TOURIST FINDS VALLEY LIQUOR RESULTS COSTLY

Independence—A drunken driver giving his name as Kisor, driving a car with California license and an Oregon permit, having lost his way on the highway, while driving from Centralis. Wash, through to California, drifted into this city and inquired the way from a young man, a helper in the Standard Oll service station at the corner of Second and Main streets.

After receiving the necessary instructions, further conversation led to him changing his mind about proceeding on his way and he decided to atop here for the night and take in a hop yard dance. His baggage was unloaded from his touring car, and placed in safe keeping in the service station, and the young man, in the property of the service station, and the young man, in the service station, and the young in the service station, and the young in the service station, and the young man in charge accepted an invitation to go with him to the dance.

A jug of moonshine was in evidence and both partook of it freely and started out for the dance. The car had not gene two blocks when it was apparent that the driver was too drunk to negotiate the streets of the city for he ran into two cars parked on G street and caused considerable damage to them and his own car. He was apprehended by the city marshal and taken to the city jail while his friend from the service station beat a retreat, but was later advised to report to the recorder's office.

The owner of the car was arrangined before Recorder Swope, and plead guilty to the charge of pos-raigned before Recorder Swope, and plead guilty to the charge of possession and driving while drunk. He was fined $125 and also paid the damage in repairing the cars of the other persons whom he atruck. He paid his fine and loaded his baggage, which consisted of carpenter's tools, bedding, hunting outfit, wearing apparel, two suit cases and many other articles too numerous to mention, and headed numerous to mention, and headed zouth. He had been to Centralia

GRAND JURY GETS SILVERTON YOUTHS

Silverion-After a second hearing in Justice Brown's court this week four Silverton boys were bound over to the grand jury.

The boys are Herald Legland, for attacking night watchman Iversor while under the influence of liquor; Elmer Hausen and two young men riding with him were arrested for being in a car that allegedly knock-ed down Oregonian boxes on Labor day evening between Mt. Angel and Silverton. Several mail boxes were also said to have been destroyed.

SCRAPBOOK ARTIST MAKES MANY BOOKS

Unionvale—Mrs. Erick Larson, 70, has completed making the 20th scrap book this summer. They are given to little neighborhood chil-dren and foreign missions. Some went to India.

DEEP WELL DRILLED IN ICE MANUFACTURE

Dayton—A four-inch well 465 feet deep has been sunk at the Leo Reichert meat market in Dayton. An inexaustible supply of water to be used in the manufacture of ice is the result. The ice plant in-stalled when the building was erected two years ago, has been supplied with city water. An elec-tric pump will be used.

ATTEND CLEMENS RITES

ATTEND CLEMENS RITES
Hazel Green—A number of local people attended the funeral of Caroline Clemens held in Salem. Caroline was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clemens of Salem
Heights and a niece of Mr. and Mrs.
Ben Clemens of Hazel Green, Being a frequent visitor in Hazel Green, Caroline leaves a group of friends here who mourn her passing.

THREE ENTER COLLEGE

Dayton—Joe Felton, a senior at Willametre university. Salem, has begun his studies there. Glenn Pelton will begin his freshman year at Corvallis, and their sister. Miss Bernice will enter Albany college at the beginning of the term September 23. She will take the home economics course.

WAGNER HAS RELAPSE WAGNER HAN Accept the Dayton -Glenn Wagner, about 15, who had recently recovered from a sleep of typhoid fever, and begun picking hops at Woods yard, was taken seriously ill Wednesday.

LEAVE FOR HOOD RIVER
Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook have left for the apple orchards around Hood River, planning to be gone for two months. Mrs. Susan Girardin of Turner accompanied them and will do the house work for them. This is an annual event for Mr. and Mrs. Cook who have orked at Hood River

林陳葉房

DR, CHAN LAM, Branch office Chinese Medicine Co. in Salem. Scientifically prepared natural re-medies for allments of stomach, liver, blood, skin, nerves, kidneys, and urinary bladder of men and women. Remedies for shown-time women. Remedies for rheumatism and bronchitis with chronic cough office Hours Weekly: Tuesday 1 to 7 p.m.; Saturday, 17 to 7 p.m. 180 N Commercial St.—Salem, Room 25.

