

TEAMS TAPER OFF FOR BIG BATTLE AT CORVALLIS

SPEARS KEEPS SILENCE ON BALL CARRIER

Corvallis (P)—Oregon State's Orangemen Thursday had reached the peak of physical condition for the annual "big game" with the University of Oregon here Saturday.

Coach Schneider announced he would reduce the Orangemen's work Thursday and Friday would require only a light workout.

"Wild Bill" McKelip, veteran end and Oregon State's leading candidate for all-coast honors, will be field captain Saturday. McKelip is a senior and Saturday will play his last game at home.

Bell field was covered with a huge canvas Wednesday to insure a fast dry field at least for the start of the game Saturday.

Eugene (P)—The University of Oregon team Thursday expected to name a leader for the "civil war" with Oregon State college at Corvallis Saturday.

John Kitzmiller, captain, probably will be on the bench Saturday. He sprained his ankle and pulled a tendon in one leg in the game with U. C. L. A. last Saturday. Another Colbert guard, or George Christensen, tackle, are considered most likely to receive the honor of leading the Webfoots.

Dr. Clarence W. Spears has not yet made public his ideas of a backfield without Kitzmiller. John Donahue will be the only two year letterman available. Ed Mosier, fullback; Al Browne, half; John Lundahl and Wally Shearer, halves; all are one year lettermen. All other ball carriers are sophomores.

STAYTON HIGH BEATS ALUMNI

Stayton—Running wild in the first two periods of the game, Stayton high school's football team Tuesday afternoon defeated an alumni aggregation 19 to 0. The high school team ran the alumni off their feet in the second quarter, scoring three touchdowns and one conversion. The alumni apparently were unable to cope with the mixture of passes, end runs, off-tackle smashes and dazzling criss-crosses pulled out by the regulars.

Although the high school team was heavily outweighed, their speedy footwork more than made up for this handicap. R. Stegmann and Thomas played a fine game for the winners, while Shelton showed up well for the alumni. The lineup:

| STAYTON | ALUMNI |
|-----------|----------------|
| Darby | LE Kerber |
| Bowman | LT K. Stegmann |
| Berber | LG A. Perry |
| Wynn | C Gebben |
| H. Perry | RG J. Perry |
| May | RT Kayen |
| Berry | RE K. Davis |
| Thomas | Q Scanton |
| P. Dozier | LH Ware |
| Weller | RF A. Dozier |
| Neal | FB Shelton |

LESLIE JUNIORS MEET EUGENE TEAM

With a few changes in his backfield, due to injuries, Coach Gurnee Fisher will pit his Leslie juniors against Roosevelt juniors high of Eugene here next Saturday. Whether the game will be played in the forenoon or afternoon has not been determined. A return game at Eugene may be played later. It Roosevelt asks for it. Roosevelt is the strongest junior team in Eugene, having recently defeated Wilson Junior by a good sized score.

Young Burns will be given Plagg's position in the backfield while Elliott will probably play the quarterback position in place of Mason who has been suffering from injuries. No changes are contemplated in the line. Fisher states, since he is using every available man.

McGill Tosses Barefoot Swede In Heavy Bout

Portland (P)—It was Irish against Swede in Wednesday night's heavyweight wrestling match and Ireland came out on top when Pat McGill, Irish champion, dumped John Preberg, barefoot Swede from Minneapolis, two out of three falls. They are two of the biggest men in the business, Preberg weighing 231 pounds, McGill 220.

McGill took the first fall in 30 minutes with a series of reverse flying headlocks. Preberg won the second with a perfect body slam in 9 minutes, 19 seconds. In the third fall went to McGill in less than one minute when he jumped in the air, wrapped his legs around Preberg's head and brought him down with a flying sevens.

Sammy Vangier, middleweight, took one fall and a decision from Jack Gardiner in the 20-minute preliminary.

INJURED KNEE TO KEEP GRETCH OUT OF GAME

Although Coach Spic Koenig's Willamette university Bearcats suffered several minor injuries as a result of drubbing Linfield Armistice day, it is believed but one of the entire squad will be laid up for any length of time. Pete Gretch, apparently suffered the most serious injury. This slacking halfback was taken from the game suffering from torn ligaments in the knee. The injury will probably keep him out of the Whitman game and possibly for the rest of the season.

The remainder of the squad, two or three bearing black eyes and sore spots, felt good enough to go through an hour or so of scrimmage Wednesday evening. Although Fred Smith, guard, who scooped several well directed kicks from cleated shoes with his knees, was given a chance to rest a bit.

Koenig was not satisfied with his men's defense against forward passing attack and will devote the remainder of the week to bolstering this department. Coupled with this will be several hours of hard scrimmaging.

With the Whitman game 19 days in the offing, it is believed the entire crew with the exception of Gretch will have plenty opportunity to get in physical trim as well as in the proper mental state for this big job.

BULLDOGS TAKE ON NEWBERG FRIDAY

Woodburn—The Woodburn Bulldogs will play Newberg on the Newberg field Friday afternoon in what promises to be an interesting game of football. The game will be called at 3 o'clock and a large number of students and townspeople will accompany the team and help to win their seventh game. School will be dismissed early in order that the students may attend the game.

