

BEARCATS TAKE DAY OFF; RESUME WORK FRIDAY

CARDINAL WILL NOT PLAY IN BADGER TILT

Coach Keene's football squad was enjoying a day of rest and partaking of Thanksgiving day viands Thursday. After spending four days in an effort to get into shape, physically and mentally for Pacific university Saturday afternoon on Multnomah field, Portland, Friday afternoon the team will indulge in light practice and will entrain for Portland Saturday forenoon.

Neither the coach nor members of the team are saying much in connection with the fight with the Badgers, which is taken by many followers of the squad to be a good omen.

One or two changes are expected in the Bearcat lineup for the Badger tilt. Ed Cardinal, left end, was reported by the coach to be suffering from boils and will not be started Saturday. Kaiser, who played a good game while he was in against Whitman, will likely replace him.

Coach Keene points out that his ends were not entirely responsible for the long runs Applegate made around the flanks last Saturday since members of the backfield were not coming in to meet their opponents.

Pete Gretsich, the hard driving Dutchman, will share ball carrying honors with other backfield men Saturday. Pete has been warming the bench since Armistice day, due to an injured leg. He was in uniform last Saturday but Coach Keene did not care to take a chance on a fresh injury. The remainder of the squad apparently is in good condition, although Keith Jones has a bruised shoulder due to heavy work against the Missionaries.

The team has been drilled against the spread formations of Coach Jenne's squad during the week. The Bearcats are in for an extremely busy afternoon if reports from Forest Grove are correct, for it is stated that Jenne has given his team some 60 different plays.

The Pacific line from tackle to tackle is extremely heavy and will have considerable more weight than the Bearcat forwards.

The contest Saturday will be the last in Willamette suits for three players—Acherman, center; Lang, fullback, and DePoe, quarterback.

UNDEFEATED HI TEAMS BATTLE

Portland (AP)—Clear skies, warmer weather and a bright sun greeted the morn of Oregon's Thanksgiving high school grid classic here Thursday, and in keeping with the ideal football atmosphere, both the La Grande and the Commerce squads were waiting the thrill of the opening whistle in perfect condition.

The clash brings together two teams, undefeated in regular competition this season in a contest which is being played as a benefit feature. They meet on even terms. The edge that normally would go to Commerce high school here, is counter-balanced by the fast gridiron, an ally of the invading aggregation.

Color will be added to the game by seven high school bands, who will compete for a silver trophy. The attendance Thursday is expected to exceed 20,000.

TYDESLEY, FAMOUS CRICKETER, DEAD

Manchester, Eng. (AP)—Johnny Tydesley, famous Lancashire cricketer, died Thursday. He was 57 years old.

Tydesley died while dressing at home, preparatory to going to business. He retired as a first class cricketer in 1919 after which he coached the Lancashire county team. He first played first class cricket in 1895 and scored a total of 37,362 runs including 88 centuries.

He was a brother of Ernest and Richard Tydesley, also famous cricketers.

Donald—C. L. Smith has moved his garage to a new location on the same street where the building is in better condition.

Here are new pictures of Yale's trio of sensational backs. Albie Booth, the Bulldog's "mighty atom," seems to be headed for another all American berth. Joe Crowley, veteran fullback, and Bob Parker, halfback, are other standbys in the Yale machine.

JIMMY PHELAN'S HUSKIES FACE SONS OF TROY

Los Angeles (AP)—Bent on slowing the University of Southern California's great yard gaining and scoring machine to a walk, a pack of Huskies from Washington university will clash into the coliseum here Thursday for their final game of the football season.

While the Trojans are favored to win, many predict that local fans will get their first glimpse of Coach Howard Jones' players in a close struggle on their home lawn. The men of Troy have rolled up 303 of their 350 points this season on the coliseum greenward.

Coach Jimmy Phelan in his first year as Washington coach is anxious to turn in a creditable showing here, although he admits that his present team hasn't been all that it should be. Injuries, which kept Merle Hufferd on the side lines are a thing of the past and he expects this great halfback to be a source of worry to U. S. C.

Prediction that rain will fall Thursday afternoon was made by the weather bureau with the Huskies somewhat lighter than the Trojans, a muddy field would probably aid the Southern California cause.

THYE'S WRISTLOCK DEFEATS WRESTLER

Portland (AP)—Ted Thye, Portland wristlock expert, beat Stanley Pinto, Cleveland, heavyweight wrestler, in two out of three falls here Wednesday night. Thye won the third fall when he tossed Pinto off the mat and into the orchestra pit with a flying wristlock. Pinto, it may be added could not continue. Olaf Iluk Olson, Minnesota grapple, took a fall from Nels Jepson, asserted Danish champion, with a double step-over toe hold in a 20-minute preliminary.

PHILADELPHIA GREETSS COUGAR FOOTBALL TEAM

Philadelphia (AP)—Thirty members of the Washington State college football squad, which plays Willamette Saturday in a benefit game for the unemployed, arrived Thursday.

They were met at the Broad street station by Harry Stuhldreher, head coach at Villanova, and a group of citizens. The Villanova band, despite the bitter cold, was at the station early to bid the Cougars a musical welcome.

"Babe" Hoffmeyer, coach of the great Cougars team, would make no prediction regarding the outcome of the game. He explained that it was his team's first visit to the east. The players commented on the absence of snow here. Since they left Pullman, Wash., they have encountered snow at every stop, they said.

ROCKNE SEES TEAM'S DEFEAT

Chicago (AP)—The middlewest will have its first opportunity to see the traditional Notre Dame-Army football game Saturday at Soldier field and unless Coach Knute Rockne is mistaken the record crowd of 125,000 spectators will witness the Irish team's first defeat since 1928.

Rockne told his squad Wednesday he believed Army would win, and insisted the prediction was made in good faith. "Army is underrated," he said. "The Cadets will play with the inspiration of long rivalry, a rivalry which has no superior since the Navy game was removed from the West Point schedule. In addition they have an advantage in condition. Kentucky Wesleyan and Ursinus, opponents of the last two weeks have not extended Army, while our game with Northwestern left us in a weakened condition."

Seattle (AP)—Five knockouts and a series of knockdowns featured the second round of a heavyweight elimination boxing tournament here Wednesday night.

Willamette Hoop Machine to be Revamped Prospects Bright

Perfection of a basketball machine equal to the one which captured the championship of the Northwest conference last season, will get under way in earnest next Monday afternoon at Willamette. Although a few of last year's squad have been working out for several days, the season will not officially start until the football paraphernalia has been laid away following Saturday's contest with Pacific at Portland. Several important cogs in the hoop machine will not be available until after this game.

Graduation took but one of last year's squad—Harold Hank, hard working guard. The remainder of the outfit, Dwight Adams, George Seals and Andy Peterson, forwards; Ed Cardinal, center; "Doc" Gibson and Percy Carpenter, guards—will be available next Monday. Gus Moore and "Squash" Wilson from last year's freshmen squad and Hartley, who returned this fall after dropping out one year are scheduled to give some of the regulars an interesting fight for position on the Bearcat first string roster.

In addition to these stalwarts several members of the yearling class will probably be heard from. Irwin Kloosstra from Oregon City, a tall rangy lad, has been creating considerable stir about the gym through his showing of potential ability.

Others include Kaiser of Washougal, playing end on the Bearcat grid squad. Griffiths from Cogville and Burdette from McMinnville. Several more prospects are expected during the initial workouts next week.

Walt Erickson, prize ball carrier of the gridiron, who took part in a few of the freshmen games last season and who handled himself well, will not be out this year. Scholarship duties will not permit.

Less than three weeks after the initial practice session, Willamette will play its first contest. The Multnomah Athletic club quint of Portland will come here on Friday, Dec. 19 for the first of the winter's schedule which will not be concluded until the latter part of February.

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. Rüd and son Richard of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Jordan were Sunday guests at the Albert Bass home.

COLD WEATHER CUTS CROWD AT CHICAGO GAME

Chicago (AP)—Chicago football fans, 60,000 or more of them, turned out Thursday for the city's first Thanksgiving day game between major teams in 25 years, as Oregon State college and West Virginia came to Soldier field to play for charity.

The contest was the first of a 10-year series staged by Chicago Shriners for the benefit of their crippled children's hospital. Bitterly cold weather spoiled attendance anticipations somewhat, but around $125,000 was expected to be realized for the fund.

Oregon State, which lost to the Pacific coast championship Washington state eleven by the touch-down, was favored over West Virginia's rugged mountaineers, but a close battle was the prospect.

Before the Oregon State-West Virginia game, a band of yesterday's Notre Dame great, and a team of former Northwestern stars, were scheduled to soften up Soldier field for the collegians, starting at 10 a. m. The college game was down to follow immediately.

Falls City—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kaufman and son, Wallace, were in Silverton Sunday to attend the annual home coming of the Christian church. The Kaufmans were former residents of Silverton.
