

CLUBS LAUNCH FALL PROGRAM AT MONMOUTH

Monmouth—With the summer vacation nearly over, the various local clubs and societies begin to resume activities in earnest.

The preliminary meeting of the Social Hour club will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Cole.

Members of the missionary society of the Christian church will meet Friday at the rural home of Mrs. James Riddell. A Christmas box will be packed to send to the missionary family in Tibet. The family consists of the minister, his wife, two children and two native children.

The Home Economics club of the grange will meet with Mrs. U. O. Hefner Friday.

The first meeting of the season of the Eastern Star will be held in Independence September 22. A miscellaneous lunch will be served.

WILLAMINA SCHOOL ENROLLMENT GAINS

Willamina—Paul Fundman, Rant Neely and K. E. Shetterly, representing the Willamina chamber of commerce, and A. J. Bewley and Henry Smith of Sheridan met by appointment with the county court at McMinnville Friday afternoon to discuss the proposed short-cut from Nostara Valley to the valleys east of the coast range—the Coast creek-Blaire road.

The delegates found the court in a very receptive mood. They recognized the need for the road, and its practicability from the road-builders' viewpoint, and promised that it would be built as soon as funds were available. It is possible that some work may be done on it this winter.

Chiropractor Will Preach at Dallas

Dallas—Dr. P. T. Carnes, local chiropractor, will occupy the pulpit at the Christian church at the morning service Sunday. His sermon will be based on the topic "The World's Greatest Need." The soloist at the morning service will be Mrs. Ann Dandell. The Rev. K. E. Burke will preach at the evening service on the topic "Believing Therefore I Speak." Special music will be featured with Harold Wicraft leading the song service. The attendance at the Bible school shows a distinct increase last Sunday and with harvest days almost over, it is fully expected that further gains will be registered.

Choir at Molalla Has First Meeting

Molalla—The choir of the Methodist Episcopal church met Wednesday night for the first time this season. Under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Bowlin they are planning a busy season. They practiced hymns and an anthem. Mrs. S. A. Knapp is the organist. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Steiner, Alfred Steiner, Lora Ramsay, Opal Foglesong, Cleo Foglesong, J. L. Tubbs, Henry Wolfer, Laurence Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Bowlin, Rev. C. M. Brown, Mrs. Knapp.

School Is Opened

Scotts Mills—The Crooked Finger school began the first of the week. Fourteen pupils have been enrolled so far. Only six grades are being taught, the first and second not being represented.

OLD FRIENDS VISIT
Hopmore—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Armstrong of San Diego, Calif., are visiting at the Walt Lander home. Lander and Armstrong are old time friends who have not met for 22 years.

RETURNING TO CAMPUS

Hopmore—Homer Gouley, Jr., has spent his three months' vacation, assisting his father in the management of the Gouley farm. The gathering of their hop crop finished Tuesday and on Saturday he goes back to the University of Oregon at Eugene, to spend his second year at school. A guest at the Gouley home Sunday was Miss Margaret Wilson of Salem.

PAVING CREW BUSY

Gervais—The country road paving crew has been hard at work on the corners known as the Muth and Tournal corners between Gervais and St. Louis.

WOMERS TO MOVE
Arliss—Mr. and Mrs. Rex Womer are leaving the Claire Saxtons farm to move on Mrs. Womer's home place. Womers sold their surplus equipment at a public auction held at the Staats place Saturday.

Hayeville—Miss June Oudeans

Hayeville—Miss June Oudeans has returned to her home, after spending the summer months visiting relatives in Kelso, Wash. Her sister, Mrs. E. U. Day and little June home and will spend a few days at the John Oudean home.

Gates—Royal Johnson has been ill for the past two weeks with a severe case of tonsillitis. He had just entered high school as a freshman. He expects to be back in school by Monday.

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brown of Lyons, parents of Mrs. Earl Phillips, are helping at the Phillips home and at the confectionery during the absence of the proprietors, who are fishing at Marion lake.

Dayton—Mrs. Frank Hole entertained the Past Matrons' club of Electa chapter No. 29 at the first meeting following the summer vacation at her home in Dayton Tuesday afternoon. Twelve members and one guest, Mrs. Mary Deery were present.

