

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Ruth Mae Lawrence, Phone 83

White Shrine Officers Are Installed

Officers of Willamette Shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, for the year 1931-1932 were installed with impressive ritualistic ceremonies held Monday evening in the Masonic temple. A great basket of white lilacs and yellow calla lilies, reflecting the order's colors of gold and white, together with palm and fern were used to decorate the lodge rooms. A number of special guests were invited for the service.

Hazel B. Gillette was installed as worthy high priestess of the shrine by Grace N. Babcock, the installing officer. Assisting the installing officer were S. B. Gillette, watchman of the shepherds; Josephine Vasa, chaplain; Belle Niles Brown, musician; Lana Beecher, marshal; and Minnie Moeller, worthy scribe. Mrs. Zella Neimeyer, retiring worthy high priestess, and Glenn Niles, retiring watchman of shepherds, were both unable to attend due to illness.

Other officers installed were: watchman of shepherds, Charles Hatchiff; noble prophetess, Gladys Adams of Woodburn; worthy scribe, Amos Vass; worthy treasurer, Fannie Tibbitts; worthy chaplain, Marie Flint McCall; worthy shepherds, Tina Edwards of Turner; worthy guide, Ellen Gabriel; worthy herald, Mona Yoder; first wise man, Arthur Edwards of Turner; second wise man, Arthur Moore; third wise man, Julius Alm of Silverton; king, J. B. Protzman; queen, Susan Varty; first hand maid, Katie Sturgis; second hand maid, Della Hayden; third hand maid, Olive Kelley; organist, Pearl Speer; worthy guardian, Geneva Frost; worthy guard, John Marney; color guard, W. C. Kantner; courier, Mona Yoder; madonna, Merle Stewart; queen's attendants, Edna McElhane, Vera Barriek, Ruth Lawrence, Thelma Green, Laura Dennis, Bonnie Bertelson, Mary Gatliff, Vera Dadas, Margaret Sinsler and Oma Henjum.

A trio, composed of Benjita Edwards, Harriet Adams, and Myra Gleason, with Donald Allison at the piano, sang several songs. Mrs. Merle Stewart gave a solo and Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Rose Babcock offerred a duet. Mrs. Belle Niles Brown played their accompaniment.

The floral degree was beautifully exemplified. Flower girls who assisted during the evening were the Misses Margaret Gillette, Henrietta Bishop and Gertrude Oehler.

A special surprise entertainment feature has been arranged for the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Aid society Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. Members of the executive committee will be hostess at the tea hour. Mrs. A. P. Marcus is president of the organization.

Program Enjoyed By Auxiliary

Songs and recitations by Katherine Godley, an acrobatic dance by Jean Bates, and a community sing led by Mrs. Frank N. Waters entertained members of the American Legion auxiliary at their social meeting Monday evening in Miller's hall. Reports on the child health conference at Portland were given during the brief business session.

The auxiliary will entertain with a Mother's day program May 4 when members of the American War Mothers will be special guests. Members will meet at Mrs. Naddon's home on May 6 to make large poppies for the Memorial day poppy sale. The poppy posters will be judged during this week under the direction of Mrs. Byron Lieualien.

The hostess committee, composed of Mrs. O. B. Olson, Mrs. C. C. Richardson, Mrs. Charles Dural, and Mrs. M. J. Melchior, served refreshments late in the evening.

Mrs. Velleda Ohmart will be among the women who will speak at the First Methodist General Aid society luncheon and program Wednesday in the church parlors. A program of reminiscences will be a feature. Mrs. Ohmart is one of the early presidents of the organization.

The Women's Relief Corps will sponsor a merchant's luncheon at Fraternal temple Thursday from 11:30 o'clock to 2 o'clock.

Mrs. W. H. Gardner was hostess at her home Wednesday with a covered dish luncheon for the south circle of the First Christian church followed with a social and business session. Those present were: Mrs.

