at which members of the Eureka, Salem Heights and Liberty Women's clubs will be special guests. The business session will be followed by a program of vocal numbers by a women's quartet and poetry read under the direction of Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo. The meeting will close with a tea served by Mrs. Earle Duce and her committee.

Jefferson Girl Goes East for Wedding

Jefferson—Percis Hulshoff of Albany who has taught in the Dever school for the past two years left for Winner, South Dakota immediately after the closing of the school year Wednesday, May 20, where she will be married to Carl Nygren, May 26. Nygren, who for 15 years conducted a dairy at Millersburg, five miles south of Jefferson with his brothers, left a number of years ago for South Dakota where he is engaged in farming. Miss Hulshoff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Hulshoff, left Millersburg two years ago for their former home near Winner, S. D.

Miss Hulshoff is a graduate of Albany high school and of the Normal school at Monmouth. She also taught in the Spruce Hill school two miles southwest of Jefferson for one term.

Saturday afternoon she was honored with a shower at the home of Mrs. Floyd Fisher with Miss Clara Thiesen as joint hostess. Refreshments were served at the tea hour.

Those present were the honor guest, Miss Percis Hulshoff, Mrs. John Covey, Mrs. E. O. Traux and daughters, Ethel and Frances, Mrs. Thomas Parlow, Mrs. E. E. Beaver and daughter, Gertrude; Mrs. A. W. Moreland, Mrs. Lester Conner, Mrs. Raymond Fisher, Mrs. Dale Gronso, Mrs. Henry Ammon, Mrs. W. F. Green, Mrs. E. O. Smith, Mrs. A. D. Custer, Mrs. James E. Arnold, Mrs. Gus Nygren, Mrs. Burwell and the hostesses, Mrs. Floyd Fisher and Miss Clara Thiesen.

Solo—A dancing party was held at the home of Frank Lockner Saturday evening, music for the informal group being furnished by Joe Schindler of Gervais. A midnight supper followed the dance.

Those present were Dorothy Rammage of Woodburn, Theresa and Pauline Schindler, Ted Stevens, Joe and Clarence Schindler and Ewald Susse, all of Gervais; Anton and Frank Richter, Anto Penka, William Schecker and Paul Waechter, all of Mt. Angel; Mr. and Mrs. W. Harris and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Frink, Mr. A. Ziegler and daughters, Ann and Edith, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Thomas, Mrs. George Rak and sons, Walter and John, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Lockner and family, Mrs. John Bender and children, Aloys and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reister, Mr. and Mrs. E. Jungwirth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lulay, Mrs. A. J. Sazl and daughters, Ann and Frances, Joe Hillger, Delmar Lambrecht, Dorothy Rodman, Edna Snyder, Fred and John Zielinski, John Fred Rohwin, Henry Reister, Barbara Hall Mary Bower, Joe, Mike, Rose and Frances Schwandt, Charles Sazl, John Mayerhofer, and the host, Frank Lockner.

Miss Vera Smith entertained a group of girls at her sister's home near Jefferson Saturday evening with an informal party. Following games and refreshments, Miss Irene Windsor played a banjo solo, Miss Vivian Lanikere and Miss Vera Smith gave a folk dance and later the girls sang and danced with Miss Windsor playing her banjo for them. A house-party for the out-of-town guests followed.

Those present for the affair were the Misses Marjorie Walling, Irene Windsor, Juanita and Thelma Walling and Vivian Lanikere, all of Salem; Lorine Hart and Sylvia Todd of Jefferson, and the hostess, Vera Smith.

Miss Zoe Stockton returned Wednesday from a two weeks' visit in The Dalles where she was the house guest of Mrs. Joe Stadelman.

Liberty—The last meeting of the Liberty Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Danner for a pot luck luncheon. A business meeting was held. This being the last meeting of the year, the election of officers formed an important part of the meeting. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Clarence Stacey, president; Mrs. W. Westenhause, vice-president; and Mrs. Harold Lane, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Al Brown, retiring president of the club, gave a report of the life and works of Victor Herbert, musical composer. Mrs. Clarence Stacey gave a report of the meeting of Women's clubs held at Stayton. Mrs. Bruce Cunningham told of her observations at the Oregon state nursery school at Corvallis.

The American Legion auxiliary members will meet at the home of Mrs. W. P. Watkins Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock for an afternoon of sewing. Several articles will be made to be distributed by the welfare committee.

Ankeny Detton—The Ankeny Women's club met with Mrs. Ben Watts Thursday afternoon. An interesting program was carried out during the afternoon. Several selections were played on the piano by Mrs. E. L. Finley and Mrs. William Wiederkehr.

Molalla—Word was received here of the marriage Tuesday, May 12 in Eugene of James Welch and Miss Esther Lyons, also of Eugene. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch, former residents of Molalla, and now of Eugene. He spent his grammar school days here and has a host of friends. He is the brother of Miss Edna Welch, teacher of the fifth grade in the Molalla grammar school; Mrs. Ray Boehmke and Henry Welch, all of Molalla.

Valdez—Mr. and Mrs. Nester Tokstad and family returned Monday from several days' visit in Salem with Mrs. Tokstad's parents. They also spent part of their time with Mr. Tokstad's mother at Silverton, who is ill.

Williamina—A surprise shower was given at the home of Mrs. Clifford Rugg near this city Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Elsie Lovett, nee Rugg, a bride of March and Miss Dorothy Drill, who will be married in June to Cornelius Past. The surprise party was composed of members of the class of 1928 of the Williamina high school. Both honor guests were the recipient of many gifts. A lunch was served. Those present were: Valma Holeman, Violet Sharp, Florence Hunt, Lerna Morgan, Mrs. Grace Thomason, Mrs. Elsie Lovett, Miss Dorothy Drill, Cornelius Past and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rugg.

COME IN AND SEE HOW THEY WORK

You'll learn why AIR CONTAINERS end tire troubles

Pull out the nail—the air stays in! Air Containers seal punctures on running wheels.

Learn the facts and you'll join the hundreds of thousands who are saying goodbye to tire trouble! We'll take your old tires in trade.

A new idea... a new product... is sweeping the country. Air Containers! They seal punctures on running wheels... no more "flats" on the road. They make blowouts impossible. They add 30% to tire mileage. They make it unnecessary to check air pressure more than a few times a year.

They pay for themselves over and over!

Air Containers take the place of old-type inner tubes. Come in and see how they work... Don't confuse them with so-called "puncture-proof" tubes. The patented feature of Air Containers makes them seal punctures permanent.