Mrs. George Webster assisted her mother, Mrs. Hole, in serving refreshment during the social hour at the close of the business session. The next monthly meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Andrina Matches.

FOUR KILLED IN FALL OF AIR TRANSPORT PLANE

Pilot Ray Bouderaux (inset) and three passengers met death when a Pacific Air Transport plane bound for Seattle from Oakland fell into San Francisco bay. It was only the third accident involving passengers in four million miles of flying. Above view shows Ed Schroeder (left) and Al Dyer recovering the mail.

SILVERTON LEGION WOMEN WILL INSTALL

Silverton—A pot luck supper is planned by the auxiliary of the American Legion to be held at 7 o'clock next Monday night with Mrs. Del Barber in charge.

At the meeting the many committees will read their annual reports and the following officers will be installed:

President, Mrs. Ethel Wilson of Silverton; first vice president, Mrs. Glen Kirkwood of Molalla; second vice president, Mrs. Eva Humphries; secretary, Mrs. William Grauer; and treasurer, Mrs. Trixie Heidenstrom.

Annabelle Bennett Birthday Hostess

Lalish Center—Miss Annabelle Bennett was honored with a birthday party given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bennett in honor of her tenth birthday anniversary. Games were played and luncheon served. The Misses Annabelle Bennett, Jessie and Myrtle Page, Bertha Barra, Virginia Miller, Lorena Isham and Leslie Klampe, Clyde Boehm, Berttram Jefferson, Donald Garbarino, Bruno LaRosa, and Gerald Bennett.

Colleges Calling

Jefferson—Elizabeth Looney, Jean Smith and Elizabeth Apperlie, will enter O. S. C. at Corvallis Monday. Miss Looney, who is a sophomore, will major in music. Miss Smith has attended Willamette university at Salem for two years and will enter as a junior, majoring in home economics. Miss Apperlie, as a freshman, will take commerce. Miss Lorene Hart will also return and resume her course in commerce.

JONES LEAVE HOPMERE

Hopmore—Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jones and children, Jean and Charles, left Friday to make their home in Hillsboro, where Mr. Jones has a position as teacher in the junior high school. Jones is only 22 years old and has taught school for four years after graduation, in district No. 22, Pingle school. This year he graduated from Monmouth, and got a life certificate.

HORSE DROPS DEAD

Wacanda—Charles M. Hall, farmer of Mission Bottom, lost a valuable horse this week. He was hauling wood when the animal balked, reared up and fell over dead.

VISITING FROM KANSAS

Woodburn—Mrs. H. W. Grass, Jr. (Mabel Bitney) of LaCrosse, Kans., arrived Tuesday for an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bitney.

OLD FRIENDS VISIT
Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cross of Tacoma, Wash., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Pease Wednesday. Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Pease were old schoolmates in Hull, Iowa. Twenty years ago Mrs. Cross visited at the Pease home here.

PLAS MUCH BETTER

Scotts Mills—John Plas, who has been suffering infection in his jaw, is much improved. Mr. Plas had to have it lanced and it was necessary for him to spend the following night in the hospital.

JACKS ON OUTING
Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jack and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Morley left Friday morning in the Jack car for eastern Oregon, where they will spend two weeks hunting and fishing.

Brooks—Mrs. Helen Sargent

Brooks—Mrs. Helen Sargent returned from Brownsville Thursday, where she was called last week on account of the serious illness of Mr. Miller, who is reported to be a little better at this writing. He suffered a heart attack.

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Legard and son, Dennis, will move from their present location in the Fred Rhoff house on Grant street to the Ed Johnson of Portland house on Pine street in a few days.

Scio—Mrs. Christine Soukup has returned to her home at Edmonds, Wash., after assisting for some time in the care of her mother, Mrs. Anna Sticha, who has been seriously ill for some time. Her condition at this time offers little encouragement, it is stated. She is nearly 80 years of age.

Teasel Creek Club Guest at Sawtells

Molalla—The Teasel Creek Jolly club held its meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Sawtell.

