

SHARKEY AND GERMAN MAY MEET IN FALL

BY ALAN GOULD
New York (AP)—The upshot of all the fight furor may be to match Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling for a return bout in September to attempt a settlement of the heavyweight chaos.

William F. Carey, president of Madison Square Garden, told Sharkey's manager after the bout that he would be ready Friday to discuss promotion of another contest here.

New York (AP)—The fight world that had hoped to wake up Friday to celebrate the crowning of a new and undisputed world heavyweight champion, discovered, instead, that it had just another headache, hangover and controversy.

Max Schmeling won on a foul from Jack Sharkey within the last six seconds of the fourth round of what was to have been the decisive bout for the heavyweight title.

Severely battered though he had been, the black-thatched 24-year-old German youth, who looks, bobs and sways like the one and only Jack Dempsey, emerged with whatever honors and title claims go with the victory. He may, for the time being, be put at the top of the heavyweight class, at least by his own countrymen and by the New York state athletic commission, which proclaimed its right beforehand to crown the winner the new champion of the world.

World and successor to Gene Tunney, who retired two years ago, Schmeling's cause may be espoused further by the national boxing association and he is a candidate at least for the inscription of his name upon the Muldoon-Tunney trophy, emblematic of championship recognition so far as its donors are concerned. But cold analysis of the unsatisfactory and disappointing elements to a two-year search for a fit monarch of heavyweight ranks appeared to offer no sound basis for proclaiming the young German possessor of honors universal in scope, where neither of the principals in the main test, beforehand, held any clear or undisputed claim to championship position.

Dark-browed, lithe, courageous Max, exports may held, should not be penalized and deprived of recognition for events beyond his control, but the fact remained that Schmeling was carried oddly and in apparently great pain from the ring, the winner, but a badly battered one.

Schmeling was hurt by a punch that was unquestionably lost after having been decisively outboxed and outpunched by Sharkey, who with one erratic blow of his fist swept away the 12th honors that seemed almost certain to be his. The German crumpled to the floor, to be carried to his corner and declared the victor only a few minutes after it seemed he was on the verge of being cleanly knocked out, in the third round, when the American battered his young rival all over the ring with a viciously sustained two-fisted onslaught.

In the third round, Sharkey had Schmeling groggy and a quick victory apparently in his grasp. A round later the tables were reversed with such startling rapidity that scenes of the wildest disorder and confusion developed.

The fatal and final blow, intended as a left hook for the stomach but somehow unintentionally misdirected, was delivered as the fighters were close together along the ropes, with the tap of the gang ending the fourth round only a few seconds away. The referee, Jimmy Crowley, on the opposite side of the ring, with Sharkey's back between him and Schmeling, failed to see the punch. Withholding his decision, as the German sank writhing in agony to the floor, Crowley hesitated and was almost instantly surrounded and harassed by the managers, seconds and handlers of the two fighters as he sought advice from officials on either side of the ring. With the clamor still at its height and the crowd in complete uproar, Crowley finally accepted the unqualified judgment of one of the judges, Harold Barnes, and pronounced Schmeling the victor on a foul.

POSTOFFICE BEATS M'KEY TEAM, 7-4

The McKey Chevrolet team was defeated by the Postoffice squad of the Industrial League Thursday night 7 to 4. Rider, pitching for the Postoffice, struck out 12 batters, hit a home run and held the carmen to six hits. A peculiar feature of the game was that all the putouts on the Postoffice side were credited to the catcher and first baseman. Poles, second baseman hit a homer for the postal workers.

Jack's Return To Fight Game Held Unlikely

Los Angeles, (AP)—Jack Dempsey, former world's heavyweight champion, while keenly disappointed that Jack Sharkey lost the fight with Max Schmeling Thursday night, has not changed his mind about returning to the ring, he said Friday.

"I certainly was sorry to hear Sharkey declared a loser on a foul," Dempsey said. "I had hoped that a decision—preferably a knockout would be reached."

"I have no plans at present except to lie around for a couple of months while the scar of my recent operation for an abscess on my back heal completely," he said. "Then I might take up a bit of light training. I don't feel I would be ready for a fight for at least a year—in fact, I rather doubt if I ever will fight again. It's still up in the air."

LEBANON LEADS CASCADE BALL

With Mt. Angel and St. Paul battling on the latter's diamond in a game which may decide the championship of the northern division of the Cascade league, Lebanon, Jefferson and Turner in the south will continue their struggle for top position next Sunday. Mt. Angel took the first of the three game series with St. Paul last Sunday. A second win next Sunday would mean the end of the race in the north.

Lebanon retained the lead in the south last week by defeating Turner. Next Sunday the leaders will go to Mill City, while Jefferson will meet Stayton on the latter's ground. Aumsville will travel to Turner.

The standings:

W	L	Pct.
Lebanon	4	.714
Jefferson	4	.571
Turner	4	.500
Aumsville	3	.500
Stayton	2	.334
Mill City	2	.286

30 EUGENE GOLFERS PLAY HERE SUNDAY

With fully 20 men and 10 women golfers of Eugene expected here Saturday and Sunday, plans for their entertainment by the Salem Golf club have been completed, those in charge of the tournament and social functions, stated Friday.

