

ASSIGNMENTS IN CLUB WORK ARE GIVEN OUT

Sheridan—Tuesday marked the culmination of the contest for new members in the Civic club with a total of 48 new members announced at the regular monthly meeting of the club held in the city hall.

Mrs. H. G. Funk and Mrs. R. C. Field headed the contesting divisions. Mrs. Funk's class bringing in 28 new members and Mrs. Field's class bringing in 20. The losing class, according to the rules of the contest, will serve a luncheon to the winning class at the next regular meeting in April. The membership now totals 73. New members during January and February were received for 50 cents, half the usual membership fee.

The club voted to hold a fall flower show during chrysanthemum time. They plan to secure the cooperation of local Camp Fire groups, 4-H clubs and Boy Scout troops in the show by interesting the juniors in the cultivation and planting of various lots to flowers that the judging may thus be made on a fair basis. Such an exhibit by the juniors would be held in connection with the cut flower show.

The new president, Mrs. Howard Houser, read her newly appointed committees for the first time. They are as follows: park, Mrs. Howard Houser, Mrs. R. C. Field and Mrs. Floyd Hamstead; city beautiful, Mrs. Lee Ladd, Mrs. Nicol McIntyre and Mrs. Elery Townsend; social, Mrs. R. C. Field, Mrs. Jack Laffan and Mrs. Lloyd Brown; philanthropy, Mrs. Alex Jigoux, Mrs. Tom Shortridge, Jr., and Mrs. H. G. Funk; and auditing, Mrs. H. G. Funk and Mrs. Joe Schriat.

PICNIC IS PLANNED BY CLUB AT TURNER

Turner—The Turner 4-H "Sew and So" club held its regular meeting in the high school domestic science room with the usual business meeting. Marjorie Fowler presided as president in the absence of Margaret Gilstrap. The club work is progressing rapidly under the leadership of Mrs. John R. Cox. Mildred Bones was elected as editor of the 4-H club to report the meetings. The social program was postponed until the next meeting on account of the pending machine demonstration, with two demonstrators from Salem. Souvenirs were presented to the members of the class.

It was unanimously voted by the club members to have a picnic in the near future when weather prevails, with the committee appointed for arrangements, food, and entertainment. A special meeting was called Wednesday afternoon to further complete plans for the anticipated picnic.

NEMO SEWING CLUB MEMBERS GUESTS

Hazel Green—Mrs. Walter Rutherford entertained the members of the Nemo Sewing club at her home Wednesday afternoon. At a short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Louis Wampler, it was decided to extend the club's membership to include all the women in Hazel Green who reside on the eastern side of Pudding river on what is known as Howell Prairie.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting with the Sunshine Sewing club of West Hazel Green and will be held at the Louis Wampler home Wednesday afternoon, March 25.

At the tea hour the hosts were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. LaChelle and Edna Rutherford. Members present included Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, Mrs. Lillian Hines and daughter, Caroline; Mrs. Pearl Woods and son, Ronald; Mrs. Homer Davis and daughter, Doris Lou; Mrs. Mae Tuve and son, Gordon; Mrs. Louis Wampler and daughter, Marian Lou; Mrs. Ada Faust, Mrs. Mildred Kittelson, Mrs. Annie Penny, Mrs. Alice Anderson, Mrs. LaChelle and the hosts, Mrs. Walter Rutherford and son, Gene.

Machine Is Struck

Jefferson—A. L. Miller of Los Angeles, driving a Studebaker sedan, crashed into the rear of a machine driven by H. L. Bruns, a man of Seattle, when the latter stopped suddenly in the center of the pavement without giving a signal, to pick up a pedestrian. Both cars were traveling north. The accident occurred two and a half miles south of Jefferson Tuesday.

Families Have Flu

Hazel Green—A number of families have been suffering with the flu, among them being the Blum Zielinski family. Helen was absent from school a week and Quentin is still ill and unable to attend school. Mrs. Zielinski is recuperating following an unusually severe case of flu. The Louis Wampler family are also improving and Clinton has returned to school. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kittelson were among the victims although both are now much improved. Caroline Hynes, who has also been ill with a severe cold, has improved sufficiently to be around.

