

INDEPENDENCE CLASSES FIND NEW TEACHERS

Independence—Student teachers assigned for the fall term are:

First grade, Miss Hayman, supervisor; Ruth Parker, Dagmar Sjolund, Jo Anne Seelye, Katherine Fleming.

Second grade—Mrs. Shoemaker, Perle Benson, Thelma Morgan, Norma Parrish.

Third grade—Miss Kennedy, Elsie Erickson, Frances Fritzel, Velma Dickworth, Ila Huber.

Fourth grade—Mrs. Holt, LaVelle Swetnam, Christine Mead, Blanche Gearhart, Pearl Groves.

Fifth and sixth—Miss Johnson, Lilybel Gresham, Helen Sandstrom, Ruth Redberg, Louise Seefeld.

Sixth grade—Miss Donaldson, Ione Richards, Zella Davidson, Rose Kalch.

Seventh grade—Miss Keeney, John Lehman, Esther Buche, Dulcie Anderson, Lena Hummel.

Eighth grade—Mrs. Sheldon, Louis Price, Ruth McKee, Helen Traves.

Ninth and tenth grades—Miss Forbes, Jennie Vineyard, Bernice Forbes, Ivan Brown.

FROLIC STAGED IN TURNER GYM

Turner—The annual freshman class initiation was held in the high school gymnasium Friday evening, under the sponsorship of the sophomore students and faculty. Nearly sixty young people were in attendance and enjoyed the social time.

The participation in games and contests under the leadership of Mr. Hickock of the faculty took up the early part of the evening, much hilarity being created from a banana eating contest.

The freshmen initiation followed with all members of the class, numbering 24, being put through the initiatory degrees to the amusement of all. Refreshments were served the group later in the evening. The faculty members in attendance were Principal and Mrs. John R. Cox, Mrs. Jean Pearey of Salem, Mrs. C. H. Josse, superintendent of the Turner Boys' Home, and also one of the guests enjoying the annual frolic of students.

MILL CITY OFFERS ORCHESTRA MUSIC

Mill City—The community orchestra has again started practicing each Monday night with Albert Millap as director.

Those taking parts at present are: piano, Mrs. Albert Millap; organ, A. A. Houthouse; violin, Albert Millap, W. H. Davis, Mrs. Velma Pearson and Joe Muse; clarinet, S. L. Trichenor; trumpet, R. L. Cooper; drums, Mrs. F. W. Klecker.

PROPERTY INVOLVED IN BIG TRADE DEAL

Jefferson—A deal of considerable importance was closed recently when A. A. Miller exchanged his buildings on Main street, occupied by the Barnes Pool room, Goin Barber shop and McChains repair shop, for a number of lots in the Belcrest Memorial park near Salem.

EDWARDS ARE HOSTS AT MONMOUTH HOME

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards were hosts at their home on East Main street Friday evening to compliment Mr. and Mrs. A. Randall and their niece Miss Daisy Bunker, who are leaving shortly to take up their residence in Albany.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Randall, Miss Buckner, Rev. and Mrs. L. H. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Heffley, Mrs. C. E. Herron, Mr. and J. E. Andrus, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Staibrough, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Sillcott, Mr. and Mrs. F. Huber, Mrs. Gamber and Mr. and Mrs. Edwards.

FOOT IS CRUSHED

Silverton—Mrs. Sally Robbins, who with her sister, Mrs. Ida Heath, went to Portland a week ago, had her foot run over by an auto and is now at the Health home where, it is stated, she will be forced to remain about five weeks. Another sister, Mrs. Mollie Noble, is caring for the Robbins' home on McClaine street.

ROBERTSONS TO MOVE

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Robertson are moving to Portland after making their home in Turner for many years where they have been active in civic and social affairs, and will be greatly missed. For a number of years Mr. Robertson owned the grocery and mercantile store which he sold to E. J. Harrison, the present owner, over a year ago. They will probably rent or sell their attractive home here. In Portland Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will be near their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Heath.

WOULD BE DESIGNER

Silverton—Miss Dorris Riches left last week for Los Angeles to enter the Wolfe school of costume designing which she wishes to make her life profession. After being graduated from the Silverton high school she attended the University of Washington and for the past few years had been connected with an insurance company in Seattle.

