

News OF THE Day IN Pictures

VANDERBILT HEIRESS AND FIANCE

Associated Press Photo

Mrs. Muriel Vanderbilt Church and her fiancé, Henry D. Phelps, Providence, R. I., bond salesman, shown together when they attended the tennis championships at the Agawam Hunt club, Providence. They will be married the first week in September at the Manhasset, N. Y., home of Mrs. Church's mother, Mrs. Graham Fair Vanderbilt.

THE 'TOY BULLDOG'

MICKEY WALKER

Associated Press Photo

Mickey Walker, the "toy bulldog" who abandoned his middleweight title to enter the heavyweight ranks, meets Jack Sharkey of Boston at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, July 22.

THE 'BOSTON GOB'

JACK SHARKEY

Associated Press Photo

Jack Sharkey, of Boston, one of the nation's leading heavyweights, who meets Mickey Walker at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, July 22.

CONGRATULATING A CHAMPION

Associated Press Photo

Alfred E. Smith, former governor of New York, was one of the crowd congratulating Helene Madison, Seattle swimming star, for her victories in the one mile and 100-meter free style events in the outdoor national A. U. women's swimming championships at Bronx Beach, N. Y. While winning the mile race Miss Madison broke the world mark for 1,500 meters by more than 27 seconds.

Boy Admits Slaying

Associated Press Photo

Verner Cory, 16 (above), Chicago schoolboy, confessed he shot Policeman Edward Smith to death when the officer "surprised" the lad and two of his chums as they swam in a high school pool.

For President

Associated Press Photo

Joseph I. Franco, former Maryland senator, announced himself a candidate for the republican nomination for president of the United States on an anti-prohibition platform.

For Prison Post

Associated Press Photo

John W. Snook, former warden of the federal penitentiary in Atlanta, Ga., may be appointed warden of Clinton prison, Dannemora, N. Y.

YOUTH CLAIMS HE WAS SET AFIRE

Associated Press Photo

A plot to collect insurance on himself and his house in the Bronx, New York, was the theory police held for hunting for Luigi Raffa, in connection with the serious burning of Spencer Fox of Syracuse, N. Y. The victim related a story of having been lured to the cottage, drugged and set afire in bed. Officer shows where Fox was burned.

Held in Killing

Associated Press Photo

Charles Peter of Salt Lake City, Utah, was charged with murder of Mrs. Dorothy Mooremeister in that city a year ago.

Won Derby Fortune Has Winning Habit

Associated Press Photo

Joseph Kennedy, 32, Boston negro who holds a $12 a week job, won $154,000 as the only American holder of one of the lucky tickets on Cameronian, winner of the English derby.

Associated Press Photo

Fred Ward, Millrose A. C. distance runner from New York, won the annual Los Angeles marathon a few days after capturing a similar race in Houston, Tex.

Sues Film Company

Associated Press Photo

Edith Higgins, former stenographer, filed suit against Warner Brothers-First National studios for $150,000 alleging false arrest and imprisonment. She had been charged with conspiracy to steal a scenario.

Fears For Life

Associated Press Photo

Mike Schindler, associate of Herbert Spencer, slain Los Angeles newspaper man, went to the county jail for protection, fearing he would with seven speed trophies she won.

Home With Trophies

Associated Press Photo

Lovette Turnbull, 18, of Monrovia, Cal., has returned from Italy with seven outboard motorboat trophies she won.

FORMER TEACHER WINS HEART BALM

Associated Press Photo

Irvyl Barker, (right) one time Seattle, Wash., school teacher was awarded $175,000 in a breach of promise suit brought against Rose Brown (left) of Seattle and Tacoma. She asked $500,000.

President Married

Associated Press Photo

President Gaston Doumergue of France ended 65 years of bachelorhood when he was married in Paris to Mme. J. Graves.

Carries Badge

Associated Press Photo

Mary Drew, 21, has been appointed a deputy sheriff of King county, Wash. Her work will be clerical.

Spanish Ambassador

Associated Press Photo

The first ambassador to Washington of the second Spanish republic will be Salvador de Madariaga, writer and scholar and former league of nations official.

WOMAN EXHORTS MILL STRIKERS

Associated Press Photo

Ann Burlak, woman labor leader, is shown addressing Central Falls, R. I., textile strikers. She was arrested for her activities and later freed on bond and is shown here after returning to take command of the strike activities. Labor disorders have resulted in frequent clashes between strikers and police.

Rockne's Successor

Associated Press Photo

Heartily "Hunk" Anderson, appointed "senior" football coach at Notre Dame to succeed the late Knute Rockne.

Spanish Air Beauty

Associated Press Photo

Genorita Purita Lopez of Madrid, Spain, was given the title "Miss Aero" for 1931 in a recent contest at the Madrid aerodrome.

KNOW HIM? HE'S THE WATKINS BABY

Associated Press Photo

Probably you wouldn't recognize him, but he was much in the news a year ago. His name is Charles Watkins and he was one of the principals in the Watkins-Gamberger baby mixup at Chicago. Now he is a year old and his parents are certain he's their child. He is shown here as he visited in Conshohocken, Pa.

Associated Press Photo

Macdonald Smith, veteran New York pro, turned in a sensational 70-71-143 to lead the field in the 35-hole qualifying rounds for the British Open at Carnoustie, Scotland. He smashed the course record.

Seriously Ill

Associated Press Photo

David Starr Jordan, president emeritus of Stanford university, California, is seriously ill at his home on the university campus.