

PROPOSAL FOR GRANGE ORDER LIBERTY HEARD

Liberty—The Liberty Community club met Friday night at the hall with a good attendance.

C. C. Hulet of Albany was present and gave a very interesting talk on the grange with the idea of organizing a grange in this community.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall of Brush College grange also gave an interesting talk.

A special meeting of the Community club was called for January 22. A good program has already been arranged for the special meeting.

Mrs. Ted Gordon again announced her intention of organizing a Junior boys' chorus and the club voted its support, financially and morally.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist of Salem gave several entertaining numbers. A silver tea was held at which $8 was made to be applied on kitchen utensils.

The entertainment committee, headed by Mrs. Ted Gordon, are sending notices to the parents of the children who might be interested in a Junior chorus to meet with them at the community hall Tuesday evening, January 20.

CIRCLE SEATS NEW OFFICERS

Independence—The neighbors of Woodcraft held their installation of officers at their hall with Grand Advisor Edith Parks of Newberg acting as installing officer.

Following the ceremony a social evening was spent after which refreshments were served.

Officers installed were: past guardian, Mrs. Laura Peterson; guardian neighbor, Will Mattison; advisor, Lela Obergson; magician, Olive Byers; clerk, Lulu Mattison; banker, Mildred Pomeroy; attendant, Lilla Kurre; captain of the guards, Lilla Kurre; Edith Campbell, Mae Hanna and Glen Mattison; inner sentinel, Mangle Wastenberg; outer sentinel, Mary Kullander; musician, Althea Dixon; correspondent, Alice Kurre.

SCOTTS MILLS PTA HEARS OF HAWAII

Scotts Mills—The monthly P. T. A. meeting was held Thursday evening at the school building. Opening will be a selection by Dan's orchestra.

The business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Vinnie Heintz, followed by another number by the orchestra.

Dr. McCannell of Silverton gave an interesting and much enjoyed talk on the Hawaiian Islands, mainly of the volcano. He also had photos of much interest which he showed.

LICENSES ISSUED

Albany—Marriage licenses were issued over the week-end and Monday from the county clerk's office to George D. Snodgrass, Corvallis and Beulah Poole, Watleville; Rubie Cook and Bernard Purdy, both of Portland; G. Clark Price, and Nellie D. Fisher, both of Albany and E. C. Pennington and Lyle Leep, both of Corvallis.

CHILDREN ILL

Lincoln—Dolores Merrick, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Merrick, is reported to be slightly improved in the severe cold which attacked her Friday necessitating the call of a physician to relieve her distress. The cold has affected her lungs to some extent and has caused her no little pain in her ears.

Mrs. Thelma Ross of Salem arrived Saturday evening to assist in caring for the baby and also for her little son who also has a cold at the Merrick home.

STREET IMPROVED

Gervais—Front street has been scarified the past week by a county machine. The street had become badly pitted and it was necessary to do this in order that a fine crushed rock may be put on and rolled. The street will be ciled early in the summer.

SOCIETY TO MEET

West Salem—The Women's Missionary society of Ford Memorial church will meet for a business session Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Floyd DeLapp home corner of Gertrude avenue and Third street. A full attendance is desired.

DENNEY RITES HELD

Silo—Mrs. Wilbur Funk of near Silo attended the funeral a few days ago of her uncle A. V. Denney of Beaverton. Mrs. Mary Denney and S. H. Goin, other relatives of the deceased, also attended the funeral.

ATTEND CONFERENCE

Independence—Miss Ruth Wilson, president of the Girls' League; Laurel Busby, editor of the Mariposa News, and Lowell Eddy, president of the student body, were the three representatives from the local high school to the annual high school conference held at the University of Oregon Friday and Saturday of last week. They went by stage to Eugene and returned on Sunday.

West Salem—Miss Ruth Englehorn and Miss Alberta Hobbie have returned from a 10 days' visit in Hoquiam, Wash., where they were guests of Miss Englehorn's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Burright.

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. A. Burnard have been in Portland the past two weeks visiting their grandson, Raymond Vanderbeck and his family.

Marion—Frank Sherwood received a telegram telling of the death of his mother in Ontario, Canada.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY GAY AFFAIR

Silverton—Miss Kathryn Benson was given a surprise party Sunday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Benson of near Silverton, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Among those attending were Esther Lichty, May Coffey, Eloise Schwab, Miss McDermitt, Helen and Kathryn Benson, Bell Moses of Salem, Max Lindholm, Bobby Coffey, Frank Johnson and Delbert Davenport.

