PAGEANT IS PROPOSED FOR COAST ROUTE AFFAIR

SALMON RIVER CUTOFF CALLS CELEBRATION

Dallas—The opening of the Salmon river cut-off scheduled for July 19 will be celebrated by a pageant depicting events from the days of the early settlers to the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Black, Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Staats and Mr. and Mrs. M. Dalton represented the chamber of commerce at a meeting of those interested held in the lobby of the Pines hotel, Taft, Tuesday evening at which approximately 100 boosters were in attendance. Cooperation from the valley towns as far south as Eugene has been promised as well as the assistance of the state highway and traffic departments.

The pageant will be staged on the highway between Otis and Valley Junction, a distance of approximately 23 miles. One way traffic will exist during the day and while construction work will not be completed the road is in excellent shape.

Mrs. Rhoda Johnson, the oldest living white woman to go over the Salmon river trail will be crowned queen. Her crown, made of 2,000 agates gathered on Lincoln county beaches and constructed by Newport craftsmen, will be displayed in Portland in the near future. Dallas will take in the pageant but arrangements have not yet been completed.

The next meeting of the booster club will be held in Toledo July 1.