SILVERTON PRIEST HOME

Silverton—Father Joseph Scherbring has returned from Omaha, where he had gone on business in the interest of the church and law, where he visited relatives. With him came his cousin, also a priest, who will make an extended visit.

IMMENSE GROWTH MADE BY TOMATOES

Silverton—Warren E. Crabtree, instructor of the local Smith-Huggs department has growing in his yard some extraordinary tomato vines. They are trained on seven foot trellises and some of the vines when stretched out measure more than 10 feet in length. The trellis is and has been covered with large luscious tomatoes. Crabtree states that he used a commercial fertilizer on the vines which gave them this immense growth.

MRS. WOODFIN IS WGT U LEADER

Woodburn—The Woodburn W. C. T. U. was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. D. Woodfin on Friday afternoon at her home on Young street and officers were elected for the year.

Mrs. Woodfin was chosen as president; Mrs. Glenn Hartong as recording secretary; Mrs. Nettie Zimmerman, treasurer, and Mrs. Mrs. James H. Lavesay as corresponding secretary. It was voted that the union take a membership in the Waverly baby home and it was also voted to pay $10 towards the expense of the week day Bible school.

EXPANSION PROGRAM POULTRY INDUSTRY

Auburn—The poultry industry is still expanding in the Auburn district. A new brooder house 32x102 feet, part of which is two-stories is under construction at the Lloyd A. Lee hatchery. This building will accommodate 6000 baby chicks. The upper story will be used for storage of litter and supplies. The plant will be heated by gas.

Besides eggs from his own flocks, eggs from about 90 flocks are under contract to Mr. Lee. Most of these flocks are in Oregon but a few are sent from Washington. H. M. Robbins of Oregon City, who supplies eggs from his choice flock of R. I. Reds, was a visitor at the hatchery Thursday.

MONMOUTH LEGION WILL JOIN DALLAS

Monmouth—American Legion post No. 63 and its auxiliary held the regular semi-monthly business meeting Thursday evening in the Legion hall. Plans for Armistice day observance were discussed, the local post voting to join Dallas in the afternoon celebration. The noon-day dinner for Legionnaires which has become nearly a tradition here on November 11, will be dispensed with this year.

At the next meeting night, which comes shortly before Halloween, the Independence post will be invited to visit the local veterans and a Halloween masquerade ball will be held.

UNION HILL GRANGE COMMITTEE FORMED

Union Hill—At a meeting called by the chairman of the home economics committee of the Union Hill Grange a home economics club was organized with Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, president; Mrs. W. Tate, vice president; Mrs. J. C. Krenze, treasurer, and Mrs. Theodore Fisher as secretary.

Meetings are to be held on the second Wednesday of each month at 2 o'clock at the grange hall. After the regular work a short program will be given and refreshments served.

MR. DAY RETURNS

Gates—Mrs. Anna Day, has recently returned from Horton, Kansas, where she formerly lived and had gone back late in the summer to settle business affairs. Mrs. Day is the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Klutke, with her children, three of whom are enrolled in the Gates schools.

TEACHER TAKEN ILL

Auburn—Miss Bernice Zilke, teacher of the primary room, has been taking care of both rooms the past 10 days during the absence of the principal, Mrs. Harriet Ingram, who has been under the doctor's care. Some of the pupils from the upper room assisted with the primary classes. They were Marie Witte, eighth grade; Marie Baumgartner, seventh; Lula Sloan, sixth, and Helen Jura of the seventh grade. The girls, all of whom are planning to become teachers, enjoyed the work greatly.

MRS. ZIMMERMAN BETTER

Woodburn—Mrs. P. Zimmerman, formerly of Portland, who has been very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Kocher, for the past six weeks, is slightly improved. Mrs. Zimmerman will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Hanson of Tacoma, and Mrs. Chester Woods of Seattle, daughters of Mrs. Zimmerman spent the week-end at the Kocher home as guests of their mother.

Talbot—Mrs. Sana Taylor

Talbot—Mrs. Sana Taylor 1.38 been ill at her country home near here for the past week.

RECEPTION FOR HAZEL GREEN'S NEW MINISTER

Hazel Green—A group of church members and friends tendered a reception recently at the local church parsonage honoring Rev. S. E. Long, the new pastor, and Rev. Leila Luckey, retiring pastor, who will be with her father, James Luckey, who moves to their Portland home, where Rev. Luckey will take a year's rest from active service as preacher.