Bert Macy, president; Mrs. L. Hobson, Mrs. C. Gibson, Mrs. P. E. Birch, Mrs. A. A. Carper, Mrs. F. Cornette, Mrs. F. Richter, Mrs. W. Schielesner, Mrs. C. R. Pritchard, Mrs. W. S. Birdwell, Mrs. C. P. Reilly, Mrs. J. D. Searz. Special guests were Mrs. A. Noth, Mrs. Mark Ellis, Mrs. M. S. Foster, Mrs. D. D. Almstead and Frank Cornette.

Mrs. Chas. Ward Complimented

Complimenting Mrs. Charles Ward, who with Rev. Ward will leave soon to make their home in Forest Grove, the Sunday School Teachers' Guild entertained on Monday evening in the women's parlors at the First Presbyterian church. A handkerchief showery was given in compliment to Mrs. Ward by the 21 women present. Miss Violet Van Cleave gave violin numbers with Vern Daugherty at the piano.

Yellow tamps and yellow tapers in brass holders centered the serving table where Mrs. Meeker and Mrs. H. L. Shamm presided.

The committee for the evening, Mrs. H. R. White, Mrs. Grant Teter and Mrs. Cora Talkington, was assisted in serving by Mrs. E. A. Collier and Mrs. L. M. Ramage.

Play Planned For Club Meet

A play, "The Silent System," to be given by the Little Theater group of Willamette university, will be the program feature for the regular meeting of the Salem Woman's club Friday at the clubhouse. The program has been arranged by the institutions department of the club, of which Mrs. S. M. Endicott is general chairman. Mrs. Clifton Mudd, first assistant to Mrs. Endicott, is directing the program. Mrs. Mudd also will give the Oregon Products contest talk, speaking on the West Coast Manufacturing company. Mrs. Nellie Roberts Ramp will be the soloist.

Mrs. Tom Wood heads the large tea committee.

The business session will feature reports of delegates to the county convention at Stayton Thursday.

Mrs. Julius L. Meier will entertain on Wednesday in her apartments at the Royal Court with a 1 o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge. Covers will be placed for 10.

Bridge Tea Monday Is Gay Event

Mrs. U. O. Shipley and Mrs. J. E. Law continued their series of parties with a smart bridge tea Monday afternoon in the Shipley home. Six tables of bridge were in play in rooms decked with baskets of iris, narcissi, lilacs and tulips from the Shipley gardens.

Mrs. V. R. Griggs received the high score prize for the afternoon, and a second prize went to Mrs. E. B. T. Hill. Mrs. Clarence Byrd and Mrs. A. C. F. Perry assisted Mrs. Shipley and Mrs. Lay in serving.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. A. C. F. Perry, Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Mary Kennedy, Mrs. C. F. Turner, Mrs. Eugene Grabenhorst, Mrs. George Grabenhorst, Mrs. F. W. Durbin, Mrs. V. R. Griggs, Mrs. Lynn Cronmiller, Mrs. Willis Roughton, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, Mrs. W. R. Speck, Mrs. J. W. Beveridge, Mrs. Claire Lee, Mrs. Robert Brady, Mrs. James Humphreys, Mrs. Henry DeBoest, Mrs. C. A. Horstkotte, Mrs. Walter Minier, Mrs. George M. King, Mrs. E. T. B. Hill, Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. Clarence Byrd, and Miss Sarah Lansing.

Mrs. Shipley and Mrs. Law will entertain on Thursday afternoon with six tables of bridge and tea. Their series of parties will conclude with a bridge tea next week.

Auxiliary Observes 15th Anniversary

The fifteenth anniversary of the organization of the auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans was commemorated Monday night at the armory with a program honoring charter members of the group. The ten charter members present were Inez Seymour, Ruth Brand, Myrtle Abrams, Carrie Chase, Lulu Humphrey, Laura Hardwick Catherine Hewlett, Georgia Davis, Lillian McKinley, and Ellen Thompson. Each of the charter members present spoke, and greetings were read from Mrs. Assen of Minneapolis, the first president of the auxiliary; Mrs. Starmer of Roebury, the state auxiliary president and Mrs. Gertrude Wilson of Springfield, a charter member. The minutes of the organization meeting were read.

