Good Evening!

Sips for Supper

By DON UPJOHN
While women are affecting the styles of the second empire, with their Eugenie hats and what have you, isn't it time for the men to keep up with their mates? We recommend a return to the old flowing beards of grandfather's time which flourished in that dazzling period.

Such a style for men would be an appropriate economy for these tight times, doing away at one fell swoop with the necessity for neckties—to say nothing of napkins and collar buttons. It might even do away, in some cases, with the need of the annoying vest.

NEW WALDORF HOTEL OPENED

New York (AP)—Ghosts of the bustling ladies and mountaineering gentlemen of the gay nineties hovered over a milling throng of guests at a preview of the new Waldorf-Astoria Wednesday evening.

10 STATES IN RELIEF WORK

Washington (AP)—Ten states have assured President Hoover that they will strive to help their own unemployed this winter.
Completion of an organization in Missouri "to care for its unemployed" was announced Thursday by President Hoover.
The president received a telegram from Governor Caulfield informing him of the set-up and said he was "glad" to announce it.
"The following states in addition to Missouri," the president said, "have indicated their ability to undertake their own problem: Indiana, Rhode Island, Michigan, Connecticut, Illinois, New York, California, West Virginia and Delaware."
Representatives of business Friday will present their own prescriptions for handling the country's vexing economic problems.
The directors of the chamber of commerce of the United States will be presented with reports from committees which since early in the year have been scrutinizing the troubles besetting industry and the country as a whole.
Establishment of a voluntary central planning board to keep employment at an even keel both through boom times and depression is understood to be an important part of the recommendations.
