ROPER BEATEN BY DEFOREST IN QUARTER FINALS

Westward Ho, Devon, England, (AP)—Syd Roper, young insurance clerk who eliminated George Volek, last American hope, in the fifth round of the British amateur, was defeated Thursday in the quarter finals by Johnny DeForest, young English millionaire who learned his golf in America.

DeForest's margin was two up and one to play and served in part as a vindication of American golf. He spent most of last winter in the United States taking lessons from leading professionals, including Houston Smith, and picking up all the tricks he could from American amateurs.

William Tallock, Glasgow business man, eliminated John Morrison, former Cambridge all-around athlete, three and one. Dr. John MacCormack, Dublin physician, defeated Capt. H. C. Tippet, conqueror of Cyril Tooley, two and one. Eric Smith, of Cambridge university, eliminated Peter Miller, two and one.

With all the better known golfers out, the galleries shrank to only a fraction of their former size.

DOWNIE STARTS TO PICK TEAM

Silverton—The Silverton American Legion junior baseball nine will play its first out-of-town game Friday when the champions journey to Scotts Mills to meet a town team. A return game will be played here the following Sunday.

Coach R. G. Downie started wielding the ax last Sunday unbeknownst to some 60 aspirants for the team, when he selected four players who will probably go to make up the first team. He will not make their names public until later. There still is a chance, he declares, for many to show enough to warrant their selection on the 1931 squad.

A batting demonstration greater than last year's has been shown Downie in this week's practice. Orville Schwab, southpaw ace of last year's team, and Don Burch, high school chucker, shot their favorite slants at the juniors, only to have many go for safe hits.

In the conclusion of last Sunday's practice Downie declared that in all his coaching experience he had never worked with such a promising group of baseball players. It is his belief, he said, that the local team will go just as far, if not farther, than last year.

Henry Lefler, southpaw of Molalla, will be on the mound for the champions Sunday, with Alphe Rudstausner behind the plate.

THE DEANS IN A BROTHER ACT

Jerome H. "Dizzy" Dean, erstwhile St. Louis Cardinal, now is the No. 1 man in a brother act on the Houston Texas league team. He is shown at right with his younger brother, Paul, also a pitcher for Houston. "Dizzy" was sent to the minors so Manager Joe Schultz could handle him.

HUSKIES NEED BUT 3 GAMES TO WIN

Seattle, Wash. (AP)—The University of Washington baseball team has a chance to virtually clinch the northern division Pacific coast conference title for the third consecutive year Thursday and Friday when it tangles with Oregon State college in the final home series on the Husky calendar.

Washington will wind up their season's play with a two-game series at Idaho and a brace of contests with Washington State college at Pullman next week. To clinch the pennant, the Huskies must win but three of their remaining six games, while Washington State, Oregon or Oregon State are winning all of their remaining five. Idaho is definitely out as a contender.

YEW PARK SQUAD WINS LEAGUE TITLE

The Yew Park team won the playground baseball championship of League 1 Wednesday afternoon when it defeated the Highland team 12 to 2 on the Highland field. Park scored a run in the first inning and continued to lead all the way. Park will play the winner of League 2 for the grade school championship next week. The winner of League 2 has not been determined.

SALEM LOSES TO LEBANON HI BY 6-2 SCORE

Lebanon high school's baseball team, described by Coach Huntington as one of the best aggregations to appear on the local field this season, defeated Salem high at Olinger field Wednesday afternoon 6 to 2. The visitors went home with the victory despite the fact that John Perrine, hurling for Salem, struck out 18 batsmen. He was wild, however and walked several men.

Salem batsmen were able to hit the ball, but for the most part their efforts resulted in easy outs, the shortstop and third baseman for Lebanon having no difficulty in fielding the ball.

Lebanon's pitcher has a good change of pace and kept his opponents off balance most of the time. The game went into the ninth with Lebanon leading 3 to 2. In that inning Perrine walked two men then the pitcher hit a two banger to score them, while he came in a moment later on a single.

McCaffery played a good game behind the bat for Salem, digging many out of the dirt and throwing a man out at second.

Salem will go to Corvallis Friday for an encounter with the rooks.

