Tea Honors Miss Walton Before Trip

Complimenting Miss Beatrice Walton, Mrs. William S. Walton entertained with an informal tea in her home on North Summer street for a few of Miss Walton's intimate friends.

The affair was one of several impromptu events being planned for Miss Walton before her departure Saturday for Chicago, where she will join friends to sail from New York August 29 on the S. S. Caronia for Europe. The group will take a leisurely six months' tour about the continent. Miss Walton's departure comes as a surprise to her many friends here, her decision to go having been made only a day or so ago.

Miss Walton returned last week from Berkeley, Calif., where she had studied for six weeks at the University of California summer session. Her arrangements following her trip abroad are indefinite.

Turner Girl Bride Of Salem Man

Turner—Miss Vena Myers became the bride of Harold H. Dittich of Salem at a pretty wedding solemnized Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Myers, south of Turner. A profusion of summer flowers and ferns decorated the rooms, and Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, pastor of the Turner Christian church officiated at the ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a lovely pink georgette ensemble suit and carried a shower bouquet of pastel shaded roses, asters and fern.

Only immediate relatives and friends of both families were in attendance at the marriage of the young couple.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Dittich left for a wedding trip after which they will make their new home in Salem where he is in business.

Molalla—The marriage of Miss Irma Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Smith of the Needy section, and Walter Lindquist of Canby, was solemnized at a simple ceremony at the parsonage of the Methodist church in Canby Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. T. Downs read the ring ceremony. Miss Alice Garrett was bridesmaid and Elwood Feist acted as best man.

Mrs. Windquist is well known here having attended high school for four years and graduating in 1923. For some time she has been employed at the Canby telephone exchange. Mr. Lindquist has been a lineman for the Molalla Electric company for the past 12 years.

The Salem Nile club, composed of wives of Shriners, entertained with their annual picnic Wednesday night at Hager's Grove. Fifteen of the Nile club couples, and 17 children and guests were present for the picnic dinner served on long tables, and for the afternoon of games and swimming. The picnic was arranged by Mrs. Ted Mesch, Mrs. R. W. Hans Seitz and Mrs. Paul Hauser.

Mrs. David Pugh and daughter Virginia, have returned from a vacation of six weeks spent in Seattle and on the Hood canal. They expect to leave Saturday for LaGrande and will remain in eastern Oregon until the opening of the state fair.

Campfire Girls Banquet Saturday

Tuesday night was stung night at Camp Santaly, where the Camp Fire Girls are camping this week. The Yachts, or Junior division, gave a first aid demonstration. The Clippers, the intermediate girls, acted out the story of Old King Cole. The Spanish Galeons, or senior girls, gave a very interesting style show.

A call went out Tuesday for original songs for Camp Santaly. Each division is to make one up and be ready to sing it at the morning sing on Thursday.

Thursday night most of the camp craft girls are going on an overnight hike. They will roll their packs, walk about one mile, make their bed and cook breakfast and supper while on their trip.

Theodore A. Harper, a group of Oregon City Camp Fire Girls and the Salem board of sponsors for Camp Fire Girls are to be guests at the banquet which is to be held Saturday evening. Sunday is to be visitors' day in camp. A program will be given in the afternoon under the direction of the girls themselves. The girls have begun work on a council ring which will be completed in time for the council fire.

Bank Party Gala Event

A delightful event Wednesday night was the picnic dinner and dances which entertained employees of the Ladd and Bush bank at the gardens of Miss Sally Bush's home on Mission street. Covers were placed for approximately 80 employees and special guests at long flower-decked tables arranged on a square of lawn entirely surrounded by great trees. Colored flood lights illuminated the scene.

Later in the evening, the group danced on the tennis courts at the Bush home, with artificial moonlight and gaily colored lanterns arranged effectively among the tall shrubs and beautiful flowers. Preceding the dinner, served by Johnny Jones, the gardens and greenhouses were opened for the pleasure of the guests.

