Miller, whose marriage to Gibson Follie, son of Mrs. Jessie Follie, will be solemnized in the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon; Miss Martha Lunsford of Greensboro, Georgia, on vacation from her position as science instructor in the Mount Washington college at Abington, Virginia, who is spending the summer with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lunsford; Miss Thelma Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis, who will be presented in recital Monday night at the studio of Prof. T. S. Roberts by Prof. Paul Petri of Corvallis; Miss Ruth Fick, recently installed as worthy advisor of Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Wedding Social Event Sunday

A charming wedding of the early summer season will be the ceremony Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church which will unite Miss Marian Louise Miller, only child of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller of Marion street, and Gibson Follie, only child of Mrs. Jessie Follie and the late Ira Follie. Rev. Earl Cochran will officiate at the impressive double ring service.

Miss Miller has selected as her wedding party Miss Nora Lebow, maid of honor; Miss Mae Blackler, Portland, and Miss Elizabeth Curtis of Weiser, Idaho as bridesmaids; and the little Misses Jean and Mary Bloom of Albany as flower girls. For her wedding frock, Miss Miller has chosen a gown of ivory crepe in princess style with a very long circular skirt and cap sleeves. Her long ivory tulle veil bladed with lace will be caught into a lace cap with clusters of orange blossoms, and she will carry a shower bouquet. Miss Lebow will wear green georgette crepe. Miss Blackler will wear peach net and Miss Curtis will wear pink net made in matching princess styles with ankle length skirts. The two little flower girls will wear pink and peach net frocks made in the same style as those worn by the bridesmaids.

Seven Club Women To Be Honored

An outstanding event in fraternal organization circles this coming week will be the presentation by Centralia Temple No. 11, Pythian Sisters, of twenty-five year service jewels to seven members of the temple. The presentation ceremonies will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the fraternal temple.

The women to receive the signal honor are Mesdames Susie Parmenter, Augusta LaCroix, Elizabeth Simpson, Irene St. Helens, Josephine Paxon, Maggie Wills and Nellie Knox. Presentation of the jewels will be made by Hester Houtz, supreme representative. Mrs. Parmenter will make the response.

All past chiefs of Centralia Temple are acting as a reception committee, and the present officers are to be the guard of honor. A program of music and readings will be given, with refreshments served at the close.

Temples at Hubbard, Silverton, Albany, Eugene and Independence have been invited, and it is anticipated that a large delegation will be present for the event.

Monday at the city library. Mrs. George Roseman, study supervisor, summarized the series of lessons given this past season. Topics on the study of Hebrew literature were given by Mrs. A. C. Cragg, Mrs. L. Nelson, Mrs. W. M. Stacy, Mrs. Leon Polka, Mrs. Floyd White, and Mrs. W. A. Merriott. An unusual feature was informal talks by the chapter members on "why I became a Delphian." Mrs. White and Mrs. Patis served as hostesses for the past meeting. Mrs. Charles S. McElhinney presided. The next meeting of the chapter will be held September 15.

Miss Davis In Recital Monday

One of the most interesting recitals of the season will be that in which Prof. Paul Petri of the school of voice at Oregon Agricultural college will present Miss Thelma Davis, contralto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Davis. The recital program will be given Monday evening, June 23, at the studio of Prof. T. S. Roberts. A general invitation is extended to the public.

Miss Davis has this spring received the honor of winning the Corvallis Atwater-Kent addition for girls' voices, against unusually hard competition. She was re-elected this spring as president of Euterpe, woman's honorary in music at Corvallis, and has been a member of the Madrigal club there for the past two years. She is affiliated with Sigma Kappa social sorority at the state college.

The program selected for Monday evening is unusually interesting. It includes a group of German numbers, dramatic recitative and arias, two negro spirituals, and a group of semi-classic lyrics. Miss Davis will be accompanied by Prof. Petri. The complete program follows:

- Lully.....Bols Epais Schumann—Ich kann nicht Fassen, nicht Glauben und Lachen
- Tschalkowsky—Nur wer die Sehnsucht kennt
- Greig.....Ich Liebe Dich
- Mendelssohn—Recitative and Aria from "St. Paul"
- Recitative: And He journeyed with Companions
- Aria: But the Lord is Mindful of His own
- Two Negro Spirituals: Burleigh—Swing Low Sweet Chariot; Gilroy—My Lord's Buy my Lavender
- Schubert.....Die Junge Nonne
- Johnson.....If Thou Wert Blind
- Gould.....In an Old Garden
- Stephenson—Ships that Pass in the Night
- Strickland.....My Lindy Lou
- Austin.....I Have a Dream
- German—Who'll Buy my Lavender?
- Scott.....The Jasmine Door
- Beasley.....The Second Minuet

Complimenting Miss Dorothy Livesley and her fiance, Conrad W. Paulus, and Capt. and Mrs. Earl C. Flegal, who are guests at the home of Mrs. Flegal's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, a buffet supper will be held for a few of their intimate friends Saturday evening at the Frits Slade home on Oak street. Mrs. Slade and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., will be hostesses.

