

BOB STEELE TO MEET THYE IN ARMORY ARENA

Bob Steele, heavyweight who defeated Mahatma Singh, Hindu heavyweight grappler, here last Thursday night, has been matched to meet Ted Thye, famous Portland wrestler at the local armory on Thursday night of next week. Because of the reputations of the two men it is probable that unusual interest will be shown in the match. Steele has wrestled the best men in the game and has met them in every country in the world. He claims a total of 2468 professional matches. The hardest match he ever had, Steele says, was with Clarence Ecklund at Houston, Texas, the match going four hours and eight minutes without a fall.

Steele has been on the Pacific coast less than a year and in that time has met a lot of men, including Spellman, Dr. Sarpolis, Wyckoff, Dr. Weisner, Charley Hanson, Pete Sirkoff and Young Zbyako, and he beat all of them except a bout that he lost to Thor Jensen in Salem. He beat Jensen the following week.

Steele and Thye met in Spokane about 10 years ago. Thye taking the first fall and Steele the next two. Tuesday night, Steele leaves for Calgary where he will meet Jack Taylor Friday night of this week, returning immediately to Salem.

Steele, who is a Scandinavian and whose real name is Roy Anderson, studied for the ministry at St. Olaf college. The athletic coach at the college was a friend of Frank Gotch and was instrumental in getting Steele started in the game.

Cantonwine took the first fall in the third round with a reverse wristlock, and the third in the fifth with a leg stopper. Ray took the second in the fourth round with an arm scissors and bar.

Ray McCarroll of La Grande slammed Jack Woods of Halfway so hard in the second round that Woods was unable to continue.

This Game of GOLF

By O.B. KEELER

Sometimes I fancy vaguely that my own sex is not so much less susceptible to alterations of sartorial fashions than the eternally temporary feminine, who boasts that she is forever emancipated from long and clinging garments and effects abbreviated skirts not because they show her knees but because they are "sensible." She sticks to this emancipation until—well, until the dresses begin stretching in Paris and stretch all the way across the Atlantic.

The brave homines, now—they think for themselves. At this writing they are thinking that "slacks," so called, are cooler and more comfortable than plus-fours, when the weather is warm, as it indubitably was at the Ryder Cup matches in Columbus, and the National open at Inverness.

MR. AMERICA

The brave but not specially sapient homines did not discover the superior comfort of slacks five or ten years ago, when the old-fashioned type with funny legs were in a class by themselves, wearing long breeches. Plus-fours then were the only sensible and comfortable garments, except when your legs were funny.

Johnny Farrell and Sir Walter Hagen, in their annual dressing competitions for the thousand dollar prize and the title of Mr. America, appeared in all sorts of ravishing schemes of matched hose and ties and pullovers, to say nothing of hair and eyes. But no slacks. Plus-fours of purest wool were cool enough for Mr. America.

At the Scitoto country club, Sir Walter and Johnny, on the Ryder Cup team, had made the "great discovery" that slacks were so much more comfortable. Most of the Britons, who always had gone in for comfort, stuck to the old plus-fours. Most of the other Americans did, also. But watch what the tired business man will be wearing later in the summer. Watch the colleagues—they like things like slacks, anyway.

THE NAUTICAL IDEA

Not so many years ago, some upheaval of masculine fashion got sailor pants adopted, with nothing else of a seafaring kit—one of the most grotesque styles that ever gave a narrow-shouldered counter-jumper and upside-down effect. It was worse, if possible, than the padded shoulders now coming back again—probably because they are so much cooler than plain ones.

Hun-ho! I saw a "Noble Experiment" in—or rather on—the person of Rex Hartley, English collegiate of 1926, who made a giant but unsuccessful effort at the British amateur championship at Muirfield to introduce "Oxford bags" as a golfing costume—pants just a yard around at the bottom of each leg. What the special recommendation was for this divided skirt I do not remember. But it was a little too "nautical." It never got much farther than Mr. Hartley.

Slacks, now are not so bad, but they certainly are not more sensible golfing apparel, especially when the wind blows.

PHOENIX KNOCKS OFF DES JEANS' MONOCLE

New York (AP)—Desmond Jeans, English actor who deserted the stage for the prize ring, climbed into his first American boxing arena wearing a monocle Monday night, but wasn't wearing it when he was carried out.

Jack Phoenix of New York, in the seventh round, after Jeans had piled up a slight margin, knocked the Englishman out with a series of hard punches to the head.

STAYTON WILDCATS LOSE SUNDAY GAME

Stayton—The heretofore undefeated Stayton "Wildcats" finally met their match here Sunday, when they were defeated by the Sublimity team by a score of 17 to 10. This defeat eliminated the "Wildcats" from the right to play Central Howell for the championship of their league. Battery for Stayton was Thoma, pitcher, and Cauthern, catcher, and for Sublimity, Minten, catcher and Zuber, pitcher.

BIG GATE IS IN PROSPECT FOR HEAVY BATTLE

New York (AP)—Close to $200,000 worth of customers, the promoters hope, will pile into Ebbets Field Wednesday night for the 15 round heavyweight battle between Mickey Walker and Jack Sharkey.

If the gate really gets up to that figure—and advance indications are that it will—Jimmy Johnston and the Hearst milk fund can point with approval to Walker as the chief contributing cause.