Monmouth—Miss Hazel Robinson of Gooding, Idaho, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. L. A. Robinson, prior to her departure for Baltimore, Maryland, where she will enter John Hopkins university to major in science and chemistry. Miss Robinson has a two years leave of absence from Gooding college. She has recently returned from the Hawaiian islands where she went with the Honolulu university summer school cruise sponsored by the university. The group took six weeks' work at the University of Honolulu.

Miss Robinson is a graduate of the Oregon normal, of the University of Oregon and holds a master's degree from Columbia. L. A. Robinson, father of Miss Robinson, an instructor in a Brooklyn, N. Y., high school, is also spending his vacation at the home of Mrs. Robinson.

Hopmer—Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Miss Mae Lindsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay of Mill City, to Willie Gigger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gigger of Hopmer, at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday. The bridal party was accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Gigger, mother of the groom. Willie Gigger is now a resident of Salem.

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Barbara Spionski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Borschowa, and W. H. Hill of Portland, announced their betrothal Sunday, and will be married September 1, in St. Mary's church here.

To Travel

Miss Beatrice Walton, secretary to former Governor Patterson and Governor Norblad, who will leave Saturday for a six month's leisurely trip abroad.

Robert Cox of Birkenfeld, who is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. S. L. London, was the guest of honor on his birthday anniversary recently at a dinner given by Mrs. London. In addition to the hostess and Mr. Cox, those present were Mrs. Hester Coover and Mrs. Hattie Hill, both of Seal Rocks, and Mrs. Bertha Buhl of Williamsport, Pa.

The Elizabeth Sunday school class of the Jason Lee church will hold a special picnic Friday evening at the home of Arthur Esbrow on the Garden road beginning at six o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Supper Entertains Seattle Women

Mrs. Frank Jordan and Miss Edna Sterling, both of Seattle, were complimented with an enjoyable picnic supper by Mrs. Paul Wallace Tuesday evening. The supper was served on the large porch of the Wallace country home, and covers were placed for Mrs. Jordan, Miss Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, Dr. W. B. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. William Walton, Mr. and Mrs. David Bennett Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace.

An informal social evening by the big fireplace in the livingrooms of the Wallace home entertained the guests after the supper hour.

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. William Pearson returned Monday from their wedding trip over the Mt. Hood loop, McKenzie pass, and Newport and other beach resorts. Their wedding was a pretty event of a week ago at the home of Mrs. Pearson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Moore in Salem. Pearson, who is employed at the Portland Damascus company in Turner resumed his work Monday afternoon. They will make their home in Salem where Mrs. Pearson has a stenographic position.

Informal Events Compliment Guest

Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle, who is the houseguest of Mrs. Henry Meyers, has been the inspiration for several informal affairs. Tuesday night she shared honors with Miss Edna Sterling of Seattle at an informal picnic supper at the Paul Wallace country home.

Wednesday, Mrs. Milton Meyers entertained with a luncheon at the Hubbard mineral springs. Covers were placed for Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, and the hostess, Mrs. Milton Meyers.

Thursday, Mrs. Dancy motored with Mrs. Jordan and a small group of friends to Corvallis. Mrs. Oliver Locke will entertain informally for Mrs. Jordan Friday with two tables of contract bridge. Mrs. Jordan plans to leave for her home in Seattle Monday.

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Bowers quietly celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary at their home on Sixth street Wednesday. They were married in Woodston, Kansas, August 20, 1883. Mrs. Bowers' maiden name was Emma Elizabeth Hall.

They came to Oregon June 4, 1890 from Fresno, Calif., and have been residents of this state ever since. Complimenting her sister, Miss Ruby Drager, Miss Margaret Drager will entertain with six tables of bridge in the Drager home Friday evening.

Recital Delights Audience

Thoroughly satisfying that bit of music hunger which comes in the quiet summer months, Lucien E. Becker and J. MacMillan Muir presented their second annual recital Wednesday night at the studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. Becker, Portland organist, and Muir, Portland tenor, presented an entertaining and informal program of organ and vocal numbers with charming balance.

