

NEW OFFICERS STUDENT BODY AT JEFFERSON

Jefferson—The Jefferson school opened last Monday with 51 students enrolled in high school and 78 in the grades. Many more are expected after hop picking and prune harvest are over.

At a recent meeting of the student council the following student body officers for the coming year were elected: President, Margaret Goin; vice president, Mina Wright; reporter, Jean McKee; sergeant-at-arms, Leland Wells; yello leaders, Mildred Kolthoff and Milo Harris; editor of the high school publications, Mary Main.

A plan was made to induce the students to pay their student body dues in advance. A motion was made to see which one will have the amount of their dues first. The losing classes will be obliged to sponsor a play or entertainment of some kind before the student body.

Loel Bilyeu and Joy McCarly are returning to school to take post graduate courses.

RECITAL SPONSORED BY COLLEGE WOMEN

Albany College—A recital featuring Victor DePinto, member of the first violin section of the Portland symphony orchestra, is announced for 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, September 30, in the First Presbyterian church at Albany. The recital is sponsored by the Woman's Albany college league, and will be DePinto's introduction to the college and town. DePinto will be a member of the faculty of the Albany college school of music during the coming year. The violin recital is open to the public, and music lovers of Albany and nearby cities are invited. A program of selections from the great masters will be announced.

They expect to go to Hood River for the late apple picking and return to Rockaway for the winter. Amos expects to spend some time fishing for steelheads on the Nehalem as soon as he returns to his home.

Clear Lake—Mrs. L. J. Massey, and Mrs. V. Boyd, who were injured in an auto accident about two weeks ago, are still unable to be out and their condition was much worse than thought at first.

VALLEY SCHOOL VACATION TIME DRAWS TO CLOSE

Hayesville—At the meeting of the board of directors the opening date of the Hayesville school was definitely set for September 28. Through an error it had been announced for September 21. The school rooms are being cleaned and put in shape for the opening date. Some outside work is also contemplated by the board. Mrs. Hazel Marshall and Miss Wilma Evans will again have charge of the teaching.

Lincoln—Plans have been made to add improvements to the Lincoln schoolhouse in regard to the roof, especially that over the belfry which has been in bad condition. School will begin here September 28 with Mrs. Irene Castle of Salem, teaching. The school is quite small with an attendance last year of 12 children, and to date no new residents have entered the district who will have children to attend. School board members are Arthur Durham, chairman, T. J. Merrick, H. J. Neiger and E. E. Buckles, clerk.

Central Howell—Central Howell school will open its doors Monday, September 21, with Miss Grace Johnson as principal and teacher of the higher grades, and Miss Torhilde Straut as teacher of the primary grades. The directors have purchased over $100 worth of new school books in accordance with the new free text book law. This is the first of three installments of free text books to be purchased by the district over a period of three years. It is desired by the directors that the parents of children who have school books left from previous years, donate them to the school. If they all do this, it will practically make all books free this year, as the books purchased by the board are all new books to be used for the first time this year. It is expected that there will be about 70 pupils enrolled.

West Stayton—The teachers of the West Stayton school are busy making final preparations for opening school next Monday. A new building awaits them and the four score pupils. The teachers for the years are: L. B. McClendon, principal; Mrs. Ida G. McClendon, intermediate, and Miss Mildred Nickerson, primary. That prospective pupils meet with the teachers at the school building any time from 9 to 12 o'clock Friday morning to get lists of books needed, since school will probably be in session all day Monday. It is also urged that pupils bring any books they may have to donate to the district for reference and other purposes.

Unionvale—The Unionvale school is to start Monday, September 28 with Miss Geneva Woods of Clatskanie, Ore., principal and Miss Doris Johnson of Estacada, primary teacher. Miss Johnson taught here last year.

Zena—Miss Lillian Reynolds, who for the past three years has been teaching at the Zena school, will teach here again this year, the opening of school being Monday following state fair week. Children in the school generally number from 25 to 30. Members of the school board are Frank Crawford, chairman, Ralph Shepard, T. K. Simpson and W. D. Henry, clerk.

Dayton—The Pleasantdale school will start Monday, September 28 with Mrs. Glenn McFarlane as teacher. She has been the primary teacher for three years and the change from two to one teacher has been adopted for this year. The upper grade students will attend Dayton school.

Pioneer—The Manning school will open Monday, Mrs. Payne Halstead will teach again this year. This is her second year.

Turner—Turner high school and grade school will open Monday morning, September 21, with indications of a larger enrollment than the previous year. The office will be open Thursday afternoon and Friday of this week, and the principal, John R. Cox, has requested that all students in doubt as to their standing, or those that wish to carry more subjects than the allowed number, to call at the office on these two days.

The building is being put in order and everything is in preparation for the new year. Two school buses will again be operated, traveling over practically the same routes as last year. Besides a number of outside high school students planning to enroll, grade pupils will be transported from three districts, Summit Hill, Battle Creek and Pleasant View.

More text books are needed for the grade school, and it is urged that those having books that are not being used notify the superintendent's office and arrangements will be made to collect them.

The new law does not provide for the purchase of high school books by the district but a book exchange will be operated this year at the high school. It is hoped all students will bring books used last year which will practically eliminate the purchase of new books.

Bethel—The young people of Bethel are busy preparing for the opening of the school year.

Simpson Hamrick, Jr. is entering the freshman year at Willamette. Elsie and Eleanor Boling have begun their senior year at the Aumsville high school.

Paul Hamrick will be a junior at the Salem high school and Marie Froehlich and Viola Vandervoort are entering the sophomore year.

Zina Davis, Inabelle Creuder, Mary Hamrick and James Lauderback will enter the first year at Fairhill junior high.

The Bethel school opens Sept. 21. Mrs. Carmalite Weddle is the teacher. This will be Mrs. Weddle's fourth year at this school.

Keizer, Sept 14—The school board met Tuesday evening and decided to commence school September 21, although the teachers will meet the children Friday morning to secure the book list. The children are asked to bring all their used books they are willing to give to the school.

IMPROVED METHOD OF ROASTING COFFEE IMPRESSES CRITICS

Controlled Roasting Creates Definitely Superior Flavor in Hills Bros. Coffee
Critical people, who search for a perfect coffee, usually come to their journey's end when they taste Hills Bros. Coffee! It has a flavor no other coffee has—a flavor none can equal! This is because of Controlled Roasting—Hills Bros.' patented process. It keeps Hills Bros. Coffee free from the unsatisfactory flavors, bulk methods. As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow... a little at a time... so the matchless, unvarying flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by this patented process that roasts evenly, continuously... a little at a time. Here's what happens: every berry is roasted to the right degree. None is underdone, none is overdone. As a result, Hills Bros. Coffee has the perfect flavor that never varies! Drink Hills Bros. today. You'll delight in its savory flavor. And that flavor is always the same—it never varies! Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum cans. Air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed and kept out of these cans. Ordinary, "air-tight" cans won't keep coffee fresh. But Hills Bros. Coffee is always fresh! Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can. Hills Bros. Coffee, Inc., Portland, Oregon. © 1931
