

BUTTER PRICES PUZZLE TRADE; EGGS ADVANCE

Portland (UP)—The mystery of the recent advance in the price of un-graded cube butter on the Portland produce exchange while top score butter was unchanged, continues to attract attention in the trade here. Reports of what caused the advance are varied but the one chiefly told is that at a formal meeting of a brokerage firm and a distributive body, it was agreed to advance the price on un-grades 1c in the hope of forcing some nearby creameries to advance their quotations to chain stores and other large buyers.

Market for eggs continues to gain strength but considerable of the late advance in some markets of the country is reported due to speculative interest forcing fresh eggs to an artificial height to drag greater profits on storage. Local co-ops named an advance of 1c for standard and medium.

Quite less demand is showing for hens in the live chicken trade with the greatest call for medium and heavy weight stuff. Prices are firm to higher. Lights are unchanged. Springer stuff is weak.

There is a very good and unfilled call for dressed young tom turkeys but old hens and old toms are inclined to show more or less decline in price. The country appears willing to sell.

There is a somewhat better feeling in the market for country killed calves, with more sales at the top. Hogs are steady and lambs are firm.

Very weak market is reported generally for potatoes both at the source and at jobbing points. Deschutes as well as Yakima stock is now being consigned on small advances for digging expenses.

There is practically no activity in the market for onions. Primary sales are limited with growers determined to force an advance while buyers are not freely offering previous prices. Consuming demand is now limited.

With country stock being widely advertised throughout the country with the exception of Portland, there remains a very quiet tone for un-advertised Oregon-Washington stock of cranberries. Portland is consuming most of the sales.

Half carload of green broccoli is being rolled unsold east in an effort to create a market for a burdensome surplus here.

Small oranges, mostly the 28s, are up 2c case.

Carload of Pasa lettuce, first of the season, is here and is quoted mostly $2.50 crate for feed stock.

Most of the local apples sales are around 40-50c box.

Imperial valley grapefruit is due the last of the week.

Fancy quality apricots are moving fairly well $1 box. Buckleberries are dragging at recent low prices.

BAPTISM DEBATE WON KINGSLEY

A dispute between two ministers persuaded James Kingsley, condemned gunman, to read the Bible. The clergymen cooperated in convincing him that Christianity is the road to happiness. The slayer of Sam Prentiss said, but they were at odds regarding baptism.

One thought sprinkling of water sufficient, another believed total immersion necessary.

"Out of curiosity I tried to settle it by reference to the Bible, got interested and have been since," Kingsley told the United Press.

Kingsley is sentenced to hang October 30.
