BIBLE SCHOOL HAS VACATION AND BIG PICNIC

West Salem—The daily vacation Bible school, which has been in session for the past two weeks, closed Friday afternoon with an all-day picnic, held in the Riverside park. About 70 children and a few mothers attended the picnic and later the dinner which was served in the community hall.

This is the second vacation Bible school held in West Salem and it has been much larger and better than the one held last year, in almost every way. Enrollment this year totaled 75 with an average attendance of 54 daily. Both the total enrollment and the daily attendance far exceed that of last year. A marked enthusiasm has been shown by both the children and the teachers and some high class work has been done. A great deal of credit is due the teachers, Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Groves, Mrs. Esther Anstuen and Lyle Thomas, who donated their time and services without charge. The school board also heartily cooperated in the undertaking by donating the use of the new school house. No tuition was charged the students, but a few expenses were incurred in running the school and anyone desiring to contribute toward these expenses may do so by seeing Rev. Groves.

STAGE IS CHARTERED BY LODGE MEMBERS

Silverton—Twenty-seven members of the local Pythian Sisters and Knights motored to Oregon City in a chartered bus and private cars and were guests of the Cataract Pythian lodge there at an open meeting Thursday evening.

Special honors were also given Cecil Carey and Elsie Jones who won medals in the oratorical contest and who were quite prominent in dramatics.
