

ANNUAL COLTON FAIR DATE IS FIXED BY BOARD

DEPARTMENTAL LEADERS WILL BE IN CHARGE

Molalla—At a meeting of the members of the board of the Colton fair it was decided that September 11 would be the date for the sixth annual fair.

The following have been appointed as superintendent of different departments for the fair:

Victor Hill, agriculture; H. L. Webb, horticulture; Mrs. Philip Hult, women's division; Mrs. Valdemar Hill, floral exhibit; Mrs. Philip Butz, needlework; Mrs. Andrew Johnson, domestic science; Mrs. H. L. Webb, canning; Alfred E. Anderson, livestock; J. Dix, poultry; Volborg Anderson, girls and boys 4-H club; Myrtle Larkins and Mrs. E. Sakrison, art, crafts, and antique shop; Paul Berglund, farm mechanics.

Committees—H. H. Chindgren, general chairman; executive board, H. H. Chindgren, chairman; Valborg Anderson, secretary; H. L. Webb, treasurer.

Premium list—Victor Hill, H. L. Webb, Mrs. Philip Hult, Mrs. Valdemar Hill, Mrs. Philip Butz, Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Mrs. H. L. Webb, Alfred E. Anderson, J. Dix, Volborg Anderson, Myrtle Larkins, Mrs. E. Sakrison and Paul Berglund.

Finance, H. H. Chindgren and H. L. Webb.

Publicity executive board and school participation—Prof. C. Mercer; sports, Prof. Corwin, Norman Palmgren; program, Ole Prigaard; Mrs. Philip Hult, H. H. Chindgren; refreshments, high school girls; decorations, Girl Scouts; electrician and booths, Philip Butz.

VISIT NEAR GATES
Gates—Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Churk, son Dale and daughter Geraldine and Loraine of Maple Valley, Wn. are guests at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kelle and Mr. and Mrs. Lenn Young, east of Gates. All were formerly neighbors when they lived in Montana several years ago.

CAMP NEAR GATES
Gates—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Randolph and Mrs. George Beha, Jr. of Hollywood, Calif., were camped this week at the McCleary house across the river from Gates. Mrs. Randolph and Mrs. Beha are nieces of Mrs. Anna Powell, former teacher in the Gates high school.

GUESTS AT BROWNS
Amity—Mrs. Addie Misenheimer and daughters, Dorothy and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Misenheimer, W. R. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Brown and daughters, all of Portland, spent Friday at the home of Mrs. M. E. Brown of Amity. Stephens will remain here part of the summer with his daughter.

MAKE VACATION TRIP
Aurora—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Frederickson and daughters, Lorraine and Evelyn, are on a motor trip through eastern Oregon. They will be gone until Monday. Frederickson is employed by the Molalla Electric Co., in Aurora.

FIREWORKS ATTRACT
Aurora—At least 300 machine loads of people witnessed the splendid arrangement of fireworks on the Siebert property Wednesday night.

AURORA AID MEETS
Aurora—The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian church announce a meeting to be held July 11 in the church parlors.

RESORT ROADS GOOD
Independence—Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Hedges, Mrs. E. G. Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh motored to Cascade Sunday. They had a picnic dinner on the grounds where there were large crowds gathered, and on their return in the evening had a lunch at Bryant park in Albany. They report the roads in excellent condition, with the exception of about one and one-half miles near Sweet Home, where a detour was made on account of new construction.

Independence—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox and young daughter of Eugene were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Cox at Seventh and "C" streets.

BOY SCOUT CABINS ARE BEING ERECTED
Scio—W. H. Young and J. P. Oupor of Scio are putting up cabins at the Boy Scout camp on Neal creek near Scio. Other improvements will be made preparatory to the summer's activities, which will begin about July 15. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Young visited the site and spent the day in the mountains.

RECEPTION FOR NEW PASTOR, WOODBURN
Woodburn—A reception will be given at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, to welcome Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Blew and family, who are now permanently settled in the manse.

The program will be in charge of Mrs. H. P. Butterfield, assisted by Mrs. Jack Hansen and Mrs. Minnie Richards; entertainment will be under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Duncan and refreshments will be served by Mrs. A. H. Dean, Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. J. J. Hall, Mrs. Elburn Sims and Mrs. L. R. Tweede. The public is invited to attend this reception and all friends of the church and congregation are especially urged to be present and to meet Rev. and Mrs. Blew, who are in residence in Woodburn, a decided asset to the community.

