Lalish Center school with 58 pupils entered to date and more coming in has the largest enrollment in its history, states County Superintendent Pulkerson. The school has but one teacher and one teacher is expected to handle about 30 pupils. No such enrollment was expected when school opened up and it is thought this may dwindle down some when one harvest on the beaverdam lands is completed.

AD CLUB WILL HEAR ROBINS

Col. Raymond Robins, who is a member of the Allied Campaigners in behalf of prohibition who are starting a three-day appearance in Salem Thursday, will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the Salem Ad club Friday noon at the Gray Belle.

Colonel Robins, who is a traveler and publicist and student of economy of world reputation, will talk on business conditions.

W. S. Reed has returned to Salem after a successful deer hunt staged in Lake county.

WIDOW WILL SEE SUSPECTS

Mineola, L. L. (UP)—The attractive red-headed widow of Long Island Sound's "pirate" murder victim prepared to see her "Thursdays" two men relieved to fit descriptions she gave of the "pirates" who killed her husband, attacked her, and abandoned her baby on the yacht Penguin.

The two men are in Mineola police station here, not under arrest, but resting in cells "voluntarily of their own accord" until Mrs. Lillian Collins, the widow, attempts to identify them. Just outside the door a jailer rested during the early morning hours.

One of the two men is Timothy Quinn, released earlier in the morning by authorities after District Attorney Alexander Blue of Suffolk county questioned him, and a terse statement said Quinn would not be detained.

Quinn apparently had convinced Blue he was not the man sought in connection with the murder mystery. Blue led reporters and court hangers on to believe Quinn was not the man.

Quinn appears to be 45 years old. He is about 5 feet 9 inches tall. His hair is close cropped. His eyes are blue. He has a "madman" expression. Mrs. Collins said attacked her in a canoe. He is powerfully built, a seaman, fisherman, an expert boatman and capable of tying expertly the knots used in bundling up Collins' body before it was thrown into the sound.

BOURBONS RALLY AT WALLA WALLA

Walla Walla, Wash. (AP)—Attacks on the moratorium, watered stocks and the farm board, and a plea for governmental domination of power facilities featured an address of Senator C. D. Dill, delivered to 300 enthusiastic leaders of the rural congressional district in Washington.

Called for the purpose of strengthening the democratic organization in 12 counties of the district, the meeting disclosed that enthusiasm for party success was unprecedented. Senator Dill was the principal speaker and several joined in attacking republican policies as factors in the world-wide depression.

Gubernatorial prospects among the speakers included Charles Greengrass, Spokane prosecutor; Clarence Martin, Cheney banker, and Judge William Pemberton, Seattle lawyer. Congressional prospects heard were J. J. Edwards, of Dayton, and Col. J. J. Mitchell, Yakima.

George Starr, Seattle, state chairman, brought word from the western section that the entire state organization is more closely united than ever before.

Two mule deer, one having 12 points and the other 4, were brought to Salem Wednesday by C. C. Gabriel and Henry Finley. The animals which are among the nicest to be killed during the worst season, were taken in eastern Oregon.

The first demonstration of "freshman suit" to occur at Willamette university this fall was easily recognized when members of the faculty and students reached the campus early Thursday forenoon. The numbers of "freshman" suits were found on sidewalks and steps leading to several of the buildings. While some upper classmen declared sophomores were responsible for the paint job, others stated that they "thought the yearlings might have thought up something different."

Members of the men's and women's glee clubs of Willamette university will take part in the fall opening festivities on the downtown streets Thursday evening. They will be taken to various corners on a decorated truck where they will sing several numbers.

Women's classes at the Salem Y. M. C. A. will not be held next Wednesday, Sept. 25, due to the fact that Justice of the Peace Miller Hayden has furnished bail in the sum of $250. The case was classified as an indictable misdemeanor.

Invitations were being sent out Thursday to all teachers in the city and all those connected with educational work for the reception which will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night, October 6 under the sponsorship of the Salem Ministerial association. C. A. Rice, superintendent of public schools, Portland, will be the principal speaker. Special music will be provided.

The membership and enrollment committee of the Y. M. C. A. met Thursday noon for further consideration of plans looking toward the continuance on the rolls of all present members and the addition of several more. The work will get underway some time in October.

