited in the coast league Tuesday with the eight teams contributing a total of 65 runs, 73 hits and 13 errors.

Slashing honors went to the Seals in their 15 to 2 victory over Oakland. Crossetti and Wingo each collected five hits of the 21 rapped off Daglia, Dumovitch and Kasich. John Miljus swept his curve around the Oaks' bats to turn in a neat 7 hit game.

The only reason Sacramento remained in first place was because the Seals took Oakland. Los Angeles defeated the Seals 8 to 5 by jumping on Lauri Vinci for four runs in the first inning and continuing the attack on Jones and Smith. Ed Baecht, the confident one, had an easy time of it with his aipping fast ball and sharp curve.

"Junk" Walters turned back Hollywood 11 to 6 at Wrigley field to win his fifth game of the season as against one loss. Manager Oscar Vitt let Hensel Hulvey go the route despite a five run barrage in the third and fourth more in the seventh. Otis Brannon hit two homers and Orwell and Heath each bagged one.

Walters weakened in the ninth and Chesterfield, whose forte seems to be relief pitching, turned back the Stars by fanning Heath with the bases loaded.

The Missions massacred Seattle 17 to 1. Ike Boone hit a homer, double and two singles and George Burns got a homer with two on. Dutch Lieber blanked the Indians until the ninth when they bunched three of their five hits for a run.

"I can't dance and I can't sing. I can't do anything on the stage—which makes me a perfect actor," the great one said.

FLOOD LIGHTS FOR BALL CLUBS

San Francisco (P)—Night baseball, which many magnates believe will save the American pastime from financial decay since its successful trial by Des Moines this spring, will make its debut in the Pacific Coast league at Sacramento, June 10, according to an announcement by Lew Moreing, president of the league leading Seals.

Oakland's Acoms will vie with the Senators in the first coast venture at knocking high flies into the floodlights, and other teams will have their opportunities soon after. For Moreing stated that five regular games will be played at night each week from then on. Only the Sunday morning game at Stockton and the Sunday afternoon game at Sacramento will be played by sunlight.

Moreing believes that Sacramento's climate is particularly favorable for night games, and declares that lighting engineers will profit by the experience of the Des Moines experiment and offer the best equipment available.