PILES
CURED WITHOUT OPERATION OR LOSS OF TIME
DR. MARSHALL 329 OREGON BUILDING

SARAH LUTZ SEEKS FREEDOM IN COURT

EXCLUSIVE NEWS DISPATCHES

FREEDOM IN COURT
Dalias—Sarah Lutz is seeking a divorce from her husband, William H. Lutz. They were married in Dallas in Pebruary, 1919, in her complaint, plaintiff maintains that during their married life, the defendant has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner and has heaped personal indignities upon her. He has also threatened to injure her bodily should she ever institute divorce proceedings. No property rights or children are involved.

GIRLS SELECT GLEE LEADERS

Mill City—The members of the high school girls' glee club met on Thursday and elected officers for the coming year. Many Hill, a memher of the senior class, was elected president and the other officers were Middred Hocye, vice-president were Midred Hoeye, vice-president, and Mary Rada, secretary-treasurer. Try-outs were held Wednesday after school by Miss Birdean Feese, director, and the following girls were selected to make up the chorus: so-pranos, Evelyn Booth, Sylvia Formen, Genelia Gently, Jerrine Gordon, Shirley Horner, Helen Mason, Elise Plambeck and Meldon Raines, Altos, Ione Bertram, Ruby Bowe, Neille Elisworth, Mildred Hoeye, Mary Hill, Lois Lovett, Millicent Olin and Mary Roda.

FORD MEMORIAL SERVICE LISTED

West Salem—Rev. M. A. Groves will preach at Ford Memorial church Sunday. His morning sermon topic will be "Foundations" and for his evening sermon he has chosen the subject of "Temptation" in a series on the Lord's Frayer.

A special musical number in the morning will be a vocal duet by Dorine Baker and Muriel Kaster. In the evening the Rees sisters will offer a plane duet and a mixed quartet from the Epworth league will sing.

The Epworth league will meet as usual at 7 o'clock in their parlor. The Boy Scouts' meeting will be on Tuesday evening with A. C. Henningsen, scoutmaster. Bible study will be 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

INDEPENDENCE OPENS SCHOOL MONDAY

Independence—School will open Independence—School will open here Monday and students will be registered and classified, and given the balance of the day to get their books and possibly take one day for the state fair, then school will begin in earnest. A number of atudents who are in the hop fields and fruit orchards will come in a week or two later.

Prof. Robinson returned here thursday from his summer vacation and is making preparations for opening of the high school the first opening of the high school the first of the week. He spent part of the summer with his parents at Maple-ton, on the farm.

Prof. and Mrs. Dixon returned also this week and will make their home this year in the Grant cot-tage on E street.

NEW POULTRY HOUSE

Unionvale—An addition 16 by 18 feet is being built onto one of the laying houses on the C. J. Countiss farm where White Leghorn hens are kept. This brings Countiss' poultry house to 3.100 square feet of floor space. Victor Launer is the carpenter in charge of the work.

RETURN WITH FINE BUCKS Turner—John Morris of Los An-geles and his brother, William Mor-ris of Turner in the Cloverdale disris of Turner in the Cloverdale dis-trict, have returned from a success-ful hunting trip to southern Oregon. The ninrods were at Buck moun-tain and bagged three fine bucks to bring home with them. John Mor-ris, with sits wife and small son, have spent the summer visiting in Turner, Portland and other Oregon places, and plan to leave in a short time for their Los Angeles home.

GEORGE OLSEN HOME GEORGE OLSEN HOME
Silverton—George Olsen of Koontz street, who has been confined in the Good Samaritan hospital for the past several months, has returned to his home. Before going to Portland Olsen was in the Silverton hospital for a short time.

DAYTON SCHOOL DOORS TO OPEN FOR FALL TERM

interior of the building has received a thorough revarnishing and painting where needed and everything is in first class shape for the pleasure and contenument of the students and teachers. N. S. Stretch, the caretaker has completed his 18th year in his sergice with the school.

