FORMAL SPRING OPENING SLATED FOR SILVERTON

Silverton—At the regular monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce held in the basement of the Methodist church Wednesday evening, Robert Duncan reported that everything was all set for the local spring opening to be held here on Friday and Saturday of next week.

Friday evening there is to be a dance on Main street, Saturday eveband concert, auto show and a free band concert. In case of inclement ning there will be open house with a weather, the band concert and dance will be held in the armory.

The names of the business houses who, so far, have signed to not keep open on pay day evening are Ames Hardware, Starr Hardware, Legard & Adams, C. J. Breier, J. C. Penney, Women's Specialty shop, Nettie Smith Needlecraft shop, and Milady's shop. It was stated that there are others who may sign. The grocery stores, it was stated, were intending to keep their stores open.

The committee on the grange convention reported that the meeting place for this year had already been placed but that the committee was working hard to get the convention for 1932 to be held here. It is supposed that there will be about 1,500 delegates at this convention which is held for a week.

The membership committee reported that they were making progress and Mr. and Mrs. Rose were introduced as new members. Mrs. Rose is manager of the new Portland General Electric store on Main street.

Dr. P. A. Loar reported on the roads committee that they had interviewed the county court, who had promised that the road to the falls would soon be completed.

The committee also requested the court to eliminate three bad short corners near the half-way house on the Silverton-Salem highway and three on the Waldo Hills road near the Evergreen school house. This committee also stated to the court that the Silverton-Woodburn road was in material need of having some work done.

Visitors at the meeting were Mrs. George Benson, president of the Silverton Hills community club, Jim Bonner; John Reinhardt, Charles Alexander, George Benson and Mrs. Edith Beugli, all members of the Hills' club.

SCIO WELL DRILLER IS MAKING PROGRESS

Scio—A depth of approximately 50 feet has been attained in the drilling operations at the city water plant and good progress has attended the operations from the beginning last Friday. The formation has been mostly sand and gravel, with water flowing into the hole most of the time. Bailing is necessary from time to time. Work was begun with a 12-inch hole, which will be reduced as depth is attained. The contract calls for a minimum of 100 feet, at the option of the city. The driller, Mr. Strasser of Portland, states he has no idea of the depth or time that will be required to complete the contract.

Ladies' Aid Plans Monthly Silver Tea

Turner—The Ladies' Aid society of the Turner Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of the president, Mrs. I. H. Small Thursday afternoon for the regular business meeting. Various subjects of interest to the society were discussed and a report was made by Mrs. John R. Cox, chairman for the paper drive to be staged in the near future. It was not definitely decided where the April meeting of the silver tea would be held. Members present for the afternoon were Mrs. R. O. Witzel, Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. John R. Cox, Mrs. J. W. Ransom, Mrs. P. C. Gunning, Mrs. T. T. Palmer and Mrs. I. H. Small. The devotionals were led by Mrs. Gunning, followed by the short business session.

Birthday Observed

West Salem—Mrs. Robert Pattison entertained at a surprise dinner party honoring her sister, Miss Thilda Johanson on her birthday. Covers were laid for Miss Thilda Johanson, Miss Dorotha Manning, Miss Lois Manning and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pattison.

Past Matrons Meet

Silverton—The Past Matrons' club of the Eastern Star met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Nicol on South Water street Wednesday afternoon with a very good attendance and Mrs. William Towne, president in the chair. The secretary, Mrs. George Hubbs, is in San Francisco visiting her two sons, Max and Ronald. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Syring on Park street.

Rehearsals Starting

Jefferson—Rehearsals for "The Singing School", a farce in two acts, under the direction of Mrs. J. O. VanWinkle, will begin soon. This entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Jefferson library and the date will be announced later.

DWELLING IS RENTED

Jefferson—The residence of Mrs. Lydia Hoyt on Third street recently vacated by the Stroud family, has been rented by Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Chapman and son Merle of Marion.

ARRIVES FOR SUMMER

Silverton—Sheldon Cunningham, who has been with his father, W. L. Cunningham in Portland, since last fall, has come to Silverton and expects to stay with his mother, Mrs. Jean Cunningham, and his grandmother, Mrs. M. Cooley, for the summer.

West Salem—The Frank Lambs have bought the Huston house on Second Street and will occupy it about the first of the month.