ILLAHEE PLAYS ALBANY SUNDAY

Illahee Country club will play the Albany Country club at Albany Sunday, May 24, a 20-man match. The members will tee-off at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. These clubs have played every year a home and home match and both clubs always enjoy the match hugely. The Albany course is very rugged but novel and enjoyable, and is now said to be in very fine shape.

The following is the list of players that will go to Albany for the match Sunday: James McClelland, Gordon Wilson, C. Van Patten, O. L. Fisher, Chas. Hudkins, D. Adolph, Albert Hunter, O. A. Chase, Dr. R. Lee Wood, Dr. C. C. Gilbert, J. Sears, Don Roberts, M. Dougherty, E. L. Weider, M. Ohlberg, Harry Collins, V. E. Kuhn, T. Eggleston, Joe DeSouza, Rube Saunders, L. C. Jackson, Roy Stewart, Jack Nash and Ralph Southwick.

The next match will be Illahee with Oregon City at Oregon City Sunday, June 7. Next Sunday, the match play in the Director's Cup tournament will be advanced to the semi-finals.

Orangemen Win

Moscow, Idaho (AP)—Oregon State college walloped University of Idaho baseball team with a 17 to 1 score here Wednesday. Although Coach Fox changed his Idaho lineup the Beavers scored almost at will. Buck Grayson and Johnny Blaccone each connected with home runs for the stagers. Woodward held the Vandals to four scattered hits, and eight boots didn't help them. Score: O. S. C. 17 16 2 Idaho 1 4 8 Woodward and Mack; Daubert, Lacy, Lacht, Jacobs and Schutte.

MOVE TO DALLAS

Valsetz — Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Moen moved to Dallas Tuesday where he has employment.

Dern Evens Affair With Grappler Thye

Portland (AP)—Battle Royal tactics showed in Ira Dern's two-out-of-three fall victory over Ted Thye in a heavyweight wrestling match at the auditorium here Wednesday night. Referee Vern Harrington of Astoria was caught in a wild mixup of arms, legs and holds after being butted to the mat by Thye. He came to long enough to award Dern the winning fall, which promptly was protested by Thye.

Chet Wiles pinned Alex Lundeen with a head scissors and wricklock and Vic Potter threw Joe Gardner in a preliminary.

SEMI-FINALS IN ELKS TOURNEY DUE THIS WEEK

The golf championship of the local Elks lodge has narrowed down to four participants who are expected to complete the semi-final rounds before next Sunday night. As a result of the quarter finals completed last week, DeSouza won his match with Blowers by default. Walt Cline defeated Frank Myers. Robin Day won from Carl Gabrielson, while Glen Lengren eliminated Russell Bonastelle. The week De Souza meets Cline in one half of the semi-final brackets, while Day will play Lengren.

All candidates left in the first flight had not completed their matches early this week in the quarter finals. As it stands now Chester Cox will meet Tad Shelton in one half of the semi-finals, while Charles Urnuth will meet the winner of the Fritz Slade-Brazier small match. Cox defeated Obling last week while Shelton eliminated W. I. Needham. Urnuth won a place by beating Willett.

The lineup in the second flight for the week finds Prims and Lee Urnuth matched in one half of the semi-finals, with Johnson and Charles Hudkins playing the other half. Prims defeated Amussen, Urnuth beat Harry Miller, Johnson defeated Judge Bell, while Hudkins won from Warren Jones.

The third flight may find the Armstrong brothers in the finals. Carl Armstrong won from Brock on the 18th hole in the quarter-finals while Ed Armstrong and E. L. Weider played to a tie.

The tournament which has been in charge of Frank Lynch will reach the finals next week.

Molalla Girls Lose Title to Wichita

Molalla—Both the boys and girls baseball teams of the Molalla grammar school went to Oregon City Tuesday where they played for the county championship. The games were played at the Buckaroo grounds. The girls played the girls' team from Wichita school and were defeated by the score of 12 to 7. This is the third consecutive year that the Molalla girls have played the Wichita girls for the championship. The Molalla girls were the winners the other years. During the past three years the Molalla girls have lost but two games.

The boys' team met the boys' team from the Concord school and were defeated by a score of 8 to 5. The game was protested on account of irregularity of decisions on both sides.

BEAVERS RALLY IN SEVENTH TO DEFEAT SOLONS

By the Associated Press
An all around comeback was staged Wednesday night by Pacific coast league teams who dropped the first games in the present week's series Tuesday.