Observes Birthday

Valsets—A group of Mrs. Ila Sundstrum's friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Anna Lesko Monday afternoon to celebrate Mrs. Sundstrum's birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent playing cards.

GUESTS AT JOHNSON'S

Ankeny Bottom—Mrs. Johnston and daughter of Iowa who have been visiting in California for the past several months are now visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Johnson, at their country home near here.

Dayton Needle Club Meets at Conn Home

Dayton—Mrs. C. D. Conn entertained the Dayton Needle Club at her home one mile east of Dayton, Wednesday afternoon. Present were Mesdames D. B. Ab-dill, James Bones, Louis Burkhardt, J. P. Dorsey, J. J. Rowley, C. E. Smith, D. A. Snyder, James Wakefield and A. M. Yocum. Betty Lorraine Conn and Betty June Deffenbaugh served at the tea hour. The next meeting will be at the J. P. Dorsey home.

DAYTON GIRL NEARS DEATH

Dayton—Victory Bond, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bond living one mile east of Dayton, is in a serious condition in a McMinnville hospital and may not live as the result of being struck by an automobile driven by James McCree, 25, farm hand on the E. O. Riddle place near Monmouth, late Thursday afternoon.

The little girl was reported unconscious Thursday night with severe head injuries and both legs broken above the knee. It was feared that she might die. Victory had gotten out of the school bus and ran directly in front of the machine driven by McCree, who was driving slowly at the time. Sheriff Manning of Yamhill county, investigated the accident and held the mishap unavoidable.

LANDMARK PASSING FOR LUMBER YARD

Mt. Angel—Another old landmark, known as the farmer's union warehouse, was torn down a few days ago. This old building was erected in the early 80's, where the St. Mary's school now stands, and was used for a first and second grade classroom. After the new school was built, this building was purchased by the farmer's union, and was moved on a lot owned by them, in back of the Service garage. After about 10 years of service to the union, the building was torn down to make room for the new lumber yard, as the property on which it was built, was purchased by Lee Withers, who is erecting an up-to-date lumber yard on that ground.

MRS. GARNER GIVEN PARTY ON BIRTHDAY

Cloverdale—Miss Olga Garner entertained a group of friends Wednesday evening, with a surprise party honoring her mother, Mrs. Mattie Garner on her birthday anniversary at the Garner home in this district. An impromptu program of readings, music and jokes followed by numerous games was the diversion of the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

The guest group included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Peetz, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne and son, Lester; Burgoyne and Larry Barham, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Gunning, Mrs. William S. Burgoyne and daughter Ruth, of Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hadley and sons, Lowell, Norval and Homer Hadley, Alvin Garner, Rachel and Florence Garner, their mother, Mrs. Mattie Garner, the honor guest, and the hosts, Mrs. Olga Garner, all of this district.

Play Cast Guests At Peetz' Place

Turner—Miss Helen Peetz was hostess for a card party Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Peetz for members and friends of the comedy play cast, "Madam De Portment." The room were sprigged with early blossoms, and the guests enjoyed playing "500" for several hours. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served by Miss Peetz. In the group were Miss Mabel Tucker, Miss Gertrude Anderson, Mrs. Stella Miller, Maxwell McKay, Herbert Briggs, Louis Hennes, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Peetz and the hosts, Miss Helen Peetz.

Sodaville Revival Campaign Started

Jefferson—Rev. A. W. Oliver, pastor of the Evangelical church, began a series of revival meetings at Sodaville Wednesday evening. Rev. C. P. Gates, district superintendent, will assist in the meetings. Owing to the inability of Rev. Gates to attend the beginning of the meetings, Rev. F. W. Lamer, pastor of the Albany Evangelical church, will assist for the first three or four evenings.

Stanton—Miss Lola Howard of Albany, B. C. Branson and W. E. Burgess of Corvallis were dinner guests of Miss Thelma Zoph Thursday evening at her home in the Jones apartments.