The program included numbers by an orchestra directed by L. Mickelson, a piano and violin duet by Jean and Doris Harrington, and vocal solos by Maynard McKinley and Lawrence Alley.

A special table arranged for charter members was decked with a large birthday cake, baskets of tulips and by red tapers. Baskets of spring flowers were arranged effectively about the social room.

Mrs. Ada Hull, president of the auxiliary, presided. Mrs. Grace Mickelson, Mrs. Florence Bunker, and Mrs. Bessie Baker were in charge of arrangements for the anniversary celebration.

There will be a sub-district meeting of the Methodist women's foreign missionary societies Thursday at the Lewis Memorial church. The session will start at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, and a pot luck luncheon will be served at noon with the Leslie church women furnishing coffee and table service.

Mrs. Powell, Rouse, Nelson, Busick, Edwards, Adams, Braden, Corey, Ross, Lucas, Hilborn, Martin, Pepper and Drakey compose the committee in charge.

The program to be given Thursday afternoon in Lausanne hall at a meeting of the Town and Gown club will include vocal numbers by Helen Cochran, Willamette university student and a talk on Spanish art seen in the historic museum of New York by Mrs. L. H. Tarpley.

Yamhill Federation Holds Conference

Dayton-Eighty members of the Yamhill county federation of women's clubs met at the Carlton Christian church in the annual convention Saturday, when Carlton and Cove Orchard Women's clubs were hostesses.

Four women from Salem, Mrs. David Wright, president of the Salem Women's club, Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, president of the third district federation, and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding and Miss Ella McCully were among the speakers. The meeting was called to order at 9:30 o'clock and the following program was given: salute to the flag; group singing, "America the Beautiful," led by Mrs. Carrie Jessup; invocation, Rev. W. L. Jessup; address of welcome, Mrs. Grace McCormac French; response to welcome, Mrs. Ellen Allen; committee appointments, reading of minutes, reports of committee on rules, and reports of officers; organ music, Miss Lucille Tupper; "The Third District Federation," Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo.

Dinner was served in the dining room of the church by the hostess clubs from 12 to 1:30 o'clock.

A vocal solo, "Southern Melodies," was given by Mrs. Carrie Jessup with Miss Lucille Tupper as accompanist.

Needle club, with eight active members, for the fourth consecutive time won the Olive Lewis loving cup on 236 points of merit. The Dayton Civic club with 50 members was the nearest competitor with 150 points. The Pleasantdale Needle club reported 100 per cent attendance for the year for six of the eight members, or 93 per cent attendance.

A group of vocal selections were given by Mrs. J. L. Briggs, Mrs. G. Daggan, Mrs. R. W. Dock, Miss Margaret Deck, with piano accompanist Mrs. C. E. Willard.

The resolution committee, Mrs. William Watt of Amity, Mrs. William Dieckmeyer of McMinnville and Mrs. Theodocia Magness of Dayton recommended that 100 per cent be placed on the score card and by vote was carried.

An invitation by the delegation from the Newberg Civic club for the 1932 convention was accepted by vote.

Mrs. Ora Casper, secretary of the Rebekah assembly, was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Engstrom over the weekend.