F. W. Wane, superintendent of the Sunday school, welcomed Rev. Long in the name of the church. Mrs. Iris Van Cleave in the name of the missionary society and Otterbein guild, while Mrs. Margery Looney tendered Rev. Long a bouquet of autumn flowers.

METCALF NOT JAILED; WORKING AT BEND

Dayton—Guy Metcalf and wife have returned from a construction camp at Bend and are assisting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Warnock of Toledo, re-establish themselves in the Pleasantdale district after an absence of two years.

Metcalf has been kept busy telling that he was not in jail, and that the man arrested for forgery at Oregon City was not he but another with the same name. Metcalf's friends know he was in eastern Oregon at the time, but continue to insist that he was in jail, much to their delight and his embarrassment.

BROOKS COMMUNITY CLUB ENTERTAINED

Brooks—Mrs. Willard Ramp and Mrs. A. J. Rasmussen entertained the Brooks Community club in the Rainy home Thursday afternoon. The president being absent, Mrs. Mary Ashbaugh conducted the business meeting. The afternoon was spent piecing quilt blocks.

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mrs. I. A. Loran, Mrs. W. P. Poren, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. William Potts, Mrs. Ella Harris, Mrs. Leah Bailey, Mrs. Lillian Rasmussen, Mrs. Jeff Wall, Mrs. Mary Ashbaugh, Mrs. Georgia Rimp, and small son Dorwood, Miss Ellen Hackit, Arlene Rasmussen, Kreta Pae Ashbaugh, Daley Potts and the hostess Mrs. Willard Ramp.

The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks.

TRANSPORTATION FOR STUDENTS FURNISHED

Hazel Green—A number of local families are sending their children to St. Joseph's parochial school in Salem. The Tony Caspar family include four students, Caroline, Cecelia, Irwin and James. The Max Woods family are sending Elie, Ernest and Avis woods and Charles Zelinski, Jr. two daughters, Mildred and Charlotte. Each family take a week at transporting the students back and forth to Salem. James Schneider, son of Joseph Schneider is also attending a parochial school in Silverton, making the trip daily on the Silverton school bus.

BRIDGE IS PLAYED

Mt. Angel—Miss Helen Ficker was hostess at a bridge party Friday evening. Miss Helen Eberle won high score honors. Those present were Miss Dorothy Keber, Miss Adelaide Kruse, Miss Hilda Eberle, Miss Helen Ficker, Miss Gertrude Keber, Miss Helen Eberle, Miss Teresa Ficker and Mrs. Anna Kioft.

PIONEER IS ILL

Auburn—John Nodine, 83, pioneer of Langlois, Ore., who has been a house guest this month at the home of his niece, Mrs. Ross B. Clark, was taken to a hospital Thursday under treatment for pneumonia. Other members of the family have been seriously ill also this month. Nodine's sister also a pioneer has been under the doctor's care with asthma and at present Mrs. Clark is confined to her bed. Vance Nodine was called to be with his father.

WINTERMANETS RETURN

Talbot—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wintermantel returned recently from the Tillamook beaches where they have been spending their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wintermantel will live on the Mrs. Mary Nye's farm for a while before they leave for Three Rivers where Wintermantel expects to take charge of a dairy ranch owned by his uncle.

VALLEY FAIRM SOLD

North Santiam—Matt Morrison has sold his 40 acre farm here, formerly known as the J. E. Thomas place to Charles E. Phillips of West Salem. Phillips with his family have taken immediate possession. The consideration was $7000.

LARSONS IN TOWN

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Larson have moved from the Carrie King ranch in the Silverton Hills north to the James Maulding house on South Madison street. Larson is employed at the super service station. The Larsons recently sold their farm effects at an auction sale.

Missing Bovine And Baby Calf Found in Barn

Hubbard—The cow which was stolen from the George Lefler dairy farm, has been returned to the barn yard. Thursday evening Lefler heard a cow outside his barn as he was tending to his stock inside. He counted and heard inside the barn and knew it was not one of the cows which had been in the pasture.

Upon investigation he found his lost cow and a baby calf. As Lefler searched most carefully before he reported the loss of the cow and was certain she was not on the farm Sunday evening he cannot understand exactly what did happen. The cow was gone from Sunday night to Thursday evening.