A lunch was served to Mrs. Zeb Bowman, Mrs. Orval Russell, Mrs. Elton Newman, Mrs. A. H. Newman, Mrs. Maurice Gottwald, Mrs. Phil Steiner, Mrs. Hugh Perry of Carus, and the hostess, Mrs. Sawtell. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Phil Steiner.

WILLAMINA SEEKING WINTER ROAD WORK

Willamina—Willamina schools started off Monday with an enrollment of 142 pupils, of whom 68 were in high school. Last year's enrollment the first week in the high school was 61. Enough more are expected to enter in the next week or two to bring the number to 75. There are now 22 in the new freshman class and the senior class numbers 14 with more coming.

Sawmill Loss High

Molalla—The S. L. and S. Lumber company mill which burned Sunday at Donna on the Mohawk River 12 miles east of Eugene, was owned by Fred and Dave Sandgren and Leo Lundman. The Sandgren brothers formerly owned a mill in Molalla. Mrs. Fred Sandgren and Mrs. Dave Sandgren are local girls. The loss of the mill was estimated at $9000 with no insurance. The lumber was valued at nearly $2500 and a house belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Lundman was valued at $1000.

RETURN TO SCIO

Scio—Eld Baschweid and family, recently returned from three years' residence in California, expect soon to move to their farm a short distance north of Scio. The place is now occupied under lease by Elmer Linbeck.

SHEPHERD IS BACK
Gates—Paul Shepherd, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Shepherd is at home for an indefinite stay. He has been employed at Klamath Falls the past few years.

SMITH IS STRICKEN

Jefferson—B. B. Smith suffered a sudden attack of illness Thursday morning at the Thillessen and Grenz hop yard, where he has been employed. He was taken to his home on Second street and is reported to be slightly improved.

PIONEER PAYS VISIT

Scio—Mrs. Phoebe Turner of Crabtree, who was in Scio recently visiting her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Morris, and other relatives and friends, one of the few remaining pioneers of the Crabtree region. She and Mrs. Morris are the only surviving members of the John J. Crabtree family, who came to Linn county in the spring of 1846 and for whom the mountain stream and the village of Crabtree were named.

GOES TO ROSEBURG

Silverton—Mrs. J. W. Loomis, of South Water street, left Saturday for Roseburg for a month's visit with relatives. Then she will go to Hollywood, Calif., to visit her husband where she expects to spend most of the winter.

VISITS AT DAVIS HOME

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Davis entertained for Daniel Catlow, of Portland, at their farm home west of town. Catlow is quite well known here by the older residents, with his family having resided on a large farm south of the Cloverdale district schoolhouse, some thirty years ago. He noted many changes in Turner and community since he was a resident. Mrs. Catlow passed away several years ago.

BOYNTON IS HONORED
Lalish Center—Robert Boynton returned recently from an extended visit in Klamath Falls, Marshfield, California and Nevada. He visited his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Boynton of North Bend on his return home.

Suver—Robert Davis returned to his home in Salem after spending the summer working for his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Davis. Young Davis will be a junior in Salem high school this year.

INDEPENDENCE SCHOOL READY TO OPEN DOOR

Independence—Independence high school opened its doors Saturday for the registration of students in the various studies and the principal, Paul Robinson was urging all to get their registration perfected as early as possible so as to give them every advantage possible.

Classes will be called Monday, with a full corps of teachers, and a large enrollment is anticipated.

Paul E. Robinson who has served in the capacity of principal for several years, arrived Wednesday, after spending five weeks in the Veterans' hospital, recovering from a major operation. He will attend the registration of students in person.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dixon, also of the high school faculty, have taken up their residence at the A. C. Moore home.

The training school will open a week later, registration beginning at the normal school on Monday.

Teachers have not been assigned as yet in the training department, owing to the investigation in progress at this time.

BABY SURVEY WILL COVER TWO YEARS

Hubbard—Plans were completed by Miss Juanita Johnston of the Marion county department of health and Mrs. Coble de Lespinasse, secretary for the county health association, for a survey of babies born during 1929 and 1930.

Local health units assisted by other women interested in health work, will conduct the survey. In Hubbard, Mrs. Waldo F. Brown, president of the local unit, has been asked to take charge of this work. Mrs. Brown has been taking a leading part in all of the health work under the supervision of the Marion county health department, in Hubbard for the past five years.