HOLLYWOOD HOME OF 25c TALKIES

TODAY AND SATURDAY
Special Mickey Mouse Matinee Saturday 1:30 P. M.
Special: All Children Playing Musical Instruments be at the Hollywood Saturday 12:30 P. M.

Let's Go Native
JACK OAKIE
JEANETTE McDONALD
A Paramount Picture

Also Serial, "The Indians are Coming"
Fables Comedy and News and Mickey Mouse

"ALOHA" COMING SUNDAY

SHERIDAN STAR CHAPTER HOSTS FOR VISITORS

Sheridan—Sheridan chapter No. 88, Order of the Eastern Star, was host to Knowles assembly No. 11, Order of Rainbow for Girls of McMinnville, and to Sheridan Lodge No. 64, A. F. and A. M., at the former group's regular meeting at the Masonic temple Tuesday evening.

This was the most outstanding event of the year thus far, with over 125 present to witness the impressive initiation service of the Rainbow girls. A large number of those present had never witnessed the ritualistic work of the Rainbow order.

The Eastern Star turned over the chapter room to the visiting assembly at 8:30 o'clock at which time the girls dispatched all necessary arrangements in the hall. Miss Frances Hoffman, worthy advisor, presided during the conferring of degrees. Miss Margaret Reinhold of McMinnville, was initiated. Mrs. Mollie Spooner is mother advisor of the club. The lighting effects were in charge of Dr. Hoffman.

At the close of the assembly Mrs. George Canady, worthy patron, and C. M. Howard, worthy patron of the chapter, and R. I. Merrifield, worshipful master of Sheridan A. F. and A. M., addressed the audience and thanked the girls for the privilege of witnessing the impressive work.

An informal social hour followed with a catered lunch served in the dining hall. Those assisting during the evening in the dining hall and in receiving the guests were Mrs. R. C. Field, Mrs. Robert Eldridge, Mrs. Ed J. Bayless, Mrs. Otto W. Heider, Mrs. Linn Jones, Mrs. Herman Wilson, Mrs. Allison Fry and the worthy matron, Mrs. George Canady.

INTERMEDIATES OF CHURCH HOLD MEET

West Salem—The Intermediate Epworth League of Ford Memorial church held a social in the community hall recently. Games were played for a time, following which the young men paid nominal sums for boxes of refreshments brought by the young women.

Those present were Misses Velma Kelso, Naomi Alsop, Reba Clark, Mable Radkey, Bertha Stevens, Doris Baker, Elsie Grose, Evelyn Boles and Norman Burgoyne, Harvey and Raymond Griffin, Robert Langhuff, Marvin Kelso, Sylvester Garrison, John Ferguson, Ed Maerz, Bob Armstrong, Alvin Richardson, Mrs. W. G. C. Larkin, Mrs. A. C. Henningsen and Rev. Groves.

WILD CAT SCHOOL TEACHER INJURED

Molalla—Miss Clara Bagby, teacher of the Wild Cat school had her nose broken in two places Friday. She was out on the school grounds playing baseball with the pupils when the accident occurred. She was pitching and one of the boys batted the ball and it struck her in the face, cutting the skin on her nose and breaking it in two places. She drove her car several miles to the Charles Clester home where she boarded, and they took her to Oregon City for medical aid.

George Frary who broke the index finger on his left hand and a bone in the hand several days ago, is improving. He was cutting wood for Chris Dapple and was holding a wedge in one hand and as he went to hit the wood with the wedge, it slipped, hitting his hand.

Cards Are Played At Thomas' Home

Valsets—Mrs. H. P. Thomas entertained a two-table bridge party Tuesday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Groul, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Raymond, Mrs. B. G. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raymond. The high score for the women was won by Mrs. Walter Raymond and Walter Raymond won high score for the men.