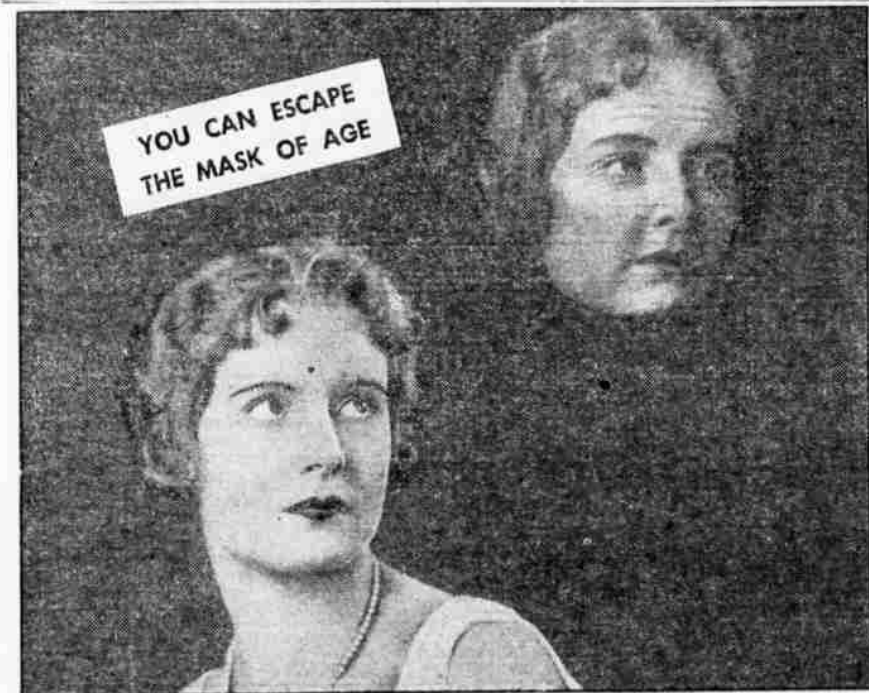

The ladies' auxiliary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, will hold a card party at the Fraternal temple Wednesday evening. Members and friends are invited.

LIPTON'S
ORANGE PEKOE AND PEKOE
TEA

FINEST ORANGE PEKOE and PEKOE the world produces, says India and Ceylon—with gold medal and first prize!
All sizes... Costs No More

"Stay YOUNG through the Years!"

urges MONTE BLUE

"Learn the complexion secret Hollywood's lovely actresses know!"—this screen idol says

THERE'S no feminine charm so irresistible as youth," says Monte Blue, popular Columbia star. "And nowadays women may have this charm, I find, no matter what their age!"

"They seem to have discovered the way to keep youth—stay fresh and alive and alluring right through the years!"

"Every day I meet actresses here in Hollywood who stopped counting birthdays long ago, but who still have that radiant sort of glow..."

"They have a complexion secret every girl should know!"

Do you know how the lovely stars keep youthful skin?

"We use Lux Toilet Soap regularly," they will tell you. Important actresses the world over—in Hollywood (605 of the 613 there!)—on Broadway—in Europe—depend on this fragrant, amazingly white soap for every type of skin. It is the official soap in all the great film studios, and is found in theater dressing rooms all over the country.

Surely you will want to try this gentle care for your skin!

Lux Toilet Soap—10¢

New Showing Of Smart Styles From Betty Baxley

POPULARLY PRICED FROM $1.95 to $4.95

NEVER before have we had the opportunity to present so many sparkling new styles in Wash Frocks to the women of this city! Betty Baxley designers this season are shipping us many delightful creations in Voiles, Batistes, Lawns and other sheer fabrics, and the ever-popular Prints. Every woman will enthuse about the fit, tailoring, long-wearing qualities. And the patterns and colors are truly outstanding. Visit our store today and see these attractive Frocks!

OUR ANNUAL STYLE SHOW
WEDNESDAY — THURSDAY — FRIDAY
20 LIVING MODELS

Hundreds of Pretty Frocks to Choose from. And all are Guaranteed.

The Finest Display of the Season's Newest Fabrics and Styles.

The Fabrics Alone Will Convince You of their Extraordinary Character and their Value.

SETTING A NEW VALUE-RECORD IN 1931 DRESSES

Worth's Department Store
Phone 4858 "Where You Save Every Day" 177 N. Liberty Street