Starrets Leave Mt. View School

Kingwood —The Mountain View school board has elected the Misses Eleanor and Georgianna Briggs, sisters, from Hermiston, to teach in the two rooms of the school for the next school year. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Starrett have taught here for several years, and Mrs. Starret has secured a school elsewhere, and Starret will take a year's vacation because of poor health.

CASEYS GREET LARGE CLASS

Sublimity—Before a crowded meeting hall the Sublimity St. Boniface Court, degree team of the Catholic order of Foresters, initiated a class of 20 members into the second and third degree of the order for the Sublimity, Stayton and Salem court.

This local degree team, under the leadership of the state secretary of the order, Edward J. Bell, assisted by L. M. Doerfler and A. J. Larsen have the past two years been conferring these degrees upon various members throughout the state. George Susbauer, chief ranger of the local lodge carries the major work in the degree.

John Deschner, state chief ranger for Oregon, was present at the meeting and in his usual manner filled the capacity of state chief ranger to a credit to the office. A member from Chicago also visited the meeting and gave an address.

BOOK AND THIMBLE CLUB ENTERTAINED

Kingwood—The matrons of the Book and Thimble club met with Mrs. Roy Ferguson of the Kingwood Heights road for an all day meeting Thursday. Mrs. Elmer D. Cook, who attended the meeting of the Polk county federation of rural women's clubs held recently at Brush College, gave an account of that meeting.

Mrs. Avery L. Applewhite was received into membership in the club.

The quilt was completed and it was decided to have a program for next time. Mrs. A. J. Kreuger will be hostess and Mrs. D. A. Williams and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite are named on the program committee. Following luncheon Mrs. Roy Ferguson gave some piano numbers.

Those present were Mesdames Roy Lacey, Hettie Simpkins, Charles Adams, Mary Beaver, A. J. Kreuger, D. A. Williams, L. F. Brown, Elmer Cook, Conrad Fox, Jr., and daughter, Beverley Rosella, Avery Applewhite, Charles Hathaway and Roy Ferguson, members, and Mrs. B. Ferguson, a guest from Eola.

CIRCLES ARE GUEST AT SHERIDAN HOME

Sheridan— Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman Wilson, Circle No. 1 of the Methodist church entertained Circles No. 2, 3 and 4 and other women of the church at a St. Patrick's day party.

All entertainment prepared by the committee consisting of Mrs. Murch Russell, Mrs. R. A. Power and Mrs. Herman Wilson, was entered into heartily and the St. Patrick's games proved most interesting.

During the lunch hour which followed late in the afternoon, Mrs. R. A. Power and Mrs. Ed Brigham, presided at the tea table. The refreshments, which were in charge of Mrs. Ella Farmer, Mrs. Ernest Dilley and Mrs. Linn Jones, carried out the St. Patrick motif.

Guests from out-of-town were Mrs. Fred Sackett and Mrs. R. O. Pray of McMinnville.

Extensive Jaunt Planned by Brown

Falls City—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Brown left Wednesday morning on a trip through California, Arizona, Texas, and on through the middle states. They plan to be gone for several months. Mrs. Brown has been quite ill with rheumatism for several weeks and it is hoped the trip will benefit her. Brown has a very compact traveling house on a trailer, weighing 745 pounds and is a strictly modern home on wheels. The bed is built across the end and built-in cupboards, tables, as well as a kitchenette and electric lights, and an electric grill. They are traveling in a Chevrolet coupe and the trailer is painted to match.

Knight Is Advanced

Hubbard—After ten years of service as the representative of the Crown Flouring mills in the southern part of the state, George Knight has been advanced to the east territory. This is more desirable as it permits him to be home every week end instead of every two or three weeks as he has been doing. His work on the new route began Monday. The territory now covered starts at Hood River and from there on to Pendleton.

TWO ARE INJURED

Kingwood — Mrs. J. P. Riffey of Kingwood Heights road fell and broke her arm last week. Sam Chapman of the Orchard Heights road cut his hand seriously a few days ago while chopping wood at his home, necessitating the taking of several stitches in the palm.

OFFICE IS OPENED

West Salem—Mrs. Florence Larkin has opened an insurance and real estate office at 1186 Edgewater street. The Larkin family who lived for a time on Kingwood Heights are now located at 176 Gerth Avenue.

