FLAG DAY PROGRAM OBSERVED, HUBBARD

HUBBARD.—The flag day program at the meeting of Arion Temple Pythian Sisters, proved to be more than usually interesting. The first meeting in June has been set aside by the order through the entire domain for honoring the flag and appropriate programs are given. Arion temple under the supervision of the most excellent chief, Mrs. Wilma Laffer, had the program as part of the meeting. In addition to readings, and patriotic musical numbers, there was a flag drill by the members of Miss Orva Barrett's team, the contest between two teams, the other one being captained by Miss Anita Bevent, is drawing to a close and the score is still uncertain, but group work such as the drill added to this score to a great extent.

FESTIVAL OFFERED BY GRANGER GROUP

SILVERTON.—The Union Hill grange will hold its regular meeting with Master J. O. Darby in the chair, Thursday evening. After the business meeting and a short program the men who had prepared the viands, will serve refreshments, do up the dishes and clean up.

Saturday evening the grange will have a strawberry festival and dance to grangers, their families and invited friends. The money raised from this affair will pay on the hall debt.

PLAN ISLAND JAUNT

AMITY.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Laird and Miss Vera Booth arrived here from Coquille Saturday afternoon. The Lairds spent the week end at the J. W. Booth home. Miss Booth, who taught in Marshfield schools last year will visit for three weeks with her parents before sailing from Vancouver, B. C., for a summer in the Hawaiian Islands. While in Honolulu Miss Booth will stay at Punahoa college. She will be a member of the University of Oregon cruise to the islands and has several friends going on this cruise. She will return in time for her school work in the fall. While in the islands she will visit her cousin Justus Schomp who has been located there for several years. Mr. Schomp is a former Amity high school student.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES HELD SCIO STUDENTS

SCIO.—Standing room was at a premium in the Scio high school auditorium Wednesday evening on the occasion of the eighth grade commencement exercises, and the program directed by E. P. Caldwell was one of the best in recent years. The numbers included vocal and instrumental selections which were well received by the audience. "A Farewell Greeting" essay, was given by Sylvia Bartu, leader of her class. C. E. Williamson of Albany was the principal speaker of the evening, delivering an interesting and appropriate address. "The world expects preparation on your part for future duties, privileges and responsibilities," the speaker said in addressing the twenty or more boys and girls on the stage who had completed the grammar school course and who were on that occasion to receive diplomas to that effect.

In introducing the speaker, Caldwell took occasion to state that six different rural districts in the vicinity of Scio were represented on the stage at that time, and announced that it has become the custom for country schools to unite with Scio in eighth grade graduation exercises.

F. A. Gallegly, principal of the high school, presented diplomas, impressing the recipients with the value of education and admonishing them to continue through high school and college if possible.

PRETTY CURVES WIN!

When tempted to over-indulge

"Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*In his book, "Get Rid of That Fat," Samuel G. Blythe says: "Any man or woman who is twenty pounds overweight is sick." We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