RICKEY CLUB SEASON OPEN

Rickey—The first regular meeting of the Rickey community club was held Friday, October 10. A short business meeting was held at which Kenneth Sheridan was elected sergeant-at-arms, and the following program given:

Violin solos, Veneta La Branch, accompanied by Antihela Elstrom; reading, Margaret Magee; piano duet, Veneta La Branch; America, audience; short talk, Miller Hayden of Salem. The next meeting of the club will be held Friday, November 14.

MRS. BODEKER HEADS LYONS CLUB WOMEN

Lyons—The Ladies' Community club met at the community hall Thursday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers.

Mrs. Alex Bodeker was elected president; Mrs. Arthur Vaughn, vice-president, and Mrs. D. Westinghouse secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Huber, Mrs. Bentley and Mrs. E. Monte were appointed on the membership committee; Mrs. Swank, Mrs. E. Hatt and Mrs. H. Shelton, work committee. Mrs. Jim Kinney is the new librarian.

Plans were discussed for a Halloween party to be held at the community hall.

FORMER AMITY MAN BECOMES EXAMINER

Amity—Word has been received here from Orange Cove, Calif., that Earl H. Le Masters, who has been cashier of the First National bank of that city for the last five years, has been appointed federal land bank examiner in the field service effective September 29.

Le Masters is a former Amity boy, where he attended grammar and high school. He is the son of C. G. Le Masters, now a banker at Orange Cove and formerly editor and owner of the Amity Standard.

CLASS ENTERTAINED AT ENSLEY'S HOME

Turner—Mrs. Clifford Ensley entertained Friday evening in her Turner home with an autumn party for her Sunday school class of the Christian church. Refreshments were served by the hostess following games to the guests, including Marjorie McKay, Margaret Gilstrap, Mildred Bones, LaVerne Whitehead, Puth Gilstrap, Norman Whitehead, Frank Sacks, George Crawford, Gene Freeman, Carl Kane, Keith Ball, Phillip McKay, Elton Ball, Mrs. C. H. Josse, Mrs. J. E. Gilstrap and the hostess, Mrs. Clifford Ensley.

DUNNIGANS HOSTS

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunnigan were hosts recently for an attractive family dinner honoring Mrs. Dunnigan's brother, John Swan and family, who returned from Mill City for the week end. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. John Swan and children, Estel, Roland and Blanche; June Dunnigan, William Dunnigan, Jr., Orville Dunnigan and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunnigan.

CHIROPRACTORS GATHER

Monmouth—Dr. Lloyd L. Hockitt of Monmouth, who Tuesday evening was elected president of the Marion-Polk County Chiropractors association, left Friday evening to attend the Tri-County association meeting at Eugene. This association includes Lane, Linn and Benton counties.

LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Givens

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Givens of Portland are visiting at the home of Givens' sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Feibel.

PRESBYTERY OF VALLEY MEETS DALLAS CHURCH

Dallas—The annual meeting of the Young People's league of the Willamette Presbytery was held Saturday in the Presbyterian church with the meeting opening at 10 o'clock. The proceedings began with the registration of delegates, followed by a song service at 10:15 o'clock. At 10:30 o'clock devotions were held at which delegates from Albany spoke on faith, fellowship and future.

DAYTON CLUB HAS ELECTION

Dayton—Mrs. Henry Bertram entertained the Dayton Needle club at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Duzan, Wednesday afternoon.

This is the first meeting following the adjournment taken last spring and election of officers during the business session resulted in Mrs. J. J. Rowley being re-elected president, and Mrs. James Wakefield re-elected secretary-treasurer. Mrs. James Pray of Okla. who is a guest at the E. M. Pray home was a guest of the club.

WALDO HILLS CLUB OPENS ACTIVITIES

Waldo Hills—The Waldo Hills Community club opened its winter's activities Friday evening with a program and a social evening. Frank Bowers, president of the club, reported in the opening that the election of officers had been postponed until the November meeting.

Miss Lois Riches, chairman of the program committee, acted as chairwoman of the evening. Numbers on the program included a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Geer of Salem, with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Geer at the piano; a reading by Beale Ray; two violin solos by Beryl Ottaway; a talk on music and a piano solo by Mrs. C. C. Geer.

Following the program, dancing was enjoyed for an hour after which supper was served.

