Anniversary Celebrated By Dinner

Complimenting Dr. George R. Vehr on his birthday anniversary, Mrs. Vehr entertained with a smartly informal dinner and evening of bridge at their home Monday night.

Pastel shaded flowers combined with pink and green tapers centered the dining table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. McCullough and Dr. and Mrs. V. H. McEhehr.

Miss Esther Vehr assisted her mother in serving.

Prizes for the three tables of cards in play later in the evening went to Mr. and Mrs. Myers. Second prizes were presented Mrs. Nicholson and Mr. Worth.

Many Out-of-Town Guests Here Sunday

More than 150 people called at the Thielsen home on Court street Sunday afternoon and evening to present their felicitations to Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen on her 80th birthday anniversary. The informal "at home" was a charming and most enjoyable event, with many of the elder generation greeting former acquaintances from out-of-town who motored to Salem for the afternoon.

Among guests from Portland who called at the Thielsen home were Dr. and Mrs. P. E. Smith, Mrs. Alice J. Conaway, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Herman, Sam J. Young, Miss Louise J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Burns, Mrs. W. B. Bretherton, Miss Vivian Bretherton, Wells Bretherton, Mrs. L. L. McArthur, Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Crumpacker, Mrs. T. G. Halsey, Miss Elizabeth Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simonton, Roy Bishop and Clarence Bishop.

Among other out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. B. Dusen, Mrs. Walter Eakin and Mrs. Fred Fulton, all from Astoria; Mrs. Lillian R. Gray, Arthur Boardman and Miss Nancy Thielsen, all from Eugene; Mrs. John K. Simonton of Silverton, Mrs. G. I. Putnam of Shaw and Miss Barbara Gearhart of Seattle, Wash.

Family Gathering Honors Mrs. Sheridan

Sunnyside—Mrs. Louis Sheridan of Buseman, Mont. was the inspiration of a large family gathering Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pearson in Sunnyside.

Mrs. Sheridan has not been in Oregon for five years. She is in winter she has spent in California for her health, and she is now on her way home to Montana.

Members of the family present during the day were three sisters and one brother and their families: Mrs. Alice E. Newby of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bates and grandchildren of Roseville, Mr. and Mrs. Orie Fowler and children of Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Pearson and children Ernest and Edith.

Other relatives were Mr. and Mrs. William Boulton and daughters of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Hurl Pearson and children, Zona, Shirl Pearson and Glenn of Salem, Shurl Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Newby and children, Delbert and Lila of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Pearson and son Deward, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crozier and daughter Eloise and her girl friend of Newberg, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bates and daughter Barbara Ellen of Salem, Mrs. Clara Blair and two sons Romeo and Muriel of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pearson, Mrs. Ellis McMellin and daughter Bethel of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Pruitt.

At noon a large table was set on the front porch, where dinner was served.

Clowderdale—Mrs. D. Simpson entertained members and friends of the Pleasant View Women's Christian Temperance Union at her home on South 23rd street in Salem, with an attendance of nearly 25. A profusion of late summer flowers decorated the rooms, and dining table where a luncheon was served. A short business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. John Luke, presiding, and the remainder of the day was spent in the social time. Three members of the Salem W. C. T. U., Mrs. Ransom, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Layman, were special guests of the group and gave interesting talks.

Members and visitors from the local union were Mrs. Cooley, Mrs. Albert Hennies, Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. John Luke, Mrs. J. C. Morris, Mrs. Ed Schilling, Mrs. John McKinney, Mrs. William Farr, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., Mrs. John Schilling, Mrs. Charles Standley, Mrs. L. E. Hennies, Mrs. A. E. Kunke and daughter, Joyce, Miss Gertrude Anderson, Miss Leone Cook, Mrs. W. Morris, Mrs. Johanna Pifflet, Miss Palma Fillet of Chemsawa, and the hostess, Mrs. Simpson, a former resident of this district and a member of the Pleasant View union.

A no-host picnic dinner will entertain members of the Salem writers' section Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford on Ferry street. The regular program of original writings will follow.

Turner—Friends here are interested in the wedding of Miss Mildred Schelton to Samuel L. Stout which was solemnized in Canada July 7. The groom resided in Turner for a number of years and is the son of I. M. Stout, who with his family made Turner a residence previous to moving to Hubbard, and later to Canada. Miss Sarah E. Stout of Portland, eldest daughter of I. M. Stout is the only member of the family not residing in Canada.

ACTRESS A SOCIETY BRIDE

When Irene Delroy, stage and screen actress, and William L. Austin, Jr., real estate operator and member of a socially prominent Philadelphia family, were married in a New York hotel, it was Mayor Jimmy Walker (center) who officiated. Austin is the son of a former president of the Baldwin locomotive works.

Book and Thimble Club Picnic Saturday

Kingwood—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Cook were hosts to the members of the Book and Thimble club and their families at their attractive suburban home on Cascade drive Saturday night.

A pot-luck dinner was served on the spacious veranda and games enjoyed on the lawn.