East Side Sewing Club Entertained

Amity—The East Side Sewing club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. Dereave. The afternoon was spent in quilting for the hostess. Refreshments were served at 3 o'clock. Members present were Mrs. Lloyd Trosham, Mrs. J. E. Northway, Mrs. W. T. Weston, Mrs. Fred Walling, Mrs. Earl Tallman, Mrs. Glen Weston, Mrs. Evelyn Robinson, Mrs. Marvin Gerrard and daughter, Mrs. Edward Schaeffer, Mrs. Theodore Richter, Mrs. Elwood Cooper and daughter, Orveta May and Violet, and the hostess, Mrs. J. A. Breeding was a guest.

Enlarging Chapel

Silverton—The Larson and son funeral home is being enlarged. The chapel when completed will be 22 feet longer and will extend to the street instead of setting back as it has been. The second story will also be enlarged and used as a display room.

BACK FROM MINNESOTA

Scotts Mills—Mrs. J. E. Sauersegger and daughter, Cleo, after spending several weeks in N. Dakota and Minnesota, visiting relatives and friends, returned to their home here Thursday. Mr. Sauersegger's mother, Mrs. E. Conrade of Anamosa, N. Dakota, returned with them. She expects to make her home here. Mr. Sauersegger is proprietor of the Puritty store here.

INFANT BURNS HAND ON STOVE

Turner—Bobby Marion, 6 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brooks burned his hand painfully while playing in his box near the stove, early one morning this week. The baby reached his hand out against the stove, causing the palm of his hand to blister badly. The burn was given medical attention and is healing nicely.

HOLLYWOOD HOME OF 25c TALKIES

A Home Owned Theatre
LAST TIMES TODAY
Colombia Pictures
BUCK JONES
The DAWN TRAIL
MIRIAM SEEGAR
CHARLES MONTON
Also
Comedy, News,
"King of the World," and Cartoon
Comedy

SUNDAY — MONDAY — TUESDAY
Continuance Performance Sunday 2 to 11 p. m.
Wallace Beery's successor to "The Big House"

Grand
Last Times TODAY
Mary Pickford in KIKI
LAM TAYLOR'S Production
REGINALD DENNY
Also
Comedy
Cartoon
and Fox News

THE SECRET SIX
With WALLACE BEERY, LEWIS STONE, JOHN MACK BROWN, JEAN HARLOW and MARJORIE RAMBEAU
Also Comedy, News and Act

Gravel Contract to Albany Company

Scio—The Albany Sand & Gravel company, with a bid of 84 1/2 cents per cubic yard, was awarded the contract of filling the Sanderson ridge revetment with gravel. The estimate made by the county engineer calls for 4000 cubic yards. Five other bids were taken from 39 to 50 cents per yard.

The gravel will be taken from a bar in the Santiam river opposite the revetment in the hope that the excavation will tend to divert the current from the revetment.

SHERIDAN LEGION MEETS WITH WOMEN

Willamina—The American Legion and auxiliary met at the Legion hall in Sheridan Monday evening. The Legion elected Melvin Wilson of Grand Ronde commanding officer, and V. O. Huddleston of Willamina, vice commander.

The auxiliary installed the following officers: President, Mrs. Harriett M. Strand; vice president, Mrs. Lillian Gill; secretary, Mrs. Gertrude Crisp; treasurer, Mrs. Dessie Malo; historian, Mrs. Nell Brandt; and Mrs. Callie Heider of Sheridan, national committee woman and national installing officer presented both Mrs. Strand and the retiring president, Mrs. Reatha Bayliss, with corsages. Mrs. Bayliss was also presented a past president's pin and a fountain pen as tokens of appreciation of her work as president of the unit. After the meeting the Legion and auxiliary members held an oyster supper.

VILLAGE CARRIER EXAM IS SLATED

Independence—Several applicants have already signified their intention to take the civil service examination to fill existing and future vacancies in the postal department here. The examination will be conducted by Leslie Clemen as acting secretary of the board United States civil service examiners. United States postoffice in this city. The examination to be held October 17.

