COUNCIL FIRE ENDS MEETING OF CAMP GIRLS

Zena, Ore.—The last meeting of the Wahlamish Campfire Girls' group was held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Shepard, guardian, when a council fire was held under a big oak tree and awards of woodgatherer's rank were given ten girls and one national award, that of big hop, was given Ruth Shepard who had previously ranked woodgatherer.

Those receiving woodgatherer's rank were Alice Crawford, Elaine and June Worthington, Olive and Ila Anne Stratton, Eula and Ila Smith, Ila Marie Versteeg, Lois Wilson, and Julia Shepard. The group decided to disband because of the widely scattered membership which found transportation a serious problem in getting together. Following the council fire game and a marshmallow and wieners roast, and ice cream and cake were served.

Present for the evening were J. R. Shepard of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kime of Salem, Mildred Gorman, Mrs. V. A. Stratton, assistant guardian, A. O. Worthington, Jess Worthington, Mrs. W. A. Chute of Salem, Delta, Frank and Fred Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard, and Morris, Jim, Julia, Ruth, Arden, and Joe Shepard, Alice Crawford, Elaine and June Worthington, Olive and Ila Anne Stratton, Eula and Ila Smith, Ila Marie Versteeg and Lois Wilson.

Among those attending were: Mrs. Alice Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Terry, Mrs. Bertha Morley, Mrs. Inez Heater, Mrs. Anna Adams, Mrs. Margaret Ramsey, Mrs. Alice Egan, Mrs. Lydia Metcalf, Mrs. Maude Peele and members of the Grace family.

HAVE A COOL SWEET DRINK WHEN TIRED AND HOT

A fine way to keep cool and comfortable in summer is to drink cool drinks at the soda fountain or at home, sweetened to taste with sugar.

There is nothing like sugar to sweeten home-made drinks such as lemonade, iced tea, coffee, chocolate and fruit punches. And there is no better sugar than refined cane sugar—it is acknowledged everywhere as the standard.

Refresh yourself with a sweetened drink. The Sugar Institute.

WOODBURN AID SEES GARDENS

Woodburn—Mrs. O. W. Noyes entertained the Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon in the gardens at the Noyes home on Chestnut avenue. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. W. L. Bohn, Mrs. C. H. Duncan and Miss Molly Voorhees.

The opening devotions were led by Mrs. Nellie Muir who took the 33rd Psalm as the scripture lesson. During the business session Mrs. H. F. Butterfield presided and a preliminary discussion of the Friendly Service sale which takes place in October was held. Mrs. Henry Layman was appointed general chairman of this sale. Mrs. H. F. Orr was appointed on the flower committee and Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. M. J. Foster on the calling committee.

Mrs. Maude Mochel was in charge of the program hour which included a talk by Mrs. Myrtle Clark and a vocal solo by Mrs. Jack Hansen. Refreshments were served by the hostesses after which a pleasant hour was spent in viewing the gardens, and the many beautiful plants and shrubs.

MONMOUTH BUSINESS BLOCK THREATENED

Monmouth—The timely discovery of a roof blaze at the rear of the Monmouth hotel early Tuesday evening by two Oregon Normal school girls is probably all that saved the entire block from destruction by fire, as the buildings are wooden structures and a brisk breeze was blowing.

Presumably the fire was started by a spark from the chimney. A bucket brigade was functioning when the engine and pumper arrived.

Damage which was confined to the roof and attic was fully covered by insurance.

The large hose leading from the hydrant, parted and ejected the stream of water full force into two occupants of an open parked car, who were watching the fire.

Arteries Severed By Young Woodsman

Jefferson—Francis Gatchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gatchell, sustained a bad cut on his left arm Tuesday forenoon while he, Noel Davis and Ralph Beach were measuring wood. In some manner he was flew out of one of the boy's hands, striking Francis on the arm. Three arteries were severed and a cut five inches long was inflicted. He was brought at once to the office of the local physician and nine stitches were required to close the wound.

Tuesday to visit with other friends in Silverton.

Mehama—Several people have hiked into the huckleberry patch on Rock creek above Mill City and brought home some very fine berries. It is about an eighth of a mile hike, practically all uphill, but at the end of the climb they are rewarded with large huckleberries which are reported plentiful this year.

Labish Center—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Hayes and family returned recently from California where they visited with relatives and friends.