The last year staff of teachers constitute the corps for the opening of the term, with the exception of one. Ray Warren fills the vacancy caused by the death of Carl Morin, August 17. The staff includes Principal D. L. Gubser; R. Warren, Miss Marie Johnson, Miss Lena Stilwell and Burris L. Young, high school: and the grades teachers are Mrs. Myona Gray, Miss Valera Flint, Mrs. John Sherman, Miss Bernice Blough.

Otter schools in the vicinity will Blough.

Other schools in the vicinity will open Monday, September 22 with the following list of teachers;
Pairview: Mrs. Dale Powler, Miss

Claire Wagner, Grand Island: Mrs. Mabel Narver,

Grand Island: Mrs. Mabel Narver, Mrs. Carson Odom.
Hopewell: Mrs. Leta Cosel.
Lone Star: Miss Sylvis Baird.
Pleasantdale: Miss Dorolity Demaray, Mrs. Glenn McParlane.
Unity: Mrs. Joe Cockerham, Miss Dora Simons.
Unionvale: Miss Clara Moore, Miss Doris Johnson.
Webfoot: Mrs. Vernon Poster.
Wheatland: Miss Maud Williamson.

son,
Wheatland students will have a new school house in which to begin work has been erected in the last few weeks. Many Dayton and vicinity young people are preparing to register at the various colleges

MORE VALLEY STOCK CAPTURES AWARDS

Jefferson—Leonard McCaw, who lives north of Jefferson on the Marion road, won eleven prizes on his Poland China hogs at the Linn county fair held at Albany. They won six first prizes, eight champion prizes and two grand champion prizes.

prizes.

The byys' 4-H Pig club, under the leadership of McCaw, also had exhibits at the fair and won several prizes. Clem Gentry of Mariantic and also chameral prizes. Clem Gentry of Mari on, won first prize and also cham pion prize, Francis Catchell second prize and Chester McCaw third prize. They will also exhibit at the state fair at Salem next week.

NEIGHBORS ASSIST IN HOUSE BUILDING

North Santiam — Friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bond who are building a new house gathered to lend a helping hand Thursday. The men came carly and at noon the women arrived with well-filled baskets and coffee.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. J. Welsenberr Mr. and Mrs. P. Churke Mr.

berg, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gunkle, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, Mr. and and Mrs. J. S. NcLaugnin, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Shelenburger, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. McClellan, Mrs. A. F. Keithly, Mrs. D. Pabrique, L. C. Keithly, C. L. Young and Roy E. Tyler.

ROAD IS GRAVELED

North Santiam—The road leading from North Santiam that intersects the market road at the Robert Goss arm is being graveled this week,

MOVE TO CORVALIS
Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gustafson, who sold their barbecue confectionery and dance hall at Rickreal to Mr. and Mrs. Erroe Ross some months ago, went to Corvalis this week where they will open a barbecue hous. Since selling their place in Rickreal the Gustafson's have spent most of the time in Portland.

PAINTING E. J. REASOR

THE FEATURE SHOW AT THE FAIR

European Freak Show

World's Greatest of Human Freaks

SCHLITZIE and RANDION

PIN HEAD Last of the Aztecs

JOLLY JOE Prize Pat Girl-568 lbs.

PRINCESS IOLA

nutive Dancer-A Riot. All Week at the Pair

Living Half Man No Arms—No Legs ALIVE

ROBERTA RAY Half Man-Half Woman He or She

and her Reptiles Monstrous Serpents

European Freak Show

Don't Fail to See the FLEA CIRCUS

INFANT IS CALLED

BY WHOOPING COUGH Dallas—Glen James, aged nine months, leas one day, infant son of the Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Baergen, passed away September 12. Death was due to whooping cough with possible complications, as he had suffered a bed attack of pneumonia earlier in the summer. He is survived by his father and mother, one brother Vermon, and one sister Edna. Rev. Baergen is pastor of the Zion Mennonite church.

TURNER PASTOR REJECTS CALL

Turner — The Turner Christian church, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. E. J. Glistrap, is gaining in membership and interest during the fall season. Last Sunday's sermons were on "Education, and Going Away to College," addressed especially to young people. Some time in October a rally day and home-coming is being planned for the church. Dr. H. C. Epley of Salem, director of the choir and chorus announces that he will soon resume his work in training voices.