REDUCTION IS MADE FOR AURORA'S DEBT

Aurora—At a recent meeting of the city council the city indebtedness was reduced $500 and interest. City Recorder George W. Fry was instructed to draw a warrant in the amount. Other bills such as officers' salaries, power, lights, etc., were also allowed.

The indebtedness of the city was incurred two years ago when it was necessary to replace the old wooden tower with a steel tower, thus giving Aurora one of the most moderate water systems of the small towns in the valley.

MILL CITY CHORUS MAKES APPEARANCE

Mill City—Several Mill City women who are lovers of music, are forming, spontaneously, a chorus of amateur voices. The chorus made its first appearance October 3, singing two numbers. The chorus is directed by Mrs. Nina Wadsworth Kahler, who has had several years' training in chorus work.

SISTERHOOD GUEST BEERS RESIDENCE

Woodburn—Chapter J of the P. E. O. sisterhood was entertained at the home of the president, Mrs. Ivan C. Beers Thursday evening. The program consisted of a constitutional quiz and was led by Mrs. Paul Mills. Following a social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. O. Havemann. Miss Lake G. Watson was a guest during the social hour.

WILLIAMS LAID UP

Silverton—Henry Williams has been at his home on Silver street for the past week suffering with an attack of erysipelas in his foot. He is said to be somewhat improved but will not be able to go to work for several days. He is getting about on crutches.

INJURED ARM WELL

Sidney—E. E. Cochran, who received a very painful injury to his right arm a few weeks ago when he slipped and fell several feet, is again able to use the injured arm and is busy running the tractor on his father's farm near here.

PLEGGED TO FRAT

Aumsville—Herman Darby, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Darby of the Flaxland. Developing company, pledged Pi Kappa Phi at Oregon State college recently.

DAUGHTER OF PASTOR INJURED IN TUMBLE

Turner—Little Fernel Gilstrap, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap of the Turner Christian church, fell from a woodpile near her parents' home Friday evening, when a group of young playmates were attempting to climb to the top. Although not seriously injured the little girl received a severe shaking up and remained in bed for several days.

TURNER GRANGE OPENS SEASON; PROGRAM GIVEN

Turner—Turner Surprise Grange held its regular monthly meeting Saturday in the Odd Fellows hall here with the usual attendance of members and several visitors. In the morning the regular business session was held, and a pot luck dinner was enjoyed. In the absence of Raymond Tatus, William Gulvin acted as worthy master.

The lecture hour program was managed by Mrs. J. M. Boos, the lecturer, Mrs. William Gulvin being unable to be present. The opening number was a song by the grange, followed by a piano selection by Lilybel Gresham; Albert Jensen favored the group with a violin solo. William Gulvin gave a humorous reading, and Arthur Edwards sang a solo. Carl Duncan gave a talk on the subject "How the Grange Organization has Helped Me." Instructional talks were given by L. S. Lambert of Stayton, master of Pomona Grange, and Will Jones, worthy master of McChesney Grange, with responses by Mrs. L. S. Lambert of Stayton and Mrs. Will Jones of McChesney, secretary of Pomona Grange.

This was the first all-day meeting of Surprise Grange since the meetings were held in the evening during the summer months. Wednesday the Pomona county grange will meet at Grays, and a large delegation of Turner Surprise Grange members are planning to be present. Among the special guests at the meeting Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lambert of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones and Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Patton, all of Gervais.

WALDO HILLS CLUB OPENS ACTIVITIES

Waldo Hills—The Waldo Hills Community club opened its winter's activities Friday evening with a program and a social evening. Frank Bowers, president of the club, reported in the opening that the election of officers had been postponed until the November meeting.

Miss Lois Riches, chairman of the program committee, acted as chairwoman of the evening. Numbers on the program included a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Geer of Salem, with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Geer at the piano; a reading by Beale Ray; two violin solos by Beryl Ottaway; a talk on music and a piano solo by Mrs. C. C. Geer.

Following the program, dancing was enjoyed for an hour after which supper was served.

LEGION AUXILIARY AT AMITY ELECTS

Amity—The women's auxiliary of the American Legion met at the home of Mrs. Eugene Strout Thursday evening. The following officers were elected for the year:

President, Mrs. Clara Broadwell; first vice president, Miss Edna Strout; second vice president, Mrs. Glen Weston; secretary, Mrs. Soren Sorenson; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Strout; chaplain, Mrs. Fred Walling; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. W. T. Weston.