AUBURN "CUBS" TO GIVE PLAYS

Auburn—A program which will include two plays, "Rough on Robert" and "Uncertain Silas," and several other numbers, will be given by the "Cubs," Auburn dramatic club, at the Auburn community club Friday evening January 16.

The cast for the play "Rough on Robert" first on the program, includes Mr. Wallace, a play writer, Kenneth Morgan; Jack Hart, a mischievous friend, Duane Griffith; Mrs. Wallace, Veina Armstrong; Mrs. Simpson, president of the Shakespearean Society, Marty Conley; Boy, James McKenney.

Following will be a monologue by Ruth Auferheide, musical number by the "Cubs" chorus, monologue by James McKenney, and the second play, "Uncertain Silas." The cast includes Duane Griffith as Elias Sorghum, a rustic swain; Alice Auferheide as Susan Sweet; Vada Griffith as Ysobel Le Clair, a stylish summer boarder; Lela Faggs as Ma Sweet, Susan's mother.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

DUTCH OPERETTA REHEARSALS START

Dallas—Rehearsals are under way for a Dutch operetta to be given by the high school glee clubs under the direction of Miss Alice McBride.

The performance of the operetta which is entitled "Tulp Time," will take place February 12.

Principals are: Hans, a Dutch apprentice, Adolphus Ballantyne; Aunt Anna, Christina's guardian, Virginia Leitch; Katrina, a village maiden, Doris Newbill; Hendrick Van Coster, Burghmaster of Oesendorf, William Garner; Christina, charming Dutch girl, Melva Robinson; Theophilus McSpindle, an authority on botany, Bill Cadie; Ned Baxter, an American college student, Paul Lortmoe; Dick Warren, a fellow student of Ned's, Paul Forrette.

The cast will be supported by a chorus of 20 girls and 10 boys.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Hopmer—Mr. and Mrs. Julian DeJardin gave a birthday dinner on their little son, Donovan's birthday. The guests were Dolores Buchanan, Pearl ones, Maxine DeJardin, Bruce Jones, Jr., Kenneth Buchanan, and the honor guest, Donovan DeJardin.

DAYTON LODGE CEREMONIAL IS HELD FOR IOOF

Dayton—More than 70 members attended the joint installation of officers of Yamhill lodge No. 20, Independent order of Odd Fellows and Naam! Rebekah order O. B. of Dayton.

Grand Chaplain of Oregon O. H. Brougher and Mrs. Brougher of Salem were present. District deputy grand master, Oscar Dower of Dayton, and his staff of assistants had charge of the work. Included in the staff were: J. O. Williams, grand marshal; Milo Parish, grand warden; Henry Deyoe, grand secretary; L. A. Rossner, grand treasurer; George Hessler, grand chaplain.

The following Odd Fellow officers were installed: Noble Grand, Ronald Rossner; vice grand, Rossner; recording secretary, Orr C. Goodrich; financial secretary, J. O. Williams; treasurer, Milton A. Pedder; warden, E. J. Hartman; conductor, Dave Allen; inner guard, Wilfred Hibbert; outer guard, L. A. Rossner; right side, noble grand, William Crawford; left side, noble grand, Z. Spangle; right scene support, Emmett Filer; chaplain, George Hessler; right side vice grand, Milo Parish, and left side vice grand, D. C. Clark.

The installing officers for the Rebekahs were: Madeline Rossner, district deputy grand president, and her assistants, Wess Rossner, grand marshal; Adelle Park, grand warden; Opal Palmer, grand secretary; Rose Hodge, grand treasurer, and Mary Lorett, grand chaplain.

The following Rebekah officers were installed: Noble grand, Mable Holliday; vice grand, Violet Senn; recording secretary, Madeline Rossner; financial secretary, Veda Wilbur; treasurer, O'Della Miller; warden, Ella Johnson; conductor, Harriet Edwards; inside guard, Nellie Spangle; outside guard, Charley Simler; right side to noble grand, Opal Palmer; left side to noble grand, Adelle Park; right side to vice grand, Wess Rossner; left side to vice grand, Irene Senn, and chaplain, Theodosia Maspena.