STENSONS HAVE SON

Waconda—Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Stenson are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby boy weighing 6½ pounds. The little fellow has been named Jerry Duane. Mrs. Stenson and tiny son have been moved to their home from the Bungalow hospital at Salem.

DICK ROCKHILL WINS CONTEST; GETS FINE CALF

Dayton—Dick Rockhill of the Dayton high school, speaking on "Why I Choose to Become a Farmer", took first place among other schools of the Willamette valley district in a public speaking contest held at the opera house in Dayton Thursday evening. The attendance was estimated at 300 people.

The contest was held in connection with the Smith-Hughes future farmers of America department of the schools and included in the group were Corvallis, McMinnville, Newberg, Woodburn, Amity, Dayton, Lebanon, Silverton and Cloverdale.

The trophy won by Rockhill is a heifer calf from a 400 pound Jersey, butterfat-per year, given jointly by the Dayton business men's association and Lynn Gubser and is from Lynn Gubser's high producing herd.

A double quartet from the agricultural class of the Dayton high school, Melvin Blanchard, Tom Little, Floyd Lyman, Millard Magness, Clair Palmer, Jake Tompkins, Ray Wirfs and Earl Younce of Dayton hihg school rendered several selections. A harmonica trio, Floyd Lyman, Dick Rockhill and Ray Wirfs of Dayton school, also played and Edward Clow gave a harmonica solo.

Dick Rockhill is carrying a Duroc Jersey hog project and also a corn and melon project and he received the unanimous decision of the judges who were Arthur Farmer, a member of the Portland chamber of commerce; W. T. Stanton, regional agent of vocational education from Washington, D. C., and Glenn Weaver of Gresham, who acted as judge in place of Eugene Courtney of Woodburn, who is ill.

Rockhill will take part in the college week end contest to be held in Corvallis the last week in April.

RAG SEWING BEE FOR HAZEL GREEN

Hazel Green—Mrs. Guy Looney entertained the Woman's Missionary society at all-day session which was devoted to an old-fashioned rag sewing bee. The results of the day's work will be collected and woven into rugs for the local church.

The men of the community devoted the day to wood-cutting, the proceeds to go to the local church. Guy Looney donated the trees and Ben Clemens the woodsaw.

The women served a pot-luck dinner at noon to Rev. Samuel Long, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Van Cleave, Mr. and Mrs. John Lehrman, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Luckey, Mrs. Louis Wampler, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Clemens, Mrs. Tom Van Cleave, Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave and son Daryl, Mrs. Anna Albin, Mrs. Anna Hammer, Mrs. Frank Hufford and daughter Hazel, Mrs. Thrond Slottum, Miss Marion Wampler, Mrs. Adelia Cook, Miss Edna Luckey and Miss Frances Ricketts.

Power Wringer Is Cause of Injury

Scotts Mills—The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brosig was badly hurt recently when she got her hand in the wringer of a power washer. She was rushed to a doctor and after an examination it was found that no bones were broken.

Catholic Mission At St. Paul To Close

St. Paul—The mission conducted in St. Paul's Catholic church, under auspices of Jesuit missionary, Rev. Father Patrick J. O'Reilly, will complete the last day of its week's duration Sunday afternoon with a service at 3 o'clock. On the same Sunday confirmation classes will receive the sacrament which is to be given by Archbishop Howard of the the diocese of Portland and Oregon.

Ickes Is Retained

Falls City— Dale J. Ickes, city school superintendent, has been reelected by the school board for another year. As yet there have been no other teachers selected.

Program Is Sunday

Lafayette—A program will be presented by the women's missionary society Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Evangelical church. There will be special music and two special dramatic numbers, "On the Yon Side of Little Pine" and "Opening the Mite-Boxes".

Lodge Plans Dance

Silverton—At the regular meeting of the Modern Woodmen lodge Wednesday evening, it was planned to hold an April Fool's dance at their hall on Saturday evening, April 4, with the Arthur Canoy orchestra furnishing the music. Part of the proceeds of this affair will be given to the cemetery clean-up fund.

ACREAGE IS INCREASED

Kingwood — Considerable acreage is being planted to potatoes this spring, and the strawberry acreage is being increased in this neighborhood also.