A six-run rally in the seventh brought a 9 to 2 victory over Sacramento for Portland's Beavers at Sacramento. The Senators tallied twice in the final inning but the rally was soon checked.

The Hollywood Stars, present league leaders who were handed a surprising 10 to 1 defeat by San Francisco's Seals in the first game, doused the Seals 3 to 1 at San Francisco. The Stars were held scoreless for five innings but in the sixth they got two runs and another in the seventh. They got eleven hits, five of which were in the sixth.

The Seattle Indians came out of a long losing streak to beat Oakland 5 to 2 at Emeryville. The Indians worked smoothly behind the effective pitching of Hugh McQuillan, counting three runs in the fifth and one each in the second and eighth.

George Caster, Mission pitcher, was charged with losing a 4 to 2 game to the Angels at Los Angeles. After he had held them in check for seven innings he blew up, walking two men to fill the bases and hitting the next batsman to force a run. T. Pillette replaced Caster but he walked the first man up, forcing another run.

RICHMOND'S TEAM BEATS ENGLEWOOD

Richmond's playground baseball team defeated Englewood on the latter's field Wednesday afternoon 8 to 7. Richmond held a 7 to 3 lead at one time but Englewood succeeded in tying the count at 7-all in the fifth. Richmond then put over the winning rally.

MRS. YOUNG DIES

Van Hornesville, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Ida Brandow Young, mother of Owen D. Young, died Thursday of injuries caused by a fall at her home seven weeks ago. She was 93 years old. Mr. Young, her only son, was at the bedside.

They're Just a Bunch Of 'Kids' After Game

What athletes say and do behind the scenes has a strange fascination for all fans. In baseball there are many dyed-in-the-wool fans who never leave the entrance to the home team's club house until the last player has gone.

Many of them would make a big sacrifice just to get one peep into that forbidden stronghold of lockers, rubbing tabs, showers.

Let's have a glimpse of the Chicago White Sox club house after a recent victory. Donnie Bush, White Sox manager, dresses with the players and discusses the game with them like a player, not a manager.

Pat Caraway, beanpole southpaw who pitched the White Sox to victory, is having his arm rubbed by Buckner, faithful negro trainer.

"Buckner always sticks with a winner," yelled Ted Lyons, who has been laid up with a sore arm. "He won't even rub my arm until I win a game."

The White Sox made six errors and yet won, 3-1. Everybody had something to say about that.

"I had to laugh when Fatty dropped that ball," smiled Caraway, who was referring to Fothergill, Sox left fielder.

Bush perking his head up and dropping his underwear to the floor said:

"Well, I didn't laugh. I nearly fainted. I would have committed murder if I could have put Fothergill's head in a vice just about that time."

"I couldn't see that ball," Fothergill said. "The wind blew it away from me, I guess."

"How did you catch that ball?" someone asked Watson, Sox right fielder.

"The ball hit me right here in the chest," said Watson, pointing to a red spot on his chest. "I never saw it. I just got where I thought it was and it hit me and rolled down into my glove."

"I can miss the easiest chances of anybody that ever was," drawled Luke Appling, rookie shortstop from Atlanta.

"Yes, but you can get some hard ones," sympathized Tommy Thon-as.

So the talk goes on and on about what happened in the day's game and how.

"Black Sox" Picture Missing from Wall
Around the walls of the clubhouse are pictures of past and present White Sox stars. There are none of the famous team of 1919—the Black Sox who sold Comiskey out in the world series against the Cincinnati Reds.

SALEM'S JUNIOR TEAM SELECTED, PLAY SATURDAY

With little more than a month's time in which to settle the question of who's who in the district, play for the American Legion junior league baseball championship is expected to get underway immediately, according to Oliver Huston, chairman of the athletics committee of the local post who has been the main cog in the city series which was completed last week.

Twenty-two players have been selected to represent Salem in competition with teams of the county. They are Vivette from Chemawa, Perrin, McCarthy, Kelly, Pickens, Mason and Ramp from Salem high; Waddell from Lealie, Vern and Vic DeGardin, Nicholson and Sabstrom from Parrish; Palet, Maert, Katchka, Bahburg, Plitinger, Herberger, Jen-skow, Spencer, Coleman and Ray.