CHAMPOEG ATTRACT MANY OLD RESIDENTS
Champoeg Park—The historical chautauqua opened last week. The first to set up camp was C. C. Geer, a descendant of Ralph Geer. The second camper is the Hon. Joseph L. Carter, who has the distinction of having first seen the light of day in Champoeg district nearly 86 years ago. He was born near Champoeg. He is one of Willamette university's graduates and is an old-time teacher. Third camper is Fred L. Mills of Portland. There were exercises to commemorate the historic Fourth observed here in 1843, the day prior to the assembling of the legislative committee.

MRS. FOWLER LEAVES
Unionvale—Mrs. Floyd E. Fowler and daughter Shirley returned to her home in Portland after several days' visit with relatives here during the absence of her husband, who was attending a two day convention of the Prudential Insurance company held at Victoria, B. C. He was a member of a group of 13 salesmen from the Portland office whose sales for last year was sufficient to entitle them to be delegates to the convention.

DR. MAY VISITING
Woodburn—Dr. Carl May of Republic, Wash., was a recent guest at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Donnelly. Dr. May was accompanied home by his father George May of Mt. Angel.

WATERS IS CALLED
Aurora—C. A. Waters and brother-in-law of Spokane, Wash., were in Aurora Wednesday on their way to Newberg and other west side cities. Waters formerly lived here and was renewing old acquaintances.

GUESTS AT MASON'S
Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mason of Camas, Wash., were week end guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mason. John Doyle of Oregon City was also a guest at the Mason home.

COAST GUARD VISITS
Jefferson—Cecil Thomas, who is in the coast guard service at Bolinas, Calif., arrived Thursday for a ten day visit with relatives in this locality. He will also visit his sister in Portland before returning.

WHITE IS IMPROVING
Independence—Mrs. Elmer Barnhart is enjoying a visit from her father, J. D. White, who has for several months been confined to a Salem hospital. He is sufficiently recovered to be removed here. He will remain for some time.

COME FOR FUNERAL
Independence—Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Collins of Seattle, stopped over here Saturday for the funeral services of Pearl Cooper. They were years ago. Collins is manager for long time friends and school mates Alper's Milling company and a brother of J. C. Collins of this city.

MISSION BELLS ARE TOPIC FOR CHURCH DINNER

Turner—The Christian church missionary banquet sponsored by the Aid society of the local church and given each year during the state Christian convention at the Turner tabernacle, was well attended this year, the proceeds tended the treasury over $80.

One hundred and forty guests were served at the world call banquet in the church dining room.

Place cards were lavender mission bells with the printed program. Mrs. Bailey introduced the toastmistress, Mrs. C. F. Swander, and toasts were responded to during the evening, among them being "The Liberty Bells Sound a World Challenge to World Vision," by Hugh G. Black of Dallas, Mrs. Claude Neale responded with "The Door Bell Summons to More Christian Homes," Miss Violet Crofoot gave "The School Bell Rings a Clarion Call for Trained Christian Youth"; Dudley Strain responded with "The Ship Bell Sends us Forth to Conquer and Serve," and the final toast was on "The Church Bell Chimes a Jovous Appeal to Consecration and Worship," by Fred F. Nankivell.

Several missionaries were special guests at the banquet, and Miss Gertrude Shoemaker of Africa sang two songs, first reading them in English and then vocalizing them in the Bolonga language. Group singing was participated in during the banquet.

HEAD OF HOSPITAL CLOSING VACATION
Silverton—Miss Jerdis Kloster, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kloster, on the Silverton-Mt. Angel highway, for the past two weeks, went to Tacoma Saturday to visit and from there is going to Enterprise, where she is superintendent of the Enterprise hospital. Miss Grace Lyons, also a graduate nurse, left in Saturday's car Sunday evening for Tacoma, where she will meet Miss Kloster. Miss Lyons will be employed under Miss Kloster.

HOUSE ROOF BURNS
Amity—As a result of a defective flue the home of Lee Losey was slightly damaged Friday. The roof was burned but due to the quick work of the fire department the rest was saved.

VACATION IS ENJOYED
Scio—Misses Dolly Daley and Pearl Stafford and Mrs. Mildred Rosky of Portland visited Scio relatives and friends this week, the latter proceeding to Eugene, where she has a civil service position in the forest office. Miss Daley and Miss Stafford spent the week at Medford, Crater lake and other points of interest in Oregon.

MOTOR TO COAST
Independence—A motor party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Hiltbrand and daughter Glenina, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frye and daughters, Margaret and Maxine Foster, and daughter Molly who are guests at the Hiltbrand home, spent the Fourth at Yachats.

LEAVE FOR CLEAR LAKE
Mill City—A. L. Baker and Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Silvis and children, Marjorie and Bobby, left Thursday evening for Clear Lake where they will camp and fish during their vacation.