Most of the ballyhoo has been built around the 30 year old Mickey who has won two world's titles in his long career and now aspires to a third. Always a popular fighter in this district, the Rumson bulldog's apparently unequal struggle against a foe of vast physical superiority has caught the public's fancy. Much of Sharkey's drawing power in the past has been based on the folk's populace's hope that he would be beaten.

It probably will be the same Wednesday night. Certainly Walker, who must give away inches in height and reach and about 30 pounds in weight, will be the sentimental favorite although expert opinion concedes him only an outside chance of beating the Burly Boston salter.

Both fighters have wound up their training grind in excellent condition. Walker, the one-time welterweight and middleweight champion, seldom has taken training very seriously but he has worked out faithfully for the Sharkey bout, probably the most important of his career. Walker and his astute manager, Jack Kearns, think the heavyweight crown can be won but Sharkey must be blasted out of the way if Mickey is to realize his ambition. Sharkey is a 2 to 1 favorite.

HARRISBURG, PA. (AP)—WILD TURKEYS

almost an extinct species of Pennsylvania woods 10 years ago, are increasing in number, the state game commission reported. Six hundred young turkeys were hatched at game farms this summer. Birds released last fall are raising flocks.

Hack Wilson Again Sent Back to Bench

Chicago, (AP)—Another shift in the Chicago Cub's outfield has benched Hack Wilson, major league home run leader last year, for the third time this season. Wilson's batting slump has caused Manager Rogers Hornsby to shift Kiki Cuyler to center field, and put Vincent Barton, Los Angeles rookie in right field, with Danny Taylor in left field.

BEAVERS TRY TO BEAT BACK TO LEAGUE TOP

By JAMES S. SHEEHY
(United Press Sports Writer)

Portland will make a determined effort in a three weeks home stand to drive back to the leadership of the Pacific coast league.

Manager Spencer Abbott's team will open in Portland Tuesday against Hollywood, first half winners. The Beavers were playing fine baseball when directors voted a split season. Since then the Angels and Oaks have taken them in successive series.

A faltering pitching staff has crippled Portland. "Junk" Walters, and Bill Posedel have been unamiable for three series. Kinnear Graf, Bill Shores and Gorham Leverett have been added. They have had only passing success so far.

The rampaging Indians of Seattle will open a home stand against the Missions. The Indians are tied with Oakland and San Francisco for first place with 7 wins and 5 losses.

Los Angeles will entertain Oakland at Wrigley Field, starting Tuesday.

The re-awakened San Francisco team will open against Sacramento at the Seal's stadium.

By HERBERT W. PARKER
(Associated Press Sport Writer)

Those signs of contentment you hear from St. Louis and Philadelphia probably are emitted by Gabby Street and Connie Mack, managerial rivals of the 1930 world series.

You needn't bet on it unless you feel so inclined but it looks suspiciously as though Street's Cardinals and Mack's Athletics, again will square off in the October classic. For the Cardinals now lead the National league parade by six games while the Athletics have a seven-game margin over their nearest American league rival.

Most of Monday's action was concentrated in the American league, the A's setting the pace for the rest with a 12-7 triumph over the Chicago White Sox for their seventh victory in a row.

Hank McDonald started off for the champions but decided to call it a day after the first inning when the Sox scored six runs. Roy Mahaffey came in and held Donie Bush's crew to four hits and one run for the last eight innings while the A's slugged four Chicago pitchers for 18 hits to tie the score in the second inning and win out easily in the later innings. The White Sox were soundly beaten but they had the satisfaction of engineering a triple steal in the opening frame while McDonald was winding up, much to young Hank's embarrassment. Jimmy Foxx hit his 19th homer for the A's.

The Washington Senators kept step with the champions by beating the Detroit Tigers, 7-3, for their fifth straight win.

The New York Yankees made it three in a row over the St. Louis Browns, winning 8-5.

Clint Brown held the Boston Red Sox to four hits, two in the first inning, as the Cleveland Indians smashed out 14 hits to win 9-2.

The Chicago Cubs beat Brooklyn 1-0, in the only National league game of the day.

Willamina Local Teams Win Games

Willamina—Local teams took both baseball games of the double bill here Sunday afternoon. An unusually large crowd of fans was present.

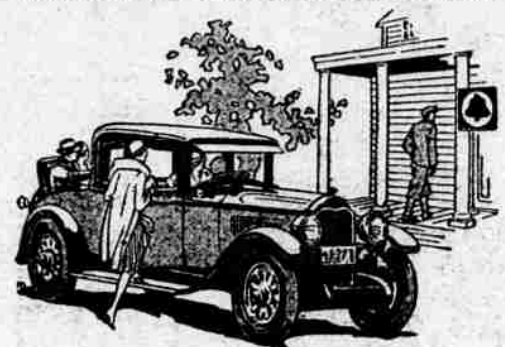

The first game was a contest between the Willamina and Sheridan business men. Willamina took the lead in the second inning, when two runs were made and Sheridan still held a goose egg. In the third, five more runs were added by the locals, with the visitors' score sheet still blank. Then suddenly in the fourth frame the Sheridan merchants seemed to wake up, annexing a home run, and three other scores. There the final score rested, Willamina 7, Sheridan 4.

The main game of the afternoon was between Grand Island and Willamina town teams, the score being 10 to 8 in favor of Willamina. At a previous game played here this season, the local team lost to Grand Island.