Miss Eula McCully of 550 North Winter street was winner of a $25 prize in a national contest sponsored by the Montgomery Ward company, it was announced at the local store. Miss McCully received her check this week. There were 32 prize winners in Oregon, the highest award in the state being $100.

James Wallace, traveling freight agent out of Portland for the Chicago & Northwestern, was a business visitor in Salem Thursday.

Alsike Clover Crop Lower This Season

Dallas.—The alsike clover seed crop of the country is smaller this year than last, according to a report just issued by the United States department of agriculture. It is expected it will be 10 to 20 percent smaller than the 1930 crop which was in turn smaller than the unusually large crop of 1929.

Prices the latter part of August were well established at the lowest level in 15 years. They averaged $10.80 a hundred as compared with $16.80 last year.

Imports during the last year fell off sharply and for the fiscal year ending June 30, amounted to $3,800, in contrast with nearly five million the year before and seven million in 1929.

The carry-over is believed to be somewhat smaller than a year ago, but at that time it was much larger than this, states the report of the department of agriculture.

NIGHT SEWING CLASS STARTS

Registration in the evening sewing classes for housewives broke all record when 28 women attended the organization session Wednesday night at the high school. Additional registrations were made by telephone. The group will be organized in three classes, two of approximately 12 members each and one special group of seven members who requested special work and will pay an extra fee for the service. Mrs. Edna L. Reid, local dressmaker, will be the instructor.

No classes will be held during fair week but the week following the first class will meet on Thursday evening, the second class on Wednesday evening and the third class on Thursday evening. The weekly sessions will be three hours for each class, the 18-hour course closing the second week in November. Fees range from $1.75 each for the two large classes to $3 for each student in the special class. All classes probably will be held in the home economics room in the high school.

The range of projects includes the making of house-dresses, tailored garments, made-over suits, coats and dresses, clothes for small children, evening gowns, lingerie, men's shirts and other garments.

Additional evening classes in sewing will be organized on demand after the present classes complete their work. Preliminary registration for the classes may be made at any time before instruction begins by calling Miss Gertrude Anderson at the Opportunity school, phone 5719, or T. T. Mackenzie, vocational director, at 6157.

Twenty dollars in cash, the grand prize for the series of six boys' and girls' color page contests sponsored by the Capital Journal, will be awarded some boy or girl at the Warner Bros. Elsinore theater in connection with the Mickey Mouse program Saturday morning. Due to the excellence of the entries, Judges have been forced to check and recheck in order that the outstanding group of six pages might be selected. Though they have been busy they promise to complete their task in time for the Saturday morning announcement.

Arlene Moffitt, 1909 North Fourth, previous prize winner, was given first place and $5 in cash for the sixth and final color page which appeared last week. Genevieve Belenger, 1269 1/2, received $3 for second prize. The other cash prizes to Dorothy Potter, 485 South Commercial; Jean Victor, 336 Oak and Evelyn Propp, 365 South Third. The prizes will be distributed at the theater Saturday morning.

1958 FOREST FIRES REPORTED IN YEAR

Portland (AP)—Only 22,800 acres of land was burned over in Oregon last year, according to figures reported by 60,500 forest acres, the forest service reported Thursday.

The largest burned over area was in the Siskiyou forest. A total of 1958 fires were reported during the year as compared to 131 in 1930.

Incendary fires increased from 85 to 113 this year. Small fires were responsible for 356 as against 295 last year. Campers caused 187 blazes as compared to 198 in 1930.

New York-Havana Hop Halted, Accident

Miami, Fla. (AP)—A broken tail skid Thursday forced Lou Reichers, aviation editor of Liberty magazine, to abandon an attempted record-breaking round-trip flight from New York to Havana.

Reichers decided to abandon the flight rather than risk a crack-up in landing at Havana. He said the tail skid was broken in taking off from New York.

The Salem police department, Chief H. H. Simpson is not going to crack down hard on all automobile drivers who are caught driving in excess of speed limits in school zones. J. Falk and Howard Owens were arrested Wednesday for the offense and Falk has been fined. Owens' case is still pending. For the protection of the school children the police recently, on instructions from the city council, had safety lanes printed at intersections near schools. The children are required to follow the lanes, but motorists also will be required to follow speed regulations rigidly.