It is expected the up-state divot diggers will arrive here in mid-afternoon Saturday in plenty of time to play a practice round over the course in anticipation of their match play with Salem golfers Sunday afternoon.

The fairways of the Salem club course have been under irrigation nightly during the week and are in excellent condition for fast play. Following the men's and women's matches Sunday a picnic dinner will be served in the grove.

29 HITS MADE IN NIGHT GAME AT SACRAMENTO

By UNITED PRESS
Apparently the only fault to be found with night baseball on the Pacific coast is that the field is flooded with too much light.

Three hours of what was supposed to be baseball and saw Sacramento defeat Oakland 14 to 12. It was the third successive heavy scoring game and indications are that the hitters are finding the ball so easy to clout under the "electric sunlight" as if they were stroking tennis balls with a racket.

A total of 53 runs has been scored in three games. The sorry Thursday night contributed 29 hits to plague the official scorer. Three errors were made, bringing the total for the three games to but seven. The Oaks used five pitchers through the night and Sacramento had its fourth in the fray as the game ended along about 11:15 p.m.

The Angels pulled up on the second place Seals by winning 4 to 3 at Wrigley field. Curtis Perry walked Ray Jacobs with the basis full in the last of the tenth and the ball game ended.

Hollywood got a running start on the Missions and turned in an 8 to 5 win at Recreation park. The Missions tied the count at five all in the sixth but the Stars added a run in each of the next three innings. Monroe and Huff of the Missions and Greene of the Stars hit homers.

INDIANS CROWD NEAR THE TOP

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
While other clubs have been getting most of the publicity, Roger Peckinpaugh's Cleveland Indians have been attending strictly to business, taking all rivals as they come, until Friday they had pushed into second place in the American league standing, only a game behind the pace-setting Philadelphia Athletics.

Great pitching by Ferrell, Brown and Hudlin has been the outstanding feature of the Indians' upward surge since May 24. In the intervening three weeks, Peckinpaugh's men have won 14 games and lost only four.

The Indians' sixth consecutive victory Thursday and their second in a row from the Athletics enabled them to leap into second place while Washington was bowing to Chicago. Clint Brown pitched great ball to give the Indians a shutout triumph over the A's, 4-0, granting only four hits. George Barnshaw pitched well but three of the eight hits he allowed were home runs.

The Senators bowed to Chicago's White Sox, 10-6, in a free-hitting battle that saw Ted Lyons chalk up his ninth victory of the season. The New York Yankees fell on Waldo Hoyt and two successors for 22 hits, including Babe Ruth's 20th

MOODY VICTOR IN WIGHTMAN TENNIS SERIES

Wimbledon, Eng. (AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody started her team off on the right foot in the Wightman cup series with the English women players Friday, defeating Joan Fry in the opening match, 6-1, 6-1.

Mrs. Moody soon settled into her stride, and playing like the world champion that she is, swept into a lead of 4-1 in the first set. She finished the fourth game with a series of sizzling point-winners after it had gone to deuce, then followed this up by breaking through Miss Fry's delivery.

Mrs. Moody swept through the sixth game at love to stretch her lead to 5-1 and captured the next with her powerful drives for the set at 6-1. She had reeled off five games in a row.

Vancouver, B. C. (AP)—How to play the rolling, bottle-necked fairways, treacherous traps and tricky greens of the Shaugnessy Heights golf course on Friday the 13th, was the problem facing the 52 contestants at the start of the annual two-day Pacific Northwest open golf tournament here.

Thirty professionals and 23 amateurs—the pick of the northwest's best golf ball chasers—entered the 72 hole medal play competition this year in search of gold and golfing honors. Thirty-six holes were scheduled for Friday with the final 36 to be contested Saturday. Neil Christian, Portland professional, reported to defend the coveted title he won at the 1929 tournament in Seattle. Four other Portland golfers accompanied the champion to Vancouver, to make a determined effort to take the northwest crown back to the Oregon city again. They are Ivan Johnson, Mel Smith, Lloyd Byerly and Dr. M. S. Rosenblat.

Seio—Resolutions looking to the promotion of fish and game interests were discussed at Lebanon recently, when R. M. Shelton of Seio as secretary, met with the Santiam fish and game protective association. Among other Seio members who attended the meeting were Frank Bartu and P. W. Schrank. Dr. A. G. Prill, president of the association, was not present at the deliberations.

The membership drive, which has been in progress for a month, will close July 1. Perry Stellmacher reported having received about 50 new members, while Mr. Horsky's additions to the list were somewhat smaller. His official report was not presented, however. The contest has been conducted by teams appointed at a recent meeting and has been spirited and effective. The losing side is to feed the winners on beer and sandwiches at a future meeting, it was announced.

With approximately 33 qualified to date, Foster Cone, in charge of the annual Elks golf tournament is anxious that at least enough more qualify to bring the number up to 60 before Sunday night, the final limit for qualifying rounds.

Those participating may qualify at either the Ilabsee country club, or at the Salem Golf club, but the signed cards should be turned in at the Elks club.

Pairings will be made next week with participation in the first rounds of competition going eighteen holes at either club. Finals will be for 36 holes.