Rev. Glistrap recently received a Turner - The Turner Christian sume his work in training voices.

Rev. Gilstrap recently received a call from Kinsley county, Kas., where he served in the Christian church pastorate for two years, eight years ago for him to return to their leadership again. Gilstrap will remain as leader in the local church and has declined the call in Kansas.

CHANGES MADE FOR SERVICES

Woodburn—At the Presbyterlan church Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. E. W. Blew, will preach a prerally day sermon on "Rendy For the Work."

At this service Rev. Blew will also begin a revised program, which will include a special sermon for young people at the beginning of each Sunday morning service. The choir is being reorganised and will present special numbers this Sunday, under the leadership of Mrs. Jack Hansen. A new feature of the services beginning-Sunday will be the vices beginning Sunday will be the arrangement by which small child-ren will be cared for in the church basement by a competent person, thus giving the mothers a chance to attend church and enjoy the service.

Rev. Blew and S. W. Maupin at-tended the meeting of Presbytery, which was held at Corvallis this week, and aucceeded in having Woodburn selected as the spring meeting place of this body.

FRACTURED SKULL PROVES SERIOUS

Silverton—Orris Kebaugh, the 19 year old boy who was found unconscious on the pavement a few miles this side of Scotts Mills Wednesday evening about 6 o'clock, was still unconscious at the local hospital Friday afternoon. He has a bad fracture of the skull.

He was righter on too of a truck

He was riding on top of a truck full of empty prune crates and it is thought that he was knocked to is thought that he was knocked to the pavement by telephone or light wires. The driver didn't miss him until he drove to his destination at Scotts Mills. He went back and found he had been found by a Mr. Johnson of Hubbard and had been brought to the hospital by Mrs. Ha-zel Lorenzen.

RETURNS FROM FORTLAND
Turner—Alvin Bond has returned to Portland after nearly a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
H. S. Bond, in Turner. Both Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bond spent an enjoyable summer at the Oregon caves, returning recently, and Mrs. Bond is visiting with her parents at Wenatchee, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bond are planning a trip to Chicago the

PRE RALLY DAY DINNER SERVED FOR BIG CROWD

woodburn—A very successful prerally day dinner and program was held at the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening and was astrended by a large and enthusiastic number of people. Dinner was acreed in the church dining room at 7 o'clock and booster speeches were made by Mrs. Carrie Young om the Federation; A. E. Leary represented the men; Mrs. V. D. Bain and Miss Carrie Waterbury represented the primary and junior departments; Mrs. Garrison's class was represented by Miss Kathieen Garrison. A song was given by the Epworth league as their representation. The league also won the prize for the best decorated table, and the Federation for the largest attendance. Mrs. Garrison's class was a prize winner in having the best food on their table and also beautiful decorations. Judges were Mrs. Landon and Mrs. Donaldson.
At 8 o'clock the congregation adjourned to the main auditorium where the following program was given: "America," by the assemblage; prayer, by the pastor; instrumental music; "What About the Yearly Budget?" by Perle L. Love; announcements; "The Ministry of the Church School,
J. D. Woodfin. The program closed
with a hymn and the benediction,
after which a time was spent in getting acquainted. The dining room and auditorium were decorated in brilliant fall flowers and the scene of good fellowship and enthusiasm was an inspiration.

The part pleaded guilty but the prize for the best decorated the the best food on their table and also beautiful decorations. Judges were differed to the main auditorium where the following program was given: "America," by the assemblage; prayer, by the pastor;
Glenn S. Hartong; vocal solo, Mrs.
Glenn S. Hartong; vocal solo, Mrs.
Glenn S. Hartong; vocal solo, Mrs.
Glenn S. Hartong; Were developed the devolutionals, the fill the Yearly Budget?" by Perle L. Love; announcements; "The Ministry of the Church School,
J. D. Woodfin. The program closed
with a hymn and the benediction,
after which a time was spent in getting acquainted. The dining room and audito of good fellowship and enthusiasm was an inspiration.