Plans were made for the year's program. A social hour was held, during which the hostess served refreshments.

LARSON GETS LICENSE

Silverton—Richard Larson of Larson & Son funeral directors, has received his embalmer's license.

Larson who was an undertaker in Kansas before coming here a few years ago, opened, with his son, undertaking parlors here some months ago on North Second street.

COCOANUTTIER THAN EVER

Amity—Word has been received here from Orange Cove, Calif., that Earl H. Le Masters, who has been cashier of the First National bank of that city for the last five years, has been appointed federal land bank examiner in the field service effective September 29.

DIXON RITES CALL TO MANY FRIENDS

Unions—Friends from this vicinity who went to the Newton cemetery to attend the burial of Mrs. Mary E. Dixon following funeral services held at the local church Thursday were: E. M. Alderman, W. B. Alderman, C. J. Countess, C. C. Dew, Henry Doyce, Clarence Fowler, Roy Stottenger, Morton Tompkins, from Portland were Rev. and Mrs. D. L. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsdell, Mrs. Frank Knight; from McMinnville were Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Henry, Mrs. J. H. Cook, Mrs. S. H. Huxy, Mrs. M. W. Matlock, Mrs. E. M. Ballard, Mrs. Edith Jones, Mrs. Jessie Tidball, Mrs. J. H. Williams.

SISTERHOOD GUEST BEERS RESIDENCE

Woodburn—Chapter J of the P. E. O. sisterhood was entertained at the home of the president, Mrs. Ivan C. Beers Thursday evening. The program consisted of a constitutional quiz and was led by Mrs. Paul Mills. Following a social hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. O. Havemann. Miss Lake G. Watson was a guest during the social hour.

WILLIAMS LAID UP

Silverton—Henry Williams has been at his home on Silver street for the past week suffering with an attack of erysipelas in his foot. He is said to be somewhat improved but will not be able to go to work for several days. He is getting about on crutches.

INJURED ARM WELL

Sidney—E. E. Cochran, who received a very painful injury to his right arm a few weeks ago when he slipped and fell several feet, is again able to use the injured arm and is busy running the tractor on his father's farm near here.

JAZZ BAND FORMED BY STUDENT GROUP

Silverton—A jazz band, consisting of students from both the junior and the senior high schools has been formed on South Water street and their first public appearance was made Saturday night when they played for a dance at the Silverton Hills community hall. Members are Dorothy McKenzie, piano; Maurice Winters, trombone; Ernest Lee, cornet, and Leonard Pennell, banjo.

CLEANING BEE HELD BY PYTHIAN SISTERS

Hubbard—A cleaning bee was formed Friday at the Knights of Pythias hall and the entire hall, dining room, kitchen, club room and hallways were thoroughly cleaned. A noon pot luncheon was served by Mrs. Wilma Lefler, most excellent chef. Assisting her in the work of the day were Mrs. Anna Stauffer, Miss Anita Betens, Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Miss Orva Barrett, Mrs. Maggie Crittenden, Mrs. Winnie Koehler, Mrs. Edlie McLaughlin, Mrs. Margaret McManis, Miss Treasa McManis, Mrs. Ruth Stauffer, Mrs. Cobie de Laspinae.

Dallas—Howard Miller, laborer, Chiloquin, Ore., and Mary Allen, Monmouth, took out a marriage license Friday.

Just SENSE!

IF ACUTE INDIGESTION strikes tonight will you be sorry? Or is Bell-ans near?

BELL-ANS FOR INDIGESTION

Hollywood HOME OF THE TALKIES TODAY and TUESDAY CLARA BOW True to the Navy

ALSO TALKING COMEDY. METRO COLORED REVIEW AND NEWS

THE MARX BROTHERS "Animal Crackers"

A Paramount Picture with LILLIAN ROTH, laughter's leading lady, and a prize cast of gorgeous girls and giddy goofs. Make your date with mirth right now!

TIFFANY presents THE GREATEST SCREEN DRAMA OF ALL TIME

MONDAY - TUESDAY "UNDER A TEXAS MOON" 100% NATURAL COLOR TALKING SINGING OUTDOOR PICTURE

FRANK FAY

THE GREATEST SCREEN DRAMA OF ALL TIME

TODAY Tomorrow