Those participating in the picnic included Mr. and Mrs. Ross Dammrell, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Mrs. Ray Ferguson, Mrs. Hettie Simpkins, Mrs. Avery Applewhite, Miss Mary St. Pierre, Miss Catharine Applewhite, John Ferguson, Allen Dammrell, George Rose and Helen May Cook, Harry Dammrell and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Cook.

Miss Margaret Alkens of Council Bluffs, Ia., has arrived in Salem for an extended visit at the home of Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ullman, 1730 North Capitol, have had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Schlegel of Quincy, Calif., where he is principal of the high school. Mrs. Schlegel was formerly Miss Edna Warden, and was employed by the state industrial accident commission. The Ullman family left Monday for Rockaway and Seaside beaches for their vacation. The Schlegels may join them later.

Mehama—Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Hawley and children of Salem were Sunday visitors at the Floyd Boyington home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maulding of Portland were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ida Babcock and Miss Grace Babcock. Mrs. Maulding is a daughter of Mrs. Babcock.

Newspaper Folk To Picnic Next Sunday

The annual summer picnic of the Salem Women's Press club will be held Sunday, with local newspaper employees and their families spending the day at Riverdale park. A basket dinner will be served at noon, and an informal program of sports is being planned.

In charge of arrangements for the picnic are Mrs. Don Upjohn, Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck and Mrs. Clayton V. Bernhard.

Informal Picnic For Younger Set

Interesting events appropriate to the season are the many informal picnics which are so popular among the capital city social sets at the present time. One of the most enjoyable picnics planned this week is that arranged by a group of young maids of the high school and college set, who will meet at Riverdale park Tuesday evening for a no-host picnic dinner and swimming party.

Those motoring out to Riverdale for the evening will include Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Beulah Bailey, Miss Margaret Burdett, Miss Phyllis Day, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Margaret Engel, Miss Hazel Johnson, Miss Dorothea Corey, Miss Ruth Briedwell, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Isobel George, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Cynthia Delano, Miss Claudine Gueffroy, Miss Lorraine Kinzer, Miss Viola Crozier, Miss Roberta Smith, Miss Betty Read and Miss Esther Wood.

Stolk-Cook Nuptials Friday at Clear Lake

Clear Lake—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Benson, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, Friday, July 17, when Elizabeth Cook Stolk became the bride of William Stolk, a resident of this community.

The bride was dressed in orchid chiffon and carried a bouquet of peonies.

The couple was attended by Lillian Kayser, as maid of honor and Stolk graduated from the Salem high school in 1933 and Mr. Stolk in 1928.

The ring ceremony was read by Rev. D. J. Howe of the First Christian church, Salem.

After the ceremony a lunch was served and the young couple left at once for Crater Lake where they will enjoy a week's outing. They will be home to their many friends in Salem after August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Stolk, McGilchrist, Ella Pandrick, Esther Pandrick, Troy Cook, Wayne Cook, Mrs. Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Schilling, Mr. and Mrs. Remus Varchagen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Priem and daughter, Irene, M. and Miss Peters, Mrs. Rowland, George Koover, Lillian Kayser, Henry Stolk, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stolk and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Benson and family, Pearl Williams.

Donald—The marriage of Miss Florence Long and Walter Sample, of Salem, took place Saturday evening at the home of Rev. Erb who officiated, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Long and James Long, Mr. and Mrs. Sample will reside at Salem.

A number of friends gathered at the Long home last Wednesday afternoon and presented Miss Long a shower of gifts for her new home.

Miss Georgia Broderick of Havre, Mont., is the house guest of Mrs. George L. Forge. She returned with the Forges on the last part of their 8000 mile motor trip which closed in Salem Sunday night. Bill Forge and Mrs. E. B. Forges accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Forge on the entire trip.

FILM ACTRESS AND HER FIANCE

Returning from a Hawaiian vacation, Dorothy Mackall, motion picture actress, introduced to friends her new fiance, Neil Miller, Honolulu sugar man. No wedding plans have been made yet they said, before leaving Los Angeles harbor for Hollywood.

Wee Folk At Birthday Party

An amusing and clever circus idea featured the birthday party given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. William J. Busick for her five-year-old daughter, Jeanne. A group of youthful friends of the small honor guest came for the afternoon of informal games on the lawn about the Busick home. Balloons and clever favors entertained the group.

At the tea hour, refreshments were served at one long table where decorated and novel animals made from vegetables and fruits continued the circus idea.

Mrs. Busick was assisted during the afternoon by her young niece, Betty Howe of Portland, and by Mrs. H. V. Compton and daughter, Barbara.

Guests hidden in compliment to little Miss Busick were Stuart Compton, Evan Boise, Billy Poorman, Miriam Becke, Sara An Ohling, Wallace Bonesteel, Robert Busick, Sally Ann Barr, George and Mary Ann Croisan, Janet Kirk, Ernest Thom, Caroline Bates, Richard Page, Ronald Jones, Phyllis Newmeyer, Roger Wagner, Georgia Roberts, Johnny Thompson, Billy Duncan of Silverton, Jimmy Phillips and Clayborne Gosser.