Prospects for a win look very good, as the team is in good condition, with the exception of minor bumps and they should bring home the bacon if they show their usual fight.

The probable lineup will be: Kiam, rt; Grady, rt; Dirksen, rg; Hastie, c; Koch, lg; Barstad, lt; Gullanders, le; Schooler, q; E. Oberst and Gustafson, halves; G. Oberst, full.

DAYTON WINS AGAIN

Dayton—Dayton high school football team defeated Carlton high school's team here Armistice day. The score was 28 to 7. The next game will be at Stayton Friday.

SHOOTING MATCH SET

North Howell—A shooting match at the J. D. Drake farm known as Jimmy Bateson place, will be held Sunday. Shooting will begin at 8 o'clock. Lunch will be served on the grounds.

Phelan Points To Upset

TELLS HUSKIES FORGET CARDS, THINK OF WSC

Seattle (P)—The University of Washington Huskies have an idea that they might upset the mighty Washington State college eleven Saturday when the Cougars come to Seattle in quest of the Pacific coast conference football championship. And they have begun to work accordingly. They threw off their lethargy Wednesday after a little talk by their coach, Jimmy Phelan. The mentor told them to forget the Stanford defeat, to think only of W. S. C. and in his speech he hinted to his boys that they had a chance to down the "wooder team" of the northwest.

Phelan has been polishing up his offense all week which seemed to indicate that the Huskies would try to win and not just attempt to hold the score down.

"Who says we will be satisfied to hold Washington State to a low score?" asked the coach. "We will be after victory in this ball game just as much as we fought to win in any other contest."

The Washington State varsity and freshman grid teams were due to arrive in Seattle Thursday with a light workout on their program for the afternoon. The Cougar yearlings play the Washington pups Saturday morning.

Most universities and colleges are forbidden to play freshmen on varsity teams, and the rule in question limits a student to three years of varsity competition. Under the spirit of the rule, a student is available for football during his sophomore, junior and senior years. But many football coaches, with plenty of good material, have conceived the idea of keeping certain star players off the field entirely for a season in which they are quite eligible, scholastically and otherwise. The boy stays in school an extra year and completes his three years of varsity football.

The charge that Knute Rockne has one of his best backs under contract while the present combination carries on through the 1930 season may be quite unfounded and certainly is unsubstantiated.

Everyone is familiar with a certain chagrin expressed in South Bend over the fact that Joe Savoldi, the best Irish fullback, was unwittingly permitted to play a couple of minutes in the Georgia Tech game in 1928. This means that Savoldi, having played last season and this, cannot play next year, they say carefully in South Bend. Why should he? If he has been eligible in each of the past two seasons and the present, he presumably has been up in his studies and is ready to graduate next June. The inference is that he would stick around South Bend for another year's education if he were available for football.

Rockne Keeps 5th Horseman In Check, Held For Use Next Year

New York (UP)—Out at Notre Dame, it is said, there is a fifth horseman who isn't riding this year. Report has it that he is a better back than any now carrying the ball for the Irish. The report may be merely hearsay, but it points to a condition existing in many universities which the Carnegie foundation investigators seem to have overlooked in their famous bulletin No. 23.

One of the chief difficulties confronting a football coach in his efforts to perpetuate the success of his teams—aside from certain academic prejudices against proselytizing and subsidizing—is the three year rule. The letter of this rule is observed strictly in practically every important university and college in the country. The spirit of the rule is neatly evaded by the simple process of having certain students who are good football players remain an extra year in school.

Salem boxing fans will be given the opportunity Thursday night at the armory to determine for themselves whether the bundle of press clippings Pat Dundee brought back with him from California recounting his ring battles in the south, contain accurate statements or are just another bunch of waste paper. For Dundee, who, if appearances count for anything, is 50 per cent better than when he left, will engage Chuck Borden of Eugene in the main 10-round event.

Information brought back with Pat indicates that he won 19 out of his 29 starts in California. Several men of more than ordinary ability are included in the list. If this information proves correct, Mr. Borden is probably due for several interesting seasons Thursday evening.

The remainder of the card lines up as follows:

Bobby Ambrose of Salem and Jack Young of Siletz, six round semi-windup.

Buddy Ambrose, Salem and Guy Hickman, 115 pounds, four round special event.

Jack Jones, Salem and Del Russell, Salem, 135 pounds, four rounds.

Norman Parke, Tillamook and Siletz Chief, Siletz, 135 pounds, four rounds.

SALEM COURSE IMPROVED BY SHIFTING TREES

A force of men has been busy for some time making marked changes at the Salem Golf course south of the city and the result will be a materially improved course the coming summer. The improvements are being made largely in the way of moving trees onto various places on the course, which will not only make a decidedly sportier layout when the improvements are finished, but will lend considerable beauty to many of the fairways and change some of the open fairways into long tree-lined and shady aisles of greens.

Both of the fairways to and from the water holes on the course have been lined with trees which will make them some of the most beautiful fairways in the state when the trees gain a little growth and leaf out. Also trees are being moved at the rear of various greens to add a sporty touch to them and at the same time add to the beauty of the course. The improvements will not take any great time to show up, as full sized trees are being dug up and moved by tractor and replanted.