IMPROVEMENT MADE IN TURNER SCHOOL

Turner—The Turner high school has had a complete rejuvenation the past few weeks and is ready for the opening of school Monday morning. The interior has been thoroughly cleaned and partly painted. A number of changes have been made in the class rooms, the most pronounced being the enlargement of the science room removing the boys lawatory to the boller room. Two electric ranges have been installed and a number of hot plates. Two stage dressing rooms have been constructed directly back of the stage for use of players donning coetumes. The blackboards have been given a new coat of green slating and the stairway leading to the second floor has been repainted.

COMMUNITY CHURCH SERVICES SCHEDULED

_abish Center—A schedule of the _vices of the Labish Center com-unity church for Sunday are as munity church for Sunday are as follows:

Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Preaching by Rev. Scheuerman at 11 o'clock in the morning. Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock in the evening. The topic, "How Improve Our Organization and Team Work," under the leadership of Ed McClaughry, will be discussed.

MRS. KOFORD VISITS
Mill City—Mrs. Otto Koford of Berkeley, Calif., arrived Thursday evening for a few days' visit at the home of her brother, Sig Jepsen.
Mrs. Koford was on her way back from a three months' visit at her old home in Denmark at the time of her brother's death, Harry Jepsen, so was unable to get here in time for the funeral.

chee, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bond are planning a trip to Chicago the first of October to be gone a month. G. Miller. GUEST MILLER HOME

(ZZD: Today Tomorrow All Talking ETS GO NATIVE JACK OAKIE MacDONALD ON STAGE Fanchon & Marco "HOLLYWOOD MODES" Idea Featuring HALDANE FRANCES Mistress of DANNY JOY, SLIVIA SHORE and HELEN MOORE Dancing Darlings HARRY SMIRL, Trick Tumbler 12 UNISON STEPPERS Lou Meier and His Elsinorian

DELAYED SURPRISE IS GIVEN PASTOR

Dayton—Rev. Robert B. Shattack, paster of the Dayton Methodist church and teacher of the Young People's class was surprised by 19 of his students honoring his birthday at the comminity hall.

Because of the busy time at his birthday, September 8, the surprise was postponed for a time.

PRISON IS GIFT

Dallas—Ben Relmann and Joe Soboda, charged with holding up and robbing the Polk County Farm-ers' Co-operative Warehouse company some two months ago, went on trial Priday forenoon before Judge Arlie G. Walker.

The pair pleaded guilty but Rei-mann was more or less inclined to shift the responsibility for the af-fair to Soboda's shoulders. They were each sentenced to five years in the penitentiary and will be turned over to the authorities there probably on Saturday.

JEFFERSON CHURCH SOCIETY IS GUEST

Jefferson—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. S. M. Green Thursday afternoon. An interesting program under the leadership of Mrs. J. G. Fontaine was given, the topic being, "The Onward Step," Mrs. Blanche Libby conducted the devotionals, the topic of which was "Saved for Service," Mrs. Earl Phelps had charge of the mystery box questions. At the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Addie Libby.

These research were Mrs. J. G.

those mentioned in Thursday's issue leaving for further schooling are David Hay, Ashland normals John David Hay, Ashland normal; John Able, O. A. C.; Georgia Lamb, O. A. C.; John Bowman, Decker business; Edgar Tweede, Willamette: Jane Evenson, U. of O.; Martha Thompson, Behnke Walker, Louise Whitlack, O. A. C.; Carl Steelhammer, Willamette: Alma Anderson, O. A. C.; Gertrude Thurman, Decker business; Rodney McCall, University of Montana; Molile Buttler, O. A. C.; Juanita Lee, hospital in Los Angeles; Vernie McClung, Salem general hospital; John Kleb, University of Oregon; Ethel Weigle, Salem Capital business college. 2.; John Bowman, Decker busines

DECREES ARE GRANTED

Albany — Three default divorce cases were heard by Judge L. H. McMahan in gircuit court department No. 2 Thursday with decrees being granted to J. A. from Mabel C. Shanks; Beatrice from Mavin R. Tate and Pearl from Floyd Hartzell. MRS. SHERMAN RETURNS Dayton-Mrs. John Sherman, w has been a guest for several weeks of her husband at Scattle, returned to her home here to be in reading for the opening of school. She is teacher of the third and fourth grades of the city school.

