CITY PARK CARNIVAL SPONSORS PLEADED

Dayton—The carnival given in the Dayton city park under the auspices of the Dayton Woman's Civic club was a success with the program lasting more than an hour. Proceeds of $57 will assist the women in paying for pipe to be laid in the park in an effort to furnish sufficient water to keep the grass green during the dry summer months just at hand.

Four Portland girls, Jane Sterrett, Betty Lou Skinner, Helen Lutzner and Harriet Kittery, each nine years old, gave several dance numbers. Rev. Pfeffer and Ennis Wilbur, both of Dayton, sang a group of duets and Lynn Gubser, of Dayton gave a reading.

Stands and side show stunts by home talent were well patronized.

WALDO HILLS CLUB WILL GIVE BENEFIT

Waldo Hills—Invitations are out for a benefit dance to be given by the Waldo Hills Community club at their club house Friday night. This club has given a number of lovely affairs during the past winter and spring. The club house was completed last December.
