RECEPTION IS GIVEN PASTOR AT MILL CITY

Mill City—A reception for Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas was sponsored by the missionary society of the Presbyterian church Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall.

A large crowd was present and a wonderful community spirit shown. Members of both churches were well represented. The reception room gave a homelike appearance with its soft colored lights and baskets of flowers beautifully arranged around the room.

A game of hand shaking gave everyone the opportunity of meeting each other before the program began. A number of old songs led by Mrs. O. G. Hutchins were enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. W. W. Allen extended a welcome to Rev. and Mrs. Thomas in behalf of the Missionary society and members of the local church. Rev. Thomas gave the response. Rev. A. C. Baker, pastor of the local church of Christ, gave a short talk in which he offered his support to his neighboring church.

The family album brought to light several of the members of the church as they looked in their younger days, when they were pictured in tableaux by a number of boys and girls. Vanessa Newman gave a reading which was followed by a piano solo rendered by Mrs. Robert Schroeder. A chorus of ladies voices presented two numbers which was directed by Mrs. Nina Wadsworth Kahler with violin obligato by W. H. Davis.
