TAKE this big package of soap bubbles in your left hand. Take this smaller package of White King in your right. Which is the heavier? Well, you see how it is!

The answer is that White King's granulated and condensed form permits it to pack closer in the carton, like powdered sugar. So you really get more soap from the smaller package.

White King Granulated Soap is economical for another reason. A little goes so far! A teaspoonful in a basin of water for fine lingerie—a couple for the washing machine. And it's absolutely pure—it water won't hurt it, White King won't. At your grocer's.

Scotts Mills—Word has been received here of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Laura Cammack of Roseade and John J. Trachuel at the alumni banquet of Portland Bible Institute in Portland recently.

After Donald Edmundson had sung "Love On Sweet Song," a small boy dressed in a Chinese costume appeared carrying an Oriental bower. The Chinese characters translated revealed the news of the betrothal.

Miss Cammack is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cammack. Miss Cammack is a graduate from Salem high school, Oregon normal school and the Portland Bible Institute. She taught school in Marion county one term at the Abiqua Height school. She has been active in Christian endeavor and Sunday school work.

Tiny cards containing the announcement were spilled from ribbon-decked bean pots on the card tables after the evening of bridge. The marriage had been kept a complete secret from all except immediate relatives of the couple.

Three tables of bridge were in play during the evening with Mrs. Wilbeck assisting her sister in serving refreshments.

Kola—Miss Jessie D. Melville has just returned home from a several weeks' visit with Mrs. Walter Pierce of La Grange.

More things to see in Salem this week! The Floral Show was simply gorgeous and the gardens of Salem are beyond compare — California to the contrary. There have been lovely things to be seen in the stores this week too, so lovely that it has made my shopping tour a real joy.

I really hate to mention anything as unpleasant as the Wall Street crash in fashion news, but according to the merchants, it really has affected dress manufacturers' production, so that although the quality and variety of frocks has not suffered, one does not find the tremendous quantity found in times of prosperity. But to return to more cheerful subjects, the windows are so full of colorful gowns, hats and personal accessories of every kind that even the aristocrat would stoop to the gentle art of window shopping.

Jack and I had a lovely ride last Sunday. We went over the Asea road to Yew Creek. That is just through the best of the mountain scenic wonders. We had lunch at the confectionery there and met the Moores who are occupying one of the charming cabins for the summer where the fishing is good.

When an unmarried girl begins to look at furniture it's a bad sign. But when I saw a perfectly darling apple green bedroom suite in the window of the Imperial Furniture store on 467 Court street, I just simply had to go inside for a closer look. Most is a three piece suite with a brand new type of vanity that hails from Hollywood, and the beauty of it is that it is very expensive, only $45.00. Just go in and look at it and you will agree with me that it is a "honey."

A Satch Trip—It doesn't take long to say it. You can read it at a glance Buy Fox Elinore Script—and save your bank account a chance!

Sport handkerchiefs in linen the size of our big dance hankies are now being worn.

Swanky Place to Entertain—A friend of mine was down from Seattle and in order to be sure that everything would be quite correct—I took her to the Gray Bell for lunch-oon. She commented on the fine service, and the delicious meal, but she especially admired the dainty green linen on the table and the lovely pastel pink china. We told Mrs. Blakely of our approval and she with pardonable pride said that the new china was one of the two sets in Oregon. On our way out my friend thanked me for the delightful lunch and I in turn can thank the Gray Bell for giving us such a delightful piece in which to entertain our friends.

Oh, those who can pick up and leave for any time, have no idea what they miss by not having an official vacation season. The fun of contemplation and planning is the gift of providence to the great majority of us.

I Talked With Mr. Buren—I stopped in at Buren Furniture Store at 179 N. Com'l and Mr. Buren tells me that week end and over-night traveling cases for ladies continue to be strongly in favor. They come in tan, brown and black leather—beautifully lined in moire and figured silks, and fitted with Pyralin toilet articles in such shades as maize, Nile, Shell and Coral. Prices range from $18.00 to $35.00.

Oh Such a Marvelous Feeling. When that Pasteurized Face Cream of Helena Rubinstein goes on one's tired face! How it cleanses and soothes the skin. I like her powder, too, it goes on so smoothly that you don't see the floury look that so many powders give your face. You know Helena Rubinstein was a medical student once, and all her preparations come from a laboratory that has a real maestro at its head. The Capital Drug Store sell her products here in Salem.

ARE YOU The Annual Review, June 21, of the O. N. G. troops at Camp Clatsop is occupying the minds of a number of Salem debutantes.

One More Headache Saver—To the woman who finds fingers confusing the First National Bank offers special attention. The banking rooms are spacious and pleasant and the service they give you is a charm to the game of saving.

AND I KNOW—a lot of Salem maids whose hearts are aflutter over handsome young Claude Grimm the glider pilot out at the airfield.

Have You Noticed—... that Miller's are starting their Founder's Month sale Saturday? My what wonderful values for your bargain-hunting women! Silk dresses in georgette, crepe de chine, and flat crepes for $10.00 with the very latest print designs, yards and yards of silks at a dollar a yard, and Hoioproof hose, our standby brand, for $1.00 a pair. Then I notice that they have lace brad, straw and summer felt hats on sale for $1.95. Why one ought to be able to stretch a dollar to do the work of two, even in these hard times! Then for the men (poor things they are generally forgotten when it comes to sales) they have the "Faultless" pajamas for $1.95. (If we women could get faultless pajamas for that price we would be doing well wouldn't we). There are military brushes that were regularly $2.50 now priced at $1.25, too. This sale by Salem's OWN STORE is our chance to pick up some real values—and oh girls, think of the money we are saving!

Imagine My Chargin!—When I buy my summer Deauville in another town, paying $5.95 for them and then come home and find the very same things on sale for $3.95. Well, I've learned my lesson. The next time I want nice shoes for less money, I am certainly going to stay in Salem and go to Hamilton's Shoe Shop for them.

They tell us that jewelry in every form is due for a renaissance.

I'M Afraid—U Admit—of a cheap perfume—But when the Model Beauty Parlor on 112 N. Commercial offers their wonderful permanents that are usually $10 for $3.00 that means a bargain worth taking.