PATIENT HAS SET-BACK
Unionvale—Mrs. Nellie Stoutenburg, who has been ill for more than four months, being confined to her bed a great deal of the time, suffered a relapse Wednesday.

LICENSES ARE ISSUED
Dallas—Marriage licenses were issued to Chester Edwards Session, carpenter, Portland, and Hazel Evelyn Henry, housewife, Sheridan, and to Carl Smith, farmer, and Mae Frink, both of Falls City.

GUESTS AT BOND HOME
North Santiam—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reeves and children, Lois and Dwight, are here from Jewell, Ore., at the home of Mrs. Reeves' parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bond. They will stay until after the holidays.

Independence—Mrs. Roy Neely of Willamina is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Fisher, over the week end.

Aurora—Mrs. C. F. Ziegler visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey of Klamath Falls, returning home by motor with her son, Ben Ziegler. Young Ziegler is employed by the Southern Pacific railroad company at Dunsmuir, Cal. Mrs. Helen Yankie of Berkeley, Cal., has been the house guest of Mrs. George Yergen this week.

Gates—Ray and Albert Decker and Raymond Goodwin motored to North Bend to spend the holidays with the Becker boys' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Bradley.

Scio—Marley Sims is at the Sam Stoller farm between Jefferson and Albany, and expects to remain during the summer.

Wacanda—Miss Gladys Ward of Portland is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. S. Ray Jones, where she will remain for a short time.

Dayton—Mrs. D. C. Clark, stringed instrument music teacher of Dayton, who has been bedfast at her home near Dayton since June 22, is still suffering.

Mehama—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reeves and children and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodard and children of Astoria were recent visitors at the Clyde Todd home.

JERSEY OWNERS TO TALK COUNTY HERD

Independence—The members of the Polk County Jersey cattle club will have a meeting Tuesday evening in the city hall to determine the advisability of entering a Polk county herd at the state fair, W. S. Bartlett is secretary and is anxious that all Jersey breeders attend.

WATER LILY ACRES ATTRACT VISITORS

Unionvale—A large number of sight-seers were present at the Fred Bauer six acres aquatic flower garden over the Fourth.

The Japanese iris is at the height of the blooming period and the water lilies continue to bloom in profusion. June 11 was the record day for this season when 3,000 water lily blossoms were picked in one day; 1,300 water lilies were sold to a Portland firm and all were used in one float that participated in the Portland Rose show parade.

This garden is located nine miles south of Dayton adjoining the Dayton-Salem market road, also known as the river road.

UNION CHURCH HOUR PROVING SUCCESSFUL

Dallas—The union services which are being held the next two months and in which four churches of the city are cooperating, got away to a fine start Sunday night when a large crowd gathered in the Evangelical church to hear Rev. J. W. Warrel deliver a patriotic address. Assisting in the services were Rev. Jas. A. Smith, Rev. Jacob Stocker and Rev. Schriver. Special music was given by the Evangelical choir.

The second of the services will take place in the Presbyterian church.

MISS EVENSON LEAVES
Silverton—Miss Jane Evenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evenson of East Hill, left Saturday for Victoria, B. C. to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Nixon and other relatives. She expects to be gone three or four weeks.

VISIT IN AMITY
Amity—Mrs. Robert Forbes of Monticello, Wash., and son Bobby, and Miss Ruth Bridwell of Portland, daughter of Chester Bridwell who formerly worked in the Bank of Amity, are visiting at the J. W. Bridwell home.

TURNER YOUTH HAS INTERNAL INJURIES

Turner—Bobby Ball, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ball, was seriously injured internally when he fell from a bench while playing near the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Ball.

Apparently not seeming to be hurt much, little was thought about the fall until later Bobby became very ill and was removed to the Willamette sanatorium in Salem where his condition was critical for some time.

The lad is slightly improved, but as yet the direct cause of his illness has not been diagnosed other than internal injury. Dr. O. E. Prime is the attending physician. Mrs. Ball is remaining at the hospital to be near her young son until he has recovered sufficiently to be brought to his Turner home.

SHEEP BREEDERS TO HOLD BIG PICNIC

Silverton—The Sheep Breeders association will hold their annual picnic Saturday at the Floyd Fox farm in the Waldo Hills, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning. Among those who will speak during the day are O. M. Plummer, H. Seymour Jones, Prof. Lundgren, R. A. Ward, Prof. Porter and Edward Lulliwick.

There will be boys', girls' and adults' judging contests, showmanship contests and demonstrations of talks and dog try-outs by people from Multnomah, Yamhill, Polk, Linn, Clackamas and Marion counties.