Public installation of officers of Chameleta chapter, Order of DeMolay, will be held in the Masonic temple at 8:15 Thursday evening, with the Annual chapter of Portland bringing the installing team. William Gahlsdorf, Jr., will be installed as master controller. Special invitations have been issued to the Salem, Silverton and Dallas Masonic lodges, and to the public at large to witness the ceremonies.

SHARKEY BOUT IS POSTPONED

New York (AP)—With the Jack Sharkey - Primo Carnera fight scheduled at Ebbets Field Brooklyn, October 1 definitely postponed until October 12 and Tommy Loughran and Victorio Campolo under consideration as substitute opponents for Carnera, it appeared unlikely Thursday that the Sharkey-Carnera bout will materialize.

The postponement to October 12 was granted by the New York Athletic commission Thursday when four doctors reported that a slight swelling existed in Sharkey's left hand.

Sharkey agreed to meet Carnera on October 12 and said he would post $3,000 appearance forfeit. He later told the United Press that he was "convinced the fight will not go through."

Sharkey said he did not believe Carnera would go through with his contract. "I was just unlucky to have to be injured first," Sharkey said. "I don't think Carnera will meet me."

Leon See, Carnera's manager, said there was no possibility of Carnera withdrawing.

ZONTAS TOLD OF HORSESHOW

Ella Schultz Wilson was elected a delegate from the Salem Zonta club to the Zonta's district convention to be held here October 24 and 25, and Hazel Cook was named as alternate, the elections being held at a luncheon meeting of the women's service organization Thursday noon at the Marion. An informal discussion of convention plans followed, the special arrangements being up to the Salem group as hosts.

An invitation was sent to Caroline Davis of the Portland Zonta club to speak to the Salem members either on October 8 or 15, at her convenience, on the international Zonta convention in Cleveland, Ohio, which she attended this summer.

William Fleming, manager of the state fair horse show, spoke briefly during the luncheon. Quality and quantity of exhibits at the Oregon horse show is equal to that of any other horse show in the nation, according to Mr. Fleming. He also stated that 30 car loads of fine horses had left the show at Pomona, Calif., and would be in Salem within 72 hours. He gave intimate details of his work which is a year-around business for him.

Members present at the luncheon Thursday were Helen Pearce, Helen Louise Crosby, Aline Phillips, Hazel Cook, Barbara Barnes, Ora McInerney, Roberta Butler, Thora Boeson, Dorothy Pearce, Helen Yockey and Elizabeth Gallaher.

The club will not meet during fair week.

LESLIE TEACHERS RECEPTION FRIDAY

A reception will be held at the Leslie junior high school at 8 o'clock Friday night for the teachers at the school. The Leslie Parent-Teacher association, with Mrs. Hal E. Hoss as president, is in charge of the reception and all patrons of the school are invited.

George Hug, city school superintendent, will give the address of welcome and the response will be made by Mrs. LaMoine R. Clark, school principal. Members of the faculty and officers of the parent-teacher group will be introduced. Vocal solos will be offered by Earle Potter.

John Carkin is in charge of the program, assisted by Mrs. Carey F. Martin. The refreshment committee includes Mrs. George Granberhorst, chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Mason and Mrs. A. Engelbart. Other committee chairmen are: Mrs. David Bennett Hill, membership; Mrs. E. A. Brown, publicity; Mrs. V. R. Griegs, hospitality.

DEFECTIVE SIDEWALKS ORDERED CORRECTED

Notices have been served by City Attorney William H. Trindle on property owners or tenants in front of whose places of business defective sidewalks, or sidewalk projections, have been found in the Salem business district, with request that the defects be remedied for the safety of the public.

On instructions from the city council City Building Inspector E. C. Bushnell listed all these defects and at the council meeting Monday night Bushnell and Trindle were instructed to see that the menaces were removed.

Trindle said Thursday that notice has been served on the tenants rather than the property owner, in cases where buildings are rented or leased, to avoid the delay of ascertaining ownership which would be necessary in some cases. The tenants, of course, pass the notices on to the property owners.