The first practice for this combined group is scheduled for next Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock at Olinger field. There is a possibility that Stayton may bring its squad over for a scrimmage at that time.

Capital post is looking ahead to next year, Huston says, and if possible 6 or 8 teams will be carried in the city league. He believes that boys of the city have not had sufficient opportunity to play baseball "owing to absence of competition for youngsters and the lack of playing facilities in and around Salem."

Huston extends the thanks of the local post to the four Salem business firms—Valley Motor company, Gedderley Savings and Loan, City City Baking company and Douglas McKay Chevrolet company—for their support of the teams which went through the series of 12 games.

Pitching Strength Sought by Turner

Portland (AP)—Thomas L. Turner, president of the Portland baseball club, planned to leave Thursday for Philadelphia in an effort to secure either Leroy Maloney or Hank McDonald for the Beavers pitching staff. It was also learned that Atlanta of the Southern league has been in communication with Kenny Williams, outfielder recently released by Portland. Williams is playing with his old home town team at Grants Pass.

The inscription over William Shakespeare's grave, it reads in old English script:

"Good friend for Jesus' sake forbear,
To digg the dust enclosed here,
Bless be Ye man ty spares
The stones,
And Curst be he by moves my bones!"

The players rush out some by themselves, others in pairs and groups to run the gauntlet of autograph seekers. So it goes for baseball players for 134 days of the season, except when it rains.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould
Connie Mack so far has been rotating his four first string pitching choices in this order: Rube Walter, George Barnshaw, Hank McDonald and Lefty Grove.

So far, too, they have looked good enough to warrant the prediction that if the A's fail to repeat it will not be because of pitching.

McDonald, Barnshaw and Grove all have lost close decisions on performances that would be put in the winning column five times out of six.

McDonald is the best looking pitching prospect to bust into the American league since Wesley Ferrell of Cleveland. He is only 19, but he handles himself like a veteran and has a change of pace that is seldom seen in a rookie.

The big sticks of the A's, especially that of Mr. Allyn Simmons, haven't been rattling the boards in their accustomed manner.

The A's hit 230 as a team in their first week which pretty well tells the story.

TURNSTILE MUSIC
Baseball has been packing 'em in most everywhere the big leagues have opened fire, and it abetted by much early excitement and the finest spring weather the magnates have been favored with in years.

New attendance records have been set in a number of the big towns, perhaps in support of the contention of baseball men that when the unemployed have no place else to go they decide to watch the ball games. At any rate, business is booming in the big show. Brooklyn's opening season attracted a record outpouring at Ebbets Field despite the dismal start of Uncle Wilbert's Robins.

On the other hand, some skepticism has been manifest concerning the figures given out in the press box of the Yankee stadium. It was officially announced the cash customers at the first clash between the World's Champion Athletics and Yankees on a Sunday, totaled 80,403, but the payoff to the visiting club was based on a paid attendance of 71,999.

The stadium was crammed to its capacity, so far as the most critical investigator could ascertain. The situation did not seem to call for any padding of the figures, for purposes of greater publicity, but the club officials remained very mysterious on the subject of its "long count."

Talking Too Much At the Wrong Time Costs Grimes $50

New York (AP)—Burling Grimes, veteran pitching star of the champion St. Louis Cardinals, was fined $50 Thursday and suspended for three days by John A. Heydler, president of the National league, for disorderly action in the game with Brooklyn Wednesday.

President Heydler also issued a warning to Clyde Ware, Cardinal coach, for his action in protesting a decision at second base.

Crimes was punished for a succession of arguments with Empire Charles Moran, who banished the pitcher from Ebbets Field after stopping the game five times to issue warnings. Grimes alternated between the bench and the bullpen in annoying the arbiter.

Grimes has won five straight games for the Cardinals and it was his turn to pitch Thursday or Friday. In addition to being banished until Sunday, his salary, under league rules, is cut off for the period of suspension.

In the last 12 months unsuccessful attempts were made to close 2,000 footpaths in England.

Eye Troubles Are Hereditary

Eye troubles are caused largely on account of the improper position of the eyeball. The shape of the eyeball is inherited as are other physical features, as the nose and mouth. If you have eye troubles, your children are more than likely to be affected similarly.