There already are many berries and small fruits out on the small places in Kingwood.

MRS. COMPTON LEAVING

Scio—Mrs. A. L. Compton, sister of F. T. Thayer of Scio, expects to leave soon on her return to Ponoka, Alberta, Canada, after visiting relatives and friends in the States for several months.

COX SMASHES FOOT

Valsetz—Roy Cox received a smashed foot while at work at the mill here Tuesday. He will be unable to work for sometime.

END SCIO VISIT

Scio—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schroeder of Tacoma, Wash., have gone to California for a visit, after stopping briefly with the Mylo Bartu family here. The Bartus will defer their trip to California for a time.

Jefferson Society Busy with Quilts

Jefferson—The aid society of the Christian church held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Jasper Main Wednesday. The time was spent in quilting and making quilt blocks. At noon a basket dinner was served.

Those present were Mrs. W. O. McCaw, Mrs. Guy Aupperle, Mrs. B. S. Richardson, Mrs. W. W. Warner, Mrs. C. C. Hart, Mrs. Robert Terhune, Mrs. Frank Weddle, Mrs. C. S. Calkins, Mrs. John Calahan, Mrs. Hugh Bilyeu and Mrs. Jasper Main.

LEGION WOMEN DIRECT 'RAID'

Dallas—The American Legion reinforced by its auxilalry unit advanced in mass formation on the headquarters of an old comrade, Waldo Finn, Thursday evening to insure that his new home near McCoy had a good house warming. The party, some 65 strong, left Dallas about 7:30 o'clock.

The "raid" was a surprise attack and was a great success. As a token of respect and appreciation the gang presented Comrad and Mrs. Finn with a set of fire irons to adorn his new fireplace. The evening was spent in singing, dancing and playing games.

Refreshments were served at a late hour after which the signal to retire was given.

District commander, Jack Eakin, made the presentation while Comrade Stafrin acted as O. C. attack.

FEDERATED CHURCH TO OBSERVE EVENT

Hubbard—Palm Sunday will be observed in the Federated church with a special service according to Glenn C. Hartong, pastor. The service will include the receiving of candidates and also baptismal services. The morning's preaching topic will be "The Night Tollers."

Easter Sunday will also see special services when the Rural Dell choir under the direction of Edwin Eyman will sing the Easter cantata. The chorus consists of mixed voices of approximately 25 singers, most of them of the country district toward Molalla. The group has sung for a number of years and their presentations of cantatas and other types of music have proven most popular as large gatherings usually attend wherever they sing.

SEWING CLASS HAS MEETING AT GRANGE

Molalla —The sewing classes of Molalla met at the grange hall recently with Miss Thelma Gaylord, home demonstration agent for Clackamas county. The women continued their work on house dresses which was taken up at the previous meeting. They also discussed new models and patterns.

Those present were Mrs. E. G. Miller, Mrs. Hazel Shaver, Mrs. Lew Wallace, Miss Edith Sawtell, Mrs. John Frick, Mrs. Mattie Jones, Mrs. Belle Trimble, Mrs. Clyde Fluke, Mrs. Georgia Parks, Mrs. Lettie Courter, Mrs. Selma Staats, Mrs. Lula Fletcher, Mrs. Orla Buxton, Mrs. Vera Buxton and Miss Gaylord.

The next meeting of the classes will be held at the grange hall Tuesday, March 31.

Loyal Women Meet At Havernick home

Waldo Hills—Mrs. William Havernick was hostess Tuesday afternoon to members of her Sunday school class, the Loyal Women. Twenty members were present with Mrs. Clarence Sebo and Mrs. O. K. Sebo of Salem and Mrs. Benson of the Silverton Hils district as special guests. During the afternoon Mrs. W. O. Livingstone of the first Christian church at Silverton sang a solo. Group singing was also enjoyed.

Minton Is Honored

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Van Cleave entertained recently with an informal dinner complimenting Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Minton. Rev. Minton is serving as supply minister in the Santiam district as well as in Salem. Covers were placed for the honor guests Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Minton and children, Elverta, Gerald and Donabe, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave and children, Marvin, Geneva and Daryl and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Van Cleave.

Observes Birthday

Scotts Mills—A birthday anniversary dinner was recently held at the A. W. Albright home honoring their daughter, Mrs. Chet Leichty of North Howell. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Leichty, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Asboe and son Ronald, Kreta Albright and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Albright.

RENT OSBORNE PLACE

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sturgiss have rented the Mrs. L. R. Osborne house on Edgewater street, where they are now located. Sturgiss is connected with the Willamette Grocery Co in Salem. Mrs. Sturgiss is Dr. Carolyn Sturgiss who has a dentist's office in the residence, a part of which has been remodeled for that purpose.

DR. CHAN LAM
Branch Office
Chinese Medicine Co. in Salem

Scientifically prepared natural remedies for ailments of stomach, liver, blood, skin, nerves, kidneys, and urinary bladder of men and women. Remedies for rheumatism and bronchitis with chronic coughing.

Office hours Tuesday and Saturday 2:00 to 5:30 P. M.
180 N. Commercial St.—Salem
Room 25

MONTHLY SILVER TEA IS OFFERED BY TURNER CLUB

Turner—The missionary society of the Christian church held its silver tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., with Mrs. Anna Johnson assistant hostess. Forty guests were in attendance. Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap read the scripture lesson and Mrs. H. S. Bond offered prayer. Mrs. Gilstrap presided during the business meeting and reports were made by the various committees.

Mrs. G. W. Farris, the flower mission superintendent took the report of 31 calls and 12 bouquets for the month. A plant will be sent to Mrs. William Anderson, a member of the society who is ill in the Lebanon hospital. It was voted for the members to conduct the evening services one Sunday evening following Easter, and Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead and Mrs. G. A. McKay, the program committee will decide on the program or playlet to be offered. Self denial week will be observed previous to Easter and a special meeting called to present the saving for charity, and foreign missions.

Mrs. Jay Cook led the mission study, the subject being, "Jew Missions in New York," and was the third stop on the trip around the world. Roll call was responded to with Bible quotations. Mrs. G. A. McKay and Mrs. Alfred A. Dumbeck read articles. Short readings were given by Mrs. Anna Smith, Harris, Mrs. George Brower and Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. Susan Girardin read, "Why the Jews?" The concluding number was by a quartet composed of Anna Johnson, Helen Witzel, Josephine Gilstrap and Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. S. Bond in April. Refreshments were served following the program.

Members and friends in the group were Mrs. W. J. Harris, Mrs. Roy Gore, Mrs. Anna Smith, Mrs. Alfred A. Dumbeck, Mrs. I. E. Putnam, Mrs. G. A. McKay and daughter, Marjorie; Mrs. LaVerne Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Lee Barber, Mrs. E. E. Ball, Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. Jay Cook and daughter, Gertrude; Mrs. L. C. Ball, Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap, Mrs. Susan Girardin, Mrs. G. W. Farris, Mrs. R. J. Watson, Mrs. W. T. Riches, Mrs. R. L. Thiessen and son, Gordon; Mrs. George Brower, Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. John R. Cox, Mrs. Earl S. Prather, Mrs. Neal Edwards, Mrs. Howard Baker and children, Shirley and Melvin; Mrs. Avis Losher of Portland, Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Josephine Gilstrap, Miss Helen Witzel, the hostesses, Mrs. Anna Johnson and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., and daughter, LaVerna Whitehead.

Switch Board Bid Opened for Lyons

Lyons—The People's Cooperative Telephone company held its meeting Wednesday evening for the purpose of opening the bids for operating and up keep of the Lyons switch board. Mrs. Grace Hauffer of Stayton, having the lowest bid will, succeed Mrs. Roxie Trask, who has been operator here for the last five years.

Honor Roll Light

Falls City—The high school honor roll for the past six weeks, has been posted with the following names: Senior, Virginia Adams; sophomore, Anna Mae Teal; junior, Lucille Mack.

Revival Campaign Will Close Sunday

Jefferson—The evangelistic campaign which has been conducted at the Christian church for the past six weeks by Evangelist Elery Parrish and his sister, Lillie Parrish, will close Sunday. An all-day meeting has been planned with a basket dinner at noon. In the afternoon there will be a special musical program and sermon by the evangelist.

MOLALLA STAR AWAITS GUEST

Molalla—Orchid chapter No. 105, order of the Eastern Star, held a regular meeting in the lodge rooms Tuesday evening. All officers were present.

It was announced by worthy matron, Ethel Farr, that Mrs. Monnie Hauser, associate grand conductress of Oregon, will be present at a meeting to be held in the chapter rooms March 1. The officers practiced their work during the evening.

Two committees were named by the worthy matron, Ethel Farr, to serve for the meeting. On the decoration committee, Mrs. Emory Worth was appointed chairman; to be assisted by Mrs. E. E. Turner and Mrs. Norman Kenney. The refreshment committee is composed of Mrs. Tom Ridings, chairman; Mrs. Harold Ridings, Mrs. Nora Hungate, and Mrs. F. M. Henriksen. It was also decided to give a card party in the near future. A committee to serve for this was appointed, consisting of Mrs. Olive Turner, chairman; Mrs. Norman Kenney and Mrs. E. R. Wallace.

HONOR MRS. FOWLER ON BIRTHDAY DATE

Unionvale— Complimenting Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler on her birthday anniversary the Pleasantdale Needle club entertained with a surprise at her home Thursday evening.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crawley and daughter Elaine, Mr and Mrs. George Foster, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Trent, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Greenslit, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sims and granddaughter Jean Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fowler, and Kenneth Addison, Allen Nichols, Andrew Nichols, William Spooner, Glenn Spooner and Miss Adaline Spooner, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fowler.

SURPRISE PARTY IS GIVEN MISS BRAUNER

Aumsville—Mrs. J. M. Brauner invited several friends of her daughter, Miss Eileen Brauner, to a surprise party on her eighteenth birthday Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing various party games followed by delicious refreshments. Those present were the honor guests, Miss Eileen Brunner, Louise Highberger, Virgie Bradley, Doris Walling, Helen Zuber, Opal Tripp, Imogene Aisman, Adaline Riesterer, Loretta Hortman, Addie Ellis, Lawrence Boedighiemer, Amandus Frank, Teddy Minden, Harold Schatt, Bert Bradley, Helen Ruettgers, Herman Ruettgers, Leonard Zuber, Jerome Ditter and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brauner and Martin Brauner.

MCADAMS IS BETTER

West Salem—The friends of William ("Bill") McAdams will be glad to hear that he is better. M. C. Williams of Independence was one of his Thursday visitors.

DISTRICT MEET SPEAKERS WILL VIE WEDNESDAY

Dallas —The district meeting of the Oregon high school extempore speaking and interpretation contest will be held in the high school auditorium here next Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock.

The schools which will be represented at the meet are Corvallis, Alsea, Falls City, Independence and Dallas. Prof. Young of the O. A. C. public speaking department will act as judge. The winners will go to Corvallis the last week in April to take part in the state contest. The state at the present time is divided into 15 districts with Polk, Benton, and Lincoln counties forming district No. 5.

LIBERAL CHURCH AID GUEST SHAVER HOME

Molalla—Mrs. Edgar Shaver entertained the members of the Ladies' Aid of the Liberal Evangelical church at her home at an all-day meeting Wednesday. A quilt was tied for the Aid during the day. The business hour was held in the afternoon. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the parsonage, the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Hornschuch, April 2.

Those present were Mrs. Lavelle Burghardt, Mrs. Leonard Vick, Mrs. J. H. Vick, Mrs. Victor Dunton, Mrs. Charles Kay, Mrs. Arthur Makinster, Miss Willma Dunton, Mrs. Earl Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hornschuch and son Everett, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Youell, Mrs. Aubrey Shaver, Miss Norma Shaver and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Shaver.

SCOUT HONOR COURT HELD AT M'MINNVILLE

Sheridan—Rev. R. A. Feenstra attended the court of honor in McMinnville Monday evening. He was accompanied by Donald McIntyre, Adrian Gage, Joe Aaron, H. B. Riggs and Frederick Johannsen, all Scouts.

Nineteen Scouts came up for promotion, among them Joe Aaron, who was promoted to second class, second rank, Donald McIntyre, local Scout of highest rank, received a merit badge in carpentry, Adrian Gage received second class merit badge for friendship.

The boys who presented themselves for merit badges brought fine work in craftsmanship, etc., which was an inspiration to others to achieve.