While some very noted organists have been heard on Prof. Robert's Gunther studio organ, Becker gave the most delightful program heard this year. His perfect control and knowledge of the instrument made it respond with clarity and ease to his interpretations, from the tremendous Lemmens' composition, "The Storm" to the smooth delicacy of Lemare's arrangement of "The Old Reftain."

Muir is endowed with a robust, virile tenor, handled with consummate skill, which takes naturally to such difficult numbers as the aria from Verdi's opera, "The Masked Ball," which he sang with brilliance. Particularly delightful and full of melody were the two songs of his own composition with which he closed the program.

Both Mr. Becker and Mr. Muir responded generously with encores. The informal explanatory talks with which they introduced their numbers gave them a close bond with their audience. The studio, opened to the public, had a capacity crowd.

Amity—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Johns of Salem, who were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Trotter, of this city enjoyed a picnic near the Yamhill river with the Trotter family.

Miss Barbara Barnes, Salem teacher of the dance, is having a most interesting summer in the east. According to letters received by intimate friends, Miss Barnes attended the dance recital of the Denishaws August 13, saw Anna Duncan, famous danseuse, in recital August 14, and August 15 she went from New York City where she has been staying with Mrs. Beatrice Crawford-Newcomb, to Philadelphia to see a dance program by Charles Wiedman and Doris Humphreys.

Last week-end Miss Barnes left for Lily Dale, New York, to join her parents for a trip to Chattanooga, Tenn. From there Miss Barnes will go to Chicago where she spent several weeks earlier in the summer, and then will go to Denver to join Miss Zeina Lathy who is attending the Perry Mansfield camp. Miss Lathy will accompany Miss Barnes to Los Angeles where both will take instruction at the Earl Wallace studio. The two Salem girls expect to return here about the middle of September.

North Spring Valley—Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Crawford entertained as their guests Sunday Miss Florence Grace, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, of Salem, and Thomas Sirclough of Oregon City.

Miss Grace is a girlhood friend of Mrs. S. D. Crawford who resided in Oregon City at the time Miss Oregon City at the time Miss Grace did, when they were girls. Miss Grace has been studying music in New York for several years. She is now a guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Johnson in Salem.

Mrs. Thomas C. McNeely and her daughter, Miss Mildred McNeely arrived Tuesday from their home in Berkeley, Calif., to be guests for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moore. Mrs. McNeely is a sister to Mr. Moore. Thursday the Moores entertained the visitors with a trip over the Mt. Hood loop highway.

STOPS AT MOLALLA—Molalla—Miss Alice Henninger of Pasadena, Calif., spent the week end visiting her niece, Miss Mildred Henninger at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Day in the Marquam section. Miss Henninger, who is superintendent of the Pasadena hospital, was enroute to Vancouver, B. C., to attend a convention.

VISIT BEACH RESORT—Molalla—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith, Miss Elita Smith, Mrs. Ola M. Ogle and son, Wayne Gurley of Canby, spent the week end at Long Beach, Wash. This beach is noted for its natural auto speedway, the entire distance covering 25 miles.

VISIT WITH FRIENDS—Riverview—Mrs. Lora and Elsie Platt and Lawrence Bartnik spent several days last week at Portland and Vancouver. They visited the paper bag factories at Vancouver and Camas. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bartnik, who had been at Vancouver for several days, returned home with them, as did little Kathleen Ambrose, who has been with her aunt, Mrs. Harry Elmore at Woodburn.

RETURN FROM SOUTH SILVERTON—Mrs. George Uphoff and youngest daughter, Anita, have returned from a three weeks' visit with another daughter of Mrs. Uphoff, Mrs. Pat M. Hugh and husband in San Diego.

Marion—Mrs. Cards George of Eugene is the guest at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter George.