All applications for the examination must be on file in the office of the manager, 11 U. S. civil service district, 20 Postoffice Building, Portland, on or before October 2.

There is one vacancy to fill in this office, that of substitute village carrier. This vacancy occurred when Charles Dawes transferred to Beaverton.

Birthday Observed

Silverton—Mrs. Henry Williams, of the Geise addition entertained Thursday in honor of his daughter Emogene's birthday. The evening was spent with music and games after which a lunch was served by Mrs. Williams.

Entertains Girls

Gervais—Miss Betty Beck entertained 12 of the Trail Blazers, Girl Scout troupe No. 1 at her home Thursday evening. Games were played after which Betty's grandmother, Mrs. William Ailupp, served refreshments to Viola Vogt, Margaret Lejak, Maxine DeJardin, Sarah Lee, Dorothy, Mary and Ruth Ferguson, Rena Mae and Zedie Nafziger, Ione Turner and Alice Turner and the hostess, Betty Beck.

RAMPS ARE BACK

Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramp have returned home from Cutler City where they spent a week and picked buckberries. Ramps brought several gallons home with them. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp, took care of their farm while they were gone.

Gervais — Lester DeJardin

Gervais—Lester DeJardin left Thursday for Portland where he entered Columbia university as a freshman. He was a graduate of the '21 class from G. U. H.

SCHOOL HITS STRIDE EARLY

Hubbard—After the first week of school the new principal, Chester A. Ward, reports that the atmosphere of the school, both in the grades and the high school, is most commendable as both teachers and students have entered into the year's work with a good healthy stride.

The science classes are eager for their work in the new laboratory, while the central library on the second floor is in constant use. A new upper floor rest room has been added and is under supervision of a group of high school girls.

MT. ANGEL GRADE SCHOOL TO START

Mr. Angel—Mt. Angel grade school will start Monday morning in the St. Mary's school. Free text books will be provided this year to all children living in the district attending St. Mary's school. The children are asked to bring their old text books along Monday when they come to school.

The teachers are: Sister M. Andrea, O. S. B. first grade; Sister Thomas Aquinas, O. S. B. second grade; Sister M. Terese Marie double room, first and second grade; Miss Helen Kowash, third grade; Miss Rose Hasting, fourth grade; Miss Pauline Salfeld, fifth grade; Miss Helen Kerber, sixth grade; Miss Gladys McGee, seventh grade, and Miss Terese Dehler, principal, eighth grade.

Polk County Booth Planned for Fair

Dallas—The display of Polk county products at the state fair will be in the same booth as that of a year ago and Mrs. A. E. Utley of Brush College will supervise the arrangement of the exhibits as in past years. The fair board has scheduled a meeting for Monday night to discuss further plans and details relative to the booth.

Sues For Board

Dallas—Elmer E. Rake and Eida Rake have filed an order of attachment against Frank Clark in the circuit court here. They state that they furnished room and board to him from February 24 until August 1 at a reasonable value of $30.00 per month. The defendant has failed and refused to pay the amount due for above room and board, therefore the plaintiff's seek judgment in the sum of $100 and costs.

School Will Start

Lalish Center—The Lalish Center school will start Monday. Children are asked to bring their old text books and turn them in. The schoolhouse is being thoroughly cleaned and all necessary requirements for a standard school are being met.

MRS. CLEVELAND HOME

Liberty—Mrs. R. D. Cleveland and infant son have returned home from the hospital. Mrs. Cleveland's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Sheldon, of Mt. Shasta, Calif., arrived Tuesday to be with her daughter for some little time.

Scotts Mills—W. F. Geren

Scotts Mills—W. F. Geren is home from the Silverton cannery, where he has been employed since early summer. Mr. Geren says that the cannery is practically over there with the exception of a few beans.

WARNER BROS. Elsinore
LAST TIMES TODAY
Ruth Chatterton in "The Magnificent Lie"
STARTS TOMORROW

Comparable with his "DISRAELI"
A characterization that will live forever

GEORGE ARLISS
breathes the warmth of life into the character of ALEXANDER HAMILTON with
DORIS KENYON
JUNE COLLYER
DUDLEY DIGGES
MONTAGU LOVE
Direct after Portland