Fox is a successful sheepman. Among his 400 head are Dorsets, Oxford and Shropshires. One of his Dorset ewes recently gave birth to triplets giving her 5 lambs in one season.

GUESTS AT DRAKES
Silverton—Miss Rose Lewis of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, arrived Thursday to visit at the J. D. Drake home. She will return Tuesday morning and may return here for a three-week's visit. The Lewis family lived on South Water street until about 12 years ago. Lewis owned what is now the Adams greenhouse. He now has ten large greenhouses in Couer d'Alene and does only wholesale business. He returned from an extended European trip a short time ago.

PICNIC IS PLANNED BY SODALITY GROUP

Silverton—The young people's sodality society of the St. Paul church intend to hold a picnic in August, somewhere on the Abiqua near Silverton, jointly with sodality societies from Mt. Angel, Woodburn, Salem, Hubbard, Canby and possibly St. Paul. The exact place will be set later.

INDEPENDENCE GIRL IS NAMED SECRETARY

Independence—Miss Faith Kimball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Kimball, of this city, has been appointed to the position of secretary to Dr. J. S. Landers, president of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth, and will assume her duties at the opening of the fall term in September.

Miss Kimball during the past year has been taking post-graduate work at Columbia university and returned here recently to spend the summer with her parents. She is at present society editor of the Enterprise.

BONES IS SURPRISED

Turner—A. L. Bones was honored on his birthday anniversary when a group gathered for a picnic in the grove across from Bones brothers garage. The evening was enjoyed with a basket dinner along Mill stream, followed by fun and social conversation. In the group were Mrs. China Bones, mother of the honored guest; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bones and Charlie Bones of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. George Ora, Mrs. Lynn Wilkerson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Varley, all of Salem.

GUESTS AT DRAKES
Silverton—Miss Rose Lewis of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, arrived Thursday to visit at the J. D. Drake home. She will return Tuesday morning and may return here for a three-week's visit. The Lewis family lived on South Water street until about 12 years ago. Lewis owned what is now the Adams greenhouse. He now has ten large greenhouses in Couer d'Alene and does only wholesale business. He returned from an extended European trip a short time ago.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

INFANT IS BURIED TURNER CEMETERY
Turner—Margaret, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deane Tucker of Salem, was laid to rest in the Twin Oak cemetery Saturday afternoon. The baby was a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. McKay of Turner, and great granddaughter of Mrs. L. M. Barzee and Mrs. Elizabeth McKay, both of Turner. The mother is very ill at the Bungalow maternity hospital in Salem.

MISS TRAVIS IMPROVES
Kingwood—Miss Dorothy Travis is recovering from an operation of appendicitis she underwent last week. Miss Travis, who is employed at the Anderson creamery suffered an acute attack, was rushed to the hospital where an immediate operation was found necessary.

TWO MORE TEACHERS FOR HUBBARD SCHOOL
Hubbard—Two more teachers were elected at the recent school board meeting, the teaching personnel now being complete. Earl E. Reinhart of Foster, was elected as seventh and eighth grade teacher and to take charge of the athletics for the school, and Miss Frances Hatch, Falls City, for the third and fourth grades. R. C. Painter was re-elected to take charge of the buildings and grounds.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

TWO MORE TEACHERS FOR HUBBARD SCHOOL

Hubbard—Two more teachers were elected at the recent school board meeting, the teaching personnel now being complete. Earl E. Reinhart of Foster, was elected as seventh and eighth grade teacher and to take charge of the athletics for the school, and Miss Frances Hatch, Falls City, for the third and fourth grades. R. C. Painter was re-elected to take charge of the buildings and grounds.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS

Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED

Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS

Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.

A large crowd attended the celebration at Green's bridge, near here, where where people from far and near gathered to spend an old-fashioned Fourth with its speeches, music, athletic stunts, swimming, a ball game and fireworks. The natural park along the bank of the Santiam river makes an ideal spot for a celebration and picnic.

PASTOR IS WELCOMED
Turner—Rev. William S. Burgoyne, accompanied by Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter, Ruth, returned Thursday from attending the annual state Methodist conference at Astoria. Following conference they have been vacationing at Newport by the sea for a few days and report the weather there ideal. Rev. Burgoyne and family were given a warm reception upon their return, as he has been assigned as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here for another year.

CELEBRANTS SPEND VARIED HOLIDAYS
Jefferson—A quiet Fourth was celebrated in Jefferson. A good many people were out of town for the day. Some went to Cascade, Molalla and Oregon City, while others left for the seashore.