Grand Chaplain of Oregon O. H. Brougher of Salem addressed the group on the subject of Odd Fellows lodge and Mrs. Brougher addressed the Rebekahs. Past Noble Grand Miss Virginia Senn was presented with a pin by District Deputy Grand President Madeline Rossner. A social time followed the business session. The refreshment committee served lunch.

GREENHOUSE BURNS; REBUILDING PLANNED

Grand Island—Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the 24x50 foot glass greenhouse on the Jake Tompkins farm at 11 o'clock Sunday forenoon. One hundred bushels of field corn being dried was lost. The loss is partially covered by insurance. Plans are to re-build at once.

AIRLIE FARM HOME BURNS TO GROUND

Airlie—Fire starting from a lamp upset in a pantry destroyed the dwelling on the Frank Laughary place about 6 o'clock Monday night. The place was occupied by the Ralph Dillon family. The baby and other occupants were taken to a safe distance but by the time men working around the place could reach the conflagration it was too late to save any of the effects. It is not known whether the loss is covered by insurance.

WILLARD CLUB WOMEN GUESTS

Waldo Hills—Mrs. W. F. Emery entertained the Willard Women's club Thursday afternoon at her home here. During the afternoon Mrs. Karl Haberly gave a resume of McClaren's "My Crowded Solitude." Mrs. Helen Comstock gave a reading and Mrs. A. A. Geer gave a paper on Australia.

Present during the afternoon were: Mrs. Haberly, Mrs. Comstock, Mrs. L. B. Haberly, Mrs. C. R. Riches, Mrs. Robert Bye, Mrs. E. A. Finlay, Mrs. A. A. Geer, Mrs. Fred Knight, Mrs. Robert Janz, Mrs. P. Neuwanger, Mrs. Adam Hersh, Evelyn Emery and Mrs. Emery.

The next meeting will be held in two weeks at which time Mrs. Neuwanger will be hostess.

COMMUNITY CLINIC HELD GERVAIS HALL

Gervais—A large community clinic was held here Friday when children from the following schools were examined in the annual school eye health clinic: Parkersville, Eldridge, Fairfield, St. Louis, Manning and Gervais.

Dr. Dauver of Salem was the attending physician, with Miss McAlpin the nurse. In the morning Mrs. Sumner Stevens and Mrs. C. W. Cutsforth were local women assisting, while Mrs. James Brehaut and Mrs. George Wadsworth took charge in the afternoon.

SACRED PAGEANT TO BE OFFERED AGAIN

Turner—Miss Mildred Martin of Salem spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents in Turner, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin. She is a stenographer for Leo N. Childs, Salem realtor. In the evening Mrs. Martin and Mildred attended the fourth presentation of the sacred pageant "The Light of the World" at the American Lutheran church in Salem. Next Sunday evening the two final presentations of the pageant will be given. Henry Ahrens of Turner takes the leading role in the beautiful presentation. A number of local people have seen the pageants and others are planning to attend Sunday evening.

ROBERTS MALES GIVE FEMININE STYLE EXHIBIT

Roberts—The community hall was packed to the utmost Saturday evening when the men of the community gave their first program in the contest against the women. Most of the men appeared as women, dressed in styles from "Eve" to the ultra-modern "flapper" of 1940 and judging from the laughter and applause the women will have to "go some" to beat them.

Those participating in the style show were: George Veal, modiste; Ray Higgins, Puritan maid; R. A. Bettencourt, bustle; George Higgins, hoop; Merle Shorey, train; G. Poeger, hobble skirt; Gordon Greenstreet and Lloyd Davenport, modern flappers; Duane Bettencourt, Bennie and Louis Salchenberg, barrel; John Osborne, 1940 ultra-modern flapper; Forest Edwards, "Eve"; between each scene W. C. Pettijohn gave an interesting talk on the different styles.

The Beckett boys sang a duet, which was dedicated to the ladies, and composed by W. C. Pettijohn; burlesque singing contest, B. D. Fidler, professor, Gordon Bowman, his wife; contestants: Wesley Goodrich, Francis Leit, Howard Hennings, Harvey Schubel, Irvin Selby, Floyd Selby, Walter Bowman and George Higgins.

Skit, "No More Women," by S. C. Davenport, George Veal, Marion Shorey, Floyd Bowman, Bob Goodrich, Gordon Greenstreet, Floyd Query and Lloyd Davenport. A play, "Caveman's Courtship," by M. L.