Sewing Club Meets

Valsets—The Wednesday afternoon sewing club met with Mrs. L. E. Moly at his week. The following were present: Mrs. Bert Babb, Mrs. Margaret Boak, Mrs. H. P. Thomas, Mrs. D. A. Groul, Mrs. M. E. Raymond and Mrs. Walter Raymond.

SHIP MILK COWS

Molalla—Emmett brothers have bought another car load of milk cows to be shipped to Gazelle, Siskiyou county, Calif. They purchased a load and shipped them last spring also.

Bridge Crew Back On Valley Project

Molalla—The bridge crew of the Willamette Valley Southern railway are back at work after a lay-off since last August. Al Grandquist is again in charge of the crew and they will repair and build bridges between Molalla and Oregon City, along the route. The crew at work includes Chester Grandquist, Norman Grandquist, Roy Schatzman, Otto Looney, John Looney and Arthur Lantz.

TURNER HEARS BOOSTER SONG AT CLUB MEET

Turner—The March meeting of the Turner Community club was held in the Turner high school auditorium with the building packed to capacity with several hundred people in attendance. Community singing led by Mrs. Jean Peetz, with Mrs. Mae Hadley as pianist, opened the program, at which time the "Turner Booster Song", composed by Mrs. Mae Hadley, was introduced and sung by the audience. A short business meeting followed with the president, C. A. Bear presiding.

The special committee appointed at the February meeting did not have their report completed, and will report in April. The high school girls club opera for March 27 was announced, and is entitled "Paul Revere" with costumes of the Revolutionary times. The program chairman, Mrs. Stanley A. Riches, announced the program numbers. Mrs. Mae Hadley, music instructor in Turner high school played an instrumental selection.

The main feature for the evening was the presentation of the county playlet entitled "Madam De Portment" with Kenneth Hickok introducing the members of the cast: Madam De Portment, the prim old spinster of bygone days who conducted a private boarding school for young women, portrayed by Mabel Tucker. The students were Gertrude Smiles, Helen Peetz, May Krisky, Mrs. J. R. Cox, Jenny Slow, Herbert Briggs, Mabel Proles and Maxwell McKay. The latter two boys were dressed as young women. Gertrude Anderson took the part of Bridget, the maid.

The April meeting of the community club promises an entertaining lecture with other special numbers on the program, under the direction of Mrs. Stanley A. Riches.

CLUB ORGANIZATIONS MAY EXPECT CALLERS

Dallas—Four "H" club work in the girls' division will receive a decided impetus next month when Miss Augusta L. Wienken, who has charge of the sewing, cooking and canning in club work plans to visit all organizations in Polk county. Arrangements have been completed to have Miss Wienken come here on April 13, 14, 15 and 16. County School Superintendent Josiah Willis is arranging a schedule whereby all clubs, 36 in all, at the present time will have the opportunity to hear Miss Wienken speak.

Farewell Surprise Given Mrs. Emmet

Valsets—A surprise and farewell party was given Mrs. Anna Emmet Tuesday afternoon by a group of friends at the home of Mrs. Emerson Murphy.

Those present were Mrs. Orin Marquis, Jess Kersten, Harold Bullis, Curley Bullis and Henry Klussen. Mrs. Emmet and little daughter left Wednesday morning for a week's visit with her brother, William Yedd of Portland, after which she is going to her parents at Tono, Wash., to make an extended visit.

MRS. CAMPION BACK

Molalla—Mrs. Floyd Campion returned Tuesday from York, Neb., where she was called three weeks ago by the sudden illness and death of her mother.

Now NEW —the star-studded romance from the great Broadway hit!

with
Lawrence TIBBETT
Grace MOORE and
UNIVERSAL NEWS
CHARLIE CHASE
IN
"LOOSER THAN LOOSE"

WARNER BROS. ELSINORE

CHILD WELFARE TALKS OFFERED RICKREALL AID

Rickreall—A feature which opened a regular meeting of the ladies' aid society Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. P. Lowry, was a radio talk over KOIN by Mrs. Louise Palmer Webber.

The talk was given especially for the local society and for the aid society of Rainier. Mrs. Webber's theme was taken from the hymn, "Wonderful Words of Life." Chester Gaylord and Ina Harrison Hood furnished the music.