DUNDEE-BORDEN SCRAP AROUSES KEEN INTEREST

Salem boxing fans will be given the opportunity Thursday night at the armory to determine for themselves whether the bundle of press clippings Pat Dundee brought back with him from California recounting his ring battles in the south, contain accurate statements or are just another bunch of waste paper. For Dundee, who, if appearances count for anything, is 50 per cent better than when he left, will engage Chuck Borden of Eugene in the main 10-round event.

Norman Parke, Tillamook and Siletz Chief, Siletz, 135 pounds, four rounds.

COLLISON SQUAD OUT FOR REVENGE

Eugene (P)—Oregon frosts and Oregon State rooks resume their football feud on Hayward field Friday night. Prink Callison, freshman, is out for revenge for the 7-0 defeat suffered at the hands of the rooks a few weeks ago. He has withdrawn his team from scrimmage and will mass the full strength of the Webfoots, with the exception of Ed McKelip, center, who is out with injuries. McKelip will occupy the center position.

Heavy Grapplers Go Three Hours And End in Draw

Los Angeles (P)—Sherrill Marshall, La Junta, Colo., heavyweight grappler, and Henri de Giane of France, wrestled three hours, three minutes and 30 seconds to a draw here Wednesday night. Each had taken one fall when the match was stopped.

De Giane won the first fall in one hour, 20 minutes with an army body slam and Marshall came back to take the second in another 21 minutes, 20 seconds with an airplane spin.

Neither wrestler was able to secure the winning fall and the match finally was called a draw.

Ed "Strangler" Lewis used headlocks to crush Jose Dominguez, Latin American, in straight falls. The first came in 16 minutes, 38 seconds, and the second in four minutes 32 seconds.

ROCKNE AGREES ASSEMBLE GRID STARS FOR GAME

New York (P)—Knute Rockne assured Mayor Walker of New York over the telephone from South Bend Thursday he would definitely assemble a team of former Notre Dame football stars and send them into action against the New York Giants here December 13 in a game for the benefit of the unemployed.

New York (P)—A game with the "Four Horsemen" of Notre Dame on one side and Benny Friedman and Red Cagle on the other is one of the prospects under guidance of the football division of Mayor Walker's committee on unemployment relief.

A battle between New York University, which already has offered the services of its team, and Colgate, high scoring aggression of the east, is another.

WARFARE AT BEAR SCHOOL IN ABEYANCE

Berkeley (P)—The verbal football warfare at the University of California was in a state of official truce Thursday. But indications were the battle would be renewed with the firing of the final gun in the annual "big game" with Stanford November 22.

Confidence in the football team was unanimously expressed by the executive committee of the associated students in a resolution adopted Wednesday night.

A. M. Alset, editor of the Daily Californian, student publication, whose editorials demanded an immediate and sweeping investigation of California athletics, changed his tactics. In an editorial Thursday he urged students to "pull in the frayed edges of our enthusiasm," intimating the edges could fray again after the Stanford game.

While William W. Moorhead, graduate manager, said the resolution was no mere gesture, student members of the executive committee indicated it was adopted to state off disapproval for the remainder of California's football season.

The resolution, diplomatically worded, made no mention of Coach Clarence "Nib" Price, the consistent defeat of the Bear eleven, or the 7-0 trouncing by the University of Southern California Saturday which brought things into the limelight.

CRIMSON COUGARS TIGHTEN DEFENSE

Pullman (P)—When Cougar meets Husky anything might happen—but Coach O. E. Hollingbery has decided it won't be through the air.

In answer to reports from the home of the Huskies of the University of Washington that Washington State's "wonder team" might bump into something in the game Saturday, Hollingbery surmised that aspirations were being cast on his passing defense.

PARRISH PLAYS 3 MORE GAMES

Three games remain on the Parrish junior high school football team's schedule. The first of these will be played next Friday afternoon at Dallas. The players, including Parrish will be the Dallas squad minus its eight seniors. Early in the season the local junior coaches decided to play no senior high squads during the year, but Dallas was taken on with the understanding that none of its senior players take the field.

The next contest for Parrish will be played against the Woodburn second squad at Woodburn, Saturday morning, November 22, and the last battle of the season will be with Leslie Junior high the day before Thanksgiving.

Coach Hank has made but one change since his squad defeated Leslie, Hobbs, who has been playing guard, has been moved into the tackle position, taking the place of Gray, who has left school. Green has been given Hobbs' old post. Hobbs is making a much better tackle than his predecessor, Hank states.

SANTIAM FISH CLUB SHOWN GAME SLIDES

Scio—The monthly meeting of the Santiam Fish and Game Protective association at St. Francis hotel in Albany Monday night was presided over by Dr. A. G. Prill of Scio, president of the organization. The illustrated lecture, "Seeing Oregon First," by W. S. Baker of the state Audubon society, was a leading feature of the meeting.

About 150 slides were shown, giving all who saw them a close-up and first-hand view of fish and game activities in Oregon. Several Scio members attended this meeting, this community being well represented in the association's membership.