BOYCOTT URGED AGAINST 'OLEO' IN CLUB MEET

Waldo Hills—The Waldo Hills community club met Friday for its regular January meeting. Frank Riches, president of the club presided. Mrs. Karl Haberly, president of the Willard Women's club, announced that the Women's club was sponsoring a pot-luck dinner Tuesday evening for their club and for the Waldo Hills club, the dinner to be held at the community hall.

AMITY BAPTIST ROLL CALL HELD

Amity—The annual roll call of the Baptist church was held Sunday at an all-day meeting beginning with Sunday school at 10 a.m., followed by preaching services at 11 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. L. S. Shumaker presiding. Dinner was served at 1 o'clock in the dining room. At 2:30 o'clock a business meeting was called, beginning with roll call.

Officers elected for the church for the year were: Clerk, Mrs. Katherine Henderson; treasurer, Mrs. Evelyn M. Umphlette; trustees, W. R. Konzelman, J. W. Briedwell and J. M. Umphlette; finance committee, W. J. Briedwell, John L. Lorenson and W. R. Konzelman; pianist, Mrs. Mabel Narver. Officers for the Sunday school: John L. Lorenson, superintendent; Mrs. H. A. Robinson, assistant superintendent; secretary, Miss Evelyn R. Umphlette; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Walling; pianist, Mrs. Mamie Yarnes.

CANNELL LAID UP—Amity—Robert Cannell, senior in Amity high school is suffering from blood poison in his knee. Young Cannell is the son of Rev. P. L. Cannell, pastor of the Methodist church of Amity.

OFFICERS RETAINED BY BANK DIRECTORS

Independence—At the annual meeting of the Farmers State bank of this city. The retiring board of directors was re-elected and the same officers as follows: president, C. A. Irvine; cashier, C. O. Irvine, and assistant cashier, Glen C. Smith. Arthur Ward retains his position as bookkeeper and the board of directors is as follows: C. A. Irvine, C. J. De Armond, O. A. Wells, J. B. Parker, Ed Rex. There was a full attendance at the meeting.

Waldo Hills—The Waldo Hills community club met Friday for its regular January meeting. Frank Riches, president of the club presided. Mrs. Karl Haberly, president of the Willard Women's club, announced that the Women's club was sponsoring a pot-luck dinner Tuesday evening for their club and for the Waldo Hills club, the dinner to be held at the community hall.

Following the dinner the evening will be spent in games.

Mr. Riches announced that the community club would hold an invitational benefit dance at the hall on the evening of January 23. Frank Bower announced that the Silverton chamber of commerce had given him a report on the oleomargarine situation at Silverton. The Waldo Hills community club had a year ago expressed hopes that the Silverton chamber would go on record against further advertising of butter substitutes. Bower said the Silverton chamber had reported that as a whole all of the Silverton stores had complied nicely with this suggestion and had refrained from advertising or prominently displaying the butter substitute. But, he added, one Silverton store had absolutely refused to fall in line and he asked that farmers bear this in mind when trading at Silverton.

Mr. Riches then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Will Krens, chairman of the program committee. The entire program was given by the Benner family of Salem assisted by Dalbert Jepsen, violinist, also of Salem. The first part were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benner, and the Misses Vivian and Helma Benner. The group was received with a great amount of enthusiasm and their offerings highly pleased the audience.

FOUR GENERATIONS GATHER AT FOWLERS

Grand Island—Mrs. J. A. Husk, 74, of Grand Pass, Mrs. M. Braat, Mrs. Fred Finnicum and Donna Lee Finnicum, four months old, were a four generation group at a family dinner Sunday at the Dale Fowler home. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Finnicum and daughter Donna Lee, Mrs. M. Braat and son Arnold and daughter Shirley and Mr. and Mrs. Fowler.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS

Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply; take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING"—that extra, secret process—removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

Watch!... Wait!

for Kafoury's SALE

"THE BIGGEST EVENT IN YEARS"

Starts Thursday

STORE CLOSED ALL DAY WEDNESDAY

To Arrange Stock For This Big Event The Store Will Be Closed All Day WEDNESDAY

EXTRA SALESPeOPLE WANTED APPLY WEDNESDAY

SEE TOMORROW'S PAPER

Kafoury's

255 N. Liberty St. Phone 877