Howard Jamieson presided over the court and Judge Arlie G. Walker gave the commandatory address.

Play Cast Guests For Dance Party

Waldo Hills—Thirty young people enjoyed St. Patrick's night party at the Waldo Hills club house Tuesday evening. Those in the party were members of the play cast from this year's and last year's plays with a few specially invited guests. Dance programs were made by Frank Bower and dancing and games were the diversions. Supper was served at midnight.

VISITING IN GERVAIS

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burn of San Francisco arrived Wednesday evening to spend a couple of weeks with Mrs. Burn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ditmar.

Two Burned Homes Are Being Rebuilt

Sunnyside—Mr. and Mrs. George Neuenschwander are building their new home just back of where their old one burned two years ago. The building is of bungalow type, and will be modern in every respect.

Marion—George Christensen is building a new house to take the place of the one that was burned a short time ago.

INITIATIVE BILL FOR $3 LICENSES

An initiative petition for a $3 license fee on all motor vehicles, effective July 1, 1933, was returned to the petitioner, H. H. Stallard, Portland, Friday by Secretary of State Hal E. Hoss, because of failure to file with the proposed bill a petition form.

The initiative measure will be turned over to the attorney-general upon receipt from Stallard of the proper form, and will appear on the ballot for the general election in 1932. This is the first initiative bill to be filed for the next general election.

The initiative petition requires 8 percent of the largest number of votes cast at the previous general election, or 17,880 names. Petitions for invoking a referendum require but five per cent of the voters.

PRIMROSE CIRCLE PLANS ON BAZAAR

West Salem—The Primrose circle of Knight Memorial church was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Guy Newgent at her home on Kingwood avenue. The hours were spent in sewing for a bazaar followed by the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

Included in the membership of the circle are Mrs. W. P. Neptune, Mrs. O. E. Shafer, Mrs. C. P. Harlan, Mrs. Almira Gleason, Mrs. V. H. Ritchie, Mrs. J. E. Allison, Mrs. Harvey Emerick, Mrs. Jessie Phillips, Mrs. J. W. McCune, Mrs. J. B. Ashby, Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, Mrs. Martha Bellinger, Mrs. F. McIntire, Mrs. J. Schindler, Mrs. Ethel LaDue, and Mrs. Guy Newgent.

VALSETZ PTA HOLDS MEETINGS THIS WEEK

Valsetz—The Parent-Teacher association held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening. After the usual business meeting Miss June Marquis entertained with a reading. Lunch was served in the soup kitchen for ten cents a plate. The proceeds go to the P. T. A.

Valsetz—The card party given by the Parent-Teachers association Wednesday drew a large crowd. The prizes won in the different bridge divisions were: Ladies, Mrs. William Brayton, Mrs. B. Hudelson, Mrs. W. H. Mixer and Mrs. Madge Frasier; men winners: Pete Stoltenburg and Geary Worth. Prizes for "500" were won by Mrs. H. Groth and J. Kersten. Refreshments were served in the soup kitchen to the crowd. The cake left over was sold and nearly $25 realized above expenses.

Student Is Honored

Lafayette—Miss Loretta Field was surprised when the local high school students with their teacher, Mr. Muir, gave her a party complimenting her fifteenth birthday anniversary. Dancing and games occupied the time. Refreshments were served. There were 29 present.

More Speed and more power than any other car at the price

The new Willys Six is the fastest and most powerful car you can buy at such a low price . . . It also excels all competitive cars in pick-up and hill climbing . . . You must put the Willys Six through its paces before you can fully appreciate what remarkable performance capabilities have been brought to the low-priced field.

BE THRIFTY—BUY QUALITY

A BIG SIX, priced like a four
A POWERFUL EIGHT . . . .
A BRILLIANT KNIGHT . . . .
3 NEW WILLYS TRUCKS . . .

Willys Six	$495 to $650
Willys Eight	995 to 1095
Willys-Knight	1095 to 1195
Willys ½-ton chassis	395
Willys 1½-ton chassis	495

All prices f. o. b. Toledo

new WILLYS cars

SAFETY GLASS IN ALL WINDOWS AT $495 SLIGHT EXTRA COST

WILLYS MOTORS, Inc.

Geo. F. Vick

515 South Commercial Street Phone 922