After a short business session, Miss Marion Bowen of Portland explained the work of the state child welfare commission of which she is a member, and told of the bills sponsored by the commission and presented to the legislature. Three of these bills, said Miss Bowen, were passed but several were withdrawn on account of opposition.

Mrs. C. N. Bilyeu of Dallas, president of the women's clubs, spoke briefly on health survey and told interesting bits about her recent trip to Washington, D. C., where she attended national meetings of the general federation.

Plans were discussed for a church benefit, sponsored by the woman's missionary society and the aid society, which will be held at the grand hall on the evening of March 28. Committees were announced as follows: cooked food, Mrs. Thomas Burch, Mrs. E. A. Hamilton, Mrs. C. P. Lowry, Mrs. N. S. Burch and Mrs. Charles Larkin; candy, Miss Caroline Burch, Mrs. George Fuller, Mrs. V. A. Fox; plant and built committee, Mrs. W. C. Hill, Mrs. E. A. Stenson, Mrs. George Walt; refreshment, Mrs. J. O. Price, Mrs. Warren Burch, Mrs. I. A. Dempsey; program, Mrs. E. A. Stenson, Mrs. H. A. Dempsey and Mrs. P. W. Bell.

The St. Patrick motif was carried out in the decorations and in the refreshments which were served to 25 women, by the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Charles Campbell and Mrs. Warren Burch.

Special guests were Mrs. Bilyeu, Miss Bowen, Mrs. Eugene Silke, Mrs. Will Middleton, Mrs. W. A. Sweet, Mrs. Sam Lowry, Miss Catherine McEwen and Miss Caroline Burch.

MRS. BROOKS HOME
Turner—Mrs. Jack Brooks and baby son, Robert Marion, returned to their country home east of Turner Thursday morning after two weeks at the Lee Barber home where the baby was born. Mrs. L. Verne Kirkpatrick, graduate nurse, and a sister of Mrs. Lee Barber, took care of Mrs. Brooks and baby. This is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and the mother was assisted by Mrs. Frankie Porter, Mrs. Malinda Chambers of Turner is the great grandmother of small Robert Marion.

NASH

You can now buy Nash quality for the lowest terms
In Nash history

In a great number of instances—where the re-sale value of their used car equals or exceeds the down-payment—many families find that without paying a single cent in cash, they may now drive a new Nash. They simply trade in their present car as the first and principal payment.

The desirability of buying a new Nash now, when prices have reached the lowest levels in Nash history, is plainly apparent.

Our extremely low delivered prices emphasize the investment value of the Nash car—while the cars themselves present overwhelming proof, in feature after feature, that they are the highest quality Nash has ever produced and the soundest investments in their respective fields.

Come in—inspect the new Nash cars—and go for a test drive. Then learn how little money you can own a new Nash.

(A NEW DEAL FOR)
TODAY'S DOLLAR
Delivered Prices—Cars Fully Equipped
—Nothing More to Buy!

Six-60 4-Door Sedan 6-cyl., 114½" Wheelbase $1056 Delivered	Eight-77 4-Door Sedan 8-cyl., 116¾" Wheelbase $1178 Delivered
Eight-80 4-Door Sedan 8-cyl., 121" Wheelbase $1548 Delivered	Eight-90 4-Door Sedan 8-cyl., 124" Wheelbase $1880 Delivered

Hugh & Maden Inc.
365 N. Com'l. Tel. 1260

Reception Given By Honor Society

Monmouth—Staff and Key, honorary club of Oregon Normal school girls, held an informal tea this week in compliment to their five new members. A reception and initiation was also given for them at the home of Miss Jean Hagmeyer.

The new members, who were chosen for outstanding ability in leadership, scholarship, cooperation, friendship and character, included the Misses Julia Bennett, Winnabeth McDowell, Arlene Estelle, Kristine Kallander, and Junita Bishop.