Miss Marie Churchill of Ashland, visiting her sister, Mrs. George Weller, Miss Churchill, former resident of Salem and popular here, is making her first extensive visit following her trip to Europe last summer.

Salem Zontians to Attend Convention

By railway, highway and airway, Zontians from all sections of the country are en route to Seattle to attend the tenth annual convocation to be held at the Olympic hotel from June 26 to 28. Mrs. Ruth Searle, chairman of registrations, will meet the president's special in Spokane and register delegates on the way through the state. The Spokane Zonta club will entertain the guests while they are in Spokane on Wednesday morning. At Wenatchee, the Business and Professional Women's club will take the guests through the valley by auto to Cashmere where they will be entertained by the manufacturers of Applets.

Salem Zonta club members will leave here Wednesday night to attend the international convention of the Zonta club, which will be held at the Olympic hotel from June 26 to 28. Mrs. Ruth Searle, president of the local club, Miss Neddie Schwab, Miss Hazel Cook, Miss Helen Yockey, Miss Lena Belle Tarrar and Miss Kathryn Gunnell, other local club members are planning to attend one or more of the sessions. The Salem club group will join the Portland members in that city and make the trip on excursion rates. The Portland club will provide roses and the Salem club provide nuts, advertising the two cities at the convention dinner Friday night. The Salem club is taking with it an exhibit of linen to be displayed at the Northwest products dinner Thursday evening.

Mrs. Lydia Forsyth, program chairman, announces that Governor Roland H. Hartley will extend the welcome to visitors at the opening session on Thursday morning. Edith A. Parsons of Syracuse, N. Y., will make the response.

The service clubs of Seattle will join with the Zonta club for a service luncheon on Thursday. Hon. Frank Edwards, mayor of Seattle, and president of the Optimist club, will speak on "Seattle, the Seaport of Success."

Dr. Charles H. Martin of the Political Science department of the University of Washington will give an address at the Thursday afternoon session on "The Pacific Era."

One of the features of the convention will be the Northwest dinner at the New Washington hotel on Thursday evening. Miss Jean Elliott is chairman of the dinner which promises to be one of the finest of its kind ever served in the northwest. Alaska reindeer meat, Vashon Island strawberries and other tempting foods are on the menu.

A land and water trip through Lake Washington and the Government Locks will be enjoyed on Friday afternoon followed by a special sea food dinner and frolic. Mrs. Florence James of the Seattle Repertoire theater is in charge of the program. A Seattle camp fire group will give the totem dance.

Miss Bathie Stuart of New Zealand will give the principal talk at the international banquet on Saturday morning. Mrs. Nancy Hodges of Victoria and many Canadian women will be present. The North End Flower club has issued an invitation for a visit to the floral building in Woodland park for Saturday afternoon. Government officials of Japan and China are to participate in the beautiful Oriental banquet which will end the convention on Saturday evening.

TURNER LADIES' AID WILL OFFER PICNIC

Turner—The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Bear, southeast of town, and due to the busy season only a small attendance of members were there. A short business meeting was held and various ways discussed in which to raise money for the treasury. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for a program and dinner to be given in the Bond grove some evening in July. The committee consists of Mrs. Earl Bear, Mrs. R. Lee Thiessen and Mrs. Earl S. Prather. Following the business session a social hour of sewing followed and refreshments were served by the hostesses. Members in the group were Mrs. I. H. Small, Mrs. J. W. Ransom, Mrs. Douglas B. Parkes, Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mrs. William S. Burgoyne, Mrs. Earl Bear and Mrs. C. A. Bear.

VACATION IN AMITY

Amity—Miss Charlotte Jones of Portland is spending part of the school vacation in Amity and vicinity at the homes of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Weston and other relatives.

STEERS FROM MEXICO

Molalla—A carload of Chihuahua bulldogging steers arrived Thursday to be used at the seventh annual Buckaroo July 4, 5 and 6. These are of longhorn type and came from Chihuahua, Mexico.

Amity—Miss Dorraine Rhode of McCoy is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Earl Massey of this city.
