

GEHLHAR GIVEN GRANGE SUPPORT STAYTON LODGE

Stayton—Stayton Grange No. 340 met in their hall Saturday, with a large attendance, and considerable business was taken up, in addition to an extensive program.

Andrew Fery and Mrs. Thos. Tate of the agriculture home economics committee, had attended a recent committee meeting held at the Red Hills grange house. Fery reported on the program for the year, covering control of rodents, strawberry weevil, cherry fly, red disease in evergreens, noxious weeds, and abortion; methods of advertising county products, and eliminating unfair competition in oleo; cooperative buying of various supplies, and livestock marketing. Mrs. Tate reported on the work of the various county committees in the home economics department. The grange went on record with resolutions favoring discontinuance of butter substitutes.

A. P. Kirsch reported a profit to the membership on the purchase of a carload of salt.

A resolution favoring the appointment of Gehlhar as state director of agriculture was approved, and a resolution approving the action of Gov. Meier in investigating the state institutions was passed, with a direction that a copy of the same be forwarded to the Governor.

Applications for membership in the local grange were received from Martin Schlie, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Studnik and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleston.

Ida Steinberger and Mrs. L. S. Lambert reported on a recent meeting of Pomona Grange held at Butteville. The home economics club made known its plans for memorial services for departed members.

The program, given by members from the Portland Grange, was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. McFarland of that place. This group is working in the interests of the "Oregon Farmer," and are covering Oregon, Washington and Idaho in their work. The entertainment consisted of songs, jokes and comedy sketches. The entertainers being Jerry Saylor, Helen Roberts, Peggy D'Arcy, Frank D'Arcy, Harvey Hudson, Ed. Staples and Ed. Goodspeed.

A dinner was served at noon.

No More Neuritis In Arms, Neck, legs or thighs

If you want to get rid of the agonizing pains of neuritis, neuralgia, sciatica or rheumatism, just apply Tysmol to the affected parts and see how quickly all misery will cease.

Tysmol is a powerfully penetrating absorbent, soothing and healing in its action, which goes in through the pores and quickly reaches the burning, aching nerves. Those stubborn pains in the back of the neck, about the shoulder blade, face, head, in the forearm and fingers, or extending down the thigh to the toe tips, will soon disappear. Cramping of the muscles will stop and you will no longer be bothered with soreness, swelling, stiffness, numbness or tenderness of the joints and ligaments. Tysmol is not an ordinary liniment or ointment, but a scientific new emollient that is entirely different from anything you have ever used. Don't suffer any longer. Get a supply of Tysmol at any good drug store. Always on hand at Daniel J. Fry's, adv.
