

VALLEY LODGE GATHERING IS SET SATURDAY

Dallas-Falls City will be the meeting place Saturday of hundreds of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs who will get together at a joint picnic of Polk and Marion county lodges.

COMPLETE SURPRISE OFFERED MISS MEYER

Brush Creek—Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer entertained for their daughter, Miss Althea, Tuesday evening at their home on Paradise alley.

The young folks set out at the pace on a treasure hunt through the pastures and woods in the neighborhood.

Those present were Edna Stortz of Salem; Helen and Martha Thompson of Marquam; Esther Borvik, Leela Stortz, Frances Nelson, Inez Lee, Harbo Thompson, Clifford Eklund and Cora Goplerud, Silfverton, Inga and John Goplerud, Lucella Portland, Stella Dyebevik, Lillie Madsen, Irl Grace, Emer Grace, Henry Hjorth, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Madsen of Brush Creek, Alma Johnson of Bethany, and Mr. and Mrs. Meyer, Ludvig Meyer and the honor guest.

WINDSORS ARE HOSTS FOR CARD EVENING

North Spring Valley—Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Windsor entertained a number of friends in their home recently, the evening being devoted to playing bridge.

WALDO HILLS YOUNG PEOPLE LEAVE HOME

Waldo Hills—Mildred Egan, the daughter of Frank Egan, has left for Salem where she has accepted a position with the J. C. Penney company. Miss Egan was a member of the graduating class at the Silverton high school last Thursday evening.

BRIDGE IS PLAYED AT BARR RESIDENCE

Mt. Angel—The V. B. club were guests of Miss Loretta Barr Wednesday evening. Two tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. L. A. Zeis received the high score and Miss Helen Eberle drew the cut prize.

NO HOPE IS HELD FOR OLSEN'S LIFE

Scotts Mills—Word has been received here that John Olsen who left this place about three and a half years ago for Redding, California, was hit by an automobile while on the highway and is now in the hospital at Redding suffering from a broken leg, arm, internal injuries. Mr. Olsen is quite old. He lived in this community a number of years and was well known here. No hope was held for his recovery.

STUDENT NURSE LEAVING

Silverton—Miss Myrna Schroeder, a student nurse at the Emanuel hospital in Portland who has been spending her two weeks vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroeder will return to her nurse duties Saturday.

OUTING ON COAST

Hubbard—Prof. J. R. Bidgood of the Hubbard schools is taking a pre-summer work vacation in the mountain region beyond Tillamook. He is accompanied by his son, Rolfe, and by Leonard Watkins. The three while enjoying the camping are making chitlim bark for the market. They expect to be gone another week.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET

BUCKET BRIGADE IS CALLED TO RESCUE

Monmouth—The Monmouth fire department was called out about 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening to extinguish a fire on the Joseph Crocker place located about a mile northeast of Monmouth on the Monmouth-Independence highway.

DISTRICTS WILL CAST VOTES FOR NEW DIRECTORS

Hubbard—The annual school election for one director and for a clerk has been set for Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the school house. Dr. A. P. de Lespinasse who has served two consecutive terms of three years each, on the board is the retiring director. E. O. Erickson was elected clerk at the 1929 election. As both men have given unusual service to the community there is a strong demand for their re-election.

Woodburn—Notice of the annual school meeting of Woodburn district No. 103 of Marion county has been given to the legal voters of said district. The meeting will be held at the high school building at two o'clock June 16, for the purpose of electing a director and clerk and the transaction of such business as may come before the meeting.

Albany—James Williams was sentenced to six months in the county jail and fined $300 in circuit court here, Thursday, when he pleaded guilty to possessing an unregistered still. Williams was arrested several months ago in a vacant house in Albany operating one of the most complete distilling outfits confiscated in Linn county in many months, Linn officers stated.

DISTILLING PLANT OPERATOR JAILED

Willford M. Bancroft was bound over to the grand jury Thursday, under $750 bail on a charge of possession of an unregistered still. Bancroft was arrested Wednesday on his farm near Holley by the Linn sheriff and his chief deputy.

OLDEST MEMBER OF AID IS SURPRISED

Independence—The members of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church surprised one of their oldest members, Mrs. Bertha Ferguson, the occasion being the anniversary of her birthday. Wednesday afternoon in the church parsonage.

BRIDGE IS PLAYED AT BARR RESIDENCE

Mt. Angel—The V. B. club were guests of Miss Loretta Barr Wednesday evening. Two tables of bridge were in play. Mrs. L. A. Zeis received the high score and Miss Helen Eberle drew the cut prize.

NO HOPE IS HELD FOR OLSEN'S LIFE

Scotts Mills—Word has been received here that John Olsen who left this place about three and a half years ago for Redding, California, was hit by an automobile while on the highway and is now in the hospital at Redding suffering from a broken leg, arm, internal injuries. Mr. Olsen is quite old. He lived in this community a number of years and was well known here. No hope was held for his recovery.

STUDENT NURSE LEAVING

Silverton—Miss Myrna Schroeder, a student nurse at the Emanuel hospital in Portland who has been spending her two weeks vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroeder will return to her nurse duties Saturday.

OUTING ON COAST

Hubbard—Prof. J. R. Bidgood of the Hubbard schools is taking a pre-summer work vacation in the mountain region beyond Tillamook. He is accompanied by his son, Rolfe, and by Leonard Watkins. The three while enjoying the camping are making chitlim bark for the market. They expect to be gone another week.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET

BAYSE FUNERAL RITES AT HALL WEDNESDAY

Dayton—Funeral services for Alexander Bayse, 80, a resident of Dayton for 15 years, who died June 8, were held at Ladd chapel in McMinnville Wednesday forenoon at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. Walter G. Smith of Dayton, officiating.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RITES

Dayton—Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, McMinnville, Dean Emmanuel Northrup, and Dr. O. C. Wood, and Dr. W. Everett Henry, and professors Schlauch and Wood were the church council which attended the ordination service held at the home of Mrs. Theodocia Magness in Dayton, when Rev. Walter G. Smith, local student pastor, who has served the Dayton Baptist church during the past six years, was ordained a licensed minister of the Baptist organization, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Woodburn—Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and daughter, Patty are visiting relatives in Portland during the absence of Lieutenant Sims at Camp Clatsop.

PURVINE RELATIVES HAVE GET-TOGETHER

Zena—Sixty-five members of the maternal relatives of Charles Purvine of Zena, Jordan Purvine of Portland, and Cyrus Purvine, of Independence, brothers, met at the home of the former Sunday and had their first get-together. A big picnic dinner was served cafeteria style on the lawn at noon and the afternoon was devoted to visiting. So successful was the affair that several voiced the hope that it might be made an annual picnic.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RITES

Dayton—Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, McMinnville, Dean Emmanuel Northrup, and Dr. O. C. Wood, and Dr. W. Everett Henry, and professors Schlauch and Wood were the church council which attended the ordination service held at the home of Mrs. Theodocia Magness in Dayton, when Rev. Walter G. Smith, local student pastor, who has served the Dayton Baptist church during the past six years, was ordained a licensed minister of the Baptist organization, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Woodburn—Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and daughter, Patty are visiting relatives in Portland during the absence of Lieutenant Sims at Camp Clatsop.

PURVINE RELATIVES HAVE GET-TOGETHER

Zena—Sixty-five members of the maternal relatives of Charles Purvine of Zena, Jordan Purvine of Portland, and Cyrus Purvine, of Independence, brothers, met at the home of the former Sunday and had their first get-together. A big picnic dinner was served cafeteria style on the lawn at noon and the afternoon was devoted to visiting. So successful was the affair that several voiced the hope that it might be made an annual picnic.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RITES

Dayton—Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, McMinnville, Dean Emmanuel Northrup, and Dr. O. C. Wood, and Dr. W. Everett Henry, and professors Schlauch and Wood were the church council which attended the ordination service held at the home of Mrs. Theodocia Magness in Dayton, when Rev. Walter G. Smith, local student pastor, who has served the Dayton Baptist church during the past six years, was ordained a licensed minister of the Baptist organization, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Woodburn—Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and daughter, Patty are visiting relatives in Portland during the absence of Lieutenant Sims at Camp Clatsop.