GRAND

COMEDY

SIDNEY

MURRAY

niest pair on the screen

TOMOBROW COM

NOAH'S

ARK

Starting September 22

MATINEES

Open 1:45 to 3:38 P. M.

RIOT

CLUB PROJECTS FOR MT. ANGEL GOING TO FAIR

CHAMPION PORKER

Silverton—A. N. Doerfler of Ioca, of near Silverton, owner and exhibitor of fine Duroc hogs, who had a hard trip with his show herd in getting them to the Savramento fair, lost a $1000 grand champion boar and senior herd sire, known for some time all over the northwest which died in Savramento.

by the hostess assisted by Miss and senior herd sire, known for some and senior herd sire.

TO MARION ENTRIES

Aurora—Orrin Ottoway, a junior of Woodburn high school, captured first prize at the Cheakamas coun-try fair for his Shropshire sheep. This stock was entered as a Smith-

Hughes project. George Yergen, also of Aurora, entered some chickens and mangel wurtzel beets. On his White Wyandottes he received first prize for best cock and first prize for best hen. He was awarded first prize for best mangel wurtuel beet. The fair is considered the best ever held. IDAHO PEOPLE VISIT

Lyons—Roy J. Fox of Midvale, Ida. spent Tuesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clinton Seever, Fox will be employed at Salem by the state fair board next week.

RADIO SERVICE on all makes SETS Radio Headquarters "Just Radio"
Phone 1161 175 S. High St.

Hollywood Home of 25c Talkies

LAST TIMES TODAY "The Ship from Shanghai"

COMING SUNDAY, MON-DAY, TUESDAY

RICHARD HOLK FAY WRAY EUGENE PALLETTE = a Guramount Gicture :

ALSO COMEDY-ACT

AND NEWS

TRAINING NURSE IS HONORED BY CLASS

Mt. Angel—Word has been received here that Miss Lorena Lebold of Mt. Angel, now in training in St. Vincent's hospital at Portland, has been elected president of the hospital's student body. Miss Marie Perayn, also of Mt. Angel, was elected sergeant-at-arms, and Miss Stelia Meagher of Portland, a sister of Frater James of Mt. Angel college, was elected treasurer.

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel will be well represented with exhibits at the Oregon state fair which will open at Salem Monday morning. Sept. 22, and continue throughout the week. A large number of 4-H club attents and their parents are expected to attend from here on Monday which will be community and children's day.

Holen Froemel of Mt. Angel has been chosen to represent 4-H club girls of Marion county at the fair. While in Salem she will be guest of Marion county. Delphine Enner and Anna Bigler will make up the sewing demonstrating team from the Mt. Angel district and Dolores Ullman and Michael Welton will represent the health club.

A large number of exhibits in sewing, gardening rose and flower culture, rabbits and from calf and pigting true, rabbits and from calf and pigting the culture, rabbits and from calf and pigting true, rabbits and from calf and pigting the culture, rabbits and from calf and pigting the community will surpass any in the past. All display room in the various buildings has been leased and many turned away, "Disease-free" cattle from all states in the west industrial, county, and 4-H dibb displays will be features.

CHARDIAN DODVED

FOR SCHOOL START

Silverton—The four school buses gathering high school students from outlying districts to the local school are again in operation since Mon-DIES ON CIRCUIT are again in operation since Monday morning. They are: Allen Bros, liverton—A. N. Doerfler of Ioca, lear Silverton, owner and exhilear Silverton, owner and exhithe Silverton Hills route. North Santlam - Mr. and Mrs.

Ted Higgins and Mrs. Helen Mer-ril, of Portland, were week end guests at the Ben Browning home.

The world's greatest automobile value is offered by Durant. Every model in Durant's complete line of fours & sixes gives you more for your money than youever expected from any manufacturer. . . In no other car can you find such high quality at such low cost

PRICES START

DELIVERED HERE FULLY EQUIPPED

DURANT

Salem Automobile Co.

435 N. COM'L ST. PHONE 97

3-1075-14