

BRIDGE PARTIES ARE GIVEN FOR MILL CITY FOLK

Mill City—A number of bridge parties were given here Tuesday evening. Among those was the party given by Mrs. J. W. Kiser, when she entertained at three tables of bridge in her home. The rooms were appropriately decorated with Yuletide decorations. High score honors were awarded to Mrs. Frank Meidl, and Mrs. Frank Aman drew the door prize.

The guests included Mrs. Frank Meidl, Mrs. Frank Aman, Mrs. Harry R. Craig, Mrs. P. N. Smith, Mrs. R. O. Appleby, Mrs. N. G. Mickel, Mrs. G. D. Kiser, Mrs. Henry Salfeld, Mrs. A. A. Klinger, Mrs. P. J. Schwab, Mrs. J. T. Bauman and Mrs. Leo Barr.

Miss Elizabeth Unger was hostess to her bridge club Tuesday evening, in the home of her mother, Mrs. Lena Unger. Miss Georgia Webb received the high score honors, and Miss Ann Ervett received the door prize.

Those present were Miss Georgia Webb, Miss Ann Ervett, Miss Elizabeth Keber, Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, Mrs. Emil Bochsler, Mrs. O. J. Oswald, Mrs. I. A. Bisenius, Mrs. W. A. Worley, Miss Helen Keber, Miss Rose Hanning, Mrs. J. Porrett Savarin, and Miss Irene Butsch.

Mrs. A. J. Butsch entertained her club at two tables of bridge in her home. Mrs. R. T. Bisenius received the trophy for high score, and Mrs. Fred Gooley received the door prize. Mrs. Butsch was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. L. A. Zeis.

Those hidden to the affair included Mrs. R. T. Bisenius, Mrs. Fred Gooley, Mrs. A. J. Pickett, Mrs. J. Wellon, Mrs. John Bigler, Mrs. C. J. Terhaar, Mrs. Ben Trask, and Mrs. Otto Wellman.

THATCH'S ARE HOSTS

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. Thatch were hosts for a family dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thatch and son, Junior, of Brooks. The Jack Thatches recently arrived here from Detroit, Mich., and are making their home in Brooks for the present. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thatch and son, Junior; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kibby, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. George Thatch and son, Harry.

DIXONS ON TRIP
Donald—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dixon, who reside between here and Hubbard, left recently for a visit in California, expecting to stop with relatives in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Joe Smith of Raven is staying at the Dixon home during their absence.

RETURNS TO LIBERTY
Liberty—Mrs. May Shaver, who has been staying with her sister, Mrs. K. Holder, spent the Christmas holidays at the home of her sister, Mrs. Helen Gibbs at Lyons. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Gibbs and her granddaughter, Helen Trask.

Jefferson—W. C. Looney and A. H. Saxton, road contractors, met with an accident recently on their way to Lakeside, where Looney has the contract for road construction work in the Lakeside section of the Roosevelt highway. As they were rounding a curve three miles this side of Cottage Grove, their machine skidded into the bank, then swerved across the pavement into the ditch where it upset. Both men escaped with only slight bruises. The top of the sedan was completely demolished and had to be rebuilt.

MILL CITY ALUMNI HAVE SOCIAL NIGHT

Mill City—Some of the Mill City high school alumni met after the basketball game Tuesday evening at the home of Edward Wachter. The young folks enjoyed an evening of cards, after which refreshments were served to those present: Sylvia Keenan, Mary Hollhouse, Rose Smith, Frank Klein, Cecil Schear, Daniel Olin and Edward Wachter.

MOLALLA PUBLISHER BECOMES SECRETARY

Molalla—Walter R. Taylor has been appointed secretary to W. B. Doyle, manager of the Oregon City canning company. Doyle came here from Pasadena, Calif., two months ago and has since organized and started the cannery. All the machinery is installed and the buildings are nearly completed. Taylor expects to take up his new duties soon after the first of the year. The cannery will can fruits and vegetables during the spring and summer months and chicken, rabbits and other meats available during the winter season.

Until the past two months Taylor was publisher of the Molalla Pioneer.

FALL QUITE PAINFUL
Jefferson—Mrs. Nellie McManus, who lives with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McManus, east of the depot, slipped and fell on an icy walk at her home last week, injuring her leg quite badly. The injury is quite painful causing her to remain in bed most of the time.

Silverton—Donations at the good will store, last week and this week, have been coming in plentifully. Every grocery store in town has sent in groceries and staples of all kinds; an unusually large amount of working clothes, such as socks, underwear, coveralls, jackets, "tin" pants, shirts and rain hats from the Silver Falls Timber company, all new; also new clothing from the Women's Specialty Shoppe.

Mrs. Frank Powell and Mrs. Ed Holden, chairmen of the committee, speak for all members of the committee in thanking the merchants for sending in so many nice and new articles for the store, which are being sent to needy families in different parts of the city.

REUNION IS EVENT

Hazel Green—The Williamson family held a family reunion during the holidays at which time the following families and guests were present as an attractive dinner given by Peter H. Williamson: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burns (Rosalee Williamson), Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koehler (Hilda Williamson), Mr. and Mrs. Will Williamson and sons, Donald and Junior; Mildred and Bertha Williamson, Louis Bartruff and Jack Gerry of Seattle, Wash. On Friday evening the entire group motored to Stayton where they were guests at a dinner given by Mrs. Marie Henderson, daughter of Peter Williamson.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Abbott of Silverton have moved to Woodburn and are occupying the Alquist property at 1305 Hardcastle avenue.

NEED ADDED HELP
Donald—Extra help is now employed in the fire insurance office here to mail notices of the annual meeting of stockholders. Those temporarily employed include Miss Hilda Tauffert, Albert Lenncke, Miss Ann Gearin, Hugh Gearin and Leonard Gearin. The stockholders of the Hop Growers' Fire Relief association will meet January 20 and those of the Farmers' Fire Relief association will meet January 21.

Hammond Bus Line
Plans Extensions
Silverton—The Hammond bus line which already runs between Salem and Mill City will, in conjunction with the stages already running out of Silverton, start a line between Silverton and Salem, beginning Monday morning. There will be two buses direct to Salem, and two a day direct from Salem. Their stopping place will be at The Palm, where the other buses are also stopping.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS PLAN BUSINESS MEET

Mill City—At a special meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America Monday evening, held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, a committee was appointed in charge of the program to be given at the next business meeting to be held the second Monday of the month, January 12. This will be the first of a series of programs to be given at the business meeting.

The program committee in charge will include Mrs. R. O. Appleby, Mrs. Frank Aman, Mrs. Anton Rothelst, Miss Elizabeth Unger, Mrs. Robert Zollner, Mrs. Leo Barr, Mrs. Henry Salfeld, Mrs. Frank Meidl and Mrs. J. A. Kaiser.