PURVINE RELATIVES HAVE GET-TOGETHER

Zena—Sixty-five members of the maternal relatives of Charles Purvine of Zena, Jordan Purvine of Portland, and Cyrus Purvine, of Independence, brothers, met at the home of the former Sunday and had their first get-together. A big picnic dinner was served cafeteria style on the lawn at noon and the afternoon was devoted to visiting. So successful was the affair that several voiced the hope that it might be made an annual picnic.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RITES

Dayton—Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, McMinnville, Dean Emmanuel Northrup, and Dr. O. C. Wood, and Dr. W. Everett Henry, and professors Schlauch and Wood were the church council which attended the ordination service held at the home of Mrs. Theodocia Magness in Dayton, when Rev. Walter G. Smith, local student pastor, who has served the Dayton Baptist church during the past six years, was ordained a licensed minister of the Baptist organization, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Woodburn—Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and daughter, Patty are visiting relatives in Portland during the absence of Lieutenant Sims at Camp Clatsop.

PURVINE RELATIVES HAVE GET-TOGETHER

Zena—Sixty-five members of the maternal relatives of Charles Purvine of Zena, Jordan Purvine of Portland, and Cyrus Purvine, of Independence, brothers, met at the home of the former Sunday and had their first get-together. A big picnic dinner was served cafeteria style on the lawn at noon and the afternoon was devoted to visiting. So successful was the affair that several voiced the hope that it might be made an annual picnic.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RITES

Dayton—Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, McMinnville, Dean Emmanuel Northrup, and Dr. O. C. Wood, and Dr. W. Everett Henry, and professors Schlauch and Wood were the church council which attended the ordination service held at the home of Mrs. Theodocia Magness in Dayton, when Rev. Walter G. Smith, local student pastor, who has served the Dayton Baptist church during the past six years, was ordained a licensed minister of the Baptist organization, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Woodburn—Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and daughter, Patty are visiting relatives in Portland during the absence of Lieutenant Sims at Camp Clatsop.

PURVINE RELATIVES HAVE GET-TOGETHER

Zena—Sixty-five members of the maternal relatives of Charles Purvine of Zena, Jordan Purvine of Portland, and Cyrus Purvine, of Independence, brothers, met at the home of the former Sunday and had their first get-together. A big picnic dinner was served cafeteria style on the lawn at noon and the afternoon was devoted to visiting. So successful was the affair that several voiced the hope that it might be made an annual picnic.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RITES

Dayton—Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, McMinnville, Dean Emmanuel Northrup, and Dr. O. C. Wood, and Dr. W. Everett Henry, and professors Schlauch and Wood were the church council which attended the ordination service held at the home of Mrs. Theodocia Magness in Dayton, when Rev. Walter G. Smith, local student pastor, who has served the Dayton Baptist church during the past six years, was ordained a licensed minister of the Baptist organization, at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Woodburn—Mrs. Elburn T. Sims and daughter, Patty are visiting relatives in Portland during the absence of Lieutenant Sims at Camp Clatsop.

ODDS and ENDS GENERAL CLEANUP At SHIPLEY'S

- HOSIERY Full fashioned pure thread silk 79c
UNDIES New dull rayon panties, stepins, shorties 55c
HOSIERY Pure thread silk, full fashioned in service weights 1.29
SLIPS White, pink, peach, mile rayon slips, deep hems 98c
SOX Kiddies half and three-quarter sox, plain and fancy tops 19c
GIRDLES One lot odd and ends brocade girdles 1.00
HOSIERY Silk chiffon in the light summer shades, evening and day wear 1.65
GOWNS "Porto Rican Maid," hand embroidered gowns 95c
HATS Cleanup of straws and felts 1.00 1.85 2.95 3.95
COATS For sports wear 8.50
FROCKS Crepe de Chine and prints 5 and 7.48
SPORTS Crepe sport frocks and ensembles 12.45
HATS Stitched silk hats in tans and the pastel shades 2.95
BAGS Leather silk and tapestry—Special group 1.39
HATS 3.95 and 4.85
Dress flowers 19c

SHIPLEY'S Quality Merchandise—Popular Prices

Advertisement for Fulops clothing store. Features 'Fulops NOW! PREPARATION SALE!' with various clothing items like Golf Suits, Ties, Pajamas, Sweaters, Shirts, Sox, Coats, Straw Hats, and Golf Knickers. Includes a large '26' graphic and 'NO DOWN PAYMENT!' text.