Homecoming Festivities Arranged

Willamette university alumni will find a gay round of events planned for their entertainment when they return to the campus for homecoming week end. In addition to the football game and carnival Friday night and the homecoming play Saturday night, the sororities and fraternities are arranging several special events honoring former students.

Alpha Phi Alpha sorority members will entertain their graduate members with a festive supper Friday night before the game. Delta Phi members have arranged a buffet supper Saturday at the house for their alumnae, and the annual alumnae meeting will follow. An informal tea Saturday afternoon and a breakfast Sunday morning have been planned by the Beta Chi sisters for their graduates.

At the fraternities, Sigma Tau has arranged a line party at the play Saturday night and a breakfast Sunday morning. A group of Sigma Taus will be hosts at a dinner before the play. The Alpha Psi Delta house will be the scene of the annual alumnae breakfast Sunday morning. Kappa Gamma Rho has not completed arrangements for special affairs entertaining homecoming guests at the house.

The Jolly Eight club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. T. Keraton on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

Cronmiller's Hosts To Writers' Section

A varied program of verse and prose entertainments members of the Salem Arts League writers' section at their meeting Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Cronmiller as hosts to the group. The program was opened by the section leader, Mrs. P. G. Franklin, who read a poem written by Rev. Walter French of Sheridan, Wyoming, a former Salem man. Perry Prescott Reigelman read the last episode of his historical pageant. A group of exceptionally interesting verse was read by Mrs. J. M. Clifford.

Mr. Cronmiller read a prose sketch, entitled "Timber," and published in a northwestern magazine. Mrs. Jessie Singleton reviewed a chapter of a current serial being written by 13 Oregon writers. Her verse for children, recently published in a national magazine, was read by Mrs. Edna Daily. Prof. F. G. Franklin, who informally discussed the unemployment situation, also introduced J. Roderick DeSpain of Los Angeles, a former member of the section. Mr. DeSpain was on his way home from Vancouver where he attended the convention of the League of West-ern Writers, and he told of his work and experiences, including the epic poem he is writing and on which he has labored for the past two years and expects to spend a third before it is completed. He read a number of his poems.

Mrs. J. A. Jelderks assisted Mrs. Cronmiller in serving refreshments. Those present were Prof. and Mrs. P. G. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lytle, Mrs. Edna Daily, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Mrs. R. C. Paulus, Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, Perry Prescott Reigelman, J. Roderick DeSpain, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Cronmiller.

An invitation has been extended to all town women interested in Willamette university to attend the meeting of the Town and Gown club Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Lausanne hall. Mrs. W. E. Kirk will speak on her European trip and Mrs. Edith Findley will give musical numbers.

Hostesses for the club meeting will be Mrs. R. R. Hewitt, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Sidney Smith and Dean Olive Dahl.

Mrs. Roy Keene will entertain Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae at her home Thursday evening.

The young women of St. Joseph's church will sponsor a "set acquainted" party in St. Joseph's hall, corner of Chemeketa and North Winter streets on Wednesday evening, October 21, from 8 to 11 o'clock. A program of cards and dancing has been arranged and refreshments will be served. There will be a small admittance charge.

Mrs. Charles Kinzer entertained members of the P. L. E. and F. club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Her daughters, the Misses Harriet and Lorraine Kinzer, assisted her at the tea hour. Mrs. Orley Leflingwell was an additional guest. Club members present were Mesdames Lettie Hansen, Frances Greenwood, Laura Vinson, Azzell Hixson, Leola Johnson, Norma Terwilliger, Mary Pugh, Mary Marshall, and the hostess.