GUILD ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Hazel Green—The Lella Luckey chapter of the Otterbigen guild, young girls' section of the local Woman's Missionary association, held a business meeting recently at which time officers were elected for the coming year.

Officers elected were: President, Lella Luckey; vice president, Hazel Cook; secretary, Alice Cook; treasurer, Nora Rutherford; love offering secretary, Lucille Dunnigan; stewardess, Belle Hufford; literature secretary and reading committee manager, Emogene Wood; and collectors, Hazel Hufford and June Dunnigan.

New members voted into the society were Edna Rutherford and Lucille Woods. Delegates selected to attend the Woman's Missionary society's branch convention were Lella Luckey, Helen Davis and Nora Rutherford. Alternates to substitute in case regular delegates cannot attend were Hazel Cook, Belle Hufford and Emogene Woods.

In a reading contest recently conducted by the guild's patroness, Mrs. Margery Looney, Captain Hazel Cook and her aides won with all books finished but one. The guild members are planning a program for the mothers and daughters' banquet, which will be given sometime in the near future, the exact date to be announced later.

MENS' COUNCIL AT WEST SALEM BUSY

West Salem—The Men's Council had a potluck supper in the church Monday night, followed by a business session and social time. Among the items of business transacted was the appointing of committees to arrange for a meeting on the second Monday night of April.

Program committee: Erwin Simons, Felix Wright and T. J. Miller; refreshment committee, Waldo Baker, Lester DeLapp and Lyle Thomas.

The council also voted to be responsible for the Sunday morning service the first Sunday of each month.

JUNIOR PUPILS GIVE OPERETTA EARLY IN WEEK

Independence—"The Tea House of Sing Lo," a junior high operetta in two acts will be presented at the training school auditorium Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Florence Hutchison with accompaniment, Miss Helen Elbert; dances, Miss Hazel Kirk; costumes, Miss Lella Howe and Mrs. Mona Sheldon; publicity, Miss Henrietta Wolfer; stage, Mrs. W. T. House; curtain, Magnus Syverson; electrician, Warren Newton; scenery, Max Gilliam.

Leading characters and their understudies are: Ah Mee, older daughter of Sing Lo, Muriel Cooper, Hazel Crowley; So H, younger daughter of Sing Lo, Margaret Brown, Joyce Johnson; No Fan, a Chinese man of all work, Millen DeForest, Eddie Pomeroy; Sing Lo, proprietor of Tea House, Clifford Osborne, Everett Soden; J. Mortimer Maxwell, a business man from the states, Louis Robinson, Marcus Crowley; Mrs. Maxwell, his wife, Aldoris Gredline, Joan Dickson; June, their daughter, Joy Herahberger, Virgil Becken; Bert McKee, a smart young American salesman, Marlow Butler, Tom McLaughlin; Hon. Alexander Appletree, the new American consul, Lovell Yung, Edwin Stryker.

Chorus of dancers, Eddie Pomeroy, Frances Knott, Paul Zumwalt, Evelyn Gibson, Everett Soden, Joan Dickson, Elmer Rash, Hazel Crowley, Tom McLaughlin, Joyce Johnson, Virgil Keller, Fannie Bartlett.

No Fan chorus, Ronald Busby, Ray Dunlop, Leonard Powell, Jack Fox, Herbert Kurze, Charles Mattson, Audrain Adams and Charles Jones.

Main chorus Audrey Adams, Lena

Friday—
Saturday

Buck JONES
in "DESERT Vengeance"
With BARBARA BEDFORD
A Columbia Picture

ALSO
25c COMEDY
Anytime CARTOON
NEWS

GRAND THEATRE

WARNER BROS. EL SINORE

COMING SUNDAY
The One and Only

GRETA GARBO in INSPIRATION
Heavenly Creatures ALL TALKING

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Hurry! Hurry!!
ENDS SATURDAY!

ACTION, ROMANCE
AND THRILLS
GALORE!

WOMAN HUNGRY

Look Who's Coming to Our House
SUNDAY!

MARIE DRESSLER
POLLY MORAN "